MAIDING REPUBLICAN CLUB BAZAAR

"Have you ever attended the Republican Club Bazaar at 46 Beacon street?" is the question that Winchester ladies who are working on it are asking. This year they are inviting everyone to visit their tables on Wednesday, April 14th.

The bazaar opens at 10 o'clock in the morning and will close with a dinner at 6:30 in the evening.

The cashiers are headed by Mrs. William C. Cusack of 2 Lakeview road. Among her helpers are Mrs. Dunbar Shanklin of 12 Everett avenue, Mrs. Harris Richardson of 15 Mt. Pleasant street, Mrs. Forrest F. Bursley of 6 Herick street, Mrs. Charles W. Lovejoy of 40 Foxcroft road, Mrs. W. Allan Wilde of 9 Edgelynn road, Mrs. E. Ober Pride of 37 Foxcroft road, Mrs. Kingman Cass of 52 Yale street, and Mrs. Theodore Brown of 37 Caumet road.

Mrs. James P. Hopkins of 30 Forest street is chairman of the committee preparing the goods. The enormous elephant which they are making to dispense the goods will feature their table in the upper hall of the clubhouse.

Mrs. Kingman Cass is also assisting the district attorney's wife, Mrs. George E. Thompson of Melrose, at the snack bar which will serve food all day long on Bazaar Day. They are specializing in lobster salad sandwiches among other fine snacks.

The handkerchief and tie table will sell handkerchiefs which have been donated by well known persons. Last year Mrs. Grace Coolidge was among the donors and her autograph went with her handkerchief. Mrs. Warren G. Whitman of 30 Prospect street will serve on this table on April 14th.

The food table is among the most popular of all. The ladies have a great variety of food—canned goods, home-made preserves, candy, cakes, pastry, bread and rolls are found there. Mrs. Charles Tanso of 90 Forest street is to be at the food table.

Fortunes will be told, handwriting read, and pictures sketched by experts. The arrangement for these are in the hands of a committee which includes Mrs. Muriel S. Barnes of 19 Ravenscroft road.

The ladies of the Women's Republican Club of Winchester are all assisting in this great event at the Massachusetts Club and are planning to visit the clubhouse at 46 Beacon street, Boston, on the 14th of April.

Mrs. Marshall B. Pihl of Mystic Valley Parkway is working on the book table with Mrs. Harold G. Ingraham.

Every extra dollar from Winchester makes the national picture brighter.

CAR WRECKED BY GIRL LEARNING TO DRIVE

Tuesday night the Police were notified of an automobile accident at Tremont and Cedar streets. Officers Archie O'Connell and James Noonan went to investigate and found a Ford sedan, owned by William P. White of Jaquith road, Wilmington, wrecked as the result of colliding with a tree after ripping through about 50 feet of fence at the home of Mr. John T. Nelson, 20 Cedar street.

The automobile was in charge of William White, Jr., who police say was teaching a 15 year old Winchester girl to drive. The accident occurred when the girl lost control of the machine. The car had to be towed away. No injuries were reported.

MISS STINSON 40 YEARS IN TOWN EMPLOY

Miss Mabel W. Stinson, popular and efficient Town Clerk, completed 40 years in the employ of the Town of Winchester on April 1. You never would have guessed it, had you dropped in at her office yesterday, but when queried by the STAR reporter Miss Stinson admitted that it was her 40th anniversary in the town's service, she having entered the town hall first as general clerk and assistant Town Clerk April 1, 1908.

The late George Carter was Town Clerk in those days and Miss Stinson had been at her new job in his office just a week when he became ill and was away from his desk for a month. The Assistant Town Clerk had to step into the breach then and as she put it, "learn things the hard way," but she learned them, so will that there never was any loss of efficiency when in later years Mr. Carter's health made it necessary for him to be absent from his office from time to time.

Mr. Carter died April 30, 1930, and the Board of Selectmen, impressed with Miss Stinson's efficiency and cooperation, wished to appoint her Town Clerk at once, to fill Mr. Carter's unexpired term. They found that they could not so appoint her because she was a woman.

The members of the Board of Selectmen included George M. Bryce, Joseph A. Dolben, Arthur A. Kidder, James W. Blackham and William L. Parsons. They appointed Mr. Kidder temporary Town Clerk and set about the task of getting Miss Stinson into office.

They found a special act of Legislature was necessary, and with the assistance of Richard M. Coolidge of Medford, representative at that time, the act was gotten through the General Court. Miss Stinson was appointed Town Clerk June 1, 1920, the first woman to hold such office in New England.

The following year Miss Stinson had to stand for re-election. No one ran against her and in the 28 years she has served as Town Clerk none has had the temerity to oppose her. He would have been a rash man to try, for Winchester has always been very emphatically in agreement with the veteran State Secretary for Massachusetts, Frederick W. Cook, when he publicly stated that Miss Stinson is the "best town clerk in the Commonwealth."

Miss Stinson is a native of Winchester and has spent her entire life in this town, working for the J. L. Parker & Co., coal firm here and later for its successor, the Parker & Lane Company, now the Parker Lane Winn Company. It was from Parker & Lane that she entered the employ of the town.

Few of those in office at the time she entered the Town Hall are now alive. But the two now living, Charles A. Glason and Frederick Manley Ives, Mr. Ives is still in office as Cemetery Commissioner. Mr. Ives in 1908 was a member of the Board of Health. Later he served for many years as Town Moderator.

NO REFERENDA ON TOWN MEETING ACTION

Monday's deadline for referendum on action by the limited town meeting at the March session passed without any papers being filed at the town hall, and proponents of the more controversial articles can now unpress their fingers and draw the proverbial long breath.

Rumors of referenda were current all last week, particularly on the teachers' pay raise issue, Sunday sports and the proposal to reduce the size of building lots in the west side hill district. Some even went so far as to mention the name of an organization which was taking out papers in behalf of more money for the teachers.

At the town hall Mabel W. Stinson, town clerk, through all last week knew of no papers being in circulation for referenda, and those who were at the town meeting sessions could see little excuse for referenda or chance for any which might be taken to upset the action of the meeting.

Of the three controversial questions mentioned above only the teachers' pay raise issue could have been thought to have a chance if it went to a popular vote. A majority of delegates at the town meeting favored reconsideration of the reduced appropriation for the School Department, but a two-thirds vote had to be obtained to resubmit the issue to the meeting, and of course actual reconsideration might not have set aside the original vote. With the opposition voiced to mere reconsideration it is by no means likely that the larger appropriation would have passed had the meeting reconsidered it.

Of the three questions mentioned as likely to produce referenda the Sunday sports question might have produced a close popular vote. Apparently there are quite a number who do not know yet what they voted for when they voted for Sunday sports and many who apparently are opposed to them in Winchester. There was however no opposition expressed at either of the meetings considering the question which would warrant a referendum to the town, and the same is true of the proposal to reduce the west side hill lots. If those opposed to Sunday sports and favoring the reduction of the lot size could muster no more strength than was evinced at the limited town meeting, they certainly would be in a weak position in taking the issues to the entire town.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheney E. Cook (Gretchen Stone) have returned from a vacation at Palm Beach, Fla., to their home in Brookline.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY TO INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

President Roger Swanson of the Aberjona Chapter of the National Honor Society has announced that about 25 Juniors and Seniors will be admitted to membership at a ceremony before the school assembly on Friday, April 2. Swanson also named his fellow officers, who are Peter Sorokin, vice president; and Norma Bergquist, secretary. Membership in the National Honor Society is limited to 15% of those pupils who have completed seven semesters of high school and 5% of those who have completed five semesters. Qualifications for the individual are Scholarship (upper one-third of class), Character, Leadership, and Service. Although the scholastic rank of a student may be obtained readily, the other three items have to be judged by student, faculty, and faculty council vote.

WHO IS 'YOUNG APRIL'?

Apr 2-3

BIG SQUAD OUT FOR HIGH SCHOOL TRACK

With one of the largest squads in years, numbering about 80, Winchester High School's Athletic Director, Henry T. Knowlton, is busy enough these days with his new assignment as track coach. Popular "Hennie," whose football teams have very definitely put Winchester on the high school sports map, has twice previously coached track at high school, once back in the days right after his graduation from Springfield, when he was assistant to his old coach, Wendell Mansfield, at Winchester, and again during the World War II days he handled the track and field squad for a season. He competed in track at Springfield, is interested in the sport, and with his knowledge of conditioning, should do well with track on a permanent basis.

Track at Winchester hasn't been one of the bright facets of the athletic picture, not because there has not been some pretty good material available, but because those placed in charge of the sport have been either poorly versed in it or have had insufficient time to devote to it. Track takes time, patience and knowledge, but it is a sport which can pay big dividends in its general appeal, particularly to boys who for physical reasons cannot participate in more rugged games. The fact that about 80 boys have reported for track this spring indicates that student interest is not waning, and with proper direction the sport should take its place on even terms with the other athletic activities of the school.

Coach Knowlton will start the season with six letter men in Capt. Ben Coe, a good quarter miler who is a plus 5 ft. high-jumper; Ted Covert, an experienced middle distance runner; Pete Dillingham, sprinter and broad-jumper; Don Berbridge, a promising runner at 220 and 440 yards; Pete Sorokin, another 440 yarder who is out for the shot this year; and Harry Easton, one of the few hurdlers in school who also broad jumps.

Winchester is going to run the hurdles this season and Easton will be a good man to have around, for he had experience over the sticks before coming to Winchester, and showed at the State Meet last year that he can pick up plenty of points as a timber-topper with regular opportunity to practice. Dick Smith, football and basketball performer, is another who is showing promise as a hurdler.

If Coach Knowlton can develop a passable shot-putter and a high and broad jumper who can place regularly, he should do well in dual meet competition, for he has some pretty good runners to start with.

Big John West, stellar shotputter of the past two seasons, has been working with the weight men during his spring recess from Harvard, and has been showing the big boys, Jim Quine, Al Carlisle, Pete Sorokin, Milt Galucia, Charlie Capone, Mario Masello, and Pete Hutchins, some of the fine points of tossing the 12 pound ball.

Tom Morse, freshman teacher, former Melford High and North-eastern track man, is helping Coach Knowlton with the freshman squad. Besides the veterans, the squad includes:

Harry Myers	Frank Johnson
Pete Gilherto	Bob Parker
John Frongillo	John Muehligh
Steve Parkhurst	Charles McGowan
Bill Reid	John Roey
Phil O'Doherty	Bob Murphy
Dick Riga	Herb Skerry

Sam Roberto	Art Withington
Freshmen include:
John Richmond	Don Cameron
Fred Ives	Gerry Hooper
Elliott Walters	Joe Lynch
Lew Curtis	Charles Hart
Dom Suppa	Bob Stevenson
Ed Cullen	John Gillotti
Walt Maroney	Fred Fitzgerald
Bob Maher	Bob McElhinney

WINS BROWN SCHOLASTIC HONOR

Richard Gordon McGovern, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph McGovern of Everett avenue, has been elected to the Brown chapter of Sigma Xi, national honorary scientific society.

Mr. McGovern, a member of the class of 1948, has been on the Dean's List since his sophomore year at Brown University and is a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

Election to Sigma Xi is one of the highest distinctions which a student of the sciences can win.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB WINS FIRST ROUND

The recently organized Winchester Hockey Club went into the first round of the Junior Division, Amateur Hockey Association of the U. S. championship play-offs for the George V. Brown Memorial Trophy at the Boston Arena on Monday afternoon this week. They annihilated their opponents, the Dorchester Wildcats, to the tune of 18 to 0.

Winchester's highest scorer was Don Armstrong with five goals and four assists, closely followed by Whip Saltmarsh with four goals and three assists. Wimpy Burnett had three goals and one assist, Scott Doub three goals, Don Ellis, Dave Merrow and Frank Livingstone each a goal and an assist, and Roy Monson three assists. This was the first time the local boys had a chance to play together since organizing. Armstrong, Saltmarsh and Burnett played a strong offensive game, while Ellis was powerful on both on defense and offense. Scotty Connor, the Winchester goalie, did not have too busy an afternoon, but kept his slate clean by stopping all shots that were fired at him. The Dorchester boys were game although they appeared to lack the experience of the locals. The contest was almost entirely free from penalties, there being only three minor infractions.

The Winchester team boasts three former High School captains, Armstrong, Merrow and Saltmarsh, and Burnett, next year's captain. With a reasonable amount of practice and play together they should build up a strong outfit.

Winchester R. C. Hockey Club, 21-20, 18-10, 17-10, 16-10, 15-10, 14-10, 13-10, 12-10, 11-10, 10-10, 9-10, 8-10, 7-10, 6-10, 5-10, 4-10, 3-10, 2-10, 1-10, 0-10.

HIGH SCHOOL RIFLES CONTINUE TO WIN

Last Monday evening the high school rifle team continued its unbeaten streak by winning over Arlington High School, 475 to 466. Until this match no other team had come within 35 points of Winchester.

Robert Oxford led the field with a 99. John Richmond, who up to this time had been first in all previous matches, finished second with a 98.

The next match is with the Arlington Girls' Team on April 8. Winchester

PALMER BEACH HORSESHOE ASSOCIATION

(Notes of 1948 opening session, week-end of March 27)

Winner: H. Garrulous Gardner.

Runner Up: R. Parkman Teale.

Not so good: Willie McLaughlin.

Tough Going: Roland T. F. Pridham, 1 out of 5.

First man to cover a double ringer, R. Parkman Teale, with Gardner the victim as usual.

Mr. Pridham was having a hard time in getting his shoes to behave, but in the final game of the last series, which saw Pridham and Teale matched against Gardner and McLaughlin, he finally got the turn, and won his own game.

The first game went to Pridham and Teale, the second to Gardner and McLaughlin, and the third was a nip-and-tuck all the way with each side taking turns with the lead.

The final showing was 24 to 24, with Gardner and Pridham to pitch for the win.

Pridham was the lead-off man, and his first shoe touched the stake with his second, a perfect ringer.

Gardner, between shivering spells, tried to duplicate or better these shoes, but his last was none too good, and Pridham won the game for his side! No congratulations were offered the winners, which showed a low grade of sportsmanship for the losers.

All players being more or less frozen to death, it was voted not to report again until the weather moderated.

Mr. Arthur Butters, sometimes called the State of Maine champ, made a short visit to the beach, but after shaking hands with the players, and wishing them the best of good fortune for 1948, he made a dive for his car, and never moved out of it for the rest of his stay.

CRUSADERS EDGED ST. THERESA'S

The Winchester Crusaders' basketball team edged St. Theresa's of Watertown Monday evening at Watertown, 21-20.

The Crusaders led at the half, 18-6, but bogged down in the third quarter, snapping out of it in the last minutes of play with the count 18-17. Each team tallied three times in the closing minutes with Winchester's one-point lead deciding the issue. Taylor's set shot from midcourt and Russo's foul basket were the deciding points.

Taylor and Goodrow divided scoring honors with 8 points apiece and Nappy Connolly played a strong defensive game. Mawn, Russo, McManus and Reynolda were the other Winchester players. Mr. Goodrow deserves much credit for his coaching of the club.

W. H. S. ROOM 24 HAS "NEW LOOK"

Pupils of Winchester High School, who have English in Room 24 every day, are enthusiastic about the flexible seating arrangements, made possible by the removal of conventional desks and replacement with chairs and tables. In addition, the reconditioned floor, not only is more attractive to look at, but is smooth enough to permit relatively quiet movement of chairs and tables.

The "new look" in Room 24 permits group and individual work, lends itself to flexible seating arrangements, and provides a pleasant atmosphere for panel discussions, football banquets, committee work, poetry and drama reading, and still retains satisfactory space for examinations and other class activities. Equipped with 17 new tables and 34 chairs, Room 24 easily accommodates fairly large classes with surprisingly large working space.

HIGH SCHOOL DIAMOND ASPIRANTS BUSY

Coach Edward A. Bartlett has reduced his squad of 50 candidates for the Winchester High School baseball team to 40 hopefuls with whom he is working on Leonard Field each afternoon on the weather permits. The diamond at the new athletic field isn't ready yet, and it is doubtful whether it will be used much of any this spring.

Winchester's first game is April 20 with Wakefield at Leonard Field. This is a regular Middlesex League game and a lot of work remains to be done before the locals are ready to take the field for the opener.

This is Coach Bartlett's first year as baseball coach at Winchester, but "Bart" has had a lot of experience, both as a player, coach, and manager of school and semi-pro clubs, so that his principal job will be to acquaint himself with his material. There is no questioning his knowledge of, or interest in, baseball as he has done with basketball everyone will be happy.

It doesn't fall heir to too much in the way of material, despite the fact that he has some nine letter players available to start the season. Of these only four could be considered regulars a year ago, and even regular play last year didn't mean too much in view of the dismal 1947 record. Several of last year's letter players are going to have their troubles playing on this year's team.

Capt. Sammy Bellino will undoubtedly play his old left field slot, Sammy Hustles, well and is hard to pitch to. Of last year's regulars, Vern Slack will play center field when he is not pitching, Al Switzer will be at first and Ken Dunphy behind the bat.

Pitching is going to be a problem this season and Coach Bartlett has been experimenting with Slack on the hill. The tall football captain has a great arm and if he can get better control, may help the local hurling. Paul Roche, who played the outfield last season, has been shifted to third base this spring, and is also being tried as a pitcher. Dave Eldredge and big Bob McElhinney are letter pitchers available, but both will need to improve their last year's performance to win regularly. Don Kenton, younger brother of "Tom," who pitched a few years back, is trying out for pitcher, and saw considerable service last summer with CVO teams, "Skitchy" Carroll, a leftie, and Jack Chisholm, a right-hander, are big boys who may produce on the hill.

Coach Bartlett has been fortunate to have "Pete" Provinzano, Winchester's best pitcher in recent years, working with his candidates, and the poker-faced right hander will continue to instruct the local mound hopefuls until he reports to Fall River in the New England League April 11. If one of his boys should approach the form "Pete" showed as a schoolboy, "Bart" would be very happy.

"Hinky" Horn and "Dave" Coon, who played shortstop and third base some last year, haven't reported yet because of sickness. Right now it looks like Horn will be shifted to second when he reports with Carl DeFillipo getting the nod for shortstop. Coon will have Roche to contend with at third. Other infield candidates include: Walter Murphy, 1b; Fred Sawyer and Leon Priest, 2b; Jimmie Reardon, ss and "Clipper" Hursey, 3b. "Nony" Coogan looks to be next in line behind Donahay for catcher while "Reddie" Connolly and "Major" Daniels are among the more promising new candidates for the outfield. Daniels is also trying out for pitcher. Connolly's "football knee" has been bothering him this spring, but if he can shake this jinx he may be out there regularly. Bill Thomas is manager of the team.

The Star extends to Town Clerk
 Mabel W. Stinson its heartiest congratulations upon completing 40 years service to the town as assistant town clerk and as town clerk and registrar of voters. She became New England's first woman town clerk in 1920 because she was "good," and she has continued to hold the office unchallenged for just that same excellent reason.
 We know the whole town joins the Star in the wish that Miss Stinson remain in office as long as she may wish to do so. There are all too few like her in public life today.

The Police expect to respond to complaints, and at this time of year they know they will often be called to stop the playing of baseball in places where it should not be played. They have, however, a situation in one section of the town which they think is unfortunate.
 At the junction of Skillings Path with Nelson street there is a park plot, which adds considerably to the appearance of the neighborhood. Some of the residents object to boys playing football and baseball on the plot to the detriment of hedge and gardens and are almost daily calling the police to put boys off the premises. The youngsters, and their parents, argue that the younger boys have no other place to play, now that the old Shore road athletic field's surface has been rendered even more unfit for use as a playground because of the removal of sod for Manchester Field. The Police feel that something should be done by someone to remedy this situation.
 Either the kiddies should be permitted to play on the Skillings Path park lot to its detriment, or the surface of the Shore road field should again be made suitable, or at least safe for use by the children of the neighborhood, many of whom are too young to go to Leou-ard Field. It would seem that enough money has been sunk in the Shore road field so that it should at least be kept in condition to be of use to some one!

WANTS NEW SCHOOL NAMED FOR MR. PARKHURST

Editor of the Star:
 I believe Mr. Frank E. Rowe, former school teacher who served as a member of the Board of Selectmen, Finance Committee and several other committees, and at the present time is a member of the Planning Board, will concur that the naming of schools and streets in honor of distinguished citizens is not an innovation.
 Now then, on December 21, 1849,
 a committee, of which Hon. F. O.
 Prince was chairman, was chosen to select a name for the town.
 There were several names suggested, but there still was a great deal of difficulty experienced in settling upon the name to be given to the new child, so to speak. Finally, it was decided to christen it Winchester, in honor of Colonel William P. Winchester, a well known and public spirited citizen. On April 30, 1850, Winchester was incorporated a town. Four months after Winchester was incorporated, a town the death of Colonel Winchester occurred, August 6, 1850, at the age of forty-nine years. As he lived universally beloved, so he died universally lamented.

The Wyman School was named in honor of Deacon Marshall Wyman. The Prince School, now torn down was named in honor of Frederick O. Prince, a resident of Winchester and an ex-mayor of Boston.
 The Chapin School was named in honor of Dr. Chapin, the Adams school was named in honor of John Quincy Adams, and the Noonan School was named in honor of William G. Noonan, a World War
 I veteran. The former Gifford School was named in honor of S.
 N. Gifford, who was so active in securing the incorporation of the town of Edwin A. Wadleigh.

I can very readily recall all the names of the persons in whose honor our streets are named. However I have no desire to gobble up space. I shall mention Everett avenue that was named in honor of Edward Everett, a past president of Harvard College and a United States Senator who resided on the site of Robinson park. He delivered the principal address at Gettysburg. He spoke for more than an hour, in my opinion very few people in the United States of America are familiar with the words that he uttered. Abraham Lincoln spoke a few minutes and the words that he uttered are known all over the civilized world.

 I trust that the town meeting members assembled in town meeting will name the proposed new west side school the Lewis Parkhurst school? Why? Because he is a graduate of Dartmouth College, that produced the greatest orator in American history; namely, Daniel Webster.

Mr. Parkhurst served the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a State Senator, he was principal of the high school from 1886 to 1891 and he was chairman of the educational committee that erected the present high school in 1904. He and the late Preston Pond, Dr.
 Clarence J. Allen, William L. Parsons, Forest C. Manchester, James J. Fitzgerald, George T. Davidson and the late Theodore P. Wilson, publisher of the Winchester Star, and the late James Hineck, town engineer were instrumental in developing the property that is now called the Mystic Valley Parkway.
 Manchester Field, Shore road, and across Black Ball Pond, the new bridges, fire and police stations, and the town stable and garbage house that was erected in 1904.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the above space,
 Very truly yours,
 Patrick H. Craughwell.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB STRIVES SECOND ROUND

The second round of the Junior Division Amateur Hockey Association championship play-offs got underway Wednesday afternoon this week on Boston Garden ice.
 It found the Winchester Hockey Club matched with the strong Wakefield Hockey Club.

The teams used up the first period feeling each other out. The pace was faster and more furious than the first round held last Monday. This period was scoreless.
 Winchester continually handicapped itself by incurring four penalties one right after another.

Wakefield went out in front in the first three minutes of the second period on rapid goals by Downing assisted by Wheeler and Wheeler assisted by Barry. This must have aroused the local boys, who immediately went on a scoring spree with goals by Frank Livingstone on an assist from Wimpy Burtnett and by Dave Mer-row from Scott Doub. Then Liv-ingsone flashed the red light again on another assist from Wimpy, the period ending with Winchester out in front 3 to 2, this in spite of in-ccurring two more penalties.

The locals put on a good brand of defensive hockey in the final period and at the same time kept the puck in the Wakefield zone the greater part of the time, where they came within an eyelash of scoring on at least two occasions. Wakefield drew its only two penalties in this period, and Winchester had but one. The period was scoreless.

Don Ellis, Winchester defenseman, was immense, stopping threat after threat throughout the game.
 Frank Livingstone had the keenest nose for the puck when it came to scoring. Dave Merrow, Don Armstrong and Scott Doub skated well, Doub being especially valuable in keeping the puck in the Wakefield zone. Scotty Connor had plenty to do in goal and made some brilliant saves.

Wheeler, Barry and Downing were outstanding for Wakefield on offense and Haskell played a fine game in goal.

TOWN BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO DINE

 served with all the fixins and as a special feature it is planned to show the 1947 World Series pictures. The tariff is a mere $2 with the customary 10 tax, and considering the humor sure to be liberally supplied where can your money buy more? Guests are invited, but next Wednesday, April 7, is the last day reservations can be made.

NEW TRAIN CUT EXPECTED

B. & M. Has Only 21 Days
 Coal Supply

Another cut in train service may be ordered shortly by the Office of Defense Transportation. Herbert L. Baldwin of 5 Ardley place, publicity manager of the Boston & Maine Railroad and the Maine Central Railroad told the Star:

"At the moment," said Baldwin on Thursday, "the Boston & Maine Railroad has approximately 21 days supply of coal on hand. No more is coming in. What remains must be conserved as far as possible and it is quite likely that the O. D. T. will order us to further curtail our operation of steam locomotives. Of course, the situation is not of our making and we regret the inconvenience to our pasengers. We must, naturally, comply with governmental orders. In compliance with the first 25% reduction order in the use of steam locomotives we tried to make the cuts in train service in a manner which would inconvenience the least number of people."

MALDEN P. O. FIRST TEAM 3 WINCHESTER P. O. FIRST TEAM 1

In a non-league match, the Winchester P. O. Middlesex bowling team lost 3-1 to the Malden P. O. first team. Malden has put in its application to join the Middlesex Bowling League which comprises most of the surrounding towns.
 Offices, but it is a question of being able to get enough allies to accommodate them as Reading and Central Square have been accepted.

 Malden's second team took Win-hurdles 4-0. This double match between the two offices has become an league cannot accept Malden, two matches will be bowled instead of the usual one as previously.

"MORE AND BETTER SCHOOLS"

(This is the third of a series of articles relating to the advancement of public education in New England, prepared under the auspices of the New England School Development Council, an organization of school systems.)

The New England School Development Council warned today that unless long-range planning is started immediately to build more and better schools throughout this area, New England public school education faces a sharp decline in effectiveness.

Speaking for the organization,
 Ernest R. Caverly, superintendent of schools at Brookline, Massachusetts, declared that "public education cannot be kept vitally alive to the changing needs of our growing society unless community schools can be more adequately housed in the future."

According to the report of a council committee, there are five fundamental steps to sound educational planning; determining the educational job to be done within the community's schools; outlining the ideal school plant necessary to do that job; evaluating existing school facilities.

Setting up a practical plant expansion program through adaptation of usable existing facilities to the local plant and setting up a schedule for orderly development of the ultimate practicable school plant.

"Educators also have to recognize the fact," Mr. Caverly remarked, "that community need must always be balanced against ability to pay, but the expense of today can be very expensive tomorrow."

In elaborating a course for public education of the future, he said, the anticipated future numbers of pupils, the courses to be taught, full use of present and adequate facilities, sound choice of school site and public understanding of overall aims must be carefully weighed.

The good school resulting from such considerations will be constructed for safety, utility, economy and beauty.

It must be safe from traffic hazards, designed to prevent the easy spreading of communicable diseases and the suffering of infants and illnesses brought on by family stress, dark passageways, etc.

School boards cannot overemphasize in the matters of utility and economy, the full and proper utilization on an economical basis of all interior and exterior space for the desired type of educational program they regard as essential to meet future needs.

By judicious planning, Mr. Caverly outlined, a school can also be built for beauty of design, detail and setting at no more cost than a commonplace or even a so-called one.

He advised explanation, tact and patience on the part of school officials to counter frequent public arguments such as "we don't need it," "we can't afford it" and "we don't want it," but you are not doing it right."

"The general public is showing an increasing awareness," Mr.
 Caverly concluded, "that if this area's most prized possession, its children, are to receive the traditionally good training of the past the educational plants in hundreds of communities will have to be enlarged on a sound basis."

HOCKEY CLUB IN QUARTER- FINALS TODAY

The Winchester Hockey Club is playing the strong Junior Olympic hockey team this afternoon at 3:15 at the Boston Garden in the quarter-final round of the Junior Division of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States Championship Playoffs for the George V.
 Brown Memorial Trophy.

The local boys easily won their first round match from the Dorchester Wildcats, 18-0, and on this week Wednesday won an upset victory over the Wakefield Hockey Club. It has been quite a feather in their hockey headgear to reach the quarterfinals of the tournament with some 10 teams entered, many from places fostering hockey for years.

Winchester has five former high school hockey captains in its lineup in "Whip" Saltmarsh, "Wimpy" Burtnett, "Mouse" Merrow, Dan
 Ellis, and Don Armstrong, "Sherm".

Saltmarsh, former Dartmouth athlete, has been sort of managing the boys and thinks they have the stuff to give the highly-touted Olympics a tough game, if not to upset them.

The local lineup has been strengthened for today by the addition of Dean Tolman, who will be used as an alternate.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL MUSICIANS TO ENTERTAIN FOR MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The girls' glee club, boys' glee club, and orchestra of Winchester Junior High School will present a concert for the Mothers' Association at its meeting on April 6.
 Mr. Raymond Dickman, Principal, announced today. In addition to songs by the chorus and selections by the orchestra the following special numbers will be heard:
 Trumpet solo by Todd Wallis, and clarinet duet by Thomas McManus and Robert Trout, accompanied by Janet Macaulay and a violin solo by Annette Barbato, accompanied by George Barbato.

The Junior High girls' and boys' glee clubs are under the direction of Miss Eleanor Infantis. Mr.
 Fred Felmet will lead the orchestra.

 ceum Hall. Members are asked to

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

Art Meeting

With over fifty members present, the Art Committee of the Fortnightly sponsored a most successful afternoon Thursday, March 25, at the home of the chairman, Mrs.
 George E. Connor, 403 Main street, with Mrs. Howard P. Forbes of Cambridge, instructor at the Modern School of Fashion and Design, as the guest speaker.

Mrs. Forbes brought with her some beautiful trays which she had restored, as well as many exquisite and unusual patterns, all authentic copies which she had taken from old trays. She showed magnificent designs, stencil patterns and explained the type of tray each pattern belonged upon. Her collection, generously exhibited, included a child's rocker, trays of every type, old toys in tin, tin banks, and miniature trays. After answering many interested questions from the audience, Mrs. Forbes gave a demonstration of stenciling.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mary Ursula Kelly. The purveyors were Mrs. Benjamin T. Morgan and Mrs. Harry E. Moore.

Morning Musicals

The many Fortnightly members and guests who assembled at the Ginn music room on Wednesday, March 31st, were given a rare musical treat.

The music committee of the Fortnightly, Mrs. Paul Harmon Chapman, chairman, had charge of the morning.

Mr. Raymond Sheppard Pugh, organist of the Unitarian Church, showed his extreme versatility with both the organ and the piano.
 Winchester is indeed fortunate to have in her midst the charming and talented Cushla De Lange, whose lovely voice was equally as pleasing in the light Naori songs as those by Terhakowsky and Ruchmaninoff. The Fortnightly singers never appeared to better advantage. Under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham, and with Lucy Wilcox Cushman accom-

MALDEN C. OF C. TO STAGE EXPOSITION OF PROGRESS

After a nine year lapse the Malden Chamber of Commerce inaugurates its well-known Exposition of Progress on Thursday evening, Friday evening, Saturday afternoon and evening, April 8, 9, 10, at the Malden Armory on Mountain Avenue.

The grand award for this year will be a Plymouth two door sedan, the drawing for which will be held on Saturday night. In addition a special door prize of a 1948 television set will be awarded on Thursday night, April 8th.

The well-known department store of F. N. Joslin will stage a scintillating style show on Friday night, April 9th.

The more than half a hundred exhibitors have planned individual attractions for those in attendance.

The Exposition of Progress this year combines an automobile display of the very latest models; an industrial exhibit of products known throughout the world manufactured by Malden industries and a retail exhibit of the very latest of radios, pianos, television sets, photographic equipment, household appliances, gas and electric stoves and refrigerators, furniture, insurance and travel services, sporting goods, banking services and men's and women's wearing apparel.

In conjunction with the Exposition the Malden retailers are conducting a Malden Exposition Sales Days, featuring many attractive offerings to the discerning buyer during the three days of the Exposition.

The small admission charge of 25c will entitle the holder to participate in the drawing. Tickets may be obtained at the Armory on those nights and also at the Malden Chamber of Commerce office, 6 Pleasant street, Malden.

Ample free parking facilities are available at the Municipal Parking Lot located between Pleasant street and Mountain Avenue adjacent to the Armory.

The Malden Chamber of Commerce Exposition this year promises to surpass all previous events of this nature. Mr. Chester M. Lawson, president of the Chamber, extends a cordial invitation to all to attend this gala event.

JUNIOR HIGH ASSOCIATES MEETING

The parents of the Junior High boys and girls are cordially invited to the high school auditorium next Tuesday evening April 6th at 7:45 P. m.

This is the annual meeting of the Junior High Associates with reports of the year and election of officers for the coming year. The meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Harvey L. Macaulay, president.

Following the business meeting Mr. Fred Felnet, director of music, has arranged a very melodious program, consisting of numbers by the orchestra and band. Miss Eleanor Antikantis has been working on a group of harmony numbers by both the girls' and boys' Glee clubs. It is always a pleasure to hear and see what these fine leaders have accomplished with the pupils for this year.

After the musical program, the parents will go to the gymnasium to witness two fast exhibition games of basketball by the boys gym classes under the direction of Mr. Alfred Muehring.

TOASTMISTRESS CLUB

A meeting of the newly organized Winchester Toastmistress Club was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Davenport, 45 Glen road, at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 23.

Mrs. Davenport, toastmistress for the evening, chose "Pins and Cons on Universal Military Training" as the subject for the two minute extemporaneous speeches.

Mrs. Lena Smith, toastmistress for this meeting, introduced the five minute speakers who were: Mrs. Ruth Carter, whose subject was "Community Concerts"; Mrs. Jeanne Foss who spoke on "The New Look in Shoes" and Mrs. Jean Caldwell, educational chairman, who gave an informal talk on the "Qualities of a Good Speech."

The next meeting will be held Thursday evening, April 8 at the home of Mrs. Betty Choate, 2 Brookside Avenue. Mrs. Rachael Bagley of Cambridge, Miss Hilda Hope and Mrs. Vivienne Chane, both of Winchester, will be inducted at this meeting.

WYMAN SCHOOL NOTES

Pet Show

On Thursday, March 25, Grade 6, Miss Mitchell's Room, sponsored a pet show to which all the children at Wyman were invited. Much interest was shown in the different pets entered. The animals shown were:

Cats: tiger, tortoise-shell, angora, baby kittens; rabbits: large and small, one of the ruby eyed variety; turtles, gold fish, and a guinea pig. Children from the 6th Grade served as guides.

WINCHESTER'S BLOOD DONOR DAY NEARS

On Monday April 5, the Red Cross Mobile Blood Unit will visit Winchester. If you have not already planned to take part in this vital program, phone your Red Cross Headquarters today, Winchester 6-2300. Appointments may be made between 1 and 7 p. m. Skilled doctors and nurses will be on hand in the parish hall of the First Congregational Church to receive your "pint of blood" donation by the most modern and painless methods.

By taking part in the Red Cross Blood Program, you assure yourself and your family, full, free protection in case of accident requiring blood transfusions. Your blood donor card will be honored for any amount of blood you may need.

Besides making whole blood readily available to doctors, blood derivatives are being obtained in large enough quantities through the civilian blood program for the study and treatment of cancer, tuberculosis, hay fever and asthma.

WYMAN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

Those who have previously listened to glowing accounts of Lincoln Zoum's performance last winter before a group of members of the Church of the Epiphany need no longer envy, as the Wyman Mothers' Association is bringing him back to Winchester on Friday evening, April 30th. Mr. Zoum, student of psychology and hypnosis, is, proved so fascinating to the Epiphany audience that many expressed the desire to have another opportunity to hear him, while people who were told of the affair felt distinctly that they had been deprived of an experience both educational and amusing.

Hypnotists of the "hocus-poets" type are not too uncommon, but it is unfortunately seldom we have a chance to attend a lecture combining the scientific, intellectual approach with the serio demonstration of the human mind's reaction to suggestion.

Since, due to the size of the High School auditorium, there must be a limited number of tickets, advance orders may be given to Mrs. Franklin McDermott or Mrs. Robert Dickey, co-chairmen of the ticket committee.

TO ATTEND HELMONT LECTURE

Mrs. George Barium Redding of Cranston road and Miss Alice A. Main of Herick street will be among the Radcliffe alumnae of Winchester in the audience at the Belmont High School next Wednesday evening (April 7) when Vera Michels Dyan, research director of the Foreign Policy Association, speaks in behalf of the Radcliffe 70th Anniversary Fund. Mrs. Dyan, whose articles and books are "must" reading for students of international affairs, will speak on "Atomic Energy and World Security." She will be introduced by Miss Martha L. Han of Belmont, president of the Radcliffe Club of Boston, who will also preside at the question period which will follow the lecture.

HOBBY CENTER CLOSED SATURDAY

The Hobby Center will be closed for group work on Saturday morning, April 3, the day of the Hobby Show. It will be open, however, between 10 and 11 that morning for the return of Hobby Show tickets.

The following Saturday we will be open as usual at 9:30. Boys and girls who signed up for their favorite craft or hobby group will join a different group that morning so that everyone will have an opportunity to start another craft. Leatherwork, puppetry, nature study, tinwork, varied crafts, fingerpainting, pottery (fired and unfired) and weaving will be the order of the day on April 10. If you have a choice, call the Center Winchester 6-3038 between 10 and 11 on Saturday, April 3.

EXPLOSION AT NORTH END HOME

An explosion of illuminating gas badly damaged the living room at the home of Mr. Harry Lindmark, 23 Russell road, Monday afternoon. Box 45 sounded at 2:50.

According to the Fire Department, workmen were engaged in the installation of a gas range at the Lindmark home and had shut off the gas. A slight fire started at the meter in the cellar but this was quickly smothered by the workmen. However, gas, believed to have seeped into a partition of the house from a safety device, was in some way ignited and exploded behind the wall of the living room, blowing out a section of plaster 10 to 12 feet square and causing other damage. The force of the explosion knocked a workman from a ladder in the cellar, but did not injure him.

RECITAL BY PHELPS DANCE PUPILS

Cora Cortelli Phelps, veteran teacher of the dance in Winchester, closed her current year with a School Demonstration last Saturday afternoon in the town hall. An enthusiastic audience of 200 attended the demonstration and applauded the young dancers in their class routines and solo numbers, all showing careful preparation in addition to skilled instruction.

Acting as patronesses were Mrs. Richard Clark, Mrs. Richard Bowe, Mrs. John MacLellan, Mrs. John Wakefield and Mrs. Howard Wittet. Miss Barbara Stafford was the pianist.

Corsages for one hundred percent attendance were presented to Jane Barringer, Johanna Clark, Sally Cunningham, Sally Harris, Linda Leavitt, Judy Madden, Ann Marks, Dabney Pierce, Andrea Simpson, Margery Thompson, Virginia Wadsworth and Deedie Willis. Mrs. Phelps was given an ovation when Sandra Wittet at the close of the program presented her with a bouquet of spring flowers on behalf of the pupils.

A single sad note was the absence of Mrs. Arthur Bateman "Mother" Cortelli, who for so many years played the piano for her daughter's dancing classes. Mrs. Cortelli died during the past winter. Her many friends at last Saturday's demonstration missed this little lady who was such a fine musician and loyal friend.

The essay printed below was a prize-winner in a contest between members of the Winchester High School freshman English classes, taught by Miss Marion Bailey and Mrs. Cutcliffe. Each prize was two tickets to the concert given last week by members of the Mystic Glee Club for the benefit of the Rotary Club's pledge to the Winchester Hospital Building Fund, the gift of the tickets and the idea of the contest both being to the credit of a member of Rotary. One hundred and fifty essays were submitted in the contest.

A WING FOR THE ANGELS

by Claire Delany
"Jackie fell down the front steps!"
"Two trucks collided at the corner of Main and Mt. Vernon Streets. Both drivers injured."
"A fire in a cottage on Main Street. Mother burned severely in attempt to save child!"
"Star ball player hurt in first game of season!"

Yes, whether it be Jackie's anxious mother or Patrochman Jones or Ladderman Smith or Coach Lee, all instinctively notify the hospital. Our hospital, capable of handling the accident cases thrust upon it? Or if Janie contracts pneumonia after sailing through all the puddles between home and school, is our hospital fitted to care for her or other would-be sailors? Is our hospital suited for attending all the heirs of the proud new dailies?

Let's face it, people, it isn't. Nurses and doctors are willing and are doing all that is possible, but in the commotion of inventing the atom bomb, scientists by-passed constructing an elastic building material.

The "Angels of Mercy" at the Winchester Hospital need a new wing. Let's give it too them, folks! For remember, the tragic thing about accidents and sickness is the next victim could be you!

Aid this worthy cause, if only for that reason, but better still, give to help others. Whether the first person to be admitted to the proposed and much needed addition to our hospital is you, your friend, or the woman across the road who is always so hateful, somebody benefits and that's what counts.

An afterthought—That loose change in your pocket will only fall out through that hole that you keep forgetting to mend, so use it (the money, that is) to help the Winchester Hospital Building Fund.

TROOP 8 NEWS

At the troop meeting of March 29, the Scouts and their friends had the pleasure of having Mr. John Sexton as their guest. Mr. Sexton gave a very interesting talk, which he accompanied with slides, on Mt. Katahdin, the highest mountain in Maine. The boys were greatly pleased with this very interesting mountain.

The events for April include a training course at the lean-to on the tenth, a trip to Cape Cod over the weekend on the seventeenth, and the Fellsland Council Exposition at Medford on April 24.

Preparations for the exposition are under way in the troop and the prospects for a couple of good teams seem pretty fair. The booth and special arrangements are under the direction of Neil Muncester and Ethan Moore. Tickets have already been issued and a house to house canvass is in progress. We hope that when you are asked to buy a ticket you will do so, but what's more we hope you will attend this council wide event at the Robert's Junior High School in Medford on Saturday, April 24.

WINCHESTER ARTISTS IN BUSINESS MEN'S SHOW

Paintings by G. Russell Mann and Darwin E. Gardner of Winchester will be included in the Twenty-First Annual Exhibition of the Business Men's Art Club of Boston, opening Monday, April 5, and continuing through April 21 in the picture gallery of Paine's in Boston, 81 Arlington street. Nearly 150 paintings, drawings and prints by members of the organization will be shown.

Mr. Mann of 17 Fenwick road, who received his art instruction chiefly at meetings of the Business Men's Art Club, will exhibit three oils, "At Lucy's Bench," "The Wave" and "From the Studleys". In previous exhibitions Mr. Mann's subjects were: Marine landscapes and seascapes, but this year's were painted in the East Orphans, Mass. area. He is a former president of the Business Men's Art Club, and is active in Winchester art projects.

Mr. Gardner of 5 Fells road, who prefers water color for outdoor painting, has titled his pictures,

"Flying Fish" and "Cortina in the Dolomites". He says he paints anything he wishes to see again, adding: "There is no better way to fix a subject in one's memory than to paint it. After you have painted a subject you will have observed it critically and have recorded what you saw so that others may see it from a different angle. Perhaps some critic might have liked your work better; but you painted it from that particular viewpoint because there was a rock, or a tree stump, a hydrant or a cannon on which to sit—and if the critic does not like your work let him paint another to please himself."

The Business Men's Art Club of Boston, founded in 1927 and often called "the men who paint for fun," meets two Monday evenings a month in the Museum of Fine Arts School, Boston, for instruction and criticism by prominent professional artists. Membership is limited to 100 and the organization has a "waiting list."

The forthcoming exhibition at Paine's will be open weekdays from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and on Wednesday evenings until 9 o'clock.

CHILDREN OF AMERICA COMPLETE IN STATE-WIDE PAN AMERICAN OBSERVANCE CONTEST

Standing: Elaine F. Burkinshaw, 8 Boynton terrace, Lynn; Helen Fitzpatrick, 220 Washington street, Lynn, students at St. Mary's Girls High School, Lynn; Robert Brown, Santa Fe, New Mexico, Fessenden School, and Nair Madeiros, San Paulo, Brazil, Somerville High School, are among Massachusetts students competing for their schools in state-wide Pan American Observance Contest.

STUDENTS OF AMERICAS UNITE IN STATE-WIDE PAN AMERICAN CONTEST

Public, Parochial and Private School Educators Endorse Program; Massachusetts Radio Stations Provide Contest Study Aids

Students in Massachusetts schools have been invited to contribute their ideas on international cooperation and unity—the Pan American way!

The Pan American Society of New England in cooperation with the Massachusetts Department of Education; the Independent School Association of Boston; the Catholic Schools of the Archdiocese of Boston; the Massachusetts Parent-Teacher Association, and the Massachusetts Teachers Federation, has announced a Pan American Contest, in which all schools in the Commonwealth will have a chance to compete for special citations in a state-wide contest for expressions of continental unity for world peace.

The Pan American Society of New England and the cooperating educational groups of the Commonwealth, have enlisted the support of Massachusetts radio stations to provide a special series of broadcasts as student aids in this state-wide project.

These include: "The Road to Latin American Music", 9:00-9:15 a. m. Friday, April 2nd, WBZ-WBZA; "Crossroads of the Americas", 12:30-12:45 p. m. Saturday, April 10th, WNAC; "Resumé of Ilogata Conference", 12:30-1:00 p. m. Sunday, April 11th, WBZ-WBZA; "It's Your Move Next", 7:30-8:00 p. m. Sunday, April 11th, WCOP; "Pan American Student Panel", 9:00-9:30 p. m. Monday, April 12th, WLAW; "Beyond Borena", 10:00-10:30 p. m. Monday, April 12th, WHDH; "Listen Ladies", Wednesday, April 14th, WEEI.

The students are requested to tune in to these broadcasts for information which will aid them in their school contest presentations.

The contest is being held in conjunction with the Western Hemisphere celebration of Pan American Day (14 April '48)—the only day set aside by the governments of an entire continent to symbolize their common bonds and their common hopes for a system of international relations based on mutual respect and cooperation.

The week starting April 11th has been officially proclaimed by President Truman and Governor Bradford as Pan American Week.

The Pan American Observance Contest is open to all public and private schools in Massachusetts, and all parochial schools of the Archdiocese of Boston on the junior and senior high school level.

The purpose of the contest is to interest young people of the Commonwealth in inter-American unity; to show that inter-American understanding is essential to world peace; and to bring recognition to the Massachusetts schools which hold the most outstanding observances of Pan American Week.

To enter the contest a student, or a group of students from any of the public, parochial or private schools noted in the Commonwealth, should prepare a written report outlining the details of the school's observance of Pan American Day or Week. That report should be sent to the Pan American Observance Contest Committee, 75 Newbury street, Boston, on or before April 16, 1948.

Special citations will be awarded to the twenty-five schools holding the most outstanding and significant celebrations of Pan American Day or Week.

The winning schools will be selected by a committee of prominent citizens appointed by the state-wide planning committee.

STREET FAIR COMMITTEE MET

At a luncheon held last week at the home of Mrs. Clarence S. Luitweiler, Jr., the En Ka Street Fair Committee met to discuss plans for the coming street fair to be held at the Town Hall grounds on May 22nd.

Mrs. Franklin A. Flanders, chairman, announced that this year's fair will be known as "The Pioneer Street Fair." Costumes reminiscent of the Gold Rush days to be worn by the workers are being prepared by Mrs. Clark W. Collins. More details of this annual event will be announced at a later date.

Mrs. Flanders is being assisted in the management of the fair by a committee composed of Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, president; Mrs. Harold N. Stevens, secretary; Mrs. Marion R. Clarke, treasurer; Mrs. Theodore E. Chilcott, properties; Mrs. Clarence S. Luitweiler, Jr., and Mrs. Alvin T. Litchfield, tickets. Mrs. Donald F. Corners and Mrs. D. Townley-Tilson, Midway and Mrs. Morris B. Kerr, publicity.

DO YOU KNOW THESE CRAFTSMEN?

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Haywood of Melrose will demonstrate the technique of decorating metals with embossed and chased designs.

Mr. Clarence O'Brien of Watertown will display his skill in fly tying.

Mrs. Patrick Preston of Melrose is well known in craft circles for her fine hooked rugs. She will have a number of these rugs on display and will show the various steps used in making them.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Warren C. Whitman was hostess for the Winchester Garden Club, Thursday, March 25. Miniature Southern shells in tinted shades were arranged attractively on a mirrored plaque in the center of the serving table. Two flamingo figurines stood near as if in admiration of this unique arrangement. At each end was a brilliant calligraphic small antique coin-gold edged butter plate. An artistic Spring arrangement in a blue-white crystal vase was in the living room.

Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell, president, brought many important subjects to the club. The response to "Seeds of Peace" came as individual contributions to this worthy cause. A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Mitchell for winning the first prize for the club at the Spring Flower Show of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society in the Garden Club Group.

Mr. Donald G. Crowell, Program Chairman, introduced Rev. Laurence L. Barber who spoke on "The Maritime Provinces". He gave an unusual interesting travel talk illustrated by beautiful pictures in color which he had taken with a miniature camera, 4 1/2 x 2 1/2 in., opening 1 inch. Mr. Barber reviewed New England history, telling about the migration from New England to the Maritime Provinces and showing N. E. influence there as New Brunswick, like Maine, Nova Scotia like Vermont. He stressed the fact that Evangeline Park, the height of beauty, was free from gasoline stations and soft drink places.

The miles of dramatic coastline, blue-gray mountains, flowering trees and shrubs, reflected afterglow in lakes and rivers will leave a lasting impress in our club's memory book.

FARMERS ARE BACKBONE FOR NEW STATE OF CEYLON
How to keep 'em down on the farm poses no problem in Ceylon, the newest dominion to enter the British Commonwealth of Nations.
A former Crown Colony, the Indian Ocean island has about seven-eighths of its population in small agricultural communities, notes the National Geographic Society, and hence may well qualify to be known as "The Farmer Dominion."
For the Ceylonese, the red-letter day of their modern history was February 4, 1948, for on that date they graduated from their colonial status of 250 years to the new rank of a dominion. The farmers now can boast their own cabinet and parliament.
No Farmer's Paradise
Despite its predominantly agricultural character, only limited areas of Ceylon are suitable for farming. Much of the island is hilly and swampy. The desert wastes. But in the favored sections, primitive Ceylonese husbandry yields generous crops.
Even so, the island is not self sufficient in food. It must rely on imports from near-by India to supply half the rice its people consume each year.
Fortunately the wants of the Ceylonese are simple, and the banana tree helps solve some of their problems. The tree flourishes the year around, providing food and supplying the leaves which serve the people as plates for their rice and curry.
And Ceylonese women are not troubled with changing styles. Their native saris may be draped differently to indicate the home district of the wearer, but they don't have to worry about keeping up with the "New Looks" of fashion.
For the most part the farm houses of Ceylon are made of wattle and clay with roofs of palm or plaited coconut leaves, though some of the better homes have tile roofs and white-washed walls.

CHILDREN'S MOVIE
George Washington School
Mothers! Send your children for an hour and a half of fun!
The Mother's Association of George Washington School will present a sound movie of cartoons and sports, on Thursday, April 8th at 3:30 p. m., in the school auditorium.
All are invited. Admission fee may be paid at the door. The proceeds will be used to benefit the Scholarship Fund.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE
A letter from George Washington motivates the story in the gay new comedy, with music, "If You Knew Susie," which starts Sunday at the University Theatre, starring Eddie Cantor and Joan Davis in the roles of two ex-vaudevillians who are frustrated in their plan to retire, with their two children, to Cantor's ancestral home.
Addressed to Cantor's great-great-grandfather, it refers to an award of $50,000 for services in the Revolutionary War. After fantastic adventures in Washington, the award is confirmed and reckoned up. Cantor learns that the government is now in his debt to the tune of several billion dollars.
London's Limehouse, with its slant, twisted streets; its sinister in-habitants and its squalid, shadowy houses behind whose walls a hundred dramas of real-life have unfolded, is the setting for the new dramatic triumph, "Murder in Reverse," the companion film, William Hartwell, the British Jean Calvin lends the cast.
On Wednesday, Review Day, the program includes "Two Sisters from Boston" featuring Kathryn Grayson, June Allyson and Jimmy Durante and Edward Arnold in "The Hidden Eye".
The mysterious Orient provides a fitting background for the action-packed suspense film, "Saigon," which starts Thursday. Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake head the cast of "Saigon" with Douglas Dick, Wally Cassell, Luther Adler, Morris Carnovsky and Mikhail Rasmussen importantly featured.
"Saigon" tells the true adventure tale of three flying buddies who undertake a secret mission which involves them with a mysterious blonde and fortune in a "hot" money.
A new romantic comedy, "Always Together" with Robert Hutton and Joyce Reynolds co-starred is the associate film. Important supporting roles are played by Cecil Kellaway and Ernest Truex. Frederick De Corlova directed this film which reunites the two stars who appeared in "Janie" together.

Twice over the week-end the heavy granite marker at the front of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church was tipped over, apparently by boys, who were able to tip over the heavy block with its bronze tablet because the dowels holding it to its base had rotted off. The marker was first tipped over Friday night and again Saturday night. It was quite a job righting it each time and the police would like to know the identity of the culprits.

The third group was composed of Mr. Noble's own compositions. Rhinestones was a part of the familiar rhyme "Rain, Rain, Go Away." Mr. Noble did the honors for Henry It Is Christmas and Miss King took over "Where Goes the Wind." The audience was greatly taken by the delightfully gay Yodel Waltz.

The fourth group included "A Great Wide Wonderful World," "September Song" from "Knickerbocker Holiday," "Many A New Day from 'Oklahoma' and 'Show Business' from 'Annie Get Your Gun.' ## CROUGHWELL — KEANE

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place in St. Ignace' Chapel of Boston College at University Heights in Newton on Saturday morning, April 3, when Miss Marie Jacqueline Keane, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Francis Keane of Chestnut Hill, became the bride of William Joseph Croughwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph Croughwell of Rye Brook, Conn. Rev. Frederick Muldoon of the Immaculate Conception Church in the Mass., cousin of the bride, performed the marriage ceremony at 10 o'clock in an attractive setting of white carnations and snapdragons. Celebrant of the nuptial mass was Rev. Thomas Herlihy, pastor of St. Ignace Parish.

Seated within the sanctuary were Rev. Samuel Mathews, S.S.L., of Baltimore, Md., and Winchester, and Rev. John Hughes of Wellesley. Seven Stigmatist fathers of Wellesley also attended the mass.

Miss Keane was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of lace over satin with a band of sequins and seed pearls edging the scalloped V-neckline and extending around the lace bustle. Laid combined with orange blossoms held her full length tulle veil in place and she carried a bouquet of staphyloctis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Annette Croughwell of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She was gowned in lime net and wore a headpiece of pansies and ivy, matching the deep purple palettes and entwined ivy of the garland she carried instead of the conventional bouquet.

James Francis Murphy of Cambridge, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Charles P. Reeves of Winchester, Dr. Leonard Millican of Waltham, John F. Keane, Jr., of Chestnut Hill, brother of the bride, and Linford N. Fitzpatrick of Cambridge, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Hotel Somerset in Boston where the white flowers used as decorations repeated the motif at the chapel. The parents of both the bride and bridegroom assisted in receiving. Mrs. Keane, mother of the bride, wearing a rose lace and crepe gown with a matching flowered hat and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Croughwell, was gowned in grey crepe and wore a flowered hat with a pink carnella corsage.

Mr. Croughwell and his bride are motoring through Canada on their wedding journey.

The bride is a graduate of Regis College, class of 1946. Mr. Croughwell graduated from Brown and Nichols School and attended Bowdoin College. During the war he served for four years in the Coast Artillery Anti-Aircraft Corps.

SMITH — COULSON

Miss Margaret Coulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coulson of 11 Sheffield road, and John William Smith, Jr., son of Mr. John William Smith of 10 Sheffield road, and the late Mrs. Smith, were married Saturday evening, April 3, at the Unitarian Church. Candelabras, Easter lilies, white snapdragons and caladium leaves decorated the church for the ceremony which was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Douglas Percy Brayton of the Unitarian Church of Chelsea, assisted by the minister of the Winchester church, Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Coulson wore a white satin gown trimmed with a Peter Pan collar and cuffs of old family lace, and a matching crown held her full veil. Her bouquet was of white sweet peas and stephanotis.

Mrs. Conant Hale Barton, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Ruth Coulson, sister of the bride both of Winchester, were matron, and maid of honor, and Miss Jane, and Miss Mary Ann Coulson, sisters of the bride, also were in the bridal party as two of the four bridesmaids, the others being Mrs. Walter Chapin Harris of Amherst and Mrs. Frederick H. Norton, Jr., of Winchester.

All attendants wore white crepe dresses with lace veils and carried old fashioned bouquets of blue delphinium and pink carnations.

Conant Hale Barton of Winchester was best man for his brother-in-law and the usher corps comprised Richard Barnard, Shailer Avery, Thomas Wrentham, Maxine LeRoyer and Frederick R. Bates, all of Winchester; and John L. Lobingier, Jr., of Hartford, Conn., formerly of this town.

Arrangements of spring flowers decorated the Winchester Country Club for the reception which followed the ceremony, at which the parents of the bride assisted in receiving with the father of the bridegroom. Mrs. Coulson was gowned in aqua and wore orchids.

Upon their return from a wedding journey to Bermuda Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Winchester.

WILLIAM H. HOLLAND INSTALLED AS EXALTED RULER OF ELKS

With one of the largest attendances in recent years, a gathering that taxed the capacity of the hall, Winchester Lodge of Elks held its annual installation of officers on last Tuesday evening in Lyceum Hall. William H. Holland of Hancock street was installed as Exalted Ruler for the year 1948-49 by a distinguished suite from Arlington Lodge headed by G. Edward Barrett, P. E. R., acting grand exalted ruler of the conventional banquet.

Accompanying the installing suite were many prominent Elks, all of whom were called upon for a few remarks after the installation. They were Harry A. Lindstrom, E.L.K. of Cambridge Lodge and a member of the General Court; Fred Strachan, P.E.R. and past district deputy of Massachusetts Northeast district from Winthrop and Cornelius O'Doherty, P.E.R. of Woburn Lodge.

Exalted Ruler Holland outlined plans for the coming year in respect to charitable work and the strengthening of the lodge, and asked the cooperation of officers and members in carrying out these plans.

Visiting Elks were present from Lawrence, Woburn, Medford, Arlington, Waltham, Newton, Somerville and Weymouth, Conn. The last two lodges being represented by two well-known Winchester businessmen, George Clark and Ben Hills, respectively.

A new eight-oared shell was presented to the crew of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on Tuesday evening, April 6, when Harold E. Lobdell, Executive Vice President of the Technology Alumni Association christened the shell the "Ralph T. Joep". Mr. Joep is well known in Winchester and lives at 7 Chesterford road. The shell was the gift of Mr. Neil Tuntelotte, a member of the M. I. T. class of 1917, of Seattle, Wash.

In addition to many officers of the Institute, members of the crew, and a large gathering of students, other prominent Technology figures at the christening were Mr. Henry E. Worcester, class of 1897, 111 Church street. The M. I. T. navy also includes a shell bearing Mr. Worcester's name and another was christened some years ago for Dr. John A. Rockwell of Cambridge.

Mr. Joep, a Town Meeting member, was graduated from M. I. T. in 1929 and is Business Manager of the Technology REVIEW and Treasurer of the M. I. T. Alumni Association. From 1934 until this year he was a member of the Advisory Council on Athletics at the Institute.

Mr. Joep, during that period was active as a leader in Technology sports. He is a native of Portland, Maine, and was President of his class when he graduated from the Institute.

MISS ERICCO, MR. VESCE ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Errico of 30 Loring avenue announced the engagement of their daughter, Rose, to Mr. Ang Vesce, son of Mrs. Errico Vesce of Thompsonville, Conn., and the late Mr. Vesce. A fall wedding is planned.

GIANT HOBBY SHOW BIG SUCCESS

More than one thousand persons, many from neighboring communities, visited the Giant Hobby Show in the town hall last Saturday under the auspices of the Winchester Hobby Center. The show ran from afternoon and evening and one could make the round of the exhibits almost indefinitely and discover something new each time.

Upon entering the hall you first noticed the beautiful floral arrangement of Mr. Larry Blamhard of the Winchester Conservatories. In one corner of the hall was Leon Fernandez' model theatre, actively putting on a play, in another the song of birds issued from a Victrola, loaned by the Park Radio and played near the display of beautifully carved birds by Mr. Arthur Blackstone of Melrose. From time to time the roar of gas-diesel motors at the display of model airplanes by Arthur Withington and Douglas Nason started the many, while other groups, with the many and varied dolls exhibited by Mrs. Willy Wingoate Brown of Brighton. Especially outstanding was the exhibition of flowers made from fish scales by Mrs. J. E. Trull of Woburn.

As you browsed around the hall your attention was caught by Mr. Charles Hadley Watkins' showing of old cast iron planks which fire insurance companies used to attach to houses so that the right fire fighting companies would give them service in case of fire. At another spot was the huge rubber name plate which used to adorn the engine, Calvin Coldridge, and which was given to the "Railroad Enthusiasts", a unique organization of devotees, by the Boston & Maine at the time the big locomotive was sold to the Baltimore and Ohio.

Curved wood figures from the tropics shown by Mrs. Walter Ennis were curious and interesting, many admired the sculpture of Mrs. Geneva Mercer of Boston, while the Indian relics of Mr. Fred Russell, the Fishing exhibit of Mr. Sherman Saltmarsh and the civil war muskets of Scott Cunningham and George DeCamp seemed of particular interest to male visitors. You spotted the telescopes of the junior astronomy exhibitors, John Davis and Brad Smith, immediately you entered the hall, and by actual count early in the evening 225 books stacked to examine the hobby books of the Winchester Public Library. Phoebe Greenwood's paintings caught the eyes of many as showing real talent.

This list just scratches the surface of the show, there being well over 50 exhibitions, each one well worth seeing.

A number of interesting talks on hobbies included those of Marjorie Mills on "book-books", Mrs. Willy Wingoate Brown, who told about the first doll in America; Mrs. J. E. Trull, who told about her fish-scale flowers; and Miss Josephine Durrell of Melrose who explained finger-painting. The speakers were under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Blake and were introduced by Mr. Sherman Saltmarsh who also gave an exhibition of fly-casting. Pupils of the O'Neill Sisters Dance Studio in Arlington did tap, acrobatic, ballet and eccentric dancing during the evening.

Mrs. Walter Ennis, show chairman, wishes to thank her committee, exhibitors and other townspeople for their efforts and contributions to the success of the show, particularly Mr. P. T. Foley, who contributed his truck and labor; Mr. James Chisholm of Fells Plumbing, and Mr. Lawrence Dallin, who contributed lumber and other materials. It is only through public spirited citizens that worthwhile leisure activities are being made available for children and adults of the community.

EVERETT ARNOLD FETED UPON RETIREMENT

Mr. E. Everett Arnold of 16 Chesterford road was honored Monday evening by a large group of friends, business associates and fellow Rotarians at a dinner at the Parker House in Boston upon his retirement as manager of the New England Division of Curtice Brothers Company, Cannons, of Rochester, N. At that time he started with the Boston firm of George L. Mead Company. Later he was associated successively with C. D. Swain and Company, Delano-Potter Company, H. J. Blodgett Company and J. W. Roberts Company, before joining Curtice Brothers in 1908.

At noon on Monday officials of Curtice Brothers, including the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, the President and Vice President, came on from Rochester to give Mr. Arnold a luncheon at the Hotel Statler which was attended by the salesmen who had served under him in the New England Division.

Mr. Arnold, who has lived in Winchester since April 1929, is an active Rotarian, being currently president of the Rotary Club of Boston. He represented the Boston Rotary at the International convention on the west coast during the past winter.

CHAUNCEY LEEDS MITCHELL

Chauncey Leeds Mitchell, retired railroad man and resident of Winchester for nearly 60 years, died Monday morning, April 5, at his home, 4 Summit avenue, after several months of failing health.

Mr. Mitchell was the son of Charles Langdon, and Margaret (Tenny) Mitchell. He was born April 9, 1878, in Selalia, Mo., but went with his parents to Methuen at the age of one year, and came to Winchester as a boy in 1890. He was graduated from Winchester High School in the class of 1895, being one of the two surviving members of the now famous baseball team of that year. After high school he attended the old Rindge Manual Training School and then spent two years in study at Lausanne, Switzerland.

Returning home, he became apprenticed to the Boston & Maine Railroad in the old Boston Shop, long since torn down. He became foreman for the B & M at Weymouth, while serving in a similar capacity at East Deerfield in Springfield, Mass. About 1905 he left the railroad to enter the lumber business in Lawrence as a member of the firm of Mitchell & Harding.

In 1922 Mr. Mitchell returned to the Boston & Maine as general foreman in charge of locomotive repairs at the Billerica Shops. He left the railroad permanently in 1930 and until his retirement before World War II was associated with a commercial refrigeration firm outside Boston.

During the war he served in the United States Coast Guard, being in command of a patrol vessel in Boston Harbor. He continued in the Coast Guard after the war and was a member of the reserve at the time of his death. He was also a member, with the rank of advanced pilot, in Boston Chapter of the United States Power Squadron, a semi-official organization of power boat owners, flying a special flag and available for service in case of emergency. He was an ardent bowman, sailing out of Christmas Cove, Me., first in a sailboat and in recent years in a power cruiser.

On June 1, 1904, Mr. Mitchell married Amy Bagley of Winchester, who survives him, with a daughter, Mrs. Alvin G. Smith of Winchester; two sons, Chauncey Leeds Mitchell, Jr., of Winchester and Henry B. Mitchell of Amherst, N. H.; four grandchildren and a sister, Miss Eliza C. Mitchell of Winchester and Amherst, Mass.

Services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the late residence with Dr. Howard J. Chidley, pastor of the First Congregational Church, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MRS. MARY LOUISE RICH

Mrs. Mary Louise Rich of 11 Pine street, wife of Edgar J. Rich, prominent attorney and for many years a member of the Board of Library Trustees, died at the Winchester Hospital on Monday, April 5.

Mrs. Rich was born in Fall River on July 17, 1863, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James M. Aldrich. She was graduated from Smith College in 1885 and came with her husband to Winchester ten years later. She was especially interested in the literary activities of the town and was a member of the Shakespeare Club for 40 years.

MILITARY HONORS ACCORDED SERGEANT DAILY

Body of Winchester Boy Killed at Guam Arrived Tuesday

"Dunnie" Daily, first of Winchester's service dead to return since the war, came home Tuesday evening to a mother's tearful welcome and the silent homage of friends and neighbors who lined the platform of Winchester Station as the 6:48 train, bearing the dog-draped metal casket, tumbled in.

Through the open door of the car as the basket was lifted out to a waiting baggage truck, watchers caught sight of another casket, also covered with the colors and guarded by a stalwart Marine. "I had two" said the conductor to a passenger, in a quiet voice, "one for Lowell and the one they took off here."

Past men with heads bared and women whose faces reflected the emotion they felt, the casket was trundled to the waiting hearse, escorted by an armed honor guard from Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 5719, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Headed by Comdr. Walter Burns of the Legion and Comdr. John T. Horn of the Veterans, the guard comprised Edward Doyle, William Carroll, Thomas McKee, Creighton Horn, Norman Donerette and Robert Ayker, Tech. Sgt. Kenneth J. Simmons of the U. S. Army Military Escort, who had accompanied Sergeant Daily's body to Winchester, marched with the guard.

As the casket approached, Sergeant Daily's mother was unable to control her emotion and as the guard came to attention and the heavy hearse was placed in the hearse of Undertaker John W. Lann, Jr., there were few among the watchers who were not affected. Mr. Daily, father of the young sergeant, controlled himself with an effort. Sergeant Simmons took his place in the hearse and led by Patrolman Clarence Dunbury and John J. Dolan, both veterans, the hearse was escorted by the guard through Thompson street and the center up Main street to the Lann Funeral Home where the body lay in state.

Tuesday night the public was not admitted to the funeral home, but Wednesday night it was taxed to its utmost capacity as friends and former associates gathered to pay tribute to the young soldier, who lost his life in action on Guam August 8, 1944.

Members of the Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars served as an honor guard during the visiting hours and there were many floral tributes. More than one hundred members of Winchester Council, 210, Knights of Columbus, of which Sergeant Daily was a member, marched to the funeral home to recite the Rosary Wednesday evening, headed by Grand Knight Alfred Pullo, and at a recent initiation the Council named the initiative class the Sgt. Daniel J. Daily Class.

WINCHESTER FALLS FAR BELOW QUOTA ON BLOOD DONOR DAY

The Red Cross is deeply grateful to the few public-spirited townspeople who invariably volunteer to undergo the minor discomfort of donating a pint of blood whenever it is Winchester's turn to take part in the state-wide civilian blood program. It is with regret that we have to announce that in Winchester, a town of 16,000 people, only 91 showed willingness to take part in the blood program which doctors all over America are hailing as the most significant movement since the war in the battle to save lives and fight disease. Only 78 of the 91 volunteers were in good enough physical health to donate.

Thirty-five leading town organizations were contacted and asked to supply five members each to help assure Winchester's success in the blood drive. The following organizations cooperated:

- Rotary, 8 donors.
- Visiting Nurse, 6 donors.
- Fortnightly, 5 donors.
- Grange, 5 donors.
- Wellesley College Club, 5 donors.
- Veterans of Foreign Wars, 1 donors.
- American Legion, 3 donors.
- Winton Club, 3 donors.
- Daughters of Italy, 1 donor.
- League of Women Voters, 1 donor.
- Winchester Hobby Center, 1 donor.

Thanks also go to the First Congregational Church for the use of their parish hall; the Winchester Hospital for the use of screens; the Park Department for flags; the Boy Scouts for cots; Mr. Francis McFeeley for general help and Mr. Parker Holbrook and Mr. Stafford Rogers for signs.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

"Al" Gaum, Mr. G. I. himself, has just had a heart-warming letter from a Belgian farmer who got the sheet that "Al" and the Mrs. sent over to Hemmelle through the offices of Winchester's "Steamer" Hanlon. "Al" wrote his name on the sheet and the letters R. S. Y. P. but gave no address. The letter received tells him that the sheets didn't go to a chateau, but to a dirt farmer with eight children who lost everything in the war, but is struggling along the hard road back and is grateful for the assistance of Americans in general and Winchesterites in particular.

A Ford truck, owned by Michael J. Penta of 120 Swanton street, was stolen last evening from where he had parked it on Common street near Church street. It had not been recovered this morning.

HERBERT L. BALDWIN

The railroad executive will have as his topic "Why Write Advertising for College Professors Only?" Mr. Baldwin will also discuss the prospects for a boom season in Maine vacation resorts this year from a railroadman's viewpoint.

WEST — WARD

At the First Baptist Church in Revere on Saturday evening, March 20, Miss Helen Selma Ward, daughter of Mrs. Agnes E. Ward of 122 Morris street, North Revere, became the bride of Ellis Revore Courtney West, son of Mrs. Maudie Courtney of 16 Callamore street. Flowers and tatted plants decorated the church for the 7 o'clock ceremony which was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. William Jackson of Everett, who was assisted by Rev. George Scott, assistant of the church; and Rev. Clifford Miller, former pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church of Winchester. Mrs. Priscilla Tobin of Sausal played the bridal music, and the soloist was Mrs. Vira Winbush of Boston, who sang "Reverence."

Miss Ward was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. George A. Ward of Boston. She wore a gown of white satin and tulle with a long white lace veil and carried a Bible covered with white satin and decorated with an orchid.

Miss Barbara Ward of North Revere was her sister's honor maid and there were two small flower girls, Miss Brenda Jones of Sausal and Miss Arlene Lewis of Salem. Bridesmaids were Miss Elmore Tremblay of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Jean West of Winchester, cousin of the bridegroom; Miss Thomas Ward of Cambridge, cousin of the bride; and Miss Barbara Eaton of Everett.

The honor maid wore a yellow taffeta dress with a yellow head veil and a yellow and white tulle train. The bridesmaids wore white tulle dresses with white and pink tulle veils. The flower girls wore frocks of aqua taffeta and carried baskets of rose petals.

Robert Jackson of Winchester was best man for Mr. West, and the ushers included Roger Latham and Thomas Davis, both of Winchester; Wesley Jackson of Boston, cousin of the bridegroom; and the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Leo Mayre of Winchester.

A reception was held after the ceremony at Smith Hall of the Masonic Temple at 1095 Tremont street, Boston. Music for the reception was furnished by the Hamilton Ford's orchestra. Upon their return from a wedding journey to New York City, Mr. and Mrs. West will live in Winchester.

ROTARY NEWS

The highlight of yesterday's regular meeting was the presentation of a check for $11,000.00 by President Harry Benson to Rotarian Ralph Bonnell, chairman of the Winchester Hospital Building Fund. This money was obtained from the sale of tickets for the two concerts given recently by the Mystic Glee Club and sponsored by the Winchester Rotary Club for the benefit of the Winchester Hospital Building Fund.

Several visiting Rotarians and guests were present at our meeting, Dr. Fawcett from Grand Rapids, Mich., being the Rotarian from the greatest distance.

Robert Fitzgerald from Boston presented an interesting colored movie with sound entitled "Unfinished Rainbows". This gave us a vivid history of the progress of aluminum.

Don't forget the supper on Saturday night, April 10, at Town Line for the Winchester Basket Ball League. The team sponsored by the Rotary Club was the league champion as well as playoff champion.

MRS. LUCY PINKHAM BURNHAM

Mrs. Lucy Pinkham Burnham, wife of Charles A. Burnham and for many years prominent in Winchester's social and religious activity, died Sunday forenoon, April 4, at her home, 33 Everett avenue, after a short illness which followed a long period of failing health. She came to Winchester in 1913 and during her entire residence was active in the affairs of the First Baptist Church, serving for many years as president of the Women's League of the church and founding the league's Thrift Shop, a second-hand shop which has come to be known far outside Winchester.

Mrs. Burnham was the daughter of Charles H. and Jennie Barker (Jones) Pinkham, born June 26, 1863, in Lynn, she was the granddaughter of Lydia Pinkham whose vegetable compound has attained a place of prominence in the field of patent medicine.

Mrs. Burnham was educated in the Lynn Schools and at the Mary A. Burnham School in Northampton, attending Smith College before her marriage June 7, 1905. She and Mr. Burnham lived in Lynn until they came to Winchester to the house on Everett avenue which had since been their home.

Mrs. Burnham was a member of the Winchester Club of the Gloucester Crittenton League, Committee of Safety Chapter, I.R.A.; Women's Republican Club, of the Smith College Club and of other organizations in which latterly because of her health she was less active. She was for five years chairman of the House Committee of the Winchester Hospital and served as chairman and honorary chairman of the Thrift Shop from its opening April 1, 1932.

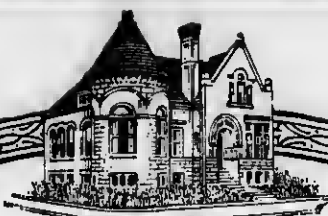

Until her health forbade she made the Thrift Shop her principal concern, and it was largely due to her planning and diligence that the enterprise attained its remarkable success. For a time the shop occupied vacant stores, first in the old building on Main street replaced by the Locatelli Building, then across the street in the store now occupied by the Winchester Provision Company and finally being located on Mt. Vernon street at the corner of Winchester place. From this last location the shop moved into the STAR building where it has rented quarters since that time.

Besides her husband Mrs. Burnham leaves two sons, Lyndon B. and David W. Burnham, both of Winchester; a daughter, Mrs. Donald E. Cameron, O. B. E. of Kirby Muxloe, Leicestershire, England; six grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Marion Pinkham Smith of Brookfield, N. H., and Mrs. Elsie Pinkham Haines of Philadelphia, Pa.; and three brothers, Arthur W. and Daniel R. Pinkham, both of Lynn; and Charles H. Pinkham of Marblehead.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Walter Lee Baker and Dr. Samuel Macaulay Lindsay of the First Baptist Church of Brookline officiating. The church organist, Mrs. Frederick C. Macdonald, played favorite selections. Interment was in the Burnham family lot in Pine Grove Cemetery, Lynn.

RED CROSS NUTRITION COURSE ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVED

The second and third meetings of the Red Cross nutrition course were held on March 30 and April 6 in the Red Cross Home Nursing room at the Wadleigh School. On March 30 Miss Eleanor Bateman of the New England Poultry and Egg Institute spoke to about 20 interested members, illustrating her remarks with colored slides. Methods of preparing eggs for greatest palatability and nutrition were explained. Miss Bateman emphasized the fact that eggs should be cooked quickly and that they should always be cooked in water of less than boiling temperature. The characteristics of eggs labeled "fresh," "nearby," etc., the weights of "extra large," "large," "medium," and "small" were given. Miss Bateman discussed the requirements for raising poultry and eggs and a question period on poultry followed. One interesting development in the turkey industry is that growers are experimenting with raising birds of enormous size whose meat can be sold in forms for quick cooking by the housewife.

On April 6 Mr. Riley of the Hathaway Baking Company spoke and showed a colored sound film, "The Story of Bread from Ancient to Modern Times." Mrs. Pierce, Winchester Red Cross Nutrition Director, led a discussion on Vitamin B. Complex, its value in breads and whole-grain cereals, and stressed the importance of wheat germ and yeast products as supplementary sources of Vitamin B.

The next meeting of the class, on April 13, will be on the subject of meat with a speaker and discussion led by Mrs. Pierce. All Winchester women are welcome to come, whether or not they have attended the early meetings of the group.

WEST SOMERVILLE P. O. TAKES WINCHESTER 4-0

On the final lap of the Middlesex Bowling League, West Somerville P. O. took Winchester into camp by the score of 4-0. This win practically assures West Somerville of the championship as there is but four matches to go for each team, and Somerville is leading by 11 points.

The scores:

Winchester P. O.	West Somerville P. O.
Dovey 81 30 273	345 104 351
Foley 81 30 273	345 104 351
Ross 81 30 273	345 104 351
Chamberland 101 38 324	345 104 351
Tofari 85 32 273	345 104 351

The Middlesex P. O. Standings:

345 104 351	345 104 351
345 104 351	345 104 351
345 104 351	345 104 351
345 104 351	345 104 351

Arrangements have been completed for a post season match between two teams from both the Middlesex P. O. League and the South Postal League of Boston. The top five men in the listing of high single averages will comprise the Middlesex first team and the next five on the listing will be the second team. As the South Postal has sixteen teams to pick from and they have going for years, it is not to be expected that the one-year-old Middlesex League will be able to defeat them but it is expected that they will give a good account of themselves. The only bowler from the Winchester P. O. team will be Tom Gilman who will bowl on the first team. The following year there will be several leagues bowling for the Boston title if Manager Davy has his way.

On Tuesday, April 13, from 2:30 until 4 o'clock, townspeople are cordially invited to Open House at the Public Health department's "Well-Baby Conference".

At that time, there will be an opportunity to see how Winchester, through its public health department, protect the health of its babies. Mothers will bring their youngsters to the Conference. Dr. Roger M. Burgoyne and Miss Hilda Hope will be present to carry on the regular Tuesday Conference work, and visitors may see just how the Conference is conducted.

Refreshments will be served to visitors by the Publicity Committee, Winchester District Nursing Association, with Mrs. Ernest W. Clark in charge, assisted by members of her committee. To all residents, and especially to mothers, an invitation to attend this "open house" is extended.

Radio Broadcasts

There will be a number of excellent radio broadcasts during Public Health Nursing Week, many of which will be of special interest to Winchester listeners. N., General Director of NPHN; Margaret Calkin Banning, hotel author; Johnny Clark, radio personality.

Pamphlets for Children

The Publicity Committee of the Winchester District Nursing Association is distributing informative pamphlets on "Public Health Nurses" to school children and parents.

At the meeting Tuesday evening of the Junior High School Mothers' Association, Mrs. Harvey L. Marvulley, president, the pamphlets were given to the mothers, who were asked to read them over, and to know more of the visiting nurses' services.

James F. Dwinell, Jr., of 7 Fernway, vice president of the Boston Life Underwriters Association, was chairman of the 34th annual New England Sales Conference held at the Comely Plaza Hotel on April 7, and presided at the morning session.

NURSING WEEK OPENS WITH FILMS AT LIBRARY TONIGHT

This evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Gallery, Winchester Public Library, Public Health Nursing Week will be officially opened in this town by the showing of motion picture films that will show townspeople some of the services which their district nurses carry on during the year. These films are open to the public, without charge, and will precede the regular Friday evening films at the library.

Mr. Frank Howard took the films for the week, and his excellent "shots" show the district nurse caring for a new baby, at the bedside of an elderly man, changing a dressing, at the nursery school, and attending a sick youngster. The patients are all local people, and through this informally presented film, the Winchester District Nursing Association hopes to acquaint the residents here of the work and the availability of their visiting nurses.

Miss Hilda Hope of the Public Health Department will read the commentary to the film, and will be introduced by Miss Corinne Abell, librarian. The showing of the movie will take but fifteen minutes, and regular Friday movies will follow.

Open House Tuesday

On Tuesday, April 13, from 2:30 until 4 o'clock, townspeople are cordially invited to Open House at the Public Health department's "Well-Baby Conference".

At that time, there will be an opportunity to see how Winchester, through its public health department, protect the health of its babies. Mothers will bring their youngsters to the Conference. Dr. Roger M. Burgoyne and Miss Hilda Hope will be present to carry on the regular Tuesday Conference work, and visitors may see just how the Conference is conducted.

Refreshments will be served to visitors by the Publicity Committee, Winchester District Nursing Association, with Mrs. Ernest W. Clark in charge, assisted by members of her committee. To all residents, and especially to mothers, an invitation to attend this "open house" is extended.

Semi-Finalists in A. H. A. Tourney at Boston Garden

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB LOSES IN SEMI-FINAL

The Winchester Hockey Club took the ice at Boston Garden at 10 o'clock last Saturday morning against the Belmont Aces in the semi-final round of the National Amateur hockey title matches. The local boys were showing the effects of the gruelling game of the previous afternoon when they jumped the highly favored Boston Junpsies out of the tourney. Scott Connor and Don Ellis, the two hospital cases, and Whip Saltmarsh with a swollen knee, were not in their top playing shape. The others who had not fared so badly in the Junpsies game had to carry the load Saturday as can be seen from the scoring picture.

Winchester started off with a determination to win in spite of everything. Wimpy Birtnett set the home town up to its first goal at 2:31 of the opening period on a beautiful play on a pass from Scott Doub. Jack Beaton of Belmont tied it up less than a minute later at 3:25 on an assist from Ronnie Butt. Roy Monson sent the locals ahead again at 10:27 on a nice pass from the resourceful Birtnett. Winchester was the only team to score in the second period, Frankie Livingstone firing home the puck on an assist from Monson at 11:19. The fact that the locals led 3 to 1 when they went off the ice at the end of his period gives a good indication of the game fight they had been making against the star-studded Belmont aggregation. The latter hoisted off such well known players as Bob Gelotte and Jack Martin of this year's Dartmouth Freshmen team, and goalie Paul Kelley, Ronnie Butt, John Butt and Jim Vigliore of Belmont High School fame.

The third period was a heart-breaker. Harrison of Belmont scored at 0:22 on a pass from Gelotte and Martin of Belmont got the equalizer less than two minutes later assisted by Ronsean. Even here Winchester did not give in. Monson and Livingstone, who along with the two other alternates Birtnett and Tolman had played line hockey from the start, teamed up to score at 5:10, Monson getting the goal and Frank the assist. But from here on the locals began to tire. With their injuries and limited number of alternates it seemed only a question of time when they must snap before the onslaughts of the three comparably rested lines of their opponents. It was surprising that Belmont did not get the equalizer until 10:07, John Bennett scoring on a pass from J. Butt, and more surprising that Winchester rode out the storm to end this period with the game all tied up at 4-4.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB UPSETS JUNPSIES 3 TO 2

In the quarter-final round of the National Junior Amateur Hockey Association playoffs at the Boston Garden last Friday afternoon the Winchester Hockey Club astounded the officials of the tourney and followers of the sport when they downed the mighty Junpsies (Junior Olympics). It was one of the greatest upsets in the annals of Winchester athletics in general and hockey in particular. The Junpsies are the freshman team into which Greater Boston hockey stars under 21 years of age are taken for playing experience before being considered for the senior Olympics. Their top star is Jack Kirrane, right winger, recently back from Europe where he played with the U. S. Olympic hockey team.

The Junpsies had been carefully groomed for this tourney. In fact they had been favored to win it. They looked the part when they roared out on the ice at the Garden in dazzling new uniforms, full sixteen strong, with most of their players towering in size over the local boys. The battle was fierce from the gong. Don Ellis, Winchester defenseman, was knocked in the head with a stick in the fourth minute of the first period. He was taken to Massachusetts General Hospital emergency ward to have an inch and a half cut over his left eye sowed up, being unable to return until the last few minutes of the game.

Wimpy Birtnett electrified everyone by putting Winchester ahead 1 to 0 on an unassisted goal at 8:28 in the first period. Jack Kirrane tied it up a little over a minute later at 9:41 on an assist from Bob Murphy. The second period was scoreless, although the play was just as fast. Scott Connor, Winchester goalie, made two almost superhuman saves, once when Kirrane broke away clean and was in on him alone; and again on a similar run-b with Murphy having the chance. On several other occasions Scotty cleverly smothered the puck in wild melees and pileups in front of the Winchester cage. But Murphy was not to be denied. At 2:16 of the third period he put the Junpsies ahead by scoring unassisted. As the period wore on it looked as though this goal would be enough to give the Junpsies the win. But at one second before the 7 minute mark on two quick passes from Dave Merrow and Roy Monson in front of the Junpsies cage Whip Saltmarsh came from nowhere, squirmed and dodged through a forest of enemy legs, swooped on the puck and flashed it into the strings before goalie Pete Brady knew what had happened. (Excellent picture of this play in Saturday morning Boston Globe).

This sudden shift in fortune gave the locals courage to ride out the remainder of the third period and also the first sudden death overtime period. Winchester suffered a 2-2 tie in the score denuded 2-2. Winchester suffered its second catastrophe of the game at 15 seconds of the second overtime period. Scott Connor was knocked unconscious when hit in the middle of the forehead by Bob Murphy's blistering 30 footer. He had to be carried from the rink and taken to Massachusetts General Hospital. Luckily the injury did not prove to be serious. The locals were forced to borrow Ed Coyle, Needham Rockets goalie, to finish out the game.

In the meantime Ellis had returned to the wars to take up his defense post when play was resumed. Throughout the game the Winchester boys had been absorbing bone crushing body checks and jolts, some of them of the illegal variety for which the Junpsies drew penalties on seven occasions. It was when Fred Luchiatto was doing time in the penalty box in the second overtime period that Scott Doub, who had played a brilliant game all the way, picked up the puck deep in the Winchester zone, skated lieurely up the center lane, picked up speed at his own blue line, raced straight down the middle through the Junpsies line and defensemen, went right in on Pete Brady and fired a scorcher past him into the upper right hand corner of the cage to give the Winchester boys a truly remarkable victory at 2:35.

Doub in addition to this solo effort was a tower of strength on defense, and as usual, was a great help in keeping the puck cornered in the Pies zone on power plays. Don Armstrong played a strong, steady game on defense where he took over when Ellis was injured. He was good on his passing up to the linemen. Frank Livingstone was a sparkplug both on offense and defense. Dave Merrow, Roy Monson and Wimpy Birtnett all skated and passed beautifully. Whip Saltmarsh broke up numerous Pies rushes by dishing out some rugged body checks. He sustained a sprained left knee early in the first period but remained in to the end of the game. The locals played a clean game from start to finish, drawing not a single penalty.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB BEATS WINTHROP

On Monday night this week Winchester took on the Winthrop Windsor at the Skating Club in Cambridge for what turned out to be a rough and tumble affair. Our boys seemed to enjoy being free from the tension and strain of tournament play. They went right to work in the first period and scored three times in rapid succession. Whip Saltmarsh fired a hot one that caromed in off Dave Merrow's skate at 2:30. Merrow getting credit for the goal. At 3:50 Frank Livingstone caged the puck on an assist from Roy Monson. Wimpy Birtnett sank the third goal assisted by Scott Doub. From that point on Winchester was content to coast. However, Winthrop put an alternate goalie in the net after the third Winchester score which had something to do

SEWAGE SITUATION IMPROVED

Chemical Grease Removed from Pipes

The situation which was causing so much concern to State and local officials over the pollution of the Aberjona River and waters of Mystic Lake by sewage and industrial waste from Woburn was cleared over the past week-end.

Mayor William E. Kane of Woburn interested himself in conditions and found upon visiting the upper reaches of the Aberjona sewer that grease from a chemical company had virtually stopped the flow of sewage through the line.
Working incessantly over the week-end, sewer crews cleared away the grease and at the completion of their job sewage was flowing normally through the pipes.

A new control tower, which has been installed by the chemical company, is expected to permanently relieve the situation by releasing sewage into the pipes, grease free and under a controlled pressure which will not harden and clog to cold spots in the pipes.
The State Department of Health promises to keep an eye on conditions, and also plans to make careful examination of the water at various bathing spots in Winchester. Its officials have however expressed to Chairman Edmund C.
Sanderson of the Water and Sewer Board that it is their opinion now that conditions will be all right for bathing this summer.

Chairman Sanderson has been interesting himself in this pollution situation actively for some time and it is largely through his efforts that the situation is being straightened out.

The State Department of Health is still waiting for a decision from the State Supreme Court as to its powers to regulate the sewage disposal of cities and towns. The Superior Court has enjoined Woburn from further pollution of the Aberjona and the city has appealed to the Higher Court on a question of law, claiming that the statute does not apply to municipalities.

in the interest of one of the best and biggest penny sales ever given in Winchester in the interest of St. Mary's Parish Building Fund in the Winchester Town Hall on Friday evening, April 18th. The prizes have been carefully selected

WINCHESTER HIGH CLASSES OF '22 AND '23 PLAN REUNION

Plans are now being formulated by a few members of the W. H. S.
Classes of 1922 and 1923 to have a reunion the early part of June. The two classes will join for a gala event since the Class of 1922 did not get together last year for the traditional twenty-fifth.

The volunteer committee is anxious to contact as many as possible of their former classmates—but have been unable, in a great many cases, to find out present addresses.
Below is a list of names taken from the 1922 and 1923 graduation programs and readers of the "Star" are asked to cooperate in sending along to the committee any information they may have as to the whereabouts of those listed.

The committee, at present, is composed of Marjorie Bradford, 33 Mystic avenue, Winchester; Evelyn O'Connell, 33 Oak street, Winchester; Mrs. John O'Connell (Martha Salice), Middlesex street, Winchester; all of the Class of
'22, Ruth Matthews, 27 Elm street,
Winchester, and Ruth McLaughlin, 20 Converse avenue, Malden, both of the Class of '23. In addition to addresses of former classmates, the committee would also appreciate having others join them to help with the planning of the event.

MEN'S CLUB TO HOLD LADIES' NIGHT

The Men's Club of the First Congregational Church will hold its annual Ladies' Night, Friday evening, April 16, 1948, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. J. Barry, President of The National Shawmut Bank of Boston, nationally known foreign affairs commentator, will open the program at 7:45 with a broadcast of foreign news from the Parish Hall. This is one of the outstanding broadcasts covering foreign developments and is a regular feature of Station WBZ sponsored by the National Shawmut Bank of Boston, Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. This broadcast will be the first ever made from the Parish Hall of the Church, which will become a broadcasting studio for this event.

The Mystic Four, a quartet from the Winchester Glee Club, will furnish a musical program following the broadcast.
The special guest of the evening will be Edith Nourse Rogers, Congresswoman from this district.
Mrs. Rogers will review the highlights and her experiences of 23 recognized as one of the outstanding members of Congress and has ably represented her district through many critical periods during her long term of office.

The meeting will close with a reception to Mrs. Rogers.
All men and women of the Church are cordially invited to this annual Ladies' Night of the Men's Club.

Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will present the "Life of Paul" in monologue form this coming Sunday. The monologue was written by Reverend Snook and gives a resume of the life of and experiences of one who was willing to give up his social, political and material connections for the greatest adventure a man can possess —the achievement of a great Christian character wearing the Crown of eternal life.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The League of Women Voters held their annual, all-day Program meeting at the home of Mrs.
Georges L. Hoole, 19 Rangely road on Friday, April 2, from 10 o'clock until 3.

The meeting was in charge of the committee on Program with Mrs.
Rowland V. Patrick as chairman.
In introducing the discussion, Mrs.
Patrick pointed out that this yearly meeting is the particular opportunity offered all members to take an active part in formulating League policy, and that in the League as in government, decisions made are truly democratic in proportion to the number of people who take part in making them.

The morning session was devoted to items on State Program. Mrs.
Charles Livingstone, chairman of Economic Welfare, gave a splendid analysis of the problems of taxation in the State. Again this year there was a lively debate on the controversial subject of a limited sales tax. In the field of economics there was also strong interest in State legislation to provide low-cost housing. Support for State aid for Education was voiced by the chairman of the Education Department, Mrs. Robert H. Mathewson, who also led a discussion on a legislative bill to establish minimum standards for appointment of teachers. In the field of Social Welfare, continued, vigorous support for improved treatment of women offenders received emphasis. Mrs.
Lorinda Barrett and Miss Grace Wills spoke for this item as well as for those having to do with the protection of children.

After the stimulating discussion of the morning, the buzz of talk continued in small informal groups while box-lunches were eaten picnic-style. Coffee and ice cream were served by Mrs. Din S. Greer and her committee, with Mrs. William Cusack presiding at the coffee
urn. During the lunch hour a demonstration of Proportional Representation, the method of voting inherent in the Plan E, form of government, was ably and cleverly arranged by Mrs. Rodney Long.
A mythical city council of five were to be elected from the 10 candidates on the ballot—all statesmen of history including Franklin, Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt and Robert E. Lee. With the aid of a blackboard the audience was able to follow the system of counting the ballots. The demonstration graphically brought out the point that the majority of the total number of people voting are in this way able to get one of their first several choices elected to the council.

The afternoon session was given over to the consideration of National Program. From an analysis of recommendations sent in by local leagues all over the country, the National League in Washington had felt that the interests of the members are focused above all else on problems relevant to peace.
And so, a single, integrated item was proposed for the consideration of local Leagues.

"A durable world peace guaranteed by a strong United Nations and supported by a stable and prosperous domestic and world economy."

It was agreed that only by strengthening the United Nations and its special agencies through increased use and adequate budgets can it be welded into an instrument to keep the peace. Because of the tremendous political and economic power of the United States we can be the determining factor in bringing about this aim. However, if we do not maintain a stable economy, if we permit an inflationary spiral to continue (with an inevitable depression to follow) the cause of world peace and economic recovery will be jeopardized.

A short resume of League study and action on the local level brought the afternoon's business to a close. A number of new items for study next year were proposed.
On the basis of member discussion,
the Town Affairs and Program committees will draw up a tentative Local Program to be voted on at the annual business meeting in May.

Wednesday evening at 10:15 the Fire Department was called to a burning shack on Carter street, which had been set afire by burning grass. The shack, built by boys, was too far gone to be saved when the firemen arrived.

SERGEANT DALY

Solemn requiem high mass, with full military honors was celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church Thursday morning. The flag-draped casket was carried into the church between honor guards of Legionnaires and Veterans of Foreign Wars, headed by their commanders, Walter Burns and John T. Horn. A firing squad from Company G, 182nd Infantry, of Woburn, under command of Tech.
Sgt. Dodge, acted as military escort.

The pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Rev. Fr. Edmund C. Slaney, a former Army Chaplain, was celebrant of the mass, with Rev. Fr. John J. Sheehan as deacon and a former Immaculate curate, Rev. Fr. Joseph Kierce, subdeacon. Banners, all close friends of the deceased were William Guilford, Francis and Harold Donovan, Henry Murray, Gerald Horn, Jr., George L. Rogers, Henry O'Melia, and William D. Sullivan.
Honorary bearers were members of the Knights of Columbus, Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

At the conclusion of the mass the cortege formed to proceed to Calvary Cemetery, by way of Main street through the center and Mt.
Vernon street along Washington street. As the procession passed St. Mary's Church the bells were tollled.

Heading the line of march was Officer John J. Murray as police escort, followed by the firing squad and the two Post Commanders, Walter J. Burns, Legion, and John T.
Horn, V. F. W. The massed colors of the Posts were carried by Ralph Kee and Edward Woodbury, Mark Kelley and Norman Donette, with Thomas J. and Robert S. McKee, as guards. Following the Colors and preceding the hearse was a detachment of Legionnaires and Veterans of Foreign Wars, led by Staff Sgt. Creighton Horn. A long line of automobiles followed the hearse.

Committal prayers at the grave in Calvary were read by Father Slaney. Full military honors were accorded, the firing squad firing three volleys and taps being blown by two members of the high school band, Buglers David Shiverick and Elliott Hersey. The flag which had draped the casket was presented to Sergeant Daly's mother by Technical Sergeant Dodge. Flags on the cannon and public buildings were displayed at half-staff from the time the body arrived in Winchester until after the committal service.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J.
Daly of 24 River street, Sergeant Daly was an only child. He was born in Winchester Nov. 8, 1912, and graduated from Winchester High School in 1932, pitching on the varsity baseball team and being a regular guard on the football team. He was a sergeant in Co.
K, 306th Infantry, 77th Division, winning the Combat Infantry Badge and Purple Heart for military merit and for wounds which resulted in his death. While at Fort Jackson, S. C., his company served as guard of honor for Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain and President Franklin D. Roosevelt when they made an official visitation.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

At the April 5 meeting of the Winchester School Committee several items of interest to the Town were acted upon. One of those items is the regulations concerning the use of school buildings. The Committee agreed that a special vote of the Committee shall be required for use of the school buildings on Sundays and legal holidays.
The following list of charges for the use of school buildings was approved:

High School Auditorium	$25.00
High School Gymnasium
Badminton	7.50
Other sports	20.00
Dances	35.00
Basketball
Elementary school auditorium	10.00

The new rates are occasioned by the increase in the cost of fuel and the new overtime rate of pay for janitors.

Organizations using school property shall comply with requirements of law for license and protection.

The Superintendent was asked to confer with the Park Department in setting up a policy for the use of Manchester Field during the summer and when not in regular use by the schools.

The Superintendent listed some curriculum changes planned for the Junior High School. The Committee approved the plan to eliminate foreign languages from the eighth grade.

Next, Richard Rush was named as the School Committee member of the Junior High School Building Committee.

The next meeting will be Monday, April 9.
Mrs. Mary Lyng of the Department of Public Welfare, with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Rizzo, and her sister, Miss Elena Rizzo, of Medford, sailed this afternoon at 5 o'clock from New York for a southeast cruise to Rio, Montevideo and Buenos Aires. Her associates at the town hall decorated her desk to suggest the cruise and presented her with several going-away gifts yesterday, and last week Thursday
Mrs. Lyng was given a surprise dinner by her associates at the home of Miss Lillian Hardy on Mt.
Vernon street. She will be away for 39 days.

HIGH SCHOOL NINE SHAPING UP

Coach Ted Bartlett is gradually getting a line on the strength and weaknesses of his Winchester High School baseball squad, and as a result of recent practice sessions has selected two tentative lineups, with which to work intensively in an effort to get the strongest possible combination to represent the Red and Black in the season's opening with Walsfold at Leonard Field
April 20.

Team A at present has "Al" Switzer at first, "Linky" Horn at second, Carl De Filippo at short and Paul Roche at third. Of these Switzer, Horn and Roche are better players, though only Switzer is playing the position he did on last year's team. Horn alternated with Hicks at short a year ago and Roche played the outfield.

The present Team A outfield is Captain Sammy Belline in left,
Vern Slack in center and either Ed
Conley or "Major" Daniels, right.
It is possible that Conley and Daniels may split the right field mitral, since Conley is a rightie and Daniels, left-handed all the way.
"Ken" Donaghey, last year's regular backstop, is leading the catching candidates again this spring.

Team B's infield is composed of Walter Murphy, 1b; Fred Symner or Lem Priest, 2b; "Junie" Rou-nson, ss; and Dave Conon, 3b. Of these only Symner graduates this year and Conon won his letter as a third baseman last year. Team B outfielders are all available for at least two seasons and include John Marshall, left; Victor Griffith, center; and Leo Williams, right.
"Sonny" Cogan is next in line behind Donaghey for catching duty.

Pitching is this year's problem, for if Coach Bartlett can develop a couple of passable hurlers, he feels his team will win its share.

He has two letter pitchers available in big Bob McElhinney, whom Pete Provinzano puts at the head of the candidates right now; and Don Eldridge. Both are right handers. "Major" Daniels, outfielder-hurler, is a fork-hander, as is big "Skitch" Carroll, who played some football last fall. Don Konton, who pitched with the CYO last year, is showing promise and Coach Bartlett is trying both Vern Slack and Paul Roche on the mound in an effort to build a capable pitching staff. Slack has an exceptional arm and did some pitching in the playground league last summer. Roche seems a natural enough ball player to possibly emulate his older brother
"Chucker", who had a lot of stuff as a school boy. Jack Chisholm, a big football player, is another with whom Coach Bartlett is working to help his pitching staff.

The team's development hasn't been helped too much by the condition of Leonard Field which is in such bad shape that the boys are just a bit timid about going after the harder hit balls on the ground.
Baselines, mound and home plate all need attention.

DEGREE TEAM REACTIVATED

The Degree team of Winchester Lodge, Sons of Italy has been re-activated. Rehearsals started several weeks ago and practically a new team has been formed.

The team now comprises Herald;
Cosmo Simonetta; Venerable, A. P.
Tufuri; Asst. Venerable, Frank Procopio; Ex. Ven., Albert Tib-audi; Orator, Dominick Molea; 1st Historian, Anthony Saraco; 2nd Historian, Eugene Rotundi; Sate-at-Arms, Dominick Provinzano; and Anthony Jacobellis; Standard Bearer, America Fiore; and Sentinel, Nicholas Ronzio.

The new Degree team's initial performance was given at the Masonic Hall in Maynard, on Sunday, April 4. Twenty-five new members were initiated and the officers for the coming year were installed.

As in the past, the team is being coached by the originator Dr. A.
L. Maletta.

A busy season is anticipated as more and more lodges are using

TODD DUNCAN

Baritone

Todd Duncan, Negro baritone, presented the third and final concert of the Smith College Club community series last Sunday evening, singing to a capacity audience at the high school auditorium. His accompanist was William Allen and his program followed: Handel, "Hear me, ye winds and waves"; from "Solips"; Handel, "Come and Trip It"; Handel, "Omara mai tu"; from "Xerxes"; Brahms, "O wusst ich doch den Weg zurück"; Brahms, "Der Wanderer"; Schubert, "Autenhalt"; Tschalkowsky, "Pilgrim's Song"; Moussorgsky, "The Seminary"; Coleridge-Taylor, "Thou art risen, my beloved"; Michael Head, "A Vagabond Song"; Massenet, "Aria"; "Vision fugitive"; from "Herodiade"; Negro spirituals, "Let us break bread together"; arr. by Lawrence; "Oh, I'm a winter sing"; arr. by Still; "Witness"; arr. by Johnson; Haitian Folk Song, "Omimba"; arr. by Jaegerhuber; Creole Folk Song, "Michen Bunjo"; arr. by C. Nickerson; and Gershwin, "I got plenty of nuttin'" from "Porgy and Bess".

Mr. Duncan's performance was in all respects an outstanding one. There may have been better voices heard in Winchester occasionally, but it is safe to say that no artist who has appeared here has had a stronger grip on his audience or succeeded in moving his listeners more deeply. Mr. Duncan is a great showman, using the word in its best sense. He obviously feels his songs and augments his singing with his great dramatic power to make the audience sense much of his interpretation. It is this ability to share his mood with his listeners that makes him great. His voice, virile, flexible and of even scale, is powerful in its middle and upper registers and capable of rich nuances which are skillfully used to embellish both words and melody.

Losing a slightly metallic note, apparent in the opening numbers, Mr. Duncan's voice warmed beautifully to the lieder, and it was after this group that he responded to his first encore, doing the familiar "Who is Sylvia" by Schubert. The second half of the program opened auspiciously with a particularly eloquent performance of the beautiful Massenet aria. The enthusiastic applause which greeted Mr. Duncan after this number brought forth the bizarre "Song of the Elm" by Moussorgsky, also superbly done, and followed with another encore, the rhythmic "Dance Marabre" by Saint-Saens, done with musically regard for the story of the song.

For the first time, during the spirituels, Mr. Duncan's voice took on that peculiar silky quality which is generally characteristic of singers of his race. His singing of this group was of a particularly high order and elicited an extra "Every Time I Feel the Spirit", which was so enthusiastically applauded that it had to be repeated.

Extra numbers were demanded after the "Porgy and Bess" finale and Mr. Duncan obliged, first, with "My Bess" from the same opera, and then with "Old Man River" from Jerome Kern's "Show Boat" sung as few in the audience had heard it before.

Insistent applause finally brought Mr. Duncan back for what was emotionally the highlight of the evening, the unaccompanied singing of the beautiful spiritual, "Were You There?" Through the four verses, the last a mere whisper, yet still having musical quality, the audience sat enthralled and the long audible sigh which followed the final note was much more flattering than the applause which the singer had forbidden. Reverence and sheer artistry were beautifully blended in this gripping number.

And speaking of artists, there were at all times two upon the platform last Sunday. None could have better (if as well) filled the all-important role of accompanist than Mr. Allen, an obvious musician, and technically skilled pianist with a singing touch that brought real beauty to the music he played so magnificently. He had some difficult scores to cope with and his performance seemed as effortless as it was flawless. Throughout he played without notes and in excellent taste. Several times Mr. Duncan insisted upon Mr. Allen's sharing in the applause and the artist's hand-clasp with his accompanist at the finale seemed not at all perfunctory. Each obviously had the greatest respect for the other, as well he might have.

Kenneth Moffatt introduced Mr. Duncan and also spoke about the Smith Club's plans for next year. Ushers were Stephen Parkhurst, Joel Slocum, Neil Borden, Jr., Ted Cole, Fred Walsh, John Hammond, Robert Singer and John Sargent. Edward Shaw was in charge of lighting and ticket takers were James Doty, Robert Smith, Stanley Neill and Robert Drake.

UNITARIAN ALLIANCE LUNCHEON AND ANNUAL MEETING

On next Tuesday, April 13, the Winchester Branch of the Unitarian General Alliance will hold its final luncheon of the current season. Every member will get this down as a "must" in her calendar for this date will mark the annual meeting.

At 1 o'clock a delicious Spring Luncheon has been planned under the supervision of Mrs. Hoyt Hotel and Mrs. Clinton Jones. Those who do not have season tickets may obtain single tickets at the door.

After the luncheon, brief, interesting annual reports will be called for by Mrs. Henry Worcester, President of the Alliance.

The afternoon's entertainment, under Program Chairman Mrs. Theodore Godwin, will have a purely local flavor—a play written by a well-known Winchester resident and the cast of characters taken from the Alliance membership. The play was written by Mrs. Carolyn Gilpatrick and its title is "Sardines." The cast will include Mrs. Forrest Pitman, Mrs. Frederick Churchill, Mrs. William Wolsey, Mrs. Francis Millett, and Mrs. Townley-Tilson. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and their guests to be present at this annual meeting in the Unitarian Church on Tuesday, April 13th.

MYSTIC MATINEE

The unusual and exciting program planned by the Mothers' Association of the Mystic School will be held on Tuesday, May 4th at the Mystic School. Mrs. James K. McElroy and her committee will select one of the mothers as a model for the new look in hair-dos to be demonstrated by the Elizabeth Arden Salon. There will also be a demonstration on home permanent waving. Mrs. Melvin Sears is in charge of decorations which will be carried out in the Elizabeth Arden colors of pink and blue.

Mrs. Vincent Scanlon is in charge of the chances which will be certificates for treatments at the Arden Salon in Boston.

Dessert and coffee will be furnished by the Town Line. Mrs. Herbert Ross is in charge of tickets.

GIRL SCOUTS

As every one who was there knows, the Girl Scout Father-Daughter banquet was a huge success. Three hundred twenty-five fathers, daughters, leaders, and Scout Council members filled the tables in both rooms at the First Baptist Church on Tuesday, the thirtieth of March. If more had come, we wondered where we could put them, though no doubt we would have moved over and squeezed them in.

After the good dinner, served by Town Line Inc. (Mr. Aherne and his capable staff) there was the hilarity of measuring Dad's waist for his donation to the Juliet Low fund was based on the number of inches girth. The pageant, written by Mrs. George Connor, told the story of what that money was used for, and I have the feeling that all the Dads were proud of the work the Scouts are doing from earning their badges, shipping books to Norway, to this year's Friendship Clothing Kits and Nurses Aides and such services.

Troop 12 of the Washington School had a marvelous time at their Leap Year Party last Saturday night. By planning and working with their leader, Mrs. William McClintock, the girls have fulfilled the requirements for their Dancing Badge. The decorations of pastel and spring-like colors, the refreshments, and even the dance program were done by the girls. Of course Mrs. McClintock and two of the faithful mothers, Mrs. Kenneth Marshall and Mrs. Stanley Fudge helped.

The Scouts and their escorts were happy to have Mrs. Barbara Metcalf sitting with the patronesses, Mrs. Richard Cunningham, Mrs. Howard Wittet, Mrs. Alfred Higgins, Mrs. George Goddard, Mrs. Joseph Harrigan, Mr. Russell Curry dropped in to say "Hello". Thanks to all who helped, especially Mr. McClintock who was "chief record changer" the Troop 12 party at the Second Congregational Church was a huge success.

HARVARD GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The Harvard University Glee Club with the University Organist will open the Spring series of the Town Organ recitals in Town Hall, Stoneham, on Sunday, April 18, at 4:30 p. m.

This world famous glee club is making its annual Spring tour. Currently they are scheduled for appearance with the Rochester, N. Y., Symphony Orchestra, Albion, N. Y., Syracuse, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., Irvington, N. J., and Pelham, N. Y.

The people of Winchester are cordially invited to attend this concert without charge.

Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes, outgoing president of the Fortnightly, held an at home on Friday afternoon between 3 and 4:30 p. m. for her council and board. Payers were Mrs. Harold H. Given, Mrs. Robert H. Perkins, Mrs. Theodore P. Messer, Mrs. Edward B. Ladd, Mrs. George W. Cary, and Mrs. Stanley D. Howe.

ANNUAL MEETING OF MISSION UNION GUILD

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church will hold its Annual Meeting on Tuesday, April 13. There will be sewing from 10 a. m. until noon under the direction of Miss Margaret Sands to help the work of the Church World Service; on all other projects of the year, the work has been completed and sent to its destination. Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m. by Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor and Mrs. Harold M. Jones and their committee. At 2 p. m. the annual meeting will be held in the Ladies' Parlor, presided over by Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, Director; annual reports and elections will be made. A Thank Offering, called the "Second Mile" will be contributed at this meeting. The Worship Service will be conducted by Mrs. Charles E. Greene and the speaker will be Mrs. Ralph Harlow of Northampton, her subject being "Opening Doors—To Greece". Mrs. Harlow's husband is a Professor at Smith College in the department of Religion and Biblical Literature. Both Mr. and Mrs. Harlow were at International College in Smyrna, Turkey from 1912 to 1922. Since then they have been in Northampton where their home is an active center for foreign students. They both do a considerable amount of lecturing. In 1930 to 1931 when Mr. Harlow had a sabbatical year from Smith, they went to Athens, Greece and taught in the School of Religion there, which was established by Dr. Goodsell. That school is now in Bayreuth, Lebanon and known as the Near East School of Theology. In 1945 to 1946, on another sabbatical leave, they went to Athens again and both taught in the Pierce College for Girls, which is a joint project of the Presbyterians and the Congregationalists. Besides teaching, they did a great deal of rehabilitation work for Greece, and are contributing to it now in every way possible.

SUPPLEMENTARY SERVICES AT THE HOSPITAL

In the Clinical Records Office under Mrs. Bayers' direction, voluntary service is being given by Priscilla Richmond Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Richmond of 30 Swan road. Mrs. Randall is a graduate of the Garland School of Homemaking in the Child Development Course. She has had hospital experience in the Strong Memorial Hospital of Rochester, N. Y., and as secretary in the Allergy Clinic at the Massachusetts General Hospital. Her husband, Dr. Raymond V. Randall, is a graduate of Harvard College and of Harvard Medical School. He is now doing research at the Harvard School of Public Health and is also carrying on studies for the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company. Girl Scouts continue to help at the Hospital, two Scouts being on duty for a two-hour period each day after school and on Saturday mornings. The work is done under the supervision of the nursing staff. The Scouts make beds, carry trays, feed child patients, answer lights and arrange flowers. One of the Hospital's most troublesome problems has been solved by the Winchester Chapter of the Red Cross, which has taken on complete responsibility for the linen room mending. Ten workers under Mrs. George Nardin, production chairman, spends all day each Thursday in carrying through the large amount of work involved. A detail of this project which the Chapter has met and solved is the round-trip transportation of the heavy bundles from the Hospital to the Red Cross workrooms by way of three flights of stairs at the Town Hall.

HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMAN BASEBALL CANDIDATES REPORT

Thirty-three candidates for the Winchester High School freshman baseball team reported Monday afternoon to Coach George Curtis at Loring Avenue Playground. Weather conditions haven't been too conducive to hard work, but Coach Curtis has already noted signs of promise in Rotundi, Ciranko, Corby, Paul Carrell, Burbank and Hyland, all of whom were active in summer ball last season.

TENNIS

In order to determine their respective positions on the girls tennis team a match is to be held on Tuesday, April 20th at the Palmer Courts. It will be open for all Sophomore, Junior and Senior girls who wish to make the team. A separate match will be played the following Thursday, April 22nd, for all Freshmen. They are to have a team of their own this year, and the results of the tournament will determine their ratings.

NOT BADLY INJURED AS CAR OVERTURNED

Saturday morning at 1:30 as Officers Winthrop Palmer and James P. Noonan were headed north on Cambridge street in Patrol 52 their attention was attracted to a light on a car which appeared to be in the pansy bed owned by John McCue and located opposite Murphy's gasoline station at the junction of Pond and Cambridge streets.

Upon investigation the police found a Buick convertible sedan, tipped over on its right side and in the machine a man who later proved to be Joseph D. Nalbandian of 51 Princeton street, Medford.

Nalbandian was unconscious and it was necessary for Officer Palmer to tilt the canvas top of the car to extricate him from the machine. Meanwhile Officer Noonan had sent in a call for the ambulance and for a piece of fire apparatus, it being found that gasoline was pouring over the hot motor of the car. Engine 2 responded with a crew but beyond taking precautionary measures the firemen had little to do.

Nalbandian was taken in the ambulance to the Winchester Hospital where he was attended by Dr. Charles Rooney. He sustained a cut lip, but apparently was not seriously injured, which was miraculous in view of the condition of his car. Police say skid-marks were apparent on Cambridge street for more than 250 feet and the machine had plowed through some heavy stones into the pansy bed for a distance of over 145 feet. The car had to be removed by a wrecker. Nalbandian told the police he had been attending a party in Bedford and had fallen asleep at the wheel.

The huge cloud of black smoke which appeared in the north east sky on last Monday afternoon was caused by a fire between Wakefield and Reading. During the winter an oil truck skidded on some ice and overturned so that its load of oil ran into some marsh land. Boys set it off on last Monday.

MRS. SYMMES HEADS ART ASSOCIATION

First Woman to Head Group

The April exhibition includes some striking paintings by Winchester artists, arranged by Vaughn Harmon, and this "local talent" exhibit is one of the finest which has hung in the Gallery. The exhibit is open to the public each week day from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Speaker at the April meeting on Tuesday was Mr. William Jewell, graduate of the Vesper George School of Art, and teacher at Boston University, who spoke and showed unusual slides of "Contemporary American Painting".

WEEK-END FIRES

The first run of the week-end for the Fire Department was at 1:40 last Saturday morning when the police asked for assistance at an automobile accident opposite the intersection of Pond and Cambridge streets. A car had left the road at that point and had tipped over in a field. When the police arrived gasoline was running over the hot motor and as a safeguard against fire the Fire Department was called. Engine 11 responded but its services were not needed.

At 11:57 Saturday forenoon there was a grass fire near 186 Pond street, and at 1:30 Saturday afternoon a brush fire off High street near the residence of Mr. Carl Wood, 36 High street.

Sunday afternoon at 2:40 there was a grass fire at the rear of 17 Cross street. At 9:38 Sunday night Telephone Box 45 came in for a fire at the plant of the Ingersoll Products Company on upper Main street. The fire was confined to some plating in a well around the boiler and the chief casualties were the fumes which suffered from soot, being pretty well blacked out, including Chief Callahan.

The Fire Department had two early-morning calls Monday, the first at 12:14 in response to an alarm from Arlington Box 335 near old Mystic street for an automobile fire. At 6:40 there was an over-heated refrigerator motor at Hevey's Pharmacy, the chief damage being that about the motor.

Literature Committee
In the last meeting of the season on April 5 at the Public Library Mrs. J. Edward Jones read an excellent paper on the Biography of George Santayana, who was born in Spain. He spent a great many years at Cambridge, Mass., as he graduated from Harvard and taught Philosophy there for 20 years and can be remembered by many Harvard men of today. He is now retired at the age of 85 years to the Continent of the Blue Bonnets in Spain.

Mrs. Frank S. Evans had for her subject "The Biography of William Lyon Phelps," which she outlined in a very pleasing manner. William Lyon Phelps was born in New Haven Conn. Son of a minister, and had a long life without amusements, mirth, or the theater and still with the love of Shakespeare, which he had read in its entirety, it was not until he was 18 years old that he saw his first performance at a theater, but when he entered Yale he went often. In 1891 he received his Masters degree at Harvard and his Doctors degree in Philosophy at Yale. Both in the same year. He served as teacher of Literature for 41 years at Yale. The later part of his life he was well known as a radio speaker. He passed away in 1943.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL VAUDEVILLE NEXT WEEK

Sixteen times Winchester High School has rehearsed for Vaudville. Fifteen times Vaudville has been a triumph for Director Ray Hayward and a commendable performance by two or three hundred high school boys and girls.

Next Friday and Saturday evenings, April 16 and 17, the Sixteenth Annual Vaudville Show will be presented in the High School Auditorium. The orchestra will play, the comedians will perform, the dancers will dance, the acrobats will defy the law of gravity, and such veterans as Marguerite, Ted, Barbara, John, George, Frank, Bonny, Janita, Sally, Wanda, Shirley, and a host of others will again be on hand to entertain and entertain what is certain to be a full house each night.

Vaudville at Winchester High School is more than a show. It is an institution. It draws from every class, every course, and almost everybody. One of every three students will be a performer, and one of the other two will be a stage hand, a poster maker, ticket salesman, publicity agent, or general functionary.

Proceeds of the Vaudville go to the Athletic Association and become a part of the regular income which subsidizes a student handbook, pays officials, rents buses, buys and cleans uniforms, supplies bats, pucks, hockey sticks, dummies, charging machines, and all other athletic equipment.

VAUDEVILLE SHORTS

The stage floor has been refinished and for the vaudeville a blue velvet backdrop will replace the black drop in use.

Mr. Thomas Morse of the faculty has devised improved lighting for this year's show.

Marguerite Derra has trained the tap shoes this year. Her group and other dance groups have been rehearsing for two months or more.

Ted Corvet plans to debunk the business of being a senior.

Buttons Burbank and Ann Mathewson will unveil a Charleston that will be worth the price of admission.

Muriel Daniels will again do the make-ups.

Harmonium's Harmonizers will play for the show.

Posters and window displays are features of the Art Department prepared by Barry Grace, Martha Feinberg, and Leon Fernandez.

Planning Committee members besides Mr. Hayward are Conchita Knowlton and Carroll, Mr. Dan O'Donnell, Mrs. Eleanor Auffant, and Miss Ethel Knowlton.

WINCHESTER UNITARIAN CHOIR SANG IN STONEHAM CEREMONY

The Winchester Unitarian Choir under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham which has distinguished itself during this past season in the presentation of three Choral Vespers and outstanding performances at Union Services was chosen to furnish the music at the reopening of the First Unitarian Church of Stoneham on Sunday April 4th. This church widely publicized as the "Church that Faith dropped" installed as pastor the Rev. Richard Hensford Huff who resigned as chaplain at Annapolis to accept the challenge that the Stonyham church offered.

Many dignitaries of the American Unitarian Association participated in this ceremony at which the Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Winchester Unitarian Church gave the charge to the people.

For this festive occasion the Winchester Unitarian Choir chose for its extensive repertoire a selection from the Deutsche Requiem of Johannes Brahms and Schubert's Omnipotence, the soprano solo in the latter sung most effectively by Dorothy Perkins.

Edgar Randle and John Efstyn Jenkins, who recently gave such an incomparable performance in Du Bois' "Seven Last Words of Christ" sang "Watchman, What of the Night?" Since the Stoneham Church is acoustically ideal, the choir gave the most outstanding performance of its career.

Because of previous commitments, Raymond Sheppard, Pugh was unable to play for the choir and Weston Braaten, well known Andover organist acted as accompanist.

The following sang:

Dorothy Perkins
Nancy Townley-Tilson
Linda Wach
Judy Flinders
Nancy Jackson
Nellie Hotell
Sally Blanchard
Norma Bergquist
Muriel Thorley (contralto soloist)

"We'll have a place to call our own
And then we'll want a telephone"

You're quite right, young people. You'll want a telephone, and it's our job to see that you get it.

In the past two years, we've added central office equipment in hundreds of communities; put up new buildings or additions in 86 places; installed thousands of miles of wire and cable. We have been spending more than twice as much as ever before for needed plant expansion, and this year's program is the largest yet.

That's the only way to provide good telephone service for everyone who wants it.

A MUTUAL PROBLEM

Who pays the rent and taxes of the out of town pedler, door to door solicitor, mail order house and big city stores?

We have exactly the same expenses in this community.

By raising the assessment value of our town, we lower the tax cost per individual. The larger the volume of business done here, the higher the assessment value of our town.

Isn't it better economy to spend your money in town.

You pay no more and in the long run you save on your taxes.

BRITISH HONDURAS, WORLD COURT PROSPECT, IS SPOT OF ENGLAND AMID LATIN REPUBLICS

In the revival of Guatemala's long-standing claims to British Honduras, the United Nations International Court of Justice may find its first Western Hemisphere case.

The proposals made by both Great Britain and Guatemala to submit their differences for settlement spotlight an Anglicized patch of land that stands out sharply against the Spanish-culture background of Central America, notes the National Geographic Society.

With the exception of Canada, the Crown Colony of British Honduras, or Belize as it is known in Spanish, is the only British Commonwealth territory on the North American continent. After meeting the Spanish-speaking people and Latin American customs of nearby republics, the traveler comes with surprise on a New World land that features cricket, British bicycle riders, and small motor cars driven on the left side of the road.

With English Accent
In the capital and chief port, Belize, the residential section is made up of British town houses, lawns and gardens, and carries on formal British tradition in court procedures. Traffic is directed by dark-skinned natives having a broad English accent and dressed in hot-weather version of the London today's uniform.

April 21, 1948

PAN AMERICAN EVENING AT THE LIBRARY

The Winchester Public Library in cooperation with the Pan American Society of New England, will hold a Pan American Evening at the Library next week Thursday, April 15 at 8 p. m. The program will observe Pan American Week proclaimed by President Truman and Governor Bradley.

Katherine Van Etten Lyford, a member of the board of governors of the Pan American Society, a noted lecturer on current Latin American affairs, will be the speaker of the evening. Recently returned from a year's trip by automobile in South America where she visited housing developments, health services, women's organizations, government leaders and leaders of the opposition, factories, hospitals, farms, schools of social work, universities, congresses and embassies, Miss Lyford is well qualified to give us an authentic "Panorama of South America."

The Ninth International Conference of American Republics now meeting in Bogota, Colombia, highlights the importance of inter-American unity. Pan American Evening at the library next Thursday evening will give Winchester people an opportunity to hear an outstanding speaker on Latin American affairs.

There will be a half hour program of South American music recordings 7:30 to 8, preceding the speaker.

Winchester people are cordially invited to "Pan American Evening" at the library. There will be no admission fee.

TWO ALARMS TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The first of two fire alarms Tuesday afternoon sounded from Box 53 at 3:38 for an explosion in an oil burner at the home of Mrs. Pauline Hamilton, 3 Lagrange street. Delayed ignition is blamed for the trouble which wrecked the heater and caused some smoke and soot damage in the house.

Box 272 came in 5:35 for a fire in the kitchen of the house of Mr. Arthur H. Haines, 39 Main street. Firemen said that the family supper of sausages got overheated in the oven and caused the fire which was of short duration and caused no damage, except to the sausage.

TROOP 12 NEWS B. S. A.

With the weather finally giving the Scouts a break, this meeting was well attended and it was a real treat not to have to wade through slush and snow as has been the wont of the Scouts most of this winter. Soon it will be light enough to drill the boys in marching tempo for the coming Memorial Day parade. Assistant Scoutmaster, Doucette, conducted the meeting in the absence of Mr. Kuchta and had the boys on their toes every minute. Norm really has a way with them and they carry out his commands like trouper. Mr. Sam Kinton of the Troop Committee brought in a fine iron frying pan which he designed and made for the Scouts, metals being his trade. It was a nice piece of work and the boys were very pleased. It will come in very handy for camping trips in the future. Mr. Howard Goodrow also of the Troop Committee brought in a nice piece of carpentry in the form of an easel for the blackboard. Designed something like curtain stretchers this easel will enable the blackboard to be used very advantageously instead of the "hanging on the wall" affair which we formerly had. The blackboard can be moved around now for instruction sessions etc. The workmanship in these two items was of the best and Troop 12 is to be congratulated on having two such interested committee men. Next week the monthly award for the best-paired will be made with Mr. Kuchta expected to announce the award with the winning patrol earning the special banner and each member receiving an award personally. The Scouts have been selling tickets for the exposition to be held at the Roberts Junior High School in Medford on April 24th from 2:00 to 10:00 p. m. These tickets are only 25c. All the phases of Scouting will be shown with many events and contests and exhibits on the program. We hope all of the Scouts' parents and friends will make it a point to visit the School and see just what Scouting is trying to do or the youth of this country. It will enlighten many of you. Camp Fellowship will open on July 11th this year we understand. We hope many of our boys will be able to be there. It will be a never to be forgotten experience for them. Camping is an old heritage from away back in the pioneer days. What boy doesn't thrill to camping?

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

The Guild of the Infant Saviour will meet on Tuesday, April 13, in Lyceum Hall at 2:30 p. m. This will be a regular sewing meeting. Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini, chairman of lectures, who has recently returned from an extended motor trip through Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and California, will relate the highlights of her trip. Tea will be served by a committee of hostesses under Mrs. Hugh McPartland.

Now available in the paper tie: Dustex dusting tissue, paper napkins, coffee cups, at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

RUMA - PENTA

White carnations and stephanotis decorated the altar of St. Mary's Church on Sunday afternoon, April 11, when Miss Petrina Mary Penta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Penta of 336 Washington street, became the bride of Joseph James Ruma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rose Ruma of 27 Derby street, Somerville. St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Bear Hill Country Club in Wakefield. Miss Mary Callahan, church organist, played the bridal music, and the soloist was Arnold Callahan, lyric tenor, who sang "Just for Today," and the "Ave Maria" by Schubert.

Miss Penta was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown, styled with a low neckline, having inserts of imported French lace, and a full skirt draped at the hips and extending to form a long train. Her long veil was caught to crown of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Three sisters of the bride preceded her to the altar, Miss Florence Penta of Winchester being the honor attendant and Miss Ann Penta and Miss Margaret Penta, both of Winchester, being bridesmaids.

The honor maid wore a green faille gown with an off-the-shoulder neckline and a bouffant skirt. Her small, narrow-shouldered matching hat was trimmed with yellow roses and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and lily.

The bridesmaids were also gowned in green faille, their dresses being styled like that of the honor maid. Their small matching hats were trimmed with yellow roses and daisies and they carried cascade bouquets of the same flowers.

Domenic DeGrande of Boston was best man and the usher corps comprised Michael Pental of Winchester, brother of the bride; Vincent Gandolfo, Guy Tringali and Domenic Spinali, all of Boston.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at Miami Beach in Florida, Mr. Ruma and his bride will make their home in Winchester.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School. Mr. Ruma, a fruit dealer, is a graduate of Somerville High School.

Maid of honor was Miss Gertrude Agri, sister of the bride. She wore a green velvet gown with matching hat and accessories of fuchsia, carrying a bouquet of American beauty roses. Fred Drago was best man for his brother and the ushers included Peter Agri, brother of the bride; and Andrew Parsons.

Arnold Callahan, tenor, sang Gounod's "Ave Maria," with Miss Mary Callahan playing both the organ accompaniment and the music for the entrance of the bridal party.

After a wedding reception at the Christopher Columbus Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Drago left on a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Washington. On their return they will reside in Woodlawn, Chelsea. Mrs. Drago is a graduate of Winchester High School, and Mr. Drago, of Boston Trade School.

In the absence of Dr. Harry Benson, club president, Ralph Bonelli presided and introduced Wade L. Grindle, principal of the high school, who in turn introduced Mr. Felmet and Miss Anifantis.

The high school octette, comprising Marilyn Straghan, Barbara Taylor, Frances Rush, Joanne Haskell, Grace Norian, Roselyn Radcliffe, Linda Wade and Lois Hotell, with Barbara May Elliott as accompanist, sang several selections, and there were solo numbers by Frank Pynn, bass, and Frank Strawbridge, baritone.

CERAMICS DISPLAYED IN SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE

The first display of the work of the Junior High School pupils in ceramics appeared recently in the office of the Superintendent of Schools. The work was conducted by pupils of Miss Edna Hatch and the kin recently acquired by the School Department apparently turns out well glazed items of pottery which are both useful and ornamental.

REV. ASA MERRICK PARKER

Rev. Asa Merrick Parker, formerly of Winchester, died on Monday at his home, 25 Hawthorne road, Wellesley Hills.

Horn in Swampscott in 1877, he was the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Parker who came to Winchester in 1873 and lived for many years at Red Roof on Main street, diagonally opposite Black Horse terrace.

The Harrison Parkers were staunch members of the Congregational Church in which Mr. Parker served as deacon, and in which Mrs. Parker and all the children became actively interested. It was therefore a great satisfaction to his parents that Merrick decided to study for the ministry.

His early education was in the Winchester Public Schools and he attended Williams College. He later went to Bangor Theological Seminary, graduating in the class of 1910. He subsequently held pastorates in Somersworth, N. H., the Mystic Side Congregational Church of West Everett and the Central Square Congregational Church of Bridgewater.

For 15 years he was chairman of the Ocean Park, Me., summer conference on missionary education, and in 1926 he became secretary for missionary promotion with the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. He later became pastor of the Congregational Church at Boscawen, N. H., serving there for 10 years, while also filling the presidency of the Isles of Shoals Congregational Conference.

He retired in 1944, but had since held interim pastorates in Lawrence, Bridgewater and Worcester.

Surviving are his wife, Alaleide Bigelow Parker, two sons, Edward R. Parker of Worcester and Paul R. Parker of New York; a foster daughter, Mrs. John C. Clifton of Wellesley Hills; three sisters, Mrs. Reeve Chipman of Andover, Mrs. Sidney Lovett of New Haven, Conn., Miss Eugenia Parker of Denmark, Me., and a brother, Gordon Parker of Winchester.

Merrick Parker like Charlie Wellman and Sidney Snow, his contemporaries, was brought up in the "Gay Nineties." They all three had a strong and serious desire to enter the ministry and they pursued their calling to the end with loyalty and success. Winchester can be proud of them all.

A memorial service will be held at the Wellesley Hills Congregational Church Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

DOG HEARING INTERESTING SESSION

A large number of residents of the Synnott Corner district appeared before the Board of Selectmen Monday evening to protest the depredations of two dogs, one small and one exceptionally large, owned by one of their neighbors.

Testimony was heard by the Board to the effect that the dogs were destructive, dangerous and not so careful about other important matters as adjacent property-holders could wish.

The owner of the dogs, heard in their behalf, stated that he had gotten rid of the smaller animal and had the larger tested for signs of viciousness with negative results. The dog, present at the hearing with the owner's children, was a model of propriety, though a bit bored by it all.

The neighbors were unconvinced and the Board after consideration, has notified the owner to subject the big dog to proper adult restraint.

MISS FINGER MARRIED IN JAPAN

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Finger of Mystic avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Marjorie, to Roger L. Periga, 1st Lieutenant, United States Army, on Sunday, April 11, in Yokohama, Japan. The marriage took place at Christ Church in Yokohama.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Periga will make their home in Kofu, Japan, where the bridegroom is stationed with the Yamashiro Military Government Unit.

The bride, a graduate of Winchester High School and of Jackson College for Women at Tufts, has been a member of the American Red Cross in Yokohama. Lt. Periga, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Perigo of Knoxville, Tenn., is a graduate of the University of Tennessee.

MR. VOLPE GUEST SPEAKER

John A. Volpe of 69 Grove street, president of the Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts, was a guest speaker at the meeting of the Massachusetts State Association of Architects, held during the past week at the Architectural Center in Boston.

Mr. Volpe was one of the speakers on a panel discussion on "Housing," together with Albert Bigelow, chairman of the State Housing Board, and Mr. Philip Nichols.

The primary topic of discussion was the recently passed so-called Sears Bill which provides for $200,000,000 in credits to cities and towns in Massachusetts.

PENNY SALE TONIGHT

All roads will lead to the town hall tonight, the big attraction being the monster Penny Sale being held in aid of St. Mary's Parish Building Fund.

The sale will open at 8 and from then until closing time there won't be a dull minute. You can, of course, win a 1948 Ford. Your chances are as good as any, but if you don't you will still have a lot of fun, and there are 300 other prizes, any one of which is well worth the waiting. Come on down!

WINCHESTER TRUST LOW BIDDER

First Time Local Bank Finances Town Loan

Winchester Trust Company was the low bidder for the $300,000 worth of bonds issued by the town of Winchester in anticipation of revenue from taxes. The loan is for seven months, dated April 1, and payable November 15. The Trust Company's low bid was $5 plus $1 premium, lowest of seven received.

From a local viewpoint it is gratifying to see a town loan wholly financed by a local banking institution. From the bank angle Mr. Havenport Davis, treasurer of the Winchester Trust Company, expressed his institution's pleasure at having the opportunity, presented through the loan, of expressing its confidence in the town by offering a most advantageous bid.

Bids were received as follows: Winchester Trust Co., $5 (plus $1 premium); Second National, Boston, .75%; First National, Boston, .75%; Merchants National, Boston, .80 (plus $1 premium); National Shawmut, Boston, .80; Winchester National, .80; Solomon Bros. & Hutzler, N. Y., .815.

SELECTMEN RECEIVE POLICE CHIEF LIST

At long last the Board of Selectmen has received from the Civil Service Commission the list of eligibles for promotion to Chief in the Winchester Police Department, filling the vacancy which has existed since the resignation of the former chief, William H. Rogers, last summer. Receipt of the list has been delayed by appeals from the grades originally announced by the Civil Service Commission, and until those appeals were finally disposed of no list could be established.

The list as received by the Selectmen showed no change in the first three grades in that order by the Commission immediately after the examination on Oct. 11, 1947. In order of their grades they are: Sgt. Joseph J. Devro, 96.02; Sgt. Charles J. Harwood, 93.00; Officer Edward F. Bowler, 91.71. Other members of the Department who passed the examination included Officer John J. Dolan, Lt. Edward W. O'Connell, Officers Winthrop L. Palmer, William T. Haggerty, James F. Norman, John J. Murray and Joseph L. Quigley.

All three on the list submitted by the Civil Service Commission passed with high grades, that of Sergeant Devro being reported to be among the highest recorded in a chief's examination in Massachusetts. Sergeant Harwood is the only veteran on the list, having served in both World Wars and being a past commander of Winchester Post, A. L. His father, the late Lt. John A. Harwood, was a member of the Police Department for many years. Officer Bowler is one of the younger members of the department, making his standing in the list particularly commendable.

SMITH CLUB TO HEAR HANS KOHN

Prof. Hans Kohn will be the house guest in Winchester of Mrs. Harrison F. Lyman, who will entertain at a small dinner party just before his lecture on Saturday evening, April 17th at 8:30 at the Wyman School Hall, under the sponsorship of the Winchester Smith College Club. Prof. Kohn, who returns to Winchester in response to repeated requests, will speak on the "Prospect for Europe," drawing upon observations he made during his trip last fall through Britain, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, France and Belgium. Prof. Kohn is singularly qualified to analyze European affairs. Born in Prague, Czechoslovakia, he served during World War I in the Austrian Army, was taken prisoner by the Russians and subsequently spent almost five years in Turkestan and Siberia, witnessing the Russian revolutions and civil war. Returning to Europe through the Far East, he lived for a time in London and Paris, settling later in Jerusalem where he studied the problems of nationalism in the Near and Middle East. In 1931, he came to the U. S. under the auspices of the Institute of International Education in N. Y. In 1934, he was appointed Professor of Modern European History at Smith College. In addition, he has taught at Harvard, Mt. Holyoke, and in the summer schools of Yale, the University of California, and the University of Colorado, and others.

Mrs. Neil H. Borden, President of the Winchester Smith College Club, will introduce Professor Kohn, and Mrs. J. Waldo Bond and her committee will serve coffee during an informal reception following the lecture.

GARDNER WINNER

Herbert "Gardner" Gardner emerged the winner from last week's regular meeting of the Palmer Beach Horse Show Association, another thrashy session that found the wind blowing so shrewdly off the chilly waters of Wedge that the warriors finally muddled over by the swings in an effort to keep as far as possible from the cold blasts of old Borealis.

President Royal "Paper Trade" Teale selected the spot after a careful tour of the ground, but the choice didn't help his game appreciably, for he failed to win in a single series during the entire session. "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Prize of Stow and Champion of all Nahanset, didn't fare much better, also losing every match, but he engaged in one less than Mr. Teale, so his soup was to that extent slightly less sour.

Mr. Prihnam, he of the "thin finger", fared pretty well, winning three in a row with Mr. Gardner and then having "an important engagement" when it was proposed that the winning combination be broken up.

The Secretary put in an appearance for the match and was warmly welcomed. It is always nice to have one of his ability around; that is, except for his partners.

The Scribner and Mr. Teale squared away against Messrs. Gardner and Prihnam, and lost out two games to one, winning the first 25-21 on an unexpected ringer in the last box by the Secretary. The next two games we will pass lightly over. Neither Mr. Teale nor the Secretary did as well as either hoped the other would do, and as a consequence that mutually helpful feeling of cordiality which one likes to see between team-mates seemed badly lacking.

Mr. McLaughlin appeared toward the end of the match and joined with Mr. Teale against the Gardner-Prihnam combine. Mr. Teale at one point got a double-bender, but little else, and Mr. McLaughlin finally was forced to accept defeat, despite what any one would have to call a good sporting effort on his part. He again proved unequal to carrying the white man's burden in the succeeding match, when he had the Secretary for a partner. The Scribner and Willie captured the first game, but lost the next two. To all the McLaughlin rap of wormwood to the very brink he lost the final match of the session, playing with Mr. Teale against Mr. Gardner and the Secretary. The Scribner enjoying one of those rare streaks of passable pitching that keeps him at the game and makes it possible for him to get anyone to gamble on him as a partner.

Arthur E. Butters, sometimes called the "State of Maine Champ", failed to put in an appearance. Since it is too early in the season for "fish fries", and the day was wholly unsuitable for golf, and the teachers' howling leaguery is over, it can only be supposed that he was engaging in secret practice, assuring if possible to avoid the elementary showing he made at his last appearance on the courts.

Another class of Aviation Cadets in the reactivated Aviation Cadet Program which is open to veterans will start July 1, according to M Sgt. Raymond J. Harber, Station Commander, Woburn Recruiting.

C. Y. O. BASEBALL CANDIDATES OUT

Candidates were called out for practice for the C. Y. O. Intermediate and Junior teams on Sunday afternoon April 11th at Ginn Field. The weather proved cool and blustery but the boys went eagerly at the task at hand to whip up two fast teams for the competition this year. Both outfits will be officially in the C. Y. O. League this year where last year both teams played informally against any opponents. This year they will play non C. Y. O. opponents also but at the same time will be "grunning" for a league championship similar to the one that the girls' softball team brought home last season.

The boys seemed much better than last year even at this first practice. Long ball hitters were much in evidence and a few balls found their way into the river.

Rev. Fr. Robert Sipple C. Y. O. Director under Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan Pastor of St. Mary's has appointed Mr. Henry Barry as Manager of the Junior team and Mr. Vincent F. Erhard as Manager of the Intermediates. The Juniors are under 16 years of age and the Intermediates 18 and under.

Don Kinton star pitcher of last year's team as appointed Captain and Freddy Patterson star catcher with the Juniors last year has moved up to the Intermediates and will be a welcome addition. Jack Dyer, left-hander of last year's team is serving in the Air Corps in the West and his place is expected to be filled by a newcomer, Ed Roberts.

Henry Barry is currently at Holy Cross and will not be available until later, however there seem to be a few recruits to round out the team two deep or more at some positions.

Last year's players reporting again this year are Don Kinton, Henry Barry, J. John Nowell, Ed Roberts, John O'Brien, John McElhinney, J. Leo Williams, J. Martin Flaherty, and Fred Patterson. New members are Don Kinton, J. Ed Roberts, Dick Barry, J. Ed Barry, Dick Barry and Frank Krivka who were signed up but did not make this season. Practice consisted of "nepper games and hitting out flies. The boys seemed much better than last year even at this first practice. Long ball hitters were much in evidence and a few balls found their way into the river.

BADMINTON MEETING

On next Tuesday evening, April 20, at 9:30 p. m. the Winchester Badminton Club will hold play long enough to hold its Annual Meeting. The nominating committee, appointed by president Ed Williams, will present a slate of seven members for election as the Club's Governing Board for the year 1948-49. The Club will have an opportunity to enlarge the list of nominees and will then proceed to the election of a Board of seven members. From this board the Club will elect a president who, in turn, will name a secretary and a treasurer as well as team captains for the competitions next winter.

If the number of players last Tuesday is a fair indication of continued interest in the Club, they ought to be a bumper attendance at the coming Annual Meeting. Only those members who have paid in full the dues of $5 for the current 1947-48 season will be eligible to vote.

FATHERS AND DAUGHTERS NIGHT

On Friday, April 9, the Winchester Order of Rainbow Girls No. 50, held a Fathers and Daughters Night. Between 70 and 75 fathers and daughters attended the banquet. The fathers and daughters were served a delicious ham supper. After the supper the Winchester and Woburn Rainbow Girls put on a musical show for entertainment.

Norma Bergquist, worthy advisor of the Rainbow Girls, both sang and played the piano. Marilyn Ward and Genevieve Groves sang, also. Bonny Tutty and Joan Wolsey provided a musical comedy skit. Jean McKinley and Shirley Kinney did piano solos. Dorothy Wescott did a baton twirling act. A Grand March served as a closing finale.

WINCHESTER OPENS WITH WAKEFIELD

Winchester High plays the first game of its 1948 baseball season next Tuesday afternoon, playing Wakefield at Leonard Field at 3 o'clock.

This is a Middlesex League game and Coach Ted Bartlett is very eager to open up with the victory. He'll have several letter players in his starting lineup, but last year's team had such a doleful season that having played a year ago doesn't help too much.

In practice games with Brown & Nichols and Wilmington this spring the locals have looked pretty good, and up to yesterday it looked like they could give Wakefield quite a ball game with any kind of pitching. That was before Paul Roche was declared scholastically ineligible. Roche, a letter outfielder last year has been playing third this spring and looking good at this important slot. His loss is a severe one at this stage of the game.

Coach Bartlett will select his starting hurler from among Bob McElhinney, letter pitcher from last year; Don Kinton, who pitched a lot of ball with the C.Y.O. last summer; and Van Slack, football captain, who was a letter as an outfielder last year. Slack pitched some effective ball in the playground league last summer, and Coach Bartlett has been working with him on the hill this spring. He has a good level one, but has a tendency to make that pitch a little too "fat" in there.

Roche's loss means that Coach Bartlett will have to shake up his whole infield. "Lem" Priest or "Hinky" Horn will have to play third and neither has had any experience at the hot corner. Priest had won the starting assignment at second, but if he is switched to third, his arm is stronger than Horn's, then "Hinky", a shortstop last year, will play second.

"Al" Switzer, two-way letterman, will play first and Paul McElhinney, a newcomer, will play short. "Kenny" Donaghy, last year's "backstop" will open the season behind the bat.

In the outfield Clint, "Smummy" Bellini will take good care of left, and Stark will play center if he doesn't pitch. "Major" Daniels has the right field starting assignment.

Winchester has two league games next week, following Wakefield with Reading at Reading on Friday. The complete schedule follows:

20—Wakefield
23—at Reading
27—Lexington
30—at Belmont

BEGGS AND COBB BEAT ST. JOHN'S

Beggs and Cobb soccer team, blanked St. John's of Dorchester Sunday afternoon at Franklin Field. It was the first win for B. C., the season's opener with Medford having resulted in a loss.

Dick Thomas played a sterling game at goal for the winners with "Gook" Gibbons starting on the offense. Beggs and Cobb will play again Sunday, April 18, opponent to be announced.

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK MEN MARKING TIME

Weather and the condition of the new track on Manchester Field have retarded the development of the Winchester High School track squad this far this spring, and Coach Henry Knowlton has wisely decided to keep his team out of the invitation meet at Concord on the holiday.

Coach Knowlton has a squad of more than 70 out each day, but the weather has been so cold that he has been unable to do much of anything but general conditioning. "Red" Briggs, former Winchester middle distance runner who was a consistent point winner for Tufts freshman this past indoor season, has been working out with the local candidates this past week preparing himself for a novice road race which the North Dorchester Club is running on the holiday. "Red" has been a big help to the high school distance men who have been jogging with him.

Coach Knowlton is pleased with the improvement shown thus far by the veteran distance runner. "Ted" Covert, who was a disappointment last year, but who is expected to pick up many points for the local forces this season. Hanford led a heavy cold at the start of the season, "Ted" has been working easily, but has looked much better than a year ago.

Winchester may do better in the sprint than was at first expected. Big "Charlie" Capone, sophomore novice, got the big ball out better than 38 feet his first try, which isn't bad at all. Mario Mascioli, tall football mid, is another working with the shot as are Muehlich, Galbreath, Quinn and Thudlines, all football players.

Pete Kirwan, brother of Winchester's former State Champion Tom, now competing for Penn., has reported for the squad, and if he can capture some of his brother's form, should be helpful.

Winchester's first meet in April 30 with Lexington here. Following is the complete schedule:

April 30 Lexington
May 7 Arlington
May 12 Melrose
May 15 at Belmont relays
May 19 at Belmont
May 26 Woburn
May 29 State meet

FOUR HUNDRED HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ATTEND STATE CHORAL CLINIC

Four hundred high school students from the various towns and cities in Massachusetts attended the Massachusetts State Choral Clinic held at Tufts College, Medford, on Saturday, April 10. Winchester was represented by 15 members of the high school chorus accompanied by Miss Eleanor Anfantis, choral director. The Choral Clinic was under the sponsorship of the Massachusetts Music Educators Association.

The program started at 1 o'clock with registration at Cousseau Gymnasium. Winchester students were then shown around the campus by a guide while Miss Anfantis attended a panel discussion on vocal problems.

Following the panel discussion, the 400 high school students were ushered into Goodard Chapel where a sight-reading session was held under the direction of Dr. Thompson Stone, head of the music department at Tufts College. After the sight-reading session, students had an opportunity to listen to demonstration groups which illustrated various types of choral singing.

The Choral Clinic ended with a concert sing where 400 high school students joined again in song. The following musical selections were sung: "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" by Bach, "Grand Un True Courage Lord" by Bach, "Passing By" by Purcell and "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan.

Members of the Winchester High School Chorus who participated in the sight-reading session and concert sing were Jane Beggs, Linda Wade, Lois Hottel, Cynthia Babcock, Judith Merrow, Dorothy Brandt, Peggy Holmes, Anne Lindsey, Frank Strawbridge, Peter Clark, Don Ducharme, Frank Gigliotti, Robert Loftus and James Hennessey.

WON CYO SWIMMING PRIZE

Winchester brought home a prize from the big annual C.Y.O. Swimming Meet last Friday evening at the Municipal Pool in Brookline.

"Jimmy" Carroll of 121 Sylvester avenue finish third in the 25 yard freestyle event for 12 year old boys. He was one of a team of seven boys representing the Immaculate Conception Parish in the meet and handled by John O'Rourke, lifeguard at Foley Beach in Woburn. "Jimmy's" team-mates were Joseph Linahan, Paul and Thomas McGowan, Paul Murphy, Edward Cossette and Richard Carroll.

The local boys were under quite a handicap competing against youngsters who have the benefit of regular practice sessions in pools. Taking this into account the Immaculates did well, several getting into the finals of their events and Carroll bringing home a prize.

ART ASSOCIATION SHOWS
LOCAL TALENT

The Winchester Art Association has currently at the Library Art Gallery its exhibition of paintings by residents of Winchester, the so-called local talent show.

This is always among the most interesting exhibitions of the season, and this year's seems unusually rewarding. Some years ago one stopped apologizing for the work of our local amateurs, and if things continue to improve we soon will be able to brag about their pictures. As a matter of fact the Association has every right to be proud of this year's show. Amateurs and professionals exhibit side by side and each year finds it increasingly difficult to differentiate between the money-painters and the best of those who paint for pleasure.

Included in this year's exhibit are Salem Harbor, Mary L. Hodge; POSTERS MADE BY

ST. MARY'S PUPILS

A most unusual and colorful exhibit in honor of Public Health Nurse Week may be seen in the windows of the Edison Electric Company in the Square, while across the street in Hovey's window, there is still another novel and esthetic poster. The lobby of the Winchester Theatre is displaying one of the finest posters made by these youngsters—a poster showing a family being served by a public health nurse.

The theatre poster, which Mr.
Stranger kindly placed in a prominent position, was made by little Margaret Doherty, a 7th grade pupil at St. Mary's School, who lives on Fitzgerald road. All who have seen this poster have exclaimed over its artistry and its prediction of the future which lies ahead for this little artist.
Jean Volpe, a sixth grade pupil at St. Mary's, painted the excellent and descriptive poster in Hovey's window. And in the Edison window, arranged through the courtesy of Mr. Simpson, the posters there have been executed by the following pupils: Mary Marley, 8th grade; Bernard Boyle, 8th grade; Joan Harrold, 7th grade; Lee Griffin, 6th grade; Reynolds Goodrow, 8th grade; Gail Watson, 8th grade;
and Lawrence Erhard, 6th grade.

OPEN HOUSE AT BOARD OF HEALTH

There was a tiny baby girl, yawning and pink and cuddly, athe unbelievable age of three weeks! There was another mite, weighing about 15 pounds, that gurgled and dimpled at his visitors while the nurse placed him on the scales, oblivious of his "birthday suit". And around a large low play-table, in the center of the room, six or eight little tots, the oldest not more than 3, played earnestly with plastic blocks and picture books. Mothers with babies carefully wrapped in pink or blue blankets came and went, dressed and undressed their youngsters for examination.

For this was the day of the Well-Baby Conference on Tuesday at the Board of Health office on Mt. Vernon street, and this week was a special day, because it was a part of Public Health Nurse Week. In honor of the occasion, the Public Health Department opened its Conference to visitors on Tuesday, so that residents who were interested might know that there was such a conference in this town, and might wish to see how it worked.

Miss Hilda Hope, public health department nurse, Mrs. Robert Richardson, volunteer helper, Mrs.
Doris Pierre, Red Cross Nutritionist, and Dr. Roger M. Burgoyne, varied on their Tuesday work as usual. Mothers came in, just as they have been doing each Tuesday, bringing one, two, or perhaps three of their small children for examination, check-up, feeding advice.
While tiny babies were undressed, weighed, examined, the older children played. Mothers took off their coats and chatted with the nurses and other mothers.

It was an afternoon marked by many pleasant things, and there was no noise or confusion—unless you call a little child's gleeful laughter confusion—a rather special Tuesday.

In the rear of the Conference room, a refreshment table had been set up, with the Winchester District Nursing Association as hostesses. Fruit punch and homemade cookies were set out, attractively arranged, and one table was very gay with red and white sweet peas.

Visitors who came to the Open House, mothers who brought their babies, and the workers at the Conference all enjoyed refreshments. Mrs. Ernest Clark was chairman of the social part of the Open House, and she was assisted by Mrs. William Kugler, Mrs.
Holdsworth, Mrs. George E. Connor, and by other members of the District Nursing Association.

Officially, the Open House on Tuesday began at 2:30 in the afternoon but a few mothers and a few visitors came early, and a few stayed beyond the 4 o'clock deadline. Visitors watched the babies and the small children, enthralled, because each child was so attractive, so well-behaved, and seemed to feel quite at home.

Small babies were placed on a countr, their clothing removed and placed in a compartment overhead, and then weighed and examined, while the mothers smiled and while the youngsters twisted and cried and beamed at the onlookers, visitors just stood and admired. It seemed to them a wonderful place, a Wel-Baby Conference, and they were proud of their town for having one! And the Open House gave them a better understanding of the many activities which the public health nurses carry on in towns and cities, and right here in Winchester.

STATE FELLOWSHIP
PRESIDENT TO SPEAK

Next Sunday morning at 9:30
a. m. Mr. Alden Hehard, a student at Northeastern University, and President of the State Pilgrim Fellowship, will speak to the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church on his experiences in that office and the organization to which the Forum belongs.

Last Sunday Rev. John P. Rohertson, Director of Religious Education for the church, spoke to the Forum on "Our Belief in Prayer and the Sacraments". This was his last occasion to speak to the Forum as he is going to his own church later in the year. Mr. Rohertson will be missed deeply by all the members of the church organization as well as his many other friends outside of Winchester.

The election of next year's Forum officers will be held on Sunday, April 15th; all Forum members are urged to attend this important meeting.

TEACHERS HEAR
DR. PADELFORD

Speaking before an open meeting of the Winchester Teachers' Club at the Wyman School Auditorium last Wednesday evening Dr. Norman Padelford, Professor of International Relations at M. I. T., declared that he saw no immediate prospects for war between the United States and the Soviet Republic.

Leading up to his prediction, Dr.
Padelford cited the Russian strategy of defense in depth as the method used against the armies of Napoleon and Hitler. He called attention to the Soviet policy of strengthening the so-called inner circle by making overtures to nearby countries, and pointed out the Soviet's defense of its government by an aggressive political action against the capitalist nations.

Prefacing his remarks by giving a picture of the tremendous piling up of destructive force since the dropping of two-pound bombs in World War I, Dr. Padelford indicated that the bomb on Hiroshima was a more antiquated through continued research by American scientists. Not only is the bomb a dangerous weapon but the employment of which statisticians can predict the exact time needed to devastate the world, but bacteriological warfare is a further threat to the peace and security of the world. He further pointed out that the best scientific thought does not allow in the foreseeable future the launching of guided missiles to destroy lives and property prior to invasion.

Security in an atomic age, Dr.
Padelford believes, may be achieved through feeding the minds of Europeans and Asiatics on the beneficial nature of the democratic way of life. First, however, there must be conscious effort to understand ourselves and in that direction lies the hope for security in the future, not in the mistaken methods of the past which saw the leaders of democratic states withdrawing control of the war industries of former enemy countries in an effort to build up buffer nations to absorb the fury of attack.

TROOP 6 NEWS

The final score for the February-March point contest has at last been tabulated and the results show the top five places to be held by Neil Munster (591 points), Ted Elliott (525), Fisher Wolfe (509), Henry Hooper (503), and Darr Holdsworth (500). A suitable award will be arranged for some or all of these boys at the next troop meeting.

Last weekend many of the Scouts of this troop took advantage of the training course held at the Camp Lehigh. The course consisted of demonstrations of various wood-craft skills which are considered necessary for mountain trips. Reports have it that in general the course was very successful.

Under the direction of Ethan Moore and Neil Munster plans for Troop 6's part in the Fellsland Council Exposition have been formulated and are being put into action.

The troop's booth will be one of the largest at the exposition and will have its topic "Camping".
A short skit is being prepared under the leadership of Doug Hawkins to be given to the evening at the exposition. Teams are being formed to enter in the following events: Knots, Semaphore signaling, Fire by Friction, Morse signaling, Flint and Steel, Tag of War for boys fifteen and over.

Over next weekend, April 17-18-19, the troop will go on an expedition to Cape Cod. The planning and operation of this trip is being done by one of the troop's most capable leaders, Fisher Wolfe. Although Fisher has tried almost every possible resource for transportation, he has been unable to secure sufficient number of cars.
This means that the trip will probably have to be limited to certain boys.

If any man, especially fathers or brothers of boys in the troop, would donate his time and car on either the weekend of May 1-2 or on the weekend of May 15-16, it would be greatly appreciated if he would call Dr. Wolfe at Winchester 6-0889-W.

Ethan Moore, Neil Munster, and Bill Davies deserve many congratulations on passing the Board of Review for their second class rank. They will receive their Second Class Barges at the next troop meeting.

Scouts of this troop should remember that there will be a meeting next Monday. Please attend!

READING FOR CHILDREN

Mothers in Winchester will be glad to know that the university extension division State Department of Education is sponsoring a course in "Reading for Children".
This course is for parents, particularly mothers who are anxious to have their children improve in their reading.

Next Wednesday morning at 9:40 enrollments will be taken and the lecturer will be Frances Darling, a graduate of the Carnegie Library School, Pittsburgh. The series will be held at the Winchester Public Library, and each lecture lasts for one and a half hours.
Questions may be asked of the lecturer by mail or by phone. The phone if one cannot get down to the library.

Mothers know how important it is to read easily, assignments may be more easily covered, home promotions are insured in many cases... but do the children know? The outside help mothers may give children will be learned in this short course of three lectures. In each lecture all ages will be covered from the pre school through the junior high school grades.

Veterans of World War II who reside here may take this course without charge for instruction, but the enrollment fee is very small.

We have the wanted green cloth school bags again. Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

VETERANS HOUSING COMMITTEE PONDERS
STATE AID

The Winchester Veterans Housing Committee, comprising Frank P. Hurley, John E. Allen and Wade
L. Grindle, is meeting Saturday morning at the Library to discuss the provisions of the new bill which provides State funds to cities and towns as an aid to veterans' housing. The committee has already met with Rep. Harrison Chadwick who has explained the bill to the committee in detail.

Briefly, the bill enables towns like Winchester to create a Veterans' Housing Authority and appropriate money to build housing units on town land for local veterans. Units would be for some 30 or 40 families and would rent up to $40 a month.

Money to pay for the units is to be appropriated by the various municipalities with the State subsidizing them to the extent of some small percentage of the cost, such as 2½ percent. In effect the town would build the units and own them, renting them to veterans, with the State paying a small portion of the cost.

Nothing can be done in Winchester toward accepting the new act without a vote of the town, and the local Veterans' Housing Committee will not be ready to make any recommendations until its members have opportunity to further study the ramifications of the law and to conduct a survey to find out the need for such housing units in Winchester.

A member of the Housing Committee told the Star that a previous survey conducted by the committee showed very little acute need for veterans housing in Winchester.

Through the winter lack of interest caused the Veterans' Housing Committee to meet only once a month. With the coming of spring and greater mobility the Committee is now meeting each Wednesday evening from 7-9 at the Library and any veteran having a housing problem is welcome to present it to them.

CUB PACK 7 NEWS

After several announcements regarding coming events, the fun began. The first on the program was our new Pack Band who performed in a very artistic manner, the following boys taking part: Ray Simpson, Jay Robinson, Richard Bingham, Jeffrey Conn, Roger Delorey, David Gowing, Stanley Millen.

Following the band we had an enjoyable performance by the Tumbling Clown of Den 1 and 2.

Den 3 put on a chariot race with horses and all and when the judge decided who the winner was the fun began, the losing team chasing the other and judge around the hall.

Den 4 put on their act next, this being a dance with all the boys dressed as girls and we wouldn't have believed our boys could make up to be beautiful.

Den 5 had the side show with wild man, strong man and all the rest. The last act was put on by Den 6 which was an Atom Smasher, this being a large box into which a giant was and after a lot of noise, out popped a number of Cubs.

This ended a very enjoyable evening during which balloons and penalty were sold by several of the club members.

Next Pack meeting will be April 16th. And don't forget the Exposition at Medford, Saturday, April 24th.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON
NOTES

The final board meeting of the current season is being held today at Hartwell Farms in Lexington.
Prior to the meeting the members of the board are to be honored by guests of Mrs. J. Herbert Waite of Boston.

The annual meeting of the club will be held at the Hotel Reginald Bradley, a Lodge on Paul on Friday afternoon, Apr.
23rd at 2:30. Mrs. Richard A. Ter-low, president will preside. Following the business meeting an election of officers for the club will

Screen and Theatre Personalities
I have known". Mrs. French founded the Boston Charlotte Cushman Club, to benefit young girls of the stage, twenty-one years ago. She also organized the State Door Canteen during the last war.

Mrs. French herself has had theatrical experience, as she at one time played in silent motion pictures and later on the stage.

Following the program
Paul C. Dunn and members of her club committee will serve refreshments.

SONS OF ITALY BOWLING

Another successful howling session of Winchester Lodge 1580 was brought to a successful close last Saturday evening with a fine banquet sponsored by the Sports Committee of the lodge for the members of the bowling league. Emil Beauchamp of Woburn catered the dinner and presented a fine turkey dinner that was enjoyed by all the members.

In addition to the banquet, Chairman Hokie Procopio presented an interesting program for the remainder of the evening with the main interest centering about the presentation of awards to the various winners.

Joe Russo, as toastmaster for the evening, presented several guests, each of whom spoke a few words and commented on the activities of the evening. The invited guests were Tony DeTeso and Frank Prin-ziano, respective coaches of Wilmington and Ayer High Schools, and the principal guest of the evening, John Volpe, grand financial secretary.

Tony and Frank, who were both prominent athletes in their town are now rival coaches and their comments and discussion of a recent football game betwixt their two schools proved very interesting and entertaining to the gathering.

John Volpe commented on the various activities of the lodge in its athletic endeavors and the fine records achieved. In addition, Mr.
Volpe presented the three very handsome trophies, which he personally donated, to the three respective league leaders. These awards were as follows:

Tony Saraco, high average, 86.8
Chick Vespucci, high triple 359
Dick Fiore, high single, 135

Along with these awards, many others were presented. Gene Ri-tundi, venerable of the lodge, spoke a few words and presented Andy Diapella, Musky Tofuri and Sam
Corbi, each with a token of appreciation for their fine work with the softball team during the past summer. In addition, Joe Russo and Joe Ciarcia also received tokens of appreciation for their work with the bowling league during the past season.

The winning teams then received their rewards for the season's efforts. Holy Cross, captained by Chick Vespucci came in first during both halves and automatically clinched first place. Other members of the team were Hokie Procopio, Gene Rotundi, Jeff Gaudioso, Frank Penta, Dom Simonetta and Benny Gigliotti and each one received a substantial cash prize as his share.

The team that took second place honors was the best-known and the most active team in the league, St.
Mary's, which was made up of six of the Fiore brothers, Skitchy, Bob, Mulligan, Roundy, Correction and Louie all combined to beat Georgetown in the playoffs and grab the second place cash prize.

In the hardest fought match of the playoffs, Villanova edged out Fordham for third place cash prizes. It took the last string of the playoff match to decide the winner with Villanova on top. This team was made up of Andy Diapella, Henry and Benjamin Subrizi, Jimmy Gangi, Tony Rizzo and captained by Cos Simonetta.

To the individual leaders of the remaining teams went prizes also.
These were awarded to Musky To-furi, Nutre Dame; Joe Ciarcia, Georgetown; Tony Jacobellis, Boston College; Tony Chelato, Fordham; and Harry Chelato of Santa Clara.

To the rest of the members in the league went a fine banquet and many consolations with the thought that next year will be another chance for them to aim for the prizes they failed to get this year.

HIGH SCHOOL WON PRACTICE GAMES

Winchester High won a couple of practice baseball games last week-end, beating Browne and Nichols, 8-3, in five innings on Friday, and shellingacking Wilmington High, 15-1, in the cold of Saturday. Both games were at Leonard Field, and Coach Ted Bartlett felt that his charges did pretty well on the whole.

"Skitchy" Carroll and Bob Mc-Elhinney divided the pitching against Browne and Nichols with Ken Donaghy receiving. Don Keaton, Jack Chisholm and Vern Slark worked the Wilmington thing with Donaghy. Paul Roche, Al Switzer and Slack hit well in both games.

TWENTY-SIX SELECTED FOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

With impressive ceremony, 26 members of the junior and senior classes of Winchester High School were initiated into the National Honor Society last Friday morning. In his charge to the newly selected members, Principal Wade L. Grindle congratulated them on their successful achievement to date and expressed the hope that their future would be no less commendable. He urged them to see to it that no occasion might arise when their selection as honor students could be questioned.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris extended his congratulations and expressed the desire that more honors be awarded for scholarship and fervor for the glamorous and superficial. Citing Solomon's request, "Give me the man with the understanding heart," and Abraham Lincoln's, "The things I want to know are in books. My best friend is the man who can give me a book I can't read," as typical of the leaders, Dr. Norris deplored the fact that man loses sight of his ideals in the face of rash values. "Pre-requisite to American citizenship," he said, "is the ability to stand on one's own feet and to make up one's own mind." He closed by naming the Aberjona Chapter as the nucleus in the school and in the community to hold scholarship high and to make known what it means.

Earlier in the program President Roger Swanson briefly outlined the objectives of the National Honor Society. Mr. Grindle told how the Aberjona Chapter came to Winchester by way of the Aberjona Club, the Student Council, and certain English classes. He said that only five percent of the juniors and 15 percent of the seniors in the upper third of their classes are eligible.

The following juniors were announced as members selected by vote of their classmates, the faculty, and the faculty council: Dorothy Buckner, Ruth Chipman, Peter Clarke, Richard Cleary, Paul Dillingham, Judith Flanders, Ruth Morse, Margaret O'Leary, and Robert Singer.

Selected in like manner were seniors Ann Albree, Jane Beggs, Joyce Dana, Robert Eckberg, Nancy Grant, Joan Harris, Peggy Holmes, Lois Hottel, Richmond Keeney, Jean Kelley, Richard Kugler, Rosalind McPeak, Elizabeth Norian, Edward Shaw, Joel Sloum, Malory Smith and Alan Switzer.

Charter members now in the senior class are President Roger Swanson, Vice President Peter Sorokin, Secretary Norma Bergquist, Louise Anderson, Janet Blackham, Ben Coe, John Holdsworth, Sally Holmes, and Edward Moore.

The program opened with a reading from the Bible by Norma Bergquist, and "The Lord's Prayer." A candlelighting ceremony, each candle representing one of the lights of the Society, Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service, was followed by the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner," ending the second annual National Honor Society initiation.

HORBY CENTER PAPER DRIVE

The Hobby Center will conduct a town-wide paper drive on Saturday, April 24. All town residents are asked to leave paper and old magazines at the curb where it will be collected during the day. Proceeds from the sale of the paper will be used to purchase much needed equipment and to expand the activities at the Hobby Center, 12 Bacon street.

Last Saturday set a record for attendance at the Hobby Center. Over 125 children were present when classes began at 9:30 a. m. The morning was spent in finishing work in the hobbies of their choice which has been going on for the past six weeks. New assignments were made following the principle of giving the children an opportunity of learning more than one hobby or craft during the sessions.

After the classes, the children enjoyed a program of sound motion pictures supplied by Walter Ennis, Jr., and shown by Mr. Robertson of the First Congregational Church.

The program was composed of a sports film on deep sea fishing, a cartoon "The Pups First Christmas" and a travelogue on Africa in color.

Regular classes will be held as usual at the Hobby Center on Saturday, April 17. All Winchester children are welcome to attend.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF HOSPITAL STAFF

The 1948 banquet of the Winchester Hospital Staff on the evening of Tuesday, April 13th, was a gala event in every respect. At the Winchester Country Club 54 staff members and guests were served a dinner of special excellence, which was accompanied and followed by a varied program of wit, wisdom and entertainment. The speaker of the evening was Frank O'Connor, news editor of the Boston American, whose subject was "Current Events of Special Interest to the Medical Profession." Dr. Thomas E. Caulfield as harpist soloist, with Dr. Halligan at the piano, gave much pleasure, as did Dr. Bouve with his accordion.

Dr. Sheehy, president of the staff, presided, and introduced the invited guests: Mr. Edward H. Kenerson, president of the hospital's board of directors; Mr. Erasmus B. Balger and Mr. William F. Hickey, members of the board; Mr. Ralph H. Bonnell, chairman of the Building Fund, and Mr. Tucker Vye, administrator. The guests spoke briefly, as did several members of the staff. Under the leadership of Dr. Halligan, there was mass singing, both hearty and harmonious. The entertainment committee, Dr. Maletta and Dr. McManus, have added to their laurels by the success of this year's banquet.

SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Shirley Crowley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crowley of 103 Canal street was pleasantly surprised on Monday evening, April 12, when she returned to her home after doing a convenient errand to find a group of 30 friends and classmates waiting to offer congratulations upon her 15th birthday.

Two of Miss Crowley's closest friends, Miss Ann Hooper and Miss "Ginger" Frongillo, were co-hostesses for the party which began pleasantly as everyone watched Miss Crowley open the packages containing many lovely gifts. Afterward dancing was enjoyed, with flash pictures being snapped of the dancing couples, and a dainty collation was served.

The evening passed pleasantly, but quickly, and at its conclusion the group departed wishing Shirley many happy returns of the day.

FIREMEN FREED HOY FROM TREE

Shortly after 5:30 Monday afternoon a call was sent in to the Central Fire Station for assistance to get a seven-year-old boy out of a tree at the rear of the Lallas residence on Main street near Black Horse terrace.

Capt. J. Edward Noonan responded with Firemen Joe Shea, Robert Wyman and Charles Moran. They found Bradbury Cliff of 410 Main street, in climbing over a fence and through a clump of three trees, had caught his left knee in a fork between branches and was unable to free himself.

The firemen sprang the fork and inserted a block, after which the boy was helped out, apparently none the worse for his experience.

School supplies at the Star Office.

COTTONE — CICCULO

At St. John's Church in Roxbury on Sunday afternoon, April 11, Miss Angelina Christine Ciccolo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ciccolo of Maywood street, Roxbury, became the bride of Gaspare Philip Cottone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cottone of Irving street. The ceremony was performed at 3:30 o'clock by the Rev. Daniel F. Dunn, and was followed by a reception held in Winchester at Christopher Columbus Hall.

Miss Ciccolo was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin and tulle with a tulle yoke edged with submeris satin piping and a tiny turtle neckline. The full sleeves ended in close fitting pointed wrists and the full skirt falling from a low circular waist-line extended to form a six-foot train. The gown was designed by the honor maid and Miss Donna Antonucci. With it the bride wore her mother's three-quarter length embroidered veil, caught to a five pointed crown trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Annette Anastasi of South Boston was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Marie Cottone of Winchester, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Phyllis Brown of South Boston, a cousin of both the bride and bridegroom. The honor maid wore a blue tulle tulle dress styled with a square cuff neckline, three-quarter sleeves, a tight-fitting bodice and full skirt with a double bustle. Her flowers were daisies and tulips arranged in an old fashioned bouquet and she wore a blue veil held in place with a headband of fresh white flowers.

The bridesmaids wore yellow tulle dresses styled like that of the honor maid. Their old fashioned bouquets combined daisies and orchid sweet peas and they too wore headbands of mixed fresh flowers.

Marlo Cottone of Winchester was best man for his brother and another brother, Peter Cottone of Winchester, ushered and with Joseph Galuffo, also of Winchester, and cousin of the bridegroom.

Mr. Cottone and his bride went to Washington, Virginia and New York on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will make their home at 46 Harvard street. The bridegroom is a leather finisher associated with Biggs & Cobb in Winchester.

Classes for juniors will be from 7 to 8:30 (children 11 to 16), and from 8:30 to 10 will be the classes for adults.

Obedience training of your dog is well worth the time you put into it. You will be surprised how much you will learn about your dog while training it; his capabilities, his character, his willingness to respond to your commands, and his respect for you, and, also, how you, or your children will learn patience, kindness and understanding from the training of your dog.

Beginning Thursday evening, April 22nd, there will also be two additional adult classes, 7 to 8:30 and 8:30 to 10.

All training is done by the famous Turnquist System.

TROOP 12 NEWS

There was no happier patrol than the Apache patrol on Thursday, April 8th, the night of the troop's weekly meeting. The much sought award of the patrol banner, awarded to the patrol attaining the most points over the last five months, was made. The Apache patrol with Rennie Goodnow as patrol leader won the banner which is a streamer of gold with blue script letters proclaiming "honor patrol." This banner will be in the possession of the winning patrol for a month unless they win it again. Individual awards will be made shortly to all of the members of the patrol. The runners up were the Navajo patrol with Neil McFeeley as patrol leader.

We welcome a new Scout to the troop in Robert Flaherty who is a member of the Apache patrol. The Committee announced to the Scouts the appointment of Asst. Scoutmaster Norman Bancroft, former Marine, as Scoutmaster because of Mr. Joseph Kuchta being unable to continue active as he had been in the Fall due to his occupation. Mr. Kuchta has offered to serve on the troop committee when things let up a bit for him.

Norm has a wealth of Scouting knowledge since he served under Staff Rogers as assistant when Staff was head of Troop 1 and who is currently head of the Explorer Group of Scouts, Seniors. In our estimation there is no one who better knows Scouting from A to Z than popular Staff Rogers and we are sure Troop 12 of St. Mary's Winchester will show good results in Scouting.

Present at the meeting representing the troop committee were Messrs. T. S. Washburn, Grant, E. R. Supple and Erhard, who helped the boys review some of their assignments during "patrol corners" while Norm drilled some of the Scouts on signalling. Mr. Casey took over the military drilling and proved an old hand at it as his commands were worthy of his former Army Air Forces outfit.

We learn that we will be blessed with two rack huggers since Don Cullen of the Navajo patrol and Bob Taylor of the Sioux are currently serving in the newly formed Drum and Bugle corps of the Immaculate Conception parish, Winchester. The boys are looking forward to the Scouting Exposition in Medford on April 24th where all phases of Scouting will be unfolded.

MOUNT HOLYOKE SOCIETY

Mrs. Richard L. Emerson was hostess on Monday evening to members of the committee for the Mount Holyoke Society. Among those present were Mrs. Waldon B. Hyssey, Mrs. Sears Walker, Mrs. Charles E. Greene, district chairman of the Boston area; and Mrs. Frederick B. Withington, co-chairman with Mrs. Emerson of the Winchester Group for Mount Holyoke. Mrs. James S. Allen is chairman of the committee for the Mount Holyoke Society.

Members of the Winchester Mount Holyoke Club, having made their own pledges to give and to earn for the Faculty Endowment, are now contacting possible outside givers to join the Mount Holyoke Society. Some years the Living Endowment has been equivalent to the interest on a million dollars. And under unrestricted gifts of this sort the financial future of the college mainly depends.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

The members and friends of the Sherman M. Dodge Men's Club gave their sons and grandsons a real treat last Monday evening at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church. The annual father and son banquet and sports night this year was something to remember.

After a splendid supper served by the women of the Church, under the direction of Mrs. Milton Gallina, the men and boys held a lively song-fest, led by Rev. John Snook, Jr., the club chaplain and spirited song leader. Then came the highlight of the evening, President George Needham introduced as guest speaker, Mr. Verne Miller, sports writer for the Boston Globe, and former Harvard football star. Mr. Miller was not alone. With him came the famous Team Star being, who took an active part with Mr. Miller in telling of their experiences in sports. The clearest method of story telling by Mr. Miller, and the very humorous side lines and interruptions by Lone Star, made a very pleasant evening for everyone.

The club will hold two more meetings this season. The final one in June will be a trip to a night ball game by members and friends.

NOONAN SCHOOL MOTHERS ASSOCIATION

The Noonan School mothers association held a whist and bridge party on Tuesday evening in the school hall. Mrs. K. Gorriar was the high scorer in bridge and Mrs. A. Caldwell in whist. The hoisted dinner was won by Mrs. Mary Kinnane. Mrs. Frank Mooney was the winner of the door prize.

McKEE AND MUELLER TAKE OVER SOCONY STATION

Joe McKee, widely known in Winchester baseball and basketball circles, and Carl Mueller of Waltham have taken over the lease of the Winchester Socony Station on upper Main street near the theatre and will operate the business in the future.

Perhaps continue to operate would more nearly describe the arrangement for both "Joe" and Carl have been associated with the station for several years, the former as manager and the latter as assistant manager. They promise the same friendly service that patrons have found so helpful in the past and ask any motorists not familiar with their station to drop in and see how they can help make motoring care-free and satisfactory.

"Joe" and Carl are featuring the famous Mobilgas and Mobiloil and are equipped to provide the best in filling station service, with tires, batteries and accessories available at prices that are right. They extend a cordial invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Motorist to "drop in soon."

Miss Patricia Plunkett of 5 Bacon street spent the weekend in New York visiting Miss Carol Henschelberger formerly of this town.

O'LEARY — BROPHY

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at the Immaculate Conception Church in Malden on Saturday morning, April 17, when Miss Helen Brophy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Brophy of 111 Oakland street, Malden, became the bride of Daniel James O'Leary, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James O'Leary of 16 Kendall street. White gladioli banked the altar for the 9 o'clock double-ring ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial mass.

Mr. Daniel Burns of Brighton, a close friend of the family, gave Miss Brophy in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin, trimmed at the sweetheart neckline and peplum with pearls and having a long train. Her fingertip-length veil of illusion was held in place with a headpiece of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli as central with an orchid of pale purple.

Miss Jane Louise Brophy was her sister's only attendant. She wore a pale blue tulle dress with a square neckline, bustle back and a matching flowered wreath trimmed with blue veiling. Her bouquet combined pink gladioli and sweet peas.

John O'Leary of Winchester was best man for his brother and the ushers were Charles Frederick Gilman of Reading and John Flaherty of Winchester.

After the marriage a reception and wedding breakfast was held at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge with the mother of the bridegroom and Mrs. Daniel Burns of Brighton assisting in receiving. Mrs. Burns was seated in pale blue with pink accessories and wore a pink corsage. Mrs. O'Leary, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink dress and a pink corsage with her grey dress.

After a wedding journey through Canada, Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary will make their home in Malden.

The bride is a graduate of Girls' Catholic High School and is a secretary at the War Assets Administration. Mr. O'Leary graduated from Winchester High School and is a claims adjuster for the Merchants Mutual Casualty Company of Boston. During the war he saw three and one-half years overseas service in the European Theatre as a sergeant in the United States Army Air Forces.

HARROLD NEW POLICE CHIEF

Veteran of Two Wars Appointed Tuesday

Sgt. Charles J. Harrold, a veteran of both world wars, was appointed Chief of the Winchester Police Department by the Board of Selectmen Tuesday evening. The ceremony took place at the town hall, where the new chief was sworn in by the selectmen. Harrold, who has been with the department for many years, was promoted to the position of chief after the resignation of the previous chief, William H. Rogers. Harrold's appointment was announced by the selectmen at a meeting held at the town hall on Tuesday evening.

The appointment was made public at a roll call at Police Headquarters in the presence of the entire department and representatives of the local press. Chairman Kenneth Pond made the announcement for the selectmen, stressing the difficulty which the Board had experienced in choosing among the three men submitted to them by the Civil Service Commission, expressing the Board's appreciation of the disappointment felt by the unsuccessful candidates and calling upon them and all other members of the force to support the new chief and work for the best interests of the department.

There was a brief moment of silence following the announcement that Sgt. Harrold was to be the new chief, but this was quickly broken by applause as officers and selectmen crowded about the new department head to extend congratulations. First to grasp his hand was Sgt. Joseph J. Derris, who had bid the eligible for appointment in the list submitted by the Civil Service Commission, and Officer Edward E. Bowler, the third man on the list was offering congratulations as soon as he could work his way through the crowd. To judge from appearances the appointment was popular with the police, and there is no denying Chief Harrold's general popularity in town.

The new chief was born in Winchester, April 1, 1901, son of the late John A. and Agnes (Beston) Harrold. He came by his police officer's bent naturally enough for his father was one of the most popular officers in the local department for many years, serving as patrolman in the old days of tailcoats and helmets, and advancing to the rank of lieutenant before his retirement from the force. What a kick John would have gotten from the announcement that his "boy" had been appointed chief of the department he served for so many years.

Chief Harrold enlisted in the United States Navy during World War I and served on the USS Salem on scout duty in the North Atlantic and Mediterranean. He came out of the service as a gunner's mate, and for a time worked for the Telephone Company, then going again to sea as a member of the Merchant Marine. On April 1, 1924, Chief Harrold was appointed a patrolman in the Police Department and in April of 1935 he was promoted to sergeant. He made an enviable reputation as an instructor in first aid during the establishment of the Civilian Defense in World War II, lecturing and demonstrating with great success, both in and around Winchester.

Chief Harrold returned to the Navy in World War II, enlisting as a Chief Gunner's Mate, and served as instructor in the Naval Training Center at Pensacola, Fla., and later went to Memphis in the NATTC as supervisor of ordnance at that station. He was then transferred to Quonset Point to a Combat Air Training Unit where he served for 18 months, being responsible for the department and attendance of 250 instructors who in turn indoctrinated 20,000 students screened for the station.

Chief Harrold has been actively identified with Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, of which he is a past commander. He is a charter member and a past president of the Winchester Police Relief Association.

Even in marriage "Charlie" has maintained his police connection for Mrs. Harrold, the former Evelyn Bresnan of Cambridge, is the daughter of Officer Michael Bresnan, for many years a member of the Metropolitan Police and known far and wide as "Big Mike" Bresnan.

Chief and Mrs. Harrold make their home at 75 Brookside avenue in the Highlands. They have two daughters, Patricia and Joan, both of whom are especially proud of their daddy right now.

On Wednesday his desk at Headquarters was covered with flowers, sent by well-wishers.

The STAR is pleased to extend its own congratulations to the new chief with its every wish for his complete success.

NURSERY SCHOOL OPENING
Mrs. Walter M. Emis, Jr., a lifelong resident of Winchester, is announcing the opening of the Winchester Day School at 91 Grove street, on Monday, September 13, 1948. During the summer months, she will have a Summer Play School starting in June through August.

Mrs. Emis is working with Dr. Forbes Norris to coordinate her preschool work with our Winchester School System. She graduated from Wheelock College and has had wide experience in teaching. She formerly taught at Belmont Day School, and Rivers Country Day School.

FIREMEN HELD CONCERT AND BALL

The Firemen's Relief Association held its annual Concert and Ball Wednesday evening at the town hall, with the usual capacity audience jamming every available bit of space in the hall and ballroom. The stage was decorated with cut flowers and Karl Rohde's Orchestra played for both the show and dancing that followed.

Highlighting the show was Hal Rodman, Hollywood minkie artist who made up four members of the Fire Department, Pete Galuffo, Joe Shea, Jimmy Nolan and C. Elliott Ward to resemble a minkie quartet of the Gay Nineties type days, complete with hair-like moustaches and an assortment of headgear. When the four were finally complete they gathered at the microphone and "rehearsed" "Sweet Adeline" as it is safe to say it has seldom been sung in or out of the town hall.

In more serious vein Mr. Rodman made up "Dennis" Mistrutta, first as General Robert E. Lee and then as Uncle Sam, making the change in 45 seconds.

The Shepherds Sisters, petite acrobatic dancers, opened the excellent show, which was followed by Diane Lane, whose soprano voice had a sultry quality that lent added color to such songs as "Great Day," "Bye-bye," "My Hero" from the "Chocolate Soldier" and "Now is the Hour."

Betty Scott offered tap and eccentric dancing and Claire and Hudson, a strong boy and a shapely girl, put on a balancing and acrobatic act that was really good. The two chorists, a couple of boys in tuxedo-red coats from the Latin Quarter, put on a novel musical act, imitating all sorts of instruments and popular bands with their voices and eliminating their performance with a burlesque rendition of the popular "Sweethearts" duet.

"Billy" Kelley was the show's master of ceremonies and doubled in brass with a rumbination monologue and lighthearted skit.

Aiding to the fun was "Andy" Gangi, who at the request of Miss Chaire in the balancing act, went up onto the stage to sub for the male member of the duo, lifting the little Miss Chaire in a handstand from a prone position on the stage. He got a great laugh from the crowd and a kiss from Miss Chaire, which left a tinge of vermilion smudge on his lipped cheek.

Chief James E. Callahan acted as floor marshal for the dancing with President Homer Davidson of the Relief Association as assistant. Hugh Skerry was floor director with Robert McKee as assistant and Leigh S. Roberts, chief of aides. Aides were James Fignara, Dennis McKerrin, Charles Ward, Daniel Mistrutta, John O'Melia and James J. Callahan.

J. Edward Noonan headed the entertainment committee with Frank Amato and Joseph Connelly the other members. Howard Ambrose headed the Ball Committee, with Ray Hanson heading the reception committee and John Flaherty, the ticket committee.

"MACK'S" BIRTHDAY

Edward P. McKenzie of Henningway street observed his birthday yesterday, and you probably will better know whom we mean, if we tell that Edward P. McKenzie is much better known as "Mack" of the "Boston Daily Times," newspaperman, general sports enthusiast, and booster for the McNulty family, singers of Irish songs.

It doesn't matter how old "Mack" happens to be, because he just isn't that old anyway. This ebullient gentleman will never be old if he lives to be a hundred as we surely hope he will. The "Star" extends its Sunday best wishes to "Mack" and reprints herewith his usual answer to any one who wants to know his age.

"I built the Rocky Mountains and I placed them where they are. I was the one who built Niagara Falls. I first discovered beer. And I was long here before Columbus landed here!"

PHINEAS STEWART NEWTON

Phineas Stewart Newton of 24 Wedgemere avenue, Boston insurance man and veteran of World War I, died Saturday afternoon, April 17, at the Winchester Hospital after a three weeks' illness. He entered the hospital a week before his death. Flags on the room and town buildings were displayed at half staff in his honor.

Mr. Newton was the son of Charles H. and Alele (Esterbrook) Newton. He was born March 7, 1890, in Fitchburg, receiving his early education in the Fitchburg schools and graduating from Worcester Academy. He entered the University of Pennsylvania with the class of 1919 and rowed with the varsity crew, also being a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

World War I interrupted his studies at Pennsylvania and he left college to serve overseas in both the French and United States Army Air Forces, holding the rank of lieutenant in the United States air corps as a flyer.

BISHOP EDWIN HOLT HUGHES
Winchester, Churchman to Visit Winchester

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY AT CRAWFORD CHURCH

Plans are completed for an unusual week-end at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone. With Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes as the main speaker this Sunday, a. m. at 10:45, assisted by Rev. A. M. D. Gifford, who was the pastor at the time of the laying of the cornerstone, the pastor, Rev. John Snook Jr., assisted by the service as one of mutual fellowship and reunion.

Bishop Hughes' ecclesiastical regulation spreads from the shores of California to the rock-bound coast of Maine.

Whenever he preaches he has a strange power that sometimes defies analysis, in holding the attention of his audience from beginning to end. He has carried a steady Christian influence over more than some 60 years of service in the ministry of his Master.

One need not a theological keenness to understand his unforgettable messages. Their mark of simplicity and sincerity seem to attract the young and old alike. He is truly a Prophet of the Long Road with mind and spirit that defies age.

Methodism has bestowed upon this beloved man about every honor within its power.

His broad-mindedness doesn't al-

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

The Education committee of the Fortnightly wishes to gratefully acknowledge all gifts of food, clothing and money so generously donated for the French Child, and to give a short report of our service. Eighteen packages have been sent to France. Those total one hundred and ninety pounds of essential foods and desirable clothing. Two packages a month will be sent during the summer.

Mrs. William E. Priest has had charge of this project, which required much work and planning. She is to be congratulated on the worth while results.

Many letters of friendship and encouragement have been written to Madam Doute, the child's mother by Mrs. George Barbary, who has also translated all the letters of thanks received from France. Part of one of these letters reads as follows:

Dear Madam:

I have received three packages since I wrote you last. I have now reached the point where I simply do not know how to express my gratefulness, you are all so good to us. I wish that the entire French population would fully know of your generosity to all those families in need. All those women in a situation such as mine, are sure that if we did not have you to think of us, our children never would have known any of the comforts which you alone have given them.

With all my heart I thank you all for sending me so many things and for writing me such thoughtful letters. Please believe in my full appreciation.

From

Madame Doute.

COMMUNITY SERVICE GROUP MEETS

On Friday, April 16th, the Winchester Hospital was luncheon host to the group of representatives of social agencies in Winchester which has recently been meeting each month. Members of the party included Miss Corinne Mead, Chief Librarian of the Winchester Public Library, Mr. Curtis R. Nash, Vocational Director at the High School, Mrs. Boris Pierce, Nutritionist at the City of Winchester, and Mr. William Supple, Agent for the Board of Public Welfare. The Boy Scouts were represented by Mr. Francis McEveloy, and the Girl Scouts by Mrs. Barbara Mettralf. From the District Nursing staff, Miss Alice Peterson and Mrs. Eugene Redmond were present, as were Mrs. Ethel Surage, School Nurse, Miss Dorothy Ahrens, Nurse for Beggs and Cobb, Inc., and Miss Hilda Hope, Public Health Nurse. Sitting with the group for Winchester Hospital and serving as hosts for the day were Mr. Tucker Vye, Administrator, Miss Hilda Andrews, Dietitian, and Miss Laura Rogers, Superintendent of Nurses. It is reported that the luncheon was delicious, a worthy product of Miss Andrews' skill.

The informal informality of this group have proved helpful to its members in their problems of public service and inter-organizational cooperation. It is expected that the group will assume some more official form in the near future.

AMERICA, MY HOME

"America My Home" is the name of a program originating in the Washington School and organized by the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. It was performed by the entire school from the kindergarten up at a special meeting of the Mothers' Club held on Thursday evening, April 15, to allow the fathers to be present.

After the prologue by Mary Neergaard as Spirit of the Present and David Dayton as Uncle Sam, the series of episodes depicted folklore, patriotic motives and deeds, and historical scenes from the discovery by Columbus through the thrilling romance of the growth and expansion of the nation. Also featured was the George Washington School Band led by Director Fred Feldner.

Principal Lester Rich and the Washington School staff directed the efforts of the pupil planning board and came up with an all-school program that dramatically emphasized the pupils' understanding of the heritage of democratic America.

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB LOOKS GREAT FOR '48

Yes, there's good news tonight, lads and lassies. Last Monday the merry merrymen on the Myrtle opened its portals to signal the beginning of what may well prove to be the swiftest, most action-packed season the Club has ever enjoyed. Certainly the cards are stacked for a full house.

First and foremost, there's Commodore Ray Strawbridge at the helm of the ship. He's ace-high as an organizer and director of activities. With his capable officers and an all-star board of directors, you can be sure the Club will be shipshape all season.

The Club has been extremely fortunate in resigning Ed and Mrs. Kent as steward and stewardess. We all know this pair is tops as custodians of the Club. Ed has been "on the premises" since April first and already has the interior spot and span.

Jolly John Powers is going to head the entertainment committee. He's already hard at work on the opening party (Saturday, May 1) and has plans for a host of hilarious get-togethers.

Snipe Fleet activities will be guided by Capt. A. Litchfield, capably assisted by First Mate "Daw" Blumie. With the biggest deal we've ever had, there should be some sensational racing ahead. The popular bridge parties for women are again going to be held in the Club's beautiful party room and there will be other "ladies only" features that will furnish plenty of fun. They'll be in charge of the very capable "Berrie" Newman.

Add to these social and sports events, swimming, fishing, boating and just plain "sitting in the sun," and you can readily realize why '48 is going to be great and that this year is always a Winchester Boat Club membership is your best buy—by far.

Club Chatter

A "duck-dunking" party was held on Patriot's Day under the able direction of Harbor Master Stan Howe. All the ducks are in the water and need only to be anchored. A few broad backs will be welcome around the Club Saturday afternoon about 2:30 to do this job. How about joining the gang? We'll also have to move the boats out of the "juke box room." Anyone who has his boat stored there had better be on hand. It was certainly swell to see Sid Burr, Bill Hall and John Powers at the Club last Monday. All three of these valued members were seriously ill during the winter, but they all look tip-top again. There are several boats already in the water but no Snipes. Wonder which one will be the first to hit the ways? We'll give you the low-down on the opening party as soon as we get a go-ahead.

It's sometimes hard for a girl to realize that a party line is something to be shared with others. But Sally has learned to answer the telephone promptly, to keep her calls brief, and to allow a little time between calls in a series. She's doing her part to help every one on her line get good service.

Party lines now help us give service to the greatest possible number of people. But as new construction proceeds, we're giving individual service to more and more of those who want it.

BADMINTON CLUB ELECTS

At the annual meeting held last Tuesday evening at the High School gymnasium, the Winchester Badminton Club elected a governing board and a president for the 1948-49 season.

Members of the Board: Whit Gray, Brad Hersey, Lois Ladd, Marjorie Moore, Jack Turlall, Jim Ware, Ed Williams.

From this group the Club then elected Jim Ware president for the coming season. In turn, the new Board chose Brad Hersey to continue as treasurer and Marjorie Moore to be the new and much-needed secretary.

Team captains Whit Gray and Dot Hills reported upon an active season for the renewal of inter-club competition. Competitors knew always that our men's doubles combinations were right in there giving their utmost; the mixed doubles group came out at the head of its class. Accordingly, the experts are looking forward to more competition next winter, while the rest of us expect to bask in their glory and welcome the experts of the other Clubs when they visit us for play.

An otherwise perfect evening was marred by an accident to this year's president, Ed Williams. He fell and again sprained seriously the ankle which decommissioned him for a time earlier in the season. It was necessary to transport him home for tender and competent care at the hands of L'lonie.

As plans now stand it is likely that the last evening of play for the current season will be Thursday, April 29. All who may be interested in continuing after that date ought to be on hand Tuesday, April 27, to make their wishes known. Many of us like to play badminton up to the moment when the elements will allow us to play tennis with reasonable regularity. This year, however, although the elements are already favorable, it is to be noted that there is at this writing only ONE tennis court available for public play. In the short memory of your reporter this is the FIRST time that such a monstrous situation has existed. There is probably a good reason, but many of us feel that "it better be good"—superlatively so. Or must badminton count on continuing all summer.

LINCOLN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The final meeting of the current season of the Lincoln School Mothers' Association will be held on May 12th at 3 p. m.

During the business period there will be an election of officers, and reports of the year's activities.

Miss Corinne Mead, librarian, will speak on "What Can the Public Library Do for You and Your Family?" Mrs. Eisman, retired teacher, will be the guest of honor.

WEEK-END FIRES

The Fire Department had a comparatively quiet week-end last week, answering only three alarms. Saturday afternoon at 2:15 there was what was reported to be a grass and brush fire at the rear of the shop of Michael Foley, 740 Main street. The men found that the fire had set fire to an auto trailer and the back platform of the building, but the men got the blaze out quickly without too much damage.

Saturday evening at 6:40 Robert Ashby of 22 Prince avenue stopped his Ford sedan opposite the Central Station on Mt. Vernon street with one of the seat cushions on fire. The firemen took care of that one quickly and conveniently. Sunday morning at 10:59 there was a still alarm for weeds and grass on Country Club land off Hutchinson road near Ridge street.

LINCOLN ZONN
WYMAN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

In place of the fashion show which has become almost a tradition with the Wyman School Mothers' Association for raising its scholarship fund, the Association this year is presenting a new attraction on Friday evening, April 24, at 8 o'clock. In view of the growing interest in psychiatry it seems a particularly appropriate time to explore some of its recent developments, in this case hypnosis as used in hospitals for treating certain patients.

Lincoln Zonn, whose program provides excellent entertainment, explains the scientific approach to his audience before demonstrating the possibilities of hypnosis. His work with hospitalized patients in the armed forces during the year yielded many splendid results and serves to point up the inestimable value of his art. The double appeal of Mr. Zonn, as a scientist and as an entertainer, is expected to fill the High School auditorium. Tickets are available at Hevey's Pharmacy, or may be ordered from Mrs. Franklin McDermott, Winchester 6-2658-W or Mrs. Robert Dirkey, Winchester 6-1362-W, chairman of the ticket committee.

The attractive posters advertising this event, that you see in various windows around the town, are the work of Wyman School 10th graders, under the guidance of Miss Virginia French, the art instructor.

The pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, performed the 4 o'clock ceremony in an attractive setting of white gladiolus.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a court train and trimmed at the neckline and sleeves with seed pearls. Her long ivory veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and sweet peas.

Miss Ann Mae Muraco of Winchester was her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of aquamarine faille with a low neckline and a matching headpiece. Her cascade bouquet was of mixed spring flowers.

SMASHED TRAFFIC BEACON AT SYMMES CORNER

Monday morning at 2:40 police headquarters was notified of an automobile accident at the traffic circle at Symmes Corner.

They found that a car apparently heading north and about to turn into Bacon street or Grove street had hit the flashing beacon on the southern corner of the triangle and smashed it off at the base, hurling it about 30 feet away.

The driver of the car did not stop. Tire marks were found on the white curbing of the island and on the grass plot, the car going to the left of the rotary circle after striking the beacon. The police began an investigation in an effort to locate the driver of the car.

Douglas K. Converse, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Converse of 35 Dix street, completed his service with the United States Navy on April 12. He served aboard the USS Providence and recently completed his second four-months period of service in the Mediterranean Theatre of Operations.

Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre of Warren street are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son on April 11.

Wendell Mansfield, former athletic director at Winchester High, now at Pomfret School, had something of a reunion with former Winchester football captains on the holiday at the Boston University football clinic. "Hennie" Knowlton, "Andy" Lentine and "Frankie" Provinzano all were at the clinic and captained high school teams during the Mansfield's coaching tenure. "Tony" DeTeso, who broke in under Mansfield and later was a captain under George Lauer, was also at the clinic. All agree it was a really good session.

DR. HARRY L. BENSON
DOCTOR BENSON APPOINTED ASSOCIATE MEDICAL EXAMINER

Dr. Harry L. Benson of this town, who was recently appointed to the position of Associate Medical Examiner of the Middlesex District, was given the oath of office by His Excellency, Gov. Robert Bradford at a regular meeting of the Governor's Council on Wednesday of this week. This office has been held for many years by Dr. Richard Sheely who declined the re-appointment at the expiration of his term last month.

Dr. Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Benson of Washington street, was born in Winchester and received his early education in the local schools. He obtained his college and medical school education at Boston University, receiving the B.S. and M.D. degrees. He interned at the Union Hospital in Fall River and had a two year surgical appointment at the Boston City Hospital.

In January of 1940, Doctor Benson opened his office for the practice of medicine and surgery in Winchester, but in April, 1941, was called to active duty in the Naval Reserve. He served in the European, American and Pacific theaters during World War II, spending much of his time on ships in convoy duty in the North Atlantic and participating in landing operations in the Pacific, his ship being torpedoed off Guadalcanal in the Solomons.

After five years of duty in the Navy, Dr. Benson returned to his practice in Winchester and has taken an active part in professional and civic affairs. He is a member of the active staff of the Winchester Hospital, is a member of the Winchester Board of Health, is the industrial surgeon at Berge's and Childs leather factory, and is president of the Winchester Rotary Club.

SCHOOL SITE BEING PREPARED

The Star visited the new West Side School site this week and found considerable progress had been made in preparing the lot. The trees have been removed and bulldozers are at work grading the lot and preparing the two playground levels. This far no ledge has been encountered.

The site is a magnificent one, commanding a view that has to be seen to be believed. Nothing has been done on the actual building as yet.

Miss Nellie Ralph returned to her position at the Winchester Savings Bank after an eight week's absence due to illness.

WINCHESTER CAST LIGHT PRIMARY VOTE

A total of 659 of Winchester's approximately 8600 votes went to the polls at the town hall for the presidential primaries on Tuesday. Of these 574 were Republicans and 85, Democrats.

Precinct 3 cast the most number of votes, 178. In Precinct 1 there were 47 votes cast, in Precinct 6, there were 46. Edward P. "Mac" McKenzie, veteran local newspaperman cast the first vote in 6, so that the Republican led there for a moment at least.

Although there was a light vote cast the great number of names on the Democratic ballot made counting slow, and it was 8:15 before the last precinct came in. Town Clerk Daniel W. Stinson announced the totals at 9:45.

There was no contest on the Republican ballot, but there were all sorts of contests on the Democratic sheet, there being three groups of delegates and alternates.

Following are the results of the balloting:

CHORUS AND ORCHESTRA CONCERT MAY 7

Chorus-Orchestra Night, a concert sponsored by the Music Department of the Winchester Schools, will be presented on Friday night, May 7, in the High School Auditorium. The High School Orchestra and High School Chorus will be assisted in the program by the Grade Schools Orchestra and by the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs from the Junior High School.

In addition to selections by these groups there will be special numbers by the Girls' Octette, Clarinet Trio and Woodwind Trio, and Solos by Frank Strawbridge and Grace Nolan.

Proceeds from this concert will be used to defray the expenses of taking the High School Band, High School Orchestra, Junior High Girls' Glee Club and several smaller groups to the Massachusetts Music Festival in Lawrence on May 8. This will be the first time Winchester High School has participated in the State Music Festival and would be a fine opportunity for music students in the Winchester Schools to compare their own playing and singing with that of students from other Massachusetts High Schools.

MISS ROCKWOOD ENGAGED TO MR. TAYLOR

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Rockwood of Cambridge and Oyster Harbors announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss June Beebe Rockwood, to Mr. Robert H. Taylor of Winchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Taylor of Oyster Harbors.

She was graduated from Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Ct., in 1944, attended the Garland School in Boston, and is now a member of the faculty of Shady Hill School, Cambridge, as an assistant in music. She made her debut in the 1944-45 season.

"SEE MY LAWYER"

The Parish Players of the First Congregational Church, under the direction of John N. Hall, presented "See My Lawyer", a three act comedy by Richard Maibaum and Harry Clark, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings in the Little Theatre Beneath a Spire with the following cast:

Arthur Lee	Eugene M. Pollard
Peter Russo	George S. Hobb, Jr.
Joseph O'Rourke	Robert P. Blake
Ray Frankel	Annette Croughwell
Morris Schneider	George E. Connor
Robert Carlin	F. Milne Blanchard
Leona Kaul	John B. MacKellan
S. H. Jameson	Hanna J. Kelly
Leona Frankel	Herbert Clement
William J. Vein	Rita Fernald
Sydney Tyler	Roseline K. Young
Telephane Linsman	B. Halemman
Beatrice Clark	James L. Watt
Mamie	Phyllis Reay
Policeman	Theodore Clark
Stenographer	Marjorie McNeil

The Players set out to do something light this spring after their arduous "Barrets" of the fall and their winter mystery. If "See My Lawyer" was not particularly rewarding, it was still funny in a farcical sort of way, and though veteran patrons may have wondered at the subplot of a vehicle so far below the usual Little Theatre standard, they could still enjoy such absurd situations as a lawyer having to serve as a window washer to satisfy an eccentric client and a playboy millionaire hiding out in an office-building window ledge to escape from a designing actress.

The action centered around the adventures of an impractical lawyer, the members of which become attorneys for an eccentric millionaire playboy, who kidnaps their secretary, the fiancée of one of the three barristers.

Little in the way of characterization is asked of any of the large cast with the exception of those playing Schaeffer and Kato, the Jewish lawyer and Japanese chauffeur. Mr. Connor was quite all right as the first, Mr. MacKellan, rather good as the second.

Mrs. Fernald did a good bit as the designing actress, Blossom LeVerne, and Mr. Kelly's speed of speech was something to wonder at. Your reviewer has in previous reviews exclaimed over Mr. Kelly's ability to mouth the English language.

The three principals, Dr. Pollard, Miss Croughwell and Dr. Blanchard did well enough with what they had to work with. Miss Croughwell as usual speaking her lines well. The two doctors were funny. They are bound to be, on the stage, but those who have seen them at their best can not be blamed for regretting that they could not have been better cast.

Mr. Blake made an imposing window-washer and the other members of the cast were equal to the requirements of their roles. The set was good as usual, and the details of production were smoothly handled. We expect those who heard the doctors speak were not intended to be convinced.

Thursday evening's proceeds went to the Winchester scholarship foundation. Saturday evening's show at least was very late in starting and the waits between the acts seemed unnecessarily long.

ERNST RED FEATHER
SECRETARY

WEEK-END FIRES

MARYCLIFF TO OPEN HIGH SCHOOL THIS SUMMER

Appointment of Charles F. Ernst as executive secretary of the North Metropolitan Division of the Greater Boston Community Fund was announced today. He succeeds Robert F. Cahill who has joined the Worcester Community Chest as associate director in charge of publicity.

Reorganization of the metropolitan areas has resulted in a shift of several northern communities to a new division, East. North Metropolitan will now include only eight cities and towns, thus enabling Mr. Ernst to give more time to each community. They are Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Lexington, Waltham, Watertown, Winchester and Woburn, all of which have Community Chests affiliated with the Greater Boston Community Fund.

Central headquarters for the North Metropolitan Division will be maintained in the office of the Waltham Community Fund, 657 Main street, telephone Waltham 5-7010. Mr. Ernst will be available to these communities throughout the week, with the exception of Tuesday and Thursday mornings when he will be at the Boston office of the Community Fund.

Mr. Ernst is welcomed back East following a brilliant career in social service fields which carried him through two wars to many parts of the United States and Europe. He was born in Boston and is a graduate of Harvard University.

The Fire Department had only one call Saturday, that coming at 11:10 for a grass and brush fire on remodelling land at the old quarry off Ardley road.

Sunday morning at 9 o'clock the department was called to a house on Enfield avenue where there was a strong smell of burning. The men found upon arrival that the handle of a coffee percolator was smoldering where it was not immediately noticeable.

At 11 o'clock Sunday forenoon there was a rubbish fire on Allen road, and at 11:50 Box 35 came in for a fire caused by a flooded oil burner at the home of Mrs. Peter Srisasin, 14 Winter street. The fire was limited to the kitchen which was pretty well burned out. Heat from the fire did considerable damage in the dining room of the home and finally melted a safety valve in a water tank, flooding the kitchen with water. Presumably the door had been covered with oil from the flooded heater. The men had an hour's fight before the fire was finally put out.

Sunday afternoon the department was called to the residence of Mr. James A. Cullen, 82 Bacon street by an alarm from Box 52. The men found a fence at the rear of his yard on fire with the flames spreading to the rear wall of the barn. The fire was put out with slight damage. Evidence found at the scene of the fire led to the opinion that it had been set.

Sunday evening at 6:45 logs were discovered afire at the old freight yard on Swanton street, now owned by Mr. James A. Cullen, and at 8:50 Sunday there was a grass fire at the rear of Leonard Field.

The completion early this summer of one wing of the new building of Marycliff Academy in Winchester will make possible the transfer of the high school students from Arlington to the new location. The classrooms and a well equipped gymnasium-auditorium will be ready for occupancy in the Fall of 1948.

Resident students will be housed in the beautiful Georgian home built at the turn of the century and known as the Sanborn estate. It is ideally located on an elevation from which there is a magnificent view of the surrounding country. From the house the land is terraced down to Cambridge street in wide lawns; shrubbery which is effectively located screens privacy and adds beauty and dignity to the grounds.

Registrations for the Freshman and Sophomore classes are now being taken, but only a limited number of new resident students can be accommodated. Day pupils coming from the neighboring towns can easily reach the Academy by public bus.

Pupils of the elementary and grammar grades will continue, temporarily, to reside and to have classes at Marycliff Academy in Arlington.

FRANCIS H. WILLARD
AUXILIARY

The April meeting of the Francis H. Willard Auxiliary was held at Llewellyn Lodge in Bedford Thursday the 15th at two o'clock. After a short business meeting Mrs. E. T. Filler gave the high lights of a meeting she had attended under the Rehabilitation Section of the Boston Community Council on the problems of dealing with and caring for aging people. We all felt inspired by her remarks.

A social hour followed in which Mr. Frank Howard of Winchester showed the guests and the Auxiliary pictures he had taken on west. His very generous manner, as well as the lovely colored pictures were enjoyed by all. Delicious cookies and ice cream ended a memorable afternoon.

Edwin W. Zimmerman, of 390 Highland avenue, Works Manager of the Eastern Gas & Fuel Association, is one of the businessmen from 26 states and 9 foreign countries presently enrolled in the Advanced Management Training Program of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

Last Sunday evening Pierce Fellowship of the Second Congregational Church was host to a capacity congregation of young people at a candlelight vesper service. The devotions were conducted by Jack Reynolds, Martha Whiting and Dorothy Hingstrom. The Reverend Mr. Richard Zoppel, Minister of the Montvale Church in Woburn, preached the sermon. Following the service a social hour was held in the parish hall. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Norman Whiting and Mrs. John Reynolds. Last Tuesday noon the Bethany Society of the Second Congregational Church sponsored a public luncheon at the church hall. Over sixty-five people from nearby factories and places of business enjoyed a delicious meat-loaf luncheon with mashed potatoes, string beans and cabbage salad, and a dessert of peach short-cake. During the past few years such public lunches have been regularly offered by the church and have always been well patronized. Proceeds are returned to the general fund of the church.

TWO ACCIDENTS SUNDAY

Several persons complained of injuries sustained in two automobile accidents which took place in Winchester last Sunday afternoon and evening.

Shortly after 3 o'clock a Dodge sedan, driven by John Carlson of 49 Fletcher road, North Woburn, while heading north on Woodside road and making a right turn into Pond street, was in collision with a Hupmobile sedan, driven by George A. Sieberg of 79 School street, North Woburn. Sieberg was driving west on Pond street and turning left into Woodside road.

Both cars were badly damaged about the front end and disabled. Carlson complained of a bruised right knee. Sieberg was accompanied by his wife and son, Richard, age 3. The boy was badly shaken up and Mrs. Sieberg sustained injuries to her face and head, with possible internal injuries to her chest. Sieberg complained of injuries to his knees.

The Siebergs were taken to the Woburn Hospital by Joseph L. Manduca of Ardmore avenue, Burlington.

The second of the two accidents took place at 7:30 p. m. at the intersection of Main street and the Parkway.

A Chevrolet sedan, driven by Albert R. Pratt of Willow street, West Acton, while heading west on the Parkway at Main was in collision with a Plymouth coach, driven north on Main street by John J. Brotha of 23 Cornell street, Arlington.

The Chevrolet was disabled and had to be towed away, the Plymouth being able to leave under its own power. Mrs. Pratt, who was riding with her husband, complained of injuries to her chest and was taken to the office of an Arlington physician. Also riding in the Pratt car were Mrs. E. C. Linn of 1 Stearns road, Belmont, and her daughters, Marjorie and Janet. None of them complained of injuries.

FORMER WINCHESTER BOY IN A. A. L. WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIPS

On the invitation of the A. A. L., David Lyman Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lyman B. Smith, formerly of Winchester, took part recently in the National Amateur Wrestling Championships held in the Calkins gymnasium in Hempstead, Long Island, N. Y.

In David's class, 125½ lbs, there were 26 entrants. David won his first match by pinning his man with a back flip fall. He was pinned himself in his second match; but won his third match with the help of a favorite throw "the spinner" taught him by his father, gaining a decision. In his fourth match he was one of 16 remaining entrants in his class and was thrown for a fall and thus eliminated.

Mrs. Mary Crosby Flaherty, former Winchester National Bank employee, returned from the Winchester Hospital following an operation this week.

NO CHIMP!

No one emerged unscathed from last week's regular matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association and it can be said right off, without fear of successful contradiction, that the playing of practically all the members was on the sour side.

Once again the wind blew hard and shrewdly off the pond and although the warriors took themselves to the lee of the banking near the springs, it was still much too cold for comfort. Wraps are practically no help in chucking horseshoes, but they were a necessary precaution against pneumonia and the members did their best under several layers of sweaters and windbreakers, their best however being none too good.

Mr. Teele had to route out Ronald "Thin Finger" Pridham to start in with, and that didn't help a disposition which rather consistently elementary pitching is rapidly reducing to the peevish side. Royal did, however, pair with Mr. Pridham, under protest, to win the first match from Herbert "Garulous" Gardner and the Secretary, Mr. Garlin, being far from his accustomed form and the Scribe being rather worse than usual, on the whole.

"Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of St. Mary and Champion of all Nabnasset, arrived at the beach as this match was drawing to a close. He and Mr. Gardner joined forces and beat Mr. Teele and Mr. Pridham, being obliged to win one game at least twice, because of a disagreement on the score. It might be said in passing that the Scribe's opinion was unanimously rejected by both Mr. Pridham and Mr. Teele.

Mr. Teele and the Secretary then took on Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Gardner and went down fighting two straight, with the first game a tight-lipped 25-3 affair.

Thereafter Mr. Gardner and the Scribe defeated Mr. Teele and Mr. McLaughlin, two straight, with the losers indulging in mutual personalities and recriminations which were far from complimentary.

When you get right down to it, Mr. Gardner was a winner in three out of four matches, so by weight of numbers he would ordinarily be entitled to championship acclaim. His pitching however was so far from the usual Gardner form that the only way he can get championship recognition for his performance is to claim it. Mr. Teele, as president, has ordered that no entry be made in the official records.

C. Y. O. BASEBALL NEWS

On Sunday afternoon April 18th, St. Mary's boys' intermediate baseball group, held their second practice session of the season at Ginn Field the following boys reporting: Captain Don Kenton, John Novell, Buddy Flaherty, John O'Brien, John McElhinney, Henry Barry, Fred Patterson, Leo Williams, Ed Roberts, and supplemented by some of the boys of the Junior team, Goodrow, Sam Kinton, Rogers etc.

A practice game was started at the baseball end of the field by several high schoolers who were in possession of the field there and from the looks of things with all the fields being in great demand each Sunday since the Sunday baseball law was adopted, it might be that permits to obtain a demand for practice will be necessary. However it is a nice thing to see the youth of the Town so occupied.

Fred Patterson and Henry Barry were at the field early and were therefore able to get into the game. Fred made three hits during the game. We were not able to find out what Henry Barry did, but he probably made a couple too.

With much practice in evidence all over the field it looked like the rest of the intermediates were down to more fielding drills in a limited area but due to the kindness of several members of the Sachem Softball team, champions of last year's Town League, the boys were invited to practice with them and the Sachems borrowed three of St. Mary's boys to round out their team until more Sachems arrived.

Sammy Kinton and John McElhinney were at the three and two inning games were played with the Sachems winning both, of course, but it was the practice and the groups both had a fine workout. There was much hitting in evidence with Sam Thompson for the Sachems slushing three homers, one into the river, Don Kenton for St. Mary's also hit a homer with two on while batting left-handed.

Playing for St. Mary's were: Don Kenton; John Novell, Buddy Flaherty, Leo Williams, John O'Brien, Ed Roberts, Rennie Goodrow, Rogers, Reardon and Murphy. It was hard to keep track of the hits suffice to say that O'Brien got 4 hits for the afternoon, D. Kenton 3, Goodrow 2 hits, Rogers 2, and Novell, Murphy, Roberts and Flaherty. McElhinney and Sammy Kinton got at least one. Goodrow and Williams made five fielding errors. Practice at Ginn Field on Sunday, April 25th at 2 p. m. found only a few boys working out. Don Kenton, Flaherty, O'Brien and Junior Sammy Kinton, Goodrow, Bob Flaherty, Reardon, etc. The Junior's beat young Coon's team 11-3 with Goodrow pitching. The weather is still chilly. Grounds are needed badly to help out with the midweek teams especially; to date no volunteers.

READING SET BACK WINCHESTER, 7-3

Winchester kicked another Middlesex League baseball game away last Friday afternoon at Reading, losing 7-3, to Reading High School after being all even, 3-3, going into the 6th.

"Al" Switzer took such violent exceptions to a called third strike that the umpire banished him from the game, making it necessary for Coach Bartlett to juggle his lineup with unfortunate results. Vern Slack, who replaced Switzer, got spiked while making a play at first when a Reading runner stepped on his foot. The summary:

SNIPER SEASON STARTS SATURDAY

Unofficially, the Winchester Boat Club's Snipe Fleet racing season starts Saturday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. We say unofficially because the actual point score races for the Fleet championship don't get underway until May 18th. The first five races are being run for a trophy donated by Don Simonds, Sr. These races will serve a dual purpose. First, they'll help familiarize the fleet with the new racing rules. Second, they'll spur some of the skippers into getting their boats into the water a little earlier than usual.

Early reports indicate that at least six skippers will answer the starting gun on Saturday. Better be on hand to watch the boys lift the lid of this year's "huffing" matches.

Club Chatter

The Opening Party originally scheduled for Saturday, May 8th has been temporarily postponed. The reason the entertainment committee is trying to line up one of the largest radio shows in Boston for your pleasure. The show was booked for next Saturday - we'll give you the whole story next week.

Melissa E. Meigs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Meigs of 11 Hancock street, is in charge of publicity for the Spring Formal at Bates College, Lewiston, Maine. It is being sponsored by the Freshman class, May 1st. Miss Meigs is a member of the Freshman class and studying for the Bachelor of Arts degree. She graduated from Winchester High School last June.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED

A few days ago, moved we supported by his eternal and amate optimism, Ken Hills, president of the Winchester Tennis Association, announced confidently the formation of a committee to effect the smooth running of our annual Town Tennis Tournaments both Spring and Fall. Ed Williams of 37 Middlesex street is chairman and will have as enthusiastic assistants Bud Nutter of 3 Black Horse terrace and Whit Gray of 39 Keamin road.

It is usual for the Town Spring Tennis Tournament to get started around Memorial Day, but this year, owing to the fact that the Park Board has fallen flat on its face—not to use another and a more similar metaphor—in the preparation of our lawn tennis courts, only the powers above have any inkling when this tournament will be held, and maybe even they don't know, for our preachers always tell us that humans must do a little something to help themselves and we seem to be dependent upon the Park Board. Of course, in worrying about Memorial Day week-end we may be crossing our bridges too soon, but the fact still remains that Town tennis did not get started this year, despite heaven's willingness, on April 19, and the excellent plans laid by the High School coaches for tennis tournaments and matches have been knocked plum into the gravel by the Park Board's fall down. So you see, folks, it is just one of them there things; you pay your money and you takes what is dished out. But you don't have to like it.

But let's get back to our sheep. Plans are being laid for the annual tennis tournaments, and when the "Star" announces the dates and programs we hope that you will all be nice enough to contact one of the three committeemen promptly. Don't wait to be invited! This is your tournament and everybody is a host. There are no guests!

BOY SCOUT CAMP WORKING WEEK-ENDS

The local Camping Committee which has charge of all Boy Scout camping activities are preparing Camp Fellsland, the local Scout Camp in Amesbury, for the summer season.

Quite a group of fathers and Scout officials are going to Camp Fellsland the week-ends of May 1-2, May 15-16, and May 29-30-31 to move the former Kiwanis Hall to its new location, to partition Kiwanis Hall into rooms that will be used as camp office, camp store, storage room, staff room, photo dark room and laundry. Other projects are to paint some of the cabins, build a new wheel and thin out some of the wooded area.

Any Dad or Scout official is welcome to come to camp at any time provided they be the Scout Office know, so that meals can be prepared. It might be wise to bring along a hammer, saw, paint brush, or any other tool that you would like to work with.

It is only through this type of volunteer work that the many projects can be completed before the boys enter camp.

SECOND GIRL SCOUT NUTRITION COURSE ENDS

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT YOUR INCREASED GAS RATES

UNIT COST OF GAS TO US UP 81% SINCE 1941
AVERAGE HOURLY WAGE RATE UP 73% SINCE 1941

GENERAL DOMESTIC GAS RATES UNCHANGED SINCE 1933...

Although the cost of everything connected with the manufacture and distribution of gas has skyrocketed, the general domestic gas rates have remained unchanged during the last 15 years. Now, however, despite the utmost economy and efficiency in operation, we can no longer continue to serve our customers at rates based on costs of 1933. For this reason we have requested and received approval from the Department of Public Utilities for new rates which briefly are as follows:

Domestic Gas Rate K	General Gas Rate M
$1.00 for the first 100 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus	$1.00 for the first 100 cubic feet or less of delivered each month, plus
13.0 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 2,400 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus	13.0 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 9,900 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus
11.0 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 7,500 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus	12.0 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 35,000 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus
8.5 cents per hundred cubic feet for all gas delivered each month in excess of 10,000 cubic feet.	10.5 cents per hundred cubic feet for all gas delivered each month in excess of 15,000 cubic feet.

The above charges are subject to a discount of one cent for each hundred cubic feet in excess of the first 100 cubic feet, if paid within ten days of billing. The new rates will be increased or decreased to reflect changes in the cost of fuel used in the manufacture of gas.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

Highlights of the Year's Work

By Mrs. Hazel Carey, Recording Secretary

The 15th season of the Fortnightly has come to a close and as we purposely take a backward glance we feel it has been interesting, unusual and instructive.

The first meeting on Oct. 20th was a reception to new members, preceded by dessert served by Mrs. Bigelow and Mrs. Snow. Mrs. Symmes reported on her trip to the General Federation meeting at N. Y. C., and Mrs. Whitman gave us the highlights of the state Federation meeting in Swampscott. A most enjoyable illustrated lecture was given by Roland Wells Robinson providing an interesting and delightful afternoon.

The Oct. 27 meeting was given over to the Art Committee. Large tables at each side of the hall proclaimed the busy hours spent by our club members on hobbies, and the tables at the rear showed that cooking was not a lost art with us either, as a most successful food sale progressed before and after the meeting. Dr. David Lewis spoke to us on the always absorbing theme of health; complimenting us afterwards during the question period because so many of our members were conversant with medical terminology and the significance of various phases of disease. Our honor guest of the afternoon was Mrs. John A. McAliff, Chairman of the Division of Art for the State Federation, who praised the diversified display of art which arranged from all painting and decorative handwork to weaving and crocheting.

November 10th ushered in a successful president's day. After a reception and dessert made colorful by the beautiful flowers used as decorations and centerpieces, we were entertained by Miss Marjorie Sheppard with her program called "Famistries," a delightful portrayal in song and story. Our particular guests of the day were Mrs. Harvey Greenwood and Mrs. Walter Freeman, and special guests were presidents of neighboring clubs and past presidents of Fortnightly.

On Nov. 23rd the International Relations committee took over providing us with one of our most outstanding programs. Mrs. Harold Givray, our 1st Vice President, gave us a vital picture of Norway—her native land which she re-visited during the summer. Now an American citizen, Mrs. Givray was well able to show us through democratic eyes the war time happenings and aftermath in a country occupied by the totalitarian enemy. Our special guest of the day was Mrs. Fred Shaw, Mar-A-Lago, Eastern Regional V. P. of the State Federation, who told us of the attractive tour served by Mrs. Barnes and her committee were the delicious Norwegian goodies which they made from authentic recipes.

Dec. 8th brought us a preview of Christmas with a delightful narration by Mrs. Ghirardini from her original script of "Night Before Christmas" and "all through the house." Mrs. Ghirardini was very ably assisted by Mrs. Norman Mitchell whose notable flower arrangements graced each table presented, and also by the Fortnightly Singers, whose music appropriately blended into the Christmas festive air. This was an extraordinarily beautiful program of music and Christmas tradition, and all the more creditable because it was done entirely by our own members.

On Jan. 12th, the Conservation Committee presented the Rev. Mr. Vanhook, whose illustrated lecture of the natural beauty of our immediate surroundings, during the warm seasons, gave us an opportunity to forget for an hour the capricious weather we encountered with during our mutually snowy winter, and we were thankful for this short escape and promise as we girded ourselves warmly to attack the drifts on our homeward journey. Mrs. Charles A. Normand, Chairman of Conservation and Gardens in the State Federation was our guest of honor and the 100 Scouts our invited guests of the afternoon.

Jan. 26th, Miss Eva Sherman, Chairman of Literature, presented the always popular and eagerly awaited Marion Budka. Her character sketches from popular passages of her favorite books were very entertaining, and her reviews of several of the best-selling novels and biographies were pleasing to the diversified reading interests of the audience.

Feb. 9th was the annual American Home and Preservation of Antiques Day at Fortnightly. Under the capable planning of the co-chairmen, Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Louise Baneroff. This all day meeting was a notable achievement of pleasure and success. In the morning at 10:30 Mrs. Henri Blanch showed the decorative possibilities of the dining table and its place in gracious living. At 12:30 the most popular spot in the hall was the Snack Bar with Mrs. Cass and Mrs. French doing the honors. Immediately afterwards an auction took place which was scheduled to last an hour, but due to the many beautiful articles put up for sale and the fun provided by the auctioneer, Mrs. Robinson, this part of the program lasted well beyond the time limit. At 2:30 the regular meeting took place and Mrs. Gladys Reed Epling spoke on interesting "Decorative Ideas." To climax this already full program there was an excellent exhibit of antique china, old-fashioned dolls and children's toys. This day was indicative of the American housewife's regular schedule of activities.

Feb. 23rd gave us our first guest night since 1940. The desire to resume this delightful custom was evidenced by the members and their guests by a full attendance. Mrs. William Priest, Education Chairman, thoughtfully provided a program in which our guests were vitally interested. Mr. Philip Cummings, news analyst and commentator, spoke convincingly on world affairs, and his topic evoked many questions and continued discussions at its conclusion.

March 8th was given over to the Legislation Committee. Mrs. James P. Hopkins, Chairman, who was fortunate in securing Mr. Nathaniel Bidwell to speak on current happenings in Washington. Mr. Bidwell's talk was very forceful and challenged every woman present. We also had the privilege at this meeting to listen to an oratorio from our high school music department whose splendid renditions were a surprise to many who had not had an opportunity to hear them previously. Several selections were also provided by some of the members of the school band in a most creditable manner.

March 22nd provided a program notably entertaining. In the absence of Mr. Boynton, Mrs. Boynton and her wife, who accompanied him on the piano, gave us some back stage information on the theatre and comic opera in particular. Our special guest of honor for this delightful afternoon was Mrs. Frederick C. Smith, Northeastern Regional V. P. of the Mass. State Federation, and our invited guests were the girls from the Junior and Senior High Schools.

COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

Co-operation With War Veterans. The Co-operation with War Veterans' Committee, Mrs. Miller, Chairman, has provided many veterans and their wives and children with some of the luxuries we all enjoy and miss while confined in a hospital. They donated $10.00 to the State Federation Committee for Veterans' Welfare; sent 20 boxes at Christmas time to the Bedford Hospital—each box containing 11 much needed articles; sent 18 shoulderettes and eight pairs of warm knitted socks to the Rutland Heights Hospital; 32 packs of new mittens were collected and sent to hospitals and 10 more packs went to our men at sea at Christmas time. They have sent coats, clothes, hats and shoes to the women ward at Bedford Hospital, along with a large collection of magazines, books and puzzles. Mrs. Miller and her committee have our grateful appreciation for the kindness they have diffused among those less fortunate than we.

Courtships

The modest report received from Mrs. George Budd, Chairman of Courtships Committee does not begin to give enough credit to this committee for the time and energy spent by them in providing cheer to the sick and bereaved members of our club. At many meetings during the year they provided delightful arrangements on the stage and turned our 75 lovely courtesies to President's Day. They have shown their readiness at all times to be co-operative and helpful.

Education

Mrs. Priest, Chairman of Education, has sent two packages a month, in Fortnightly fashion, to our newly adopted French child. The letters received by Mrs. Priest from this little girl's mother indicate her gratitude and makes us fully aware of their needs. Donation day for this purpose gave us each an opportunity to participate in this worthy project.

Literary

A report from Miss Eva Sherman, Literature Committee Chairman shows that six delightful afternoons were enjoyed by this committee and its guests at the literary reviewing named "Biographies of Literary Americans," chosen for study.

Antiques

Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Baneroff have planned several very successful meetings and pilgrimages.

Art

The Art Committee with Mrs.

George Connor Chairman, provided us with an exhibition during art week, and an art afternoon at her home in March. This committee also arranged a delightful exhibition of handicrafts at the Oct. 27th meeting.

Music

The Music Committee has provided us with an accompanist at each meeting, special musical programs, Xmas community singing, and a Music Hall with the Fortnightly Singers. Mrs. Chapman, Chairman of this committee, has always given generously of her time.

Conclusion

Lack of space prevents a full account of all the activities of all the officers and committee chairmen during the year. They have done a fine job, one and all!

Next Year

Fortnightly meetings next year are to be held in the Masonic Apartments at 1 Mt. Vernon street. The list of new officers was given in a previous issue of the Star.

TROOP NEWS

At the council exposition in Medford last Saturday the Scouts of this troop had a very enjoyable time. The booth, which was under the direction of Neil Minnister and Ethan Moore assisted by Henry Hooper, was one of the best the troop has had in several years.

The troop did what the leaders deemed satisfactory, that is, the troop took first place in the tug of war for scouts under fifteen, second place in fire by friction (thanks to Carl Zimmermann), and third place in Semaphore signaling.

It is agreed that the event was a success. This success was due to the wonderful way in which boys got right down to business. The members of the troop wish to especially thank Dr. Wolfe, Mr. Hooper, Mr. Elliott, and John Hollsworth for the transportation they provided for the phases of the event.

Henry Hooper and Neil Minister of this troop were the two boys in this town to sell the most expositing tickets. As a reward they are each receiving an inscribed plaque of recognition. They each sold thirty tickets.

Over the next weekend ten boys and two adult leaders will spend two nights in the White Mountain National Forest. They will use the Graylock Ponds Shelter as their base camp.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB

The Wednesday Night Club's Annual Spring Dance will be held Friday evening, May 7th at the Parish Hall of the First Congregational Church. Music will be furnished by Chappie Arnold and his Orchestra and dancing will be from 9-11. Election of Officers for the year 1948-49 will also be held. The slide will be presented by the Nominating Committee with Mr. William J. Spens Jr. as chairman assisted by Mrs. Eugene Pollard, Mrs. Lawrence Palmer and Mr. George Gowsdy. Pot Luck Dinners will be served in the homes of some of the members before the dance. Mrs. John P. Robertson is chairman of hostesses. Those entertaining are: Dr. and Mrs. William D. Barone, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ashby Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kimball Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. E. Duane Hawkins, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Pollard and Rev. and Mrs. John P. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hayes Kolby, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gilman Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Palmer.

EXPANDING PROGRAM FOR "CRAFTSMEN AT WORK DAY"

Saturday, May 1st will be a gala day at the Lincoln School, Melrose, Mass. To date, we have introduced twenty-two craftsmen to you and the list is not yet complete. The Jerry Jingle Craft Group is fortunate indeed to gather such a fine assembly of craftsmen for this interesting educational program. Every one is urged to remember the date and time. This will be the greatest craft day ever held in Melrose.

Mrs. John E. Trull of 80 Mishawam road, Woburn will exhibit her Florida scale and shell flowers. These are so real you will want to pick them. Mrs. Trull has specialized in the art of duplicating flowers in shells and scales since returning from Florida last year. The roses, orchids, sweet peas, and daffodils are perfection, and represent only a few of the flower varieties she can make. So far as we know, she is the only craftsman doing this advanced shell art here in the North. Great care has been taken to include details which make these shell creations practically indestructible and washable. The art of making and painting these life-like reproductions requires patience, and much experimentation. A number of Public Libraries have exhibited Mrs. Trull's craft work and during the month of May a display may be seen at the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. Library in Boston.

Finger Painting as a decorative and useful art will be demonstrated by two members of the American Finger Painting Group, Miss Josephine Durrell of 33 Porter street, Melrose will create pictures in this new art medium. Her unusual background has been a definite aid in this craft that requires rhythm and freedom of style. Mrs. Jane Wilkinson of 72 Orient avenue, Melrose makes use of the art of finger painting to create designs suitable for colorful and unusual wrapping papers for gift packages, book covers and baskets. Both craftsmen have taught at the Boston U. S. O. Centers and many hospital psychiatric and recreation centers. They believe this is an inexpensive craft for everyone who has the desire to paint. Some of their work is on exhibit at the Stuart Gallery, 455 Stuart street, Boston through April 17.

Working in clay and the ceramic arts have played an important part in the history of man from the dim past to the present. The interest in this field is, if anything, stronger than ever to-day. Miss Barbara Pinsky of The Barbara Pinsky Ceramic Studio—169 Newbury street, Boston has arranged for a well known craftsman to take part in this exhibition. Mr. Everett M. Sanborn of Marblehead will demonstrate his skill in forming clay on a kick wheel. People who attend craft fairs and exhibition will remember seeing Mr. Sanborn at work during the Marblehead Craftsman at Work Day held during last summer. Mr. Sanborn is a member of the Marblehead Art and Craft Association and practiced his craft at the Paul Revere Pottery. Don't miss this opportunity to watch a master craftsman work clay into fascinating forms by hand on his wheel.

Mrs. Esther Higgins Watson, 609 Lincoln avenue, Saugus, will work in oils. Painting in oil colors is an exacting art requiring skill and practice. Mrs. Watson specializes in religious and historical subjects. Some of her paintings have been reproduced for sale to lovers of fine paintings.

Mrs. S. B. McCarthy, Fairmount avenue, Winchester is a student at the Museum School of Art in Boston. He is majoring in ceramics and spends most of his time in the Pottery Work Shop which is under the direction of the Master Craftsman, Mr. Arsenault. Examples of Mr. McCarthy's original figurines and pottery pieces will be on exhibit while he will explain the process of slip casting with molds. Miss Emily Gortie of 653 Franklin street, Melrose, will work in the loom. This craft has always been popular and many of Miss Gortie's friends will be glad of this opportunity to see examples of her skill. In weaving, the design and fabric develop before your

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

An unusually fine and varied exhibit of work done by Winchester High School pupils, under the direction of Miss Pauline Goodrich, art director, will be featured at the meeting of the Winchester Art Association on Tuesday evening, May 4 at 8 o'clock in the Gallery of the Public Library.

Members and guests are urged to attend this exhibit on Tuesday evening, and the public may view the paintings from May 5th through May 31, while the Library is open.

Most of the pupils did sketches outdoors this past year, and then completed their paintings from the sketches. Many have done work from models. In the exhibit, the audience will note many mediums used by these young artists, many signs of great talent and originality.

Miss Goodrich will be the speaker of the evening, and will talk on the art work in the exhibit, explaining each group, the meaning behind each problem they undertook. The paintings on view at the Gallery are many, far more than the Association has ever had before, and they have been arranged in groups for easier study.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiorelli of 11 Naples avenue, North Woburn, are the parents of a son, John, born April 20 at the Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Pasqualina Fiorelli of 72 Oak street.

WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB

The final meeting of the Evening Study Group of the Winchester College Club was held on Monday, April 26, at the Church of the Epiphany.

There was a large attendance and a very interesting program was provided by the leaders of the different group activities under the leadership of Mrs. Georges L. Houle.

A delicious dessert preceded the evening entertainment. Slides were shown of the moon, sun, stars and planets. Also there were slides shown of the different periods of American architecture and corresponding types of furniture.

The evening ended with an amusing sketch presented by the Play Reading Group.

DEMOCRATIC TOWN COMMITTEE

Because of the lack of printed names on the ballot and the confusion occasioned by the large number of names written in by individual voters on Tuesday, the Star prints herewith the names of the new Democratic Town Committee for Winchester:

John A. Powers, Jr., 9 Glenwood avenue
Elizabeth C. McDonald, 10 Hill street
Luke P. Glendon, 53 Lake street
Mary E. Monroy, 107 Sylvester avenue
Ruth P. Tansley, 19 Canal street

White and assorted packages of confetti at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building, 3 Church street.

ATHLETES PARTICIPATE IN SPRING SPORTS

The Spring Sports program for Winchester schools set up by Athletic Director Henry Knowlton provides school league baseball for all elementary schools, an intramural program for the Junior High School, varsity, second team, and freshman baseball, girls' softball, boys' and girls' varsity tennis, varsity, junior varsity, and freshman track and golf.

To expel the elementary school league, Mr. Knowlton has secured the services of Joseph Forte as teacher-coach at the Wyman School, Roland Nault as teacher-coach at the Washington School, James Coon at Lincoln, Richard Coon at Mystic, and John Stevenson at Nunan. Squads, including all fifth and sixth grade boys, began their competition on Saturday, April 21, and will continue each Saturday. Play-offs for final league standing will occur during the first week in June.

Coach Ted Bartlett has a squad of thirty aspiring ball players which has a schedule of sixteen games. Assistant Coach G. Hartley Curtis has an eight-game schedule for the freshmen. About forty freshmen have tried out for their team. Sam Bellino is varsity captain.

Coach Helen Carroll has a squad of seventy-five girls trying for positions on the softball team which has an interscholastic schedule of eight games and an interesting intra-mural program. Peggy Holmes is captain.

Tennis for both boys and girls attracts smaller squads of well trained players who seek to uphold Winchester's excellent record. Larry Cooper is supervising the boys' team this spring. Roger Swanson is Captain. The girls' squad of sixteen members is coached by James Coon. Their arduous schedule calls for ten matches and tournament play. Ann Albree is captain.

Coach Otis Leary has twelve golfers swinging regularly. Their schedule includes home and away matches with Melrose, Reading, Malden, and Concord. Ralph Bonnell is captain.

A large squad numbering 66 boys provides Coach Knowlton's first, second, and freshman track teams. Their schedule of six dual meets, The Belmont Relays, and the State Meet, will keep them busy throughout May.

HOCKEY CLUB JUNIORS GAME POSTPONED

The much anticipated return hockey game between the Winchester Hockey Club and the Boston Juniors, scheduled for Saturday at the Skating Club near the Harvard Stadium, has been postponed.

Instead the locals will play the strong Jamaica Reels Sunday afternoon, May 2, at the Skating Club at 2 o'clock.

Winchester beat the Juniors in the recent hockey tournament at the Boston Garden and since then there has been a lot of argument among followers of the two teams about the outcome of a return game. The locals' previous win was a big upset, but you can't envy "Sherm" Sallmarsh, or in fact, any of the boys, that it was any incident. They are ready to play the Juniors any time at all.

MISS ALICE E. CARY
WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION
ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Women's Association of the First Congregational Church was held on Tuesday April 27. Annual reports were given by the Recording Secretary, the Directors of the five Guilds and other chairmen. Mrs. Walter W. Winslip was re-elected as President of the Association and the following were elected as Directors of the Guilds:

Mission Union Guild: Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson.

Home Church Guild: Mrs. Frank H. Knight.

Social Service Guild: Mrs. Edmund C. Filler.

Dr. Guild: Mrs. Richard L. Davenport.

Business and Professional Women's Guild: Mrs. George E. Connor.

The speaker at this meeting was Miss Alice E. Cary, Secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions, who was born in Japan and has spent a greater part of her life there. Her subject was "Japan As I See It" and she gave first hand information about Japan both before and after World War II.

"Today the church faces the greatest opportunity to Christianize Japan that it has ever had," says Miss Cary. She spent last year in Occupied Japan as the only woman member of an important interdenominational Commission sent out right after the war came.

By the Foreign Missions Conference of North America. Her stay there had two unusual highlights: an audience with Emperor Hirohito, making her the second woman thus recognized; and a long and significant interview with General Douglas MacArthur. While in Japan she saw the metamorphosis of a nation once worshipping a "divine" emperor, into a people enthusiastic about democracy and ardently admiring General MacArthur and the American GIs.

After her interview with General MacArthur, Miss Cary felt encouraged by his sincere interest in the Christianity and the missionary movement and his conviction that there is an opportunity to Christianize Japan never before offered.

Miss Cary told the Association that there were 500 churches destroyed in Japan and there is not enough money to rebuild them. However, through Church World Service 20 Quonset huts have been sent over and made into churches where several denominations hold services at different times of the day.

The Mission Union Guild was hostess for this meeting and in addition to the hostesses previously mentioned as assisting were Mrs. Robert N. Oxford and Mrs. George E. Trant.

SOFT BALL MEETING

All managers of soft ball teams planning to play in the Community League this summer are urged to attend a meeting to be held Tuesday evening, May 11, at 7:45 at the Legion Home on Vine street. Important matters will be discussed and a full meeting is hoped for.

Cellophane, assorted colors, 10c a roll at Wilson the Stationer.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SCHOOL TO HOLD PARENT-TEACHER CLINIC

A Parent-Teacher Clinic will be held Wednesday evening May 5 from 7:45 to 9:30 o'clock, at the First Congregational Church, according to announcement made this week by Dr. Howard J. Hildley, minister. The guest speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. David R. Hunter of Boston. His subject will be: "Christian Education: Who Gives It?"

The meeting will provide an opportunity for parents to get better acquainted with the teachers of their children in the church school. The entire school staff of teachers, supt's., and officers will be present to make the occasion a clinic on matters of Religious Education.

Mr. Hunter, who served as a member of the faculty for the Interdenominational Teacher Training Institute a year ago, is no stranger to Winchester audiences. At present he is the chairman of the Department of Christian Education for the Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts.

The meeting will be in two parts. All parents will meet in the Social Hall at 7:45, to hear the guest speaker. Then the meeting will divide up by departments in the departmental assembly rooms. This second part of the program will be in charge of the various departmental superintendents. Each will introduce the teachers to parents and explain the program and purpose of each age group. There will be opportunity for questions and discussion by parents, after which the departmental groups will break up into classes. This will allow teachers to get together with parents of boys and girls in their charge. The evening will wind up with refreshments.

Mr. Chester W. Smith, Executive of the church school, has made arrangements for the program and will be assisted by the following superintendents:

Mrs. Richard Emerson, Nursery Department.

Mrs. Colver Dyer, Kindergarten Department.

Mrs. Robert Swisher, Primary Department.

Mrs. Clarence Wickerson, Junior Department.

Mr. George Gowdy, Intermediate Department.

Mrs. Norman Padelford, Junior High Department.

Mr. Bradford Bentley, Senior High Department.

"This clinic has been planned," explained Rev. John P. Robertson, Asst. Minister, and Director of Religious Education, "to encourage cooperation and collaboration between the home and the school. Each plays a vital role in the Religious Education program of today. Every home should be represented on May 5 by at least one parent, whose children attend the First Congregational Church School."

MYSTIC SCHOOL FOURTH GRADE ASSEMBLY

Recently, the fourth grade at Mystic School presented two plays: one emphasizing home safety and the other health. The children decided that these two subjects were very important and that they would find plays to portray them. They were adapted by the pupils and produced by them under the direction of Miss Jorgensen, their teacher.

A Play emphasizing Home Safety "Father Spends a Quiet Evening at Home"

Author: Richard Bowen Mother: Paul Perkins
Father: Catherine deKoven
Brother: Charles Townsend
Sister: Robert Perkins
A Stranger: Elizabeth Blue
Judge: Marion Foster
Judge's Wife: Sarah Atkins
Judge's Maid: Frances Killo
Coach: Harry Truitt

The point on this play brought out the fact that boys and girls have roller skates, bicycles, and other playthings on stairs, in driveways, etc., where people trip over them, or run over them with cars and cause accidents and injuries.

A Play Teaching Good Health Habits

"Court Convened in Health City"

Judges: Robert, Amelia Miller
Clerk of the Court: Theodore Freeman
Jury: Danny Hanger, Elizabeth Scanlon, Jerry Katon, David Eldridge, Jean Thouchless, Ann Townsend, Harry Hurry, Whitford Martin, Sully Slump, Elizabeth Bodin, Sully Slump, Mary Keens, Johnny Stay-Up, Stephen Flinders, Buddy Breen, Harry Truitt

Guest Spectators: Arlys Harrington, Maurine Foster, Charlotte Nutter, Sarah Atkins, Polhemus, John Tidale, Robert Becker, Robert McNitt

As the names of the characters imply, they were tried in court for their various offenses and sentenced accordingly. Both of these plays drove home a lesson understood by the youngest child there.

Interesting poems on health were read by Charlotte Nutter and Arlys Harrington. Piano selections were played by Charlotte Nutter and John Becker.

This same program was given a few days later in the Lincoln School where it was equally enjoyed. Miss Asher, the Principal of these two buildings, has done a great deal in creating an interest between both pupils and teachers.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 12 NEWS

An awarding of two second class badges to Scout Kenneth Woodrow and Thomas Callahan of the Apache patrol was highlighted by a candlelight ceremony which was very appealing, on Thursday, April 22. Three candles mounted in a white birch bough about 18 inches in length was the work of Scout Neil McFeeley who was awarded points for his patrol for the night gesture. Joseph Weiss was awarded the Librarian badge and Scoutmaster Homette has high hopes of an entertaining and instructive library in the near future. If any of our readers have any books in their attics which would be appealing to the scouts they might like to call Winchester 6-2501 or notify any of the scouts.

Mr. Bob Fiore was awarded the Assistant Scoutmaster's badge and Scoutmaster Homette a gold service star signifying his eighth year in Scouting. Scouts Conglin, Thorne, Callahan and P. McLaughlin were dispatched to do a test Scout's pace in preparation for the trial test which will be held next week. The course was along Washington street from St. Mary's School in Harvard street and back.

A map reading game was indulged in which required the knowledge of symbols used in mapping; for example, the symbols for railroads, churches, cemeteries, schools, etc. The Navajo patrol emerged the victors with the most correct solutions. The Sioux patrol was second and the Apache and Cheyenne finishing in that order. The patrol point system totals are as follows: Apaches 284 points, Navajos 128, Sioux 69, Cheyennes 58.

Mr. Homette stressed the value of attending the Scouting Exposition in Medford and urged that the boys' parents attend also to see just what Scouting is trying to do for the boys of the nation. Those who went to the Scout Exposition in Medford on Saturday enjoyed the booths exemplifying the various points of scouting and enjoyed events such as bugling, signaling, etc. Troop 12 boys were favorably impressed with the showing that troops 1, 6, 7 and 4 of Winchester made and were rooting them on. Next year we hope to have troop 12 ready to join forces with these troops to bring home more laurels to Winchester.

To those parents who could not find time to attend the Exposition this year we recommend that they plan now to reserve next year's Saturday because without the groupings backing the Scouting program will fall apart. Meanwhile Troop 12 scouts know what they have to do to make a good showing next Spring.

The Winchester Rotary is sponsoring an essay contest on "What Scouting Means to Me" with two weeks at Camp Fellsland for the two prizes open to Boy Scouts of Winchester. May 15th is the deadline. Committees present were Grant, Casey, Washburn, Erhard, and Fiore.

LIBRARY NEWS

Reference questions answered at the library totaled over 200 during April, in addition to the usual large number of requests from High School and College students. Some of these were quickly answered over the telephone. Others required more time. Here are a few requests which were recently received:

What is the state flower of Massachusetts?

How do comics affect children?

History of the Blue Cross.

How should a wedding invitation be answered?

How are stuffed toys made?

Industrial Design.

Home life of the French-Canadians.

What are the measurements for a basketball court?

How to buy furniture.

Background of Labor government in England.

Charts and diagrams showing how television works.

Pictures of long and narrow kitchens.

What is the highest mountain peak in England?

Pasteurization of milk.

How to redecorate a sunroom.

How to make a demonstration speech.

Why not visit the Reference Room and look over the "Congressional Quarterly?" This outstanding publication keeps you informed on all activities of Congress, such as status of bills now before Congress; your Congressman's stand on important legislation.

You will want to see the "Report by the President" to Congress for the year 1947, "United States and the United Nations." This is the story of the United States participation in the world organization of nations. It tells of the struggle for peace—it appraises the problems considered by the General Assembly, the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council, the Trusteeship Council, the International Court of Justice and the Secretariat.

It is an excellent handbook on the United Nations.

IN ACCORD WITH PRESENT ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS:—

* A five-day week without reduction in take-home pay was made uniform for all employees.

* A contributory pension plan which all employees will become eligible to join is being established.

HERE IS WHAT HAS BEEN PROPOSED FOR THE FUTURE

(SUBJECT TO LEGISLATIVE AUTHORIZATION)

* Construction of an additional subway between Park Street and Scollay Square Stations and the enlargement of the Park Street and Boylston Street Stations uniting the two by means of continuous platform facilities.

* Extension of Rapid Transit facilities to Quincy and Braintree.

* Further extension of Rapid Transit facilities from Orient Heights, East Boston, to Revere.

* Extension of the Cambridge subway to Porter Square and of Rapid Transit facilities to a point near the Concord Turnpike and Alewife Brook Parkway.

* Removal of elevated structures and the construction of subways and other Rapid Transit facilities in their place.

THE JOB AHEAD

The people and the area within the cities and towns served by the railway system constitute the Metropolitan Transit Authority—owners of this transit system.

The railway is operated solely for the benefit of the public.

As Public Trustees of the Authority, we have a dual obligation:—(1) to fulfill the general duty imposed upon the Trustees by the Legislature "to secure an adequate, co-ordinated, integrated and efficient system of rapid transit," and (2) to manage and operate the public's transit system efficiently, economically and to the satisfaction of the riding public in the Metropolitan area.

Do you have any engagement for Friday evening, May 14? If you haven't, or even if you have, and can make different arrangements, you really should go down to the high school auditorium that night and attend "Band Night." Chances are, you have heard the high school band at football games, or other town functions. You think the youngsters play pretty well, and they do, but if you haven't heard one of their formal concerts, you have missed a real "treat" and the band needs money! You really have no idea what instruments and equipment cost these days, and although local organizations like En Ka, the Fortnightly and the Women's Association of the Congregational Church have been generous, Director Fred Felmet still needs to add appreciably to his band fund for several mighty good reasons. First of all he needs money to pay the expenses of sending his young musicians to the State Music Festival. More funds are necessary to have the present band uniforms replaced and still more to have the uniforms equipped with straps to prevent them blowing off in a stiff wind. If "Band Night" and "Orchestra Night" the following Friday make more than enough to pay for these things the residue will go to swell the fund that has been growing to pay for new uniforms for the band next fall. The band and Director Felmet appreciate deeply what has been done for them by interested town institutions. They also want to help themselves, and these coming concerts are the best, and about the only way they can do it. If you want the town to have a good band, and who doesn't, make it a point to attend these two concerts at the high school. You'll enjoy them, you'll help a worthwhile enterprise and you'll get full value for your money. What more could you ask, really?

The Star is told unofficially that approximately $100 worth of glass was broken in our school buildings during the vacation just past. Add to this extensive breakage in industrial buildings along upper Main street and all the windows in the Palmer Beach bath house and it adds up to quite a sum. A lot of the breakage has been and will be paid for, but the sad part of this restitution business is that it seems not at all to stop the youth of the town from its destructive tendencies. The police can and do apprehend most of the young people, (they are not all boys), responsible for the destruction of property around town, but largely because property owners are unwilling to prosecute few if any of the culprits find their way to court. The smashing of windows in stores around the center stopped immediately after the boy responsible was taken to court, and it could well be that more of these young maulers should be treated more severely. We are informed that the patience of the school authorities has been exhausted and that they are ready to "crack down" on the future destruction of school property. With the shortage of hand labor around it might be a good idea to let some of these older youngsters who destroy property work out their bills under the supervision of our town foremen. This might bring home to them the thought that malicious mischief isn't fun. Some different system would seem to be called for. We need to get a lot more tough about this form of hoodlums.

Today is the last day to get that inspection sticker, so if you haven't attended to it, you had better do so at once. The Registry has announced that all its inspectors will be on the lookout for cars without stickers, and all police forces have been urged to co-operate with the Registry in its effort to get unsafe cars off the road. The theory behind this inspection business is unsatisfactory. There are so many old, old cars on the road these days that it is only common sense to be sure that they are not endangering, not only their own occupants but the lives and safety of the public. The Registry gives every one plenty of time to get a sticker, and all the authorities seem to agree that there just isn't any excuse for not having one. Save yourself a trip to court and at the same time do your bit in the cause of safe driving by getting that sticker. Only a few hours remain!

WEST SIDE SCHOOL SITE BEST EVER!

Editor of the Star:
I believe the inhabitants of the Town of Winchester are a debt of gratitude to the Planning Board for selecting the site for the new west side school. I desire to thank the town meeting members for the excellent judgment they manifested when they supported the Planning Board and the School Committee at the recent town meeting. Now listen carefully! For 15 years after Winchester was incorporated a town it was impossible to buy land for the Wyman school at what was thought a fair price, and for 15 years the schoolhouse stood on land rented from the Reed family for seven dollars a year. I have witnessed schools demolished and erected in Winchester and taxable property destroyed in order to erect schools, but the site selected for the West Side school is Virgin property. In my opinion it is the best site the town ever purchased for a school!

On a sunny day I recently scrutinized the lot and visualized the scenery. Words can not describe the magnificent panoramic view. It is terrific! You can observe the gilded dome of the State House, the Custom House, all the towns, and cities east of the city, including the Lawrence Observatory that cost more than ten thousand dollars to erect more than 50 years ago. I have climbed the tower of the observatory a number of times, and I believe the view from our school site equals the view from the observatory.

I assert, Mr. Editor, that one third of the land in Winchester to be developed is in the immediate vicinity of the site. If the assertion is erroneous I trust some reader of the Star will correct the error.

For years folks have witnessed the beautiful sunset from Ridge street. If you desire a thrill, witness the sunrise from the new school site and inhale the exhilarating air!

I wonder how many town meeting members or other inhabitants have scrutinized the site. By all means look it over. It is your property!

Very truly yours,
Patrick H. Craughwell.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS HOLDS ORIENTATION MEETING

The Membership committee of the League of Women Voters of Winchester held its annual orientation meeting and tea for new members on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Underwood.

This is a meeting to which all members are invited but which is intended primarily to introduce to new members and prospective members the activities and services of the League.

Mrs. W. E. Spaulding, President, greeted the guests and introduced three committee chairmen who spoke briefly of different phases of League work.

Mrs. Philip Woodward took for her subject "What it means to be a League Member." She told of the aims of the League, as a non-partisan organization, to be of service to the community and explaining the different types of membership and the usefulness of each. Mrs. Rowland V. Patrick explained the League Program which has nothing to do with speakers or topics discussed at individual meetings. Instead it is the platform on which the League rests to work for the following year. The articles in the platform are decided upon by National and State Leagues at their annual conventions and by the local leagues at their annual meetings.

Mrs. Rodney W. Long explained the financial operation—how the League money is earned and what expenditures are necessary. When a woman citizen joins a local League such as Winchester she automatically becomes a member of the State and National Leagues. She pays dues or contributes only to her local organization but the entire expenses of the State and National Leagues are met by all of the local Leagues. This it is easy to see that the nominal dues would never be sufficient to cover the whole cost and therefore the necessary funds must be raised by an annual project, usually a speaker, and by the generous contributions of non-members, men and women who admire the aims of the League and show their approval in this concrete way.

After the question period the Membership committee, Mrs. Harry W. Murdock, chairman, Mrs. Clinton Bennett, Mrs. Austin T. Bunker, Mrs. Joseph Dolben and Mrs. George S. Holli served delicious refreshments.

In addition to the members mentioned the presenters were: Madeline Jones S. Allen, James H. Cain, Charles E. Greene, Harold A. Hall, Frank Hawkins, James A. Hopkins, Albert Hinkins, Murray Moore, Vincent L. Stanton, John H. Volpe, Carl C. Zimmerman and Misses Catherine Barrill, Hazel F. Cushing and Helen M. Monroe.

HURT IN FALL FROM BIKE

George Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevenson of Hemingway street, was painfully injured at 8:15 yesterday morning when he was thrown from his bike while riding down Mill Hill near Lake street.

The front mudguard of his wheel became loose and caught in the spokes, throwing the boy over the handle-bars to the ground. He was taken into the Winchester Plate Glass Shop at 719 Main street where the accident was reported to the police.

Chief Charles J. Harrold took young Stevenson to the Winchester Hospital in the police ambulance. He was treated by Dr. Phillip J. McManus for cuts and bruises about the face, right arm and leg. He was allowed to go home after treatment.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the Plant Sale and to inspect the gardens which are expected to be especially beautiful at this time.

TO DIRECT AT CAMP STELLA MARIS

Reverend John J. Sheehan, C. Y. O. Director at the Immaculate Conception Church, will be in personal charge of the camp program at Camp Stella Maris, West Gloucester during the coming summer.

Reverend Sheehan has had wide experience in organizing and developing youth recreational programs and has been in charge of the camp programs at Camp Stella Maris since 1938.

The camping season at Camp Stella Maris is divided into two four-week periods. The first four weeks from June 27 to July 24 will be for boys and the second period from July 25 to August 21 will be for girls. Youngsters from ten to sixteen will be eligible to attend and will be accepted from any part of the Archdiocese.

The camp is noted particularly for the excellent swimming facilities which are available. Campers have access to a rich, sandy stretch of beach which is unusually safe and where the privacy of the area provides for the safe rate of the youngsters on the beach.

Any parents seeking a good summer camp for their children at reasonable rates may contact Father Sheehan for further information.

THE WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

Mr. George Graves was the guest speaker before the members and guests of this Club at the April 1st meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harold Tremblay. Mr. Graves' subject was "Plant Diseases and Pests."

Because we have no control over the adjoining countryside the first step in pest control is good culture and good sanitation. It is always wise to anticipate and be prepared for the pests which attack the garden and not wait for blight proportions before strange. Many of the new materials now available by Mr. Graves in their relation to everyday use by the backyard gardener, and he conducted his talk with a very helpful question and answer period.

Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes of Ravenscroft road was hostess for the recent reception and bridge of the Boston Business and Professional Women's Club at the Pioneer in that city.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB SINGS TWO CONCERTS

Presents Cushman Delange

Prepares for Contest and Annual Spring Concert

On Friday evening, April 23rd, the Mystic Glee Club traveled to Hingham where it made a host of new friends by singing a concert sponsored by the Community Club of Hingham. This was the first concert under the new director, William Ellis Weston, and the performance was given, even though a few rough edges were evident in spots.

This was a warm-up for the Annual Spring Concert to be held Friday evening May 21, in the Winchester High School auditorium. A fine audience of South Shore residents was extremely generous in their applause. It was held in Wilder Memorial Hall.

The Mystic Four, club quartet, made their usual smash hit, appearing twice, and receiving numerous calls for encores which were graciously given.

In addition, Jack Gilbert, pianist, rendered perhaps the biggest attraction of the evening with his brilliant solos in the sophisticated style of Carmen Cavallaro. The club is indeed fortunate in having such talent within its membership.

On Tuesday evening, April 27th, the club sang another concert for the Belmont Rotary Club's Ladies Night. This was held in the ballroom of the Sheraton Hotel on Bay State road in Boston, before another enthusiastic gathering. Once again, the Mystic Four performed to the delight of the listeners.

Top honors at this concert went to the beautiful singing of Cushman De Lange, soprano, of Winchester, who appeared as the club's guest artist. Miss De Lange (in private life, Mrs. Gordon C. Bennett) sang with exquisite taste two groups which showed not only a splendid range but a fine art. She sings with great poise and control and possesses a pleasant personality. In a low studded room, full of people, and most difficult in which to sing, Miss De Lange delighted her audience with a fine demonstration of relaxed and well sustained clear notes, which showed her well developed talent. She was especially effective in her rendition of "None But The Lonely Heart."

With these two concerts behind them, the Mystic Glee Club is next scheduled to enter the annual New England Federation of Jewish Glee Clubs contest and joint concert to be held this year in Jordan Hall, Boston, on Saturday, May 15th. Miss Adele Addison, brilliant young Negro soprano, will be the Federation's guest soloist at this concert where three hundred men will sing under the direction of Dr. Thompson Stone.

The last date of the year for the club is the popular annual Spring Concert to be held in the High School auditorium Friday May 21. Sponsoring members will be receiving their tickets for this event very shortly.

WINCHESTER P. O. AND BELMONT BATTLE TO A TIE

With but one match to go in the Middlesex P. O. Bowling League, second place Belmont was held to a tie by the fighting Winchester P. O. team. Gilman and Tofari, both bowling over 100 in the first string gave Winchester an early lead. But when Orms of Belmont bowled 121 and his team mates brought the second string total to 483, the match evened out. The third string was a battle to the end, which ended with a one pin for Winchester but a loss of the total pinfall by five pins.

MAN OVERBOARD

Police Headquarters was notified Wednesday afternoon shortly after 5 that a man had fallen into Wedge Pond near Pike's Garage.

Officers William E. Cassidy and Edward F. Boverly went to investigate and found two Lowell men on the bank of the pond, one being soaking wet from his fall in the water. He gave his name as Jeremiah Sheerin and was locked up for drunkenness at Headquarters, his clothing being removed and dried.

Meanwhile his pal, one Albert Hiedlund, refused to leave his cell, despite urgent requests on the part of the police. He too was finally locked up. Both were released yesterday morning.

MRS. BARNES IN OVERSEAS BROADCAST

(From the Employers' "Owl" for April, 1948)

If you happened to be listening to a radio set in Bombay, India, a few weeks ago you may well have been amazed to have heard a certain 15-minute program beamed in from the United States. The substance of the work of an Employers' Special Agent and not only was the broadcast heard in India, it was also transmitted to such far-flung locales as South Africa, Australia and New Zealand as well as to London, England, site of The Employers' Head Office.

The broadcast possessed other striking features. Trim, attractive Mrs. Muriel Barnes, star of the program and a member of the New England Department, has the distinction of being one of The Employers' few lady Special Agents. The broadcast itself was piped over Boston's non-commercial, non-profit station, WRUL, a pioneer in radio that is using its air lanes exclusively for the promotion of better understanding and better relations among people of all nations through an organization known as the World Wide Broadcasting Foundation.

Sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Boston, of which Mrs. Barnes is Radio Chairman, the program took the form of an interview with Mrs. Barnes. Now in her fifth year as a member of The Employers' Family, Mrs. Barnes considers her present work extremely rewarding. For one thing she loves to meet the many different types of people with whom she comes in contact while "making the rounds" and, further than that, the overcoming of sales resistance affords her a tremendous amount of satisfaction.

Back in 1943 Mrs. Barnes overcame her first bit of sales resistance when she convinced New England Engineering Department Superintendent "Ben" Bjorklund that she could fill the bill as a Safety Engineer. She based her contention on the fact that her experience as a Captain in the Massachusetts Women's Civilian Defense Corps had given her certain skills that should qualify her as a good engineering prospect. For nearly two years she proved herself by doing an outstanding job and then, on the suggestion of a friend, she enrolled in an employee's class for Special Agents and Underwriters, a course which lasted for 13 weeks.

On Feb. 21, 1945, Mrs. Barnes obtained her Agents License to write for the Companies and since that time she has been doing a bang-up job of handling part of The Employers' Eastern Massachusetts territory.

A happy housewife who lives with her husband in Winchester, Mrs. Barnes is the mother of two children. Her daughter, now married, is attending Wheaton College while her son is a student at Marlboro Military School.

Mrs. Barnes is thoroughly convinced that while some aspects of the insurance business are strictly a man's preserve, there are other phases, still largely unexploited by the gentler sex, in which the woman can compete on an equal basis with the men.

As far as her future in insurance is concerned, Mrs. Barnes dreams of the day when she can establish an agency of her own. For the present, however, she is happily glad to be with The Employers' Family doing the work she loves. Needless to say, that feeling is reciprocated 100% by the Companies who are deeply pleased to have a lady with such exceptional talents on the payroll.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER D. A. R.

The Committee of Safety Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its annual meeting on Monday afternoon, April 26, at the home of Mrs. John B. Wills, 238 Highland Avenue, with the Regent, Mrs. Earle E. Andrews presiding.

A short memorial service was conducted by the Chaplain, Miss Grace W. Bond, in memory of two members who have died during the past year. — Mrs. Charles A. Birmingham and Mrs. Frederick P. Young and it was voted to purchase a book for the D. A. R. Library in Washington in their memory.

A report was given by Mrs. Clifton S. Hall of the State Conference which was held in March at the Hotel Somerset in Boston, and Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes and Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, who attended the Continental Congress in Washington as delegates, gave interesting accounts of their activities there.

Annual reports were read by the chapter officers and chairmen of committees and it was announced that the May outing would be a luncheon at the Dominion Manor in Bedford on May 26.

The following delegates were elected to attend the Fall Conference at the New Ocean House, Swampscott: — Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes and Miss Clara R. Russell, with Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge, Miss Emma Boardman, Miss Louise Bancroft and Mrs. John B. Wills, as alternates.

Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Chairman of the Good Citizenship Committee, introduced Miss Margaret Holmes, the chapter's Good Citizen, who was the guest of the chapter, with her mother, Mrs. Robert J. Holmes. The chapter also had as guests Mrs. Howard J. Chidley and Mrs. Philip Lewis. At the close of the business meeting the Regent presented Rev. John Prescott Robertson, who held the attention and interest of all with a talk on "A Triple Approach to the Book of Books."

Tea was served with Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes and Mrs. Harry H. Locke presiding, assisted by the following committee: Miss Eleanor Bancroft, Miss Louise Bancroft, Mrs. William H. Cole, Mrs. William P. Cady, Mrs. Henry H. Dwyer, Mrs. Harold F. French, Mrs. William W. Goodhue, Mrs. Clifton S. Hall, Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Mrs. Harry S. Parsons, Mrs. William A. Purdy, Mrs. Paul F. # LOVING OUR ENEMIES

There are plenty of folks in and out of Winchester whose great test is the forbearance and fortitude of loving one's enemies. But one's enemies can be conquered, but this is possible only through love. For to hate and despitely use in return only embitters and widens the breach. Men and women who hate their enemies are in the same boat with the grudgers, grumblers, and complainers—they do not have God on their program.

DR. COLLINS MOVES OFFICE TO BOSTON

Dr. Arthur Collins, local optometrist, announced this week that after May 1st he will occupy new offices at 45 Bromfield, Boston. This move is for the twofold reason that he wishes to be more centrally located for many of his patients who do not live in the Winchester area, and because he has been invited to assume the practice of Dr. M. C. Richmond, who has been located in Boston for many years. Dr. Richmond selected Dr. Collins to replace his son who has been associated in the practice, but who has been requested to serve in the U. S. Army to conduct scientific research on visual problems. Dr. Collins wished to inform his many Winchester friends and patients that they will be most welcome at his new offices, and to invite them to visit him on any occasion when he can be of service.

TROOP 6 ON CAPE TRIP

On Saturday morning, April 17, a group of 14 Scouts from this troop left Winchester for an expedition to Cape Cod. The group was divided among three cars driven by Dr. Wolfe, Mr. Traut, and Mr. Davies. About noon the expedition reached the Nickerson State Forest where they camped beside a beautiful pond. Saturday afternoon was devoted to setting up camp while the evening was devoted to a game.

After church on Sunday the boys were driven on a tour of the Cape which included a stopover at Race Point near Provincetown and at one of the Coast Guard Stations where they examined a "duck". On returning from this excursion a car in front of the leading car went out of control. The car crashed into a fence and rammed one of the railings through the underside of the hood and up through the floorboards while another railing smashed through the windshield. Luckily the driver and his wife escaped with only a few cuts and bruises.

Upon returning to the forest the boys met another group of Scouts from Troop 72, Orleans, which was also camping in the forest. That night the groups combined for a moonlight hike around the pond and the next morning they played a game of "capture the flag". The boys returned home Monday evening.

The group consisted of its leader, Fisher Wolfe, and Doug Hawkins, Henry Hooper, Neil Muncester, Stanley Gudson, Ted Elliott, Peter Jones, Bill Davies, Skip Hall, John Moores, Donald Pooler, Harry Thomas, Jim Daschbach, and Fred Burt.

The Council Exposition was held on Saturday, April 24, in the Roberts Junior High School, in Melford.

The following teams were entered in the Exposition:

The Wig-Wag team (Morse signaling) was composed of Jim Daschbach, Doug Hawkins, Peter Jones, and Stanley Gudson.

The Semaphore team: Dave Hollisworth, Fisher Wolfe, Lee Staff, and John Moores.

The Knot team consisted of Donald Cameron, Bill Davies, Stanley Gudson, Skip Hall, Henry Hooper, Ethan Moore, Neil Muncester, and Bob Murphy.

Flint and Steel was done by Bill Davies, Ted Elliott, Ricky Phippen, and Lee Staff.

Carle Zimmerman did fire by friction.

The tag of war team for boys under fifteen was composed of Skip Hall, Doug Hawkins, Donald Cameron, Neil Muncester, and Ethan Moore.

Bob Murphy, Jim Daschbach, Fisher Wolfe, Dave Hollisworth, and Malcolm Wilson represented the group in the tug of war for scouts fifteen and over.

Under the direction of Doug Hawkins a skit entitled "I Believe" was presented. The booth, under the direction of Neil Muncester and Ethan Moore, was on ramping equipment.

On this weekend, May 1 and 2, ten Scouts from this troop will go on an expedition to Groby Ponds near Plymouth, N. H. This will, without doubt be one of the most interesting trips of the season.

About three weeks ago the Woburn Police notified the Winchester Police that a child in that city had been struck by a hit-and-run driver, operating an out-of-state car. Officer James E. Farrell spotted the wanted car Saturday afternoon and stopped it, holding the driver for Officer Rex Bell of the Woburn Department. The driver said he was not aware his car had struck any one in Woburn.

FIRST ANNUAL CATHOLIC SCOUTERS COMMUNION BREAKFAST

Fifty-five Catholic Scouters, Committee-men, Scout Troops and Cub Packs, Den Mothers, Cubmasters, Asst. Scoutmasters, and Scoutmasters recently went to St. Patrick's, Stoughton, to attend the 9:00 a. m. Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Sexton, former Editor of the Pilot and now Pastor of St. Patrick's, who praised the assembled group for their interest in Scouting.

After Mass the group who represented St. Patrick's, Stoughton, St. Charles, Woburn, St. Mary's, Winchester, St. Raphael's West Medford, St. Francis' Medford and St. Anthony's North Woburn, assembled at the Town Line restaurant in Woburn for the breakfast. Rev. Fr. Nelson of St. Patrick's, Stoughton who is Chaplain of Fellsland Council sat at the head table with John Trohan, lay representative of Archbishop Cushing in Catholic Scouting, with John Conway, Commissioner, and Joe Corrigan of St. Francis' who was chairman of the breakfast committee. The rest of the group sat at individual round tables seating six or seven. The affair was so popular with all that it will be held again next year. A motion was made and seconded to have the Mass held at St. Mary's, Winchester and so it was voted.

Each Chairman of the Scout Troops and Cub Packs was called upon to give a brief report of their respective units' doings and from the tenure of the remarks made, real progress is going on. Mr. Trohan traced the start of Catholic Scouting in Fellsland to five contributors of which he was one and four boys. "We have made great progress since then," he declared. He announced the date for the C. Y. O. youth parade as October 31st in Boston. Scouting will be portrayed in this parade. He praised highly, Mr. Ed Nelson, Scout Executive of Fellsland Council for his cooperation and help.

Mr. Conway urged that all take advantage of training films. Mr. Shaughnessy, Chairman of Leadership and Training, had the highest praise for the leaders of the Protestant Faith for laying out the groundwork of Scouting, which the Catholic Church authorities have found so invaluable for the youth of the world.

Fr. Nelson pleaded for more adult leaders and suggested that they be sought after individually and not in mass groups. "Select a person and go after that one in a steadfast manner," he said. "Keep pushing steadily with both shoulders to the wheel," he admonished. He praised the gathering for the fine example they must have shown to the youth this morning. In the business part of the meeting a committee of three was selected upon to look into the non-Scouting at St. Joseph's Medford.

Present for Troop 12 and Pack 12 of St. Mary's were: Scout Committee-men: Casy, Kinton, Edland, Washburn, Scoutmaster: Bonet and Asst. Scoutmaster: Fiore. Cub Committee-men: Savage, Barry, Johnson and Ralph Ambrose. Den Mothers: Edland, Manoli, Barry, and McElhinney.

Helen Goodwin of 1 Lincolnshire way played viola and Linwood Sibbey of 63 Washington street, clarinet, in the Civic Orchestra of Boston at the organization's third concert of the current season last evening in Jordan Hall.

The Civic Orchestra has a membership of some 70 musicians who come from all over Greater Boston and even from out-of-state to play. Directed by Paul Cherkassky, first violinist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the group has played a Sunday afternoon concert at the Boston Museum of Arts this past season in addition to its regular concert schedule, meeting with such success that already they have been invited to play there again next year.

Many talented instrumentalists find their way into the Civic Orchestra and under Mr. Cherkassky's direction their improvement has been so pronounced that in the past few years some 14 members have been accepted for membership in the major orchestras of the country. Besides his violin duties with the Symphony Mr. Cherkassky is well known as a conductor, conducting several of the famous Pop Concerts for Mr. Fieller and also some of the Esplanade Concerts.

JONAH NOW AT SAILOR TOM'S

Jonah, the swan, after failing to live at peace with several "Abbies," has left its old haunts at the Millpond and is now at Sailor Tom's restaurant in Reading. Jonah proved troublesome, both in his marital relations and as a pet, so that his departure is not generally regretted by those who were charged with his care. The "Sailor Tom" management has him swimming on a small pond near the restaurant and at last reports was contemplating no mate for this rather peevish fowl.

Park Superintendent Herbert S. "Babe" Mullen received on Tuesday of this week a trio of fine Chinese white geese, bred by Edwin H. Price at Wantagh, N. Y. They were placed in the water at the Mill Pond and have made a fine impression.

All three birds are prize winners, the gander having taken second prize for old geanders at the Minerva Fair in 1947 with the old goose taking a 1st prize in her class at the same fair. The young, a bird was first young goose at Minerva. The white life at the pond is looking up again.

TROOP 12 NEWS

One of the finest Troop meetings was held by troop 12 on Thursday evening, April 15th, with Scoutmaster Norm Doucette really getting into the cooperation from the boys. After the opening ceremonies, pledge of allegiance to the flag, there was an inspection period with Norm going down the line individually to each boy and inspecting them for neatness, etc.

The monthly patrol point system being in effect, the boys were at their best with shoes shined, uniforms neat etc. Committeemen present were Goodrow, Grant, Erhard and Fiore. Scoutmaster Doucette announced that the Committee has appointed Mr. Bob Fiore who has been committeeman on outdoor activities as Asst. Scoutmaster. Bob like Norm, got his Scouting from Staff Rogers, currently head of Winchester's Explorer Scouts.

Individual awards were made to the members of the Apache patrol, winners of last month's patrol contest, of pocket type flashlights, with magnified, red lenses excellent for signalling. The boys of the Apache patrol are R. Goodrow, John Notemeyer, James Callahan, Thomas Gallagher and Robert Flaherty. The current contest will end in the latter part of May.

The Snow patrol with John Canolly as patrol leader showed up well in a short drilling sequence. At game time a lively "stunt the beacon" game was introduced with the four patrols divided into two groups. The winners of this game were Scouts Callahan, P. McLaughlin, Taylor, Connolly, Goodrow, Gallagher, Flaherty and Mawn.

Sunday, May 2nd, was announced by Scoutmaster Doucette as "Like Day" and will be for those boys who are almost ready to take their second class tests at the Board of Review in May.

Miss Helen Farrell, who has charge of the Red Cross Swimming Meets for the Winchester Playgrounds during the summer months kindly accepted an invitation of the Committee to visit the Scouts on the evening of April 29th to give a talk on the highlights of swimming, artificial respiration and safety. She will be remembered as having been a former Lifeguard at Palmer beach and B. U. (Sargent) Grad and Physical Education Instructor at the Univ. of Maine and is currently on the Faculty at Winchester High School. Her talk was very interesting.

On Tuesday, April 20th, at the Unitarian Church Hall in Woburn several members of the Committee under Mr. Charles Washburn who is on the Committee of Leadership and Training of Fellsland Council, gathered for a weekly course on Scouting, said course to last for six weeks.

Messrs. Casey, Fiore and Erhard attended a fine Special District meeting on April 14th at the Legion building, where troop programs were discussed by Scouting commissioner Thompson and Executive McFeeley. A lot was learned.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Thomas I. Freeburn was hostess for the Winchester Garden Club Thursday, April 22. Mrs. Robert M. Stone poured. "An attractive arrangement of pink tulips and variegated snapdragon in a silver container graced the serving table. Pink, blue and white hyacinth arranged artistically in a Chinese bowl was in the living room.

Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell, president, brought to the club many interesting Garden Club activities. The president always shares some verse or poem relative to the subject she presents. Mrs. Mitchell spoke about visiting the home of Bliss Curman in Fredericton, N. B. As she stood looking from a window to his garden, the lines of his poem, "Daffodils" came to her: "Winter has put off her raiment, Whinny and worn and old, For the role of a fair young Sybil, Dancing in green and gold."

Mrs. Robert Whitten, secretary, gave her usual interesting minutes with a humorous verse of the record. Mrs. Wally V. Lyon reported informative Horticultural suggestions. Her message to keep planting vegetable gardens is timely.

Mrs. Mitchell presented Mrs. Leon W. Rand, president of the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts who spoke to the members on coming events in Garden Club activity. Mrs. Rand's sincerity and graciousness clearly persuaded to Garden Club members her ideal leadership as president of the Garden Club Federation.

Mrs. Donald G. Crowell, program chairman, introduced the speaker Mrs. Robert Barton, lecturer from Foxboro, whose subject was "Garden Ornaments and Garden Accents". Mrs. Barton complimented the hostess, Mrs. Freeburn on having a garden which was the theme of her talk. She remarked, "I shall look out of the window if I stray from my subject". Mrs. Barton described in detail feature gardens—emotional, sentimental and religious settings. She suggested making the garden a living room. The speaker presented several of her creative groupings of St. Francis, surrounded by little animals and birds in the midst of growing wild vegetation, giving a sense of peace and quietude.

GAS RATES CHANGE

A new schedule of gas rates for the 20,000 customers of the Arlington Gas Light Company in Arlington, Belmont, Winchester, Lexington and Woburn was approved this week by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, according to a statement issued today by Everett C. Bryant, Vice President and General Manager. The new rates will become effective May 1 under the order approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

The Gas Company petitioned the Department of Public Utilities last December for new rates because of the heavy increases in costs of doing business. The company in its petition for higher rates stated that the unit cost of gas had gone up 81 per cent since 1941. Other factors entering into the higher costs were wages up 79 per cent and pipe and fittings up 52 per cent.

Under the schedule filed in December the Arlington Company asked for increases which would have resulted in added revenues of approximately $275,000 annually.

However, the Department of Public Utilities, after a public hearing and lengthy investigation of the schedule filed by the company, in an order dated April 21, permitted the company to file rates which are designed to provide additional revenues of approximately $230,000.

Household customers of the company will pay the following rate effective May 1 under Domestic Gas Rate "K": $1.00 for the first 100 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus 13.4 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 2,400 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus 11.0 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 7,500 cubic feet of gas delivered each month, plus 8.5 cents per hundred cubic feet for all gas delivered each month in excess of 10,000 cubic feet. Customers will receive a discount of one cent for each 100 cubic feet of gas used in excess of the first 100 cubic feet, if paid within 10 days of billing under the new rates.

All rates contain a provision for an increase or decrease which is provided to reflect changes in the cost of fuel used in the manufacture of gas.

NEW AERIAL LADDER TRUCK CAME TUESDAY

Winchester got its new aerial ladder truck for the Fire Department Tuesday afternoon. Made by the American LaFrance Foamite Corp., in Elmira, N. Y., it cost $18,500 and was ordered in April, 1946. Today the same machine sells for $29,000. It is the first machine of its kind to be delivered in New England, according to the report received by the local fire authorities. The old ladder truck, which it is replacing, is nearly 24 years old and is an Ahrens-Fox.

The new truck has a 75 ft. aerial ladder, though many departments comparable to Winchester are purchasing 65 ft. ladders. Chief James E. Callahan told the "Star," however, that the extra 10 feet in length is very desirable and might easily mean the difference between reaching, or being unable to reach an objective.

The aerial ladder will be principally used for making a quick entry to homes for the purpose of saving life. There are not many buildings in Winchester high enough to make the use of the ladder necessary, but there are some, like the high and junior high schools, Stetson Hall, Beggs and Cobb, and several of the town's churches. The aerial ladder is used to cross wires and other obstructions and this winter would have enabled the firemen to reach homes blocked by heavy drifts and piled up snow.

The new truck is of the cab-ahead-engine type, 43 feet long from bumper to the end of the aerial ladder and about 8 1/2 feet wide. It is powered by a 204 horsepower V-12 LaFrance motor, having four speeds forward and one reverse. Five men, including the driver, can ride on the truck, three in the cab and two in bucket seats behind the cab, facing backward. Tires are 900x20 carrying about 90 pounds pressure, and besides the aerial ladder the truck carries 270 feet of wooden ground ladders and a 200 gallon booster pump with 100 gallons of water and 200 feet of 1 inch booster hose. There are also accommodations for 1 1/2 in. and 3/4 in. hose on the truck, which is otherwise completely equipped with the usual fire-fighting equipment for such apparatus.

The aerial ladder is mounted on a turntable and is controlled by one man. Lifted by hydraulic power it can reach a height of 75 feet straight up, or can be used at an angle. The ladder is covered by lights at the base and at the top is equipped with a ladder-rip, to which can be attached a hose, nozzle and hose, both controllable either from the top of the ladder or the platform at the base.

The new truck was brought to Boston by freight and delivered at South Boston. A delivery engineer, accompanied by Chief Callahan and Fireman Joseph Connolly, drove the big truck in Winchester and put it through its paces for the Chief and members of the permanent Fire Department, as well as Chairman Kenneth F. Pond of the Board of Selectmen, local newspaper men and a large group of interested spectators at the rear of the Central Fire Station.

The new apparatus was driven into Headquarters and will remain there under the control of the LaFrance representative until it is formally accepted by the town. Many visitors have inspected it since its arrival in town.

Meanwhile Chief Callahan is making tentative plans for a demonstration of the new ladder truck on Sunday, May 16, on the Shore road.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB WILL PRESENT OWN TALENT AT SPRING CONCERT, MAY 21

Responding to overwhelming requests from friends and sponsoring members, the Mystic Glee Club will draw the assisting artist talent from its own membership for the annual Spring Concert to be held in the high school auditorium on Friday evening, May 21. Possessing one of the finest male quartet blend of voices in the country, to quote some eminent Boston choral leaders, the Glee Club, it is felt, could do no better at this time than to present its own quartet, known as the Mystic Four. The group consists of Erskine White, Jr., first tenor; William Hopkins, second tenor; Thomas Worthen, baritone; and Albert Sweet, the six foot seven inch anchor man, or second bass. Having already developed a large number of enthusiastic supporters in Winchester and surrounding towns this season, the quartet should prove a popular choice as the club's supplemental talent on May 21.

However, the talent within the ranks of the Glee Club does not end with the Mystic Four. Second tenor Jack Gilbert has one of the finest gifts around these parts when it comes to playing popular selections on the piano in the sophisticated style of Carmen Cavallaro. Formerly associated with the famous Barbary Coast band while an undergraduate at Dartmouth, Jack decided not to accept an opportunity to play with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra, and to go into business. His playing is nothing short of sensational, and so it is with pleasure that the Mystic Glee Club presents him.

A limited number of individual seats are available at the Parker Lane Winn Company office on Church street, as well as at Mouradian's Oriental Rug Company office, Church street, and at Purtillo's Pharmacy on Washington street. The last four home concerts of the Mystic Glee Club have been sell-outs, and it is felt that this coming one will prove no exception.

The Town will have to spend a large sum of money to build the streets serving the neighborhood of the new school site when they have been completed.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS RIVER POLLUTION BAN

The State Supreme Court on Monday handed down a decision upholding the Superior Court verdict which had enjoined the City of Woburn from polluting the Abenona River and its tributaries. The full bench of the court arrived at the decision which was written by Mr. Justice Spaulding and which in effect holds the city liable to contempt of court for any pollution of the Abenona by the city or manufacturer through dumpage or overflow of sewage into its waters.

The effect of the decision is that Woburn manufacturers will have to stagger the dumping of sewage into the city sewers to prevent overflow, or possibly suspend operations for brief periods. The city in turn must keep the lines clear with a permanent crew, or if they can not do so, must order the cessation of production entailing the dumping of sewage into the lines until such time as they can get them clear. Failure to do so will result in the City of Woburn being held in contempt of court, but in the event the city is named as defendant in such a case and the pollution can be traced to any manufacturer or group of manufacturers, then those responsible for the pollution can be named in contempt.

The Supreme Court based its decision on a Special Act of 1911 directed to the Abenona River only and enacted to prohibit the entrance or discharge of any substance into the river which might be injurious to public health or might tend to create a public nuisance.

The Court ruled that the State Department of Public Health is authorized and directed to prohibit absolutely the entrance or discharge into the river of matter injurious to public health, regardless of the source of the matter, or by whom it is discharged.

The Court found the intent of the law is to prevent pollution of public streams and to protect public health. In the case of the Abenona it found that the river has been polluted and that somebody evidently is responsible, blame being finally placed on the City of Woburn.

The Abenona River pollution case came to trial largely through the efforts of Chairman Edmund C. Sanderson of the Winchester Water and Sewer Board, who has devoted an increasingly large part of his time to this pollution in recent years.

Through his efforts the State Department of Health made many inspections of the overflow from the Woburn sewers into the Abenona. Excellent pictures of the overflow conditions, taken by Chief John J. Murray, Winchester Police Department photographer, proved of inestimable value when introduced as evidence by the State Health authorities, who spent much time on the case. The Attorney General's office prosecuted the case rigorously.

The final finding by the full bench of the State Supreme Court should, it would seem, finally clear up the pollution of the Abenona which has been plaguing the Town of Winchester for nearly 40 years.

JOHN VOLPE
Winchester Man, Head of Volpe Construction Co.

VOLPE CONSTRUCTION COMPANY OBSERVES 15TH ANNIVERSARY

The Volpe Construction Company, with headquarters on Eastern avenue, Malden, observes its 15th anniversary within a few days. The firm is headed by John A. Volpe of 69 Grove street, Winchester.

Normally such events are commemorated and seldom recorded in newspapers. But the story of the Volpe Construction Company, and especially the story of its youthful president merits more than passing mention.

The story of John A. Volpe is the story of an ambitious son of Italian immigrants who found a home in this country at the turn of the century. It's the story of a native born American of virtually penniless people who had a burning desire to take advantage of the opportunities of a free land.

Woburn born, John Volpe was reared in Malden and graduated from the Malden High School in 1926 as one of the top students in the class despite the fact that he had to work after school. He studied architectural engineering at Wentworth Institute and was graduated in 1930.

Then started the virtually hopeless task of job hunting. Few would engage anyone in the building industry because there was little construction going on in those days. And besides, no one wanted to gamble on an inexperienced youngster. Nevertheless, he managed to get a day's work on various construction jobs and when he wasn't in the field he was peddling dry goods, selling coal or refrigerators or what have you in a house to house basis.

Fifteen years ago he finally succeeded in starting business. He and a friend opened an "office" in the Volpe living room. They worked night and day trying to "land" a contract for a construction job but nothing happened.

SANDS - ENGSTROM

At a quiet home ceremony, Miss Betty Louise Engstrom, granddaughter of Mrs. Ernest O. Engstrom of 95 Mystic Valley Parkway, was married on Saturday afternoon, May 1, to Donald Rabb Sands, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Sands of Old Billerica road, Bedford. Dr. Howard J. Chidley, pastor of the First Congregational Church, read the 4 o'clock service in an attractive setting of white flowers, the ceremony taking place in the living-room in front of a fireplace and mantel which were hanked with white snapdragons and carnations. Lary Wilcox Cushman played the bridal music.

Miss Engstrom was groomed in hyacinth organdie, her dress being fashioned with a high neck and long sleeves. With it she wore a matching shoulder-length veil and a pair of white gloves, long white lace gloves and silver slippers. Her shower bouquet combined white sweet peas and stephanotis with light blue delphinium.

Mrs. John Riggs of Bedford was the bride's only attendant. She wore a white organdie dress slatted with pink and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Robert A. Sands of Somerville was best man for his brother.

A reception was held after the ceremony with the decorations in the dining-room being white snapdragons and pink roses. After a honeymoon spent motoring through Canada Mr. and Mrs. Sands will make their home temporarily in Winchester.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and of the Kathleen Dell School, class of 1946. Mr. Sands, who is associated with Fireman's Fund Insurance Company in Boston, attended Northeastern and Boston Universities. During the war he served for four years in the United States Navy Air Corps, as a pilot in the Atlantic Theatre, with the rank of ensign.

MISS JACQUELINE WHITCOMB ENGAGED

Mrs. Mildred C. Whitcomb of Winchester announces the engagement of her daughter, Jacqueline Carr Whitcomb, to Robert Gordon Hirst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hirst of Monson. She is the daughter of Mr. Herbert H. Whitcomb of Littleton.

Miss Whitcomb attended the Erskine School. Mr. Hirst is a graduate of Tufts College and served five years in the armed forces. The wedding will take place in September.

EN KA STREET FAIR MAY 22

Brilliant Annual Event to Cap All En Ka Activities

The En Ka Street Fair, one of Winchester's most successful charity events, will be held on the Town Hall grounds Saturday, May 22. According to Mrs. Franklin A. Flanders, chairman of the 12th annual street fair, the entire area is to be transformed to represent a frontier town, with workers dressed in gingham aprons, shawls, and sun bonnets.

The popular midway, complete with ferris wheel, merry-go-round, kiddie autos, and games of skill, is to be known this year as the "Poke-A-Long Trail." The always well-patronized gift booth displaying linens, knit goods, and painted articles becomes Jean's Emporium. Ma Kibbee's Trading Post will offer an amazing stock of antiques, books, china, and glassware. A gold mine where the youngsters run dig for buried grabs is sure to be an outstanding attraction.

Old favorites such as Madame Mori, the Royal Palmist, Mrs. Engerjans, fortune teller, and Mrs. Hunker, with her intriguing silhouettes will draw a warm welcome. Afternoon tea is to be served at the "Oasis," by Mrs. J. Winchester Shumaker and her assistants.

In the evening Ken Reeves and his orchestra will play for dancing in the Town Hall, renamed for the occasion, Abenona House. High light of the festivities will be the awarding of a new 1918 DeLuxe Ford Sedan to some lucky person during the closing hours.

MOORE - MANSFIELD

White flowers and ferns with candelabra decorated the Unitarian Church on Friday evening, April 30, for the marriage of Miss Eleanor Porter Mansfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Mansfield of Cabot street, in Rindge, and Warren Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Moore of Bridgeport, Conn. The Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman performed the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Mansfield was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with long sleeves and a train, and a veil of Brussels lace. Her bouquet combined stephanotis with cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Hayward H. Sweet of Attleboro was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward B. Mansfield of Arlington, sister-in-law of the bride; and Miss Dianne B. Mansfield, also of Arlington and niece of the bride.

Mrs. Sweet was groomed in Nile green taffeta and carried white iris with larkspur and yellow Marguerites. The bridesmaids also wore dresses of Nile green taffeta and carried bouquets of yellow Marguerites and larkspur with yellow iris.

Harvard H. Sweet of Attleboro was Mr. Moore's best man, and the usher corps comprised Edward B. Mansfield of Arlington, brother of the bride; John E. Clark of Bridgeport, Conn.; Elliott W. Robbins of Great Neck, L. I.; and George B. Almy of Lynn.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Winchester Country Club where spring flowers made an attractive setting. The parents of both the bride and groom assisted in receiving. Mrs. Mansfield wearing ivory tulle with lavender cymbidium orchids, and Mrs. Moore, aqua crepe with white orchids. Frank Ward's Orchestra played for the reception.

MEDFORD BOY FINDS WINCHESTER FOOTBOOK GETS BIKE

A Winchester woman and a Medford boy were both happy about the same thing Wednesday, and those who argue that "honesty is the best policy" can get both Mrs. Mary Thonann of 282 Washington street and a 9-year old Fred Donaghey of 31 Florence street, Medford, to testify in favor of their contention. It all happened this way.

Tuesday night Mrs. Thonann lost her handbag containing $70 in cash and $100 in Railway Express money orders in the vicinity of Medford Square. She was at Medford Police Headquarters reporting her loss when the telephone rang. It was Fred Donaghey.

"I found a lady's bag with a lot of money in it," said Fred to the officer at the desk. "I don't know what I should do with it, so I thought I would ask the police."

The big policeman told Freddie to hold on to the bag until the arrival of the officer who was leaving the police station right then, and fast!

Mrs. Thonann got her bag with the contents intact and Freddie is getting a brand new bicycle with the Winchester woman's compliments as further proof that honesty really pays!

BADMINTON SEASON ENDS

The Winchester badminton season came to a close this week. Despite the severe winter, every meeting was well attended, the old faithfuls were there in full force to help the newcomers learn the game and the spirit of the Club. We are justly proud of the teams who brought honor to Winchester in the championships in at the University Club and those of us who have not yet reached the competitive stage in the game had a good time watching the matches played in our gym against visiting teams.

To wind up the season some of the Committee, headed by Whit Gray, arranged a mixed doubles draw handicap tournament among the members present on Thursday, April 28th, the final rounds were played off on Tuesday, May 3th. The girls being greatly outnumbered were in demand and in the fortunate position of being able to try again if eliminated in the early rounds. The results of the later rounds were as follows:

Quarter Finals:
 Dave Small and Lois Ladd beat three and two.
 Jack Tardiff and Doris Maxwell beat Walt Scott and Mary Lee Richardson.
 Jim Ware and George Taylor beat Brad Hesse and Ted Bile.
 Art Hill and Marguerite Moore beat Whit Gray and Lois Ladd.

Semi-Finals:
 Tardiff and Moore beat Small and Ladd. Hill and Moore beat Hesse and Bile.

Finals:
 Hill and Moore beat Tardiff and Moore.

The winners were presented with a trophy, equipped with a vapor valve, yet seen in Winchester and the runners-up each received a medal and the bird, as their reward for a hard fought match.

Among those brave enough to battle through the hurricanes and deep snow of the past few months to join the fun on Tuesday and Thursday evenings were: Ruth Allen, Millie Bagley, Harry Bonn, Dwight Bellows, Brad Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanchard, Parker Blanchard, Wallace Blanchard, Eleanor Bohne, Warren Branch, Betty Briggs, Dave Brinkman, Albin Burns, Art Buros, Arthur Butters, Bud Carey, Helen Carroll, Jim Claves, Col. J. V. Cole, Don Cole, Don Connors, Jim Dean, Don Dalrymple, Janet Dalrymple, Connie Davy, Robert Dickson, Stearns Ellis, George Farrar, Andy Fielding, Dick Glendon, Whit Gray, Brad Hershey, Lois Hersey, Orin Hesser, Art Hills, Dot Hills, Bill Holdich, Hope Holdich, Barbara Hughes, Ronald Hutchinson, But Highland, Tom Jackson, Rosanna Jury, Al Kalamander, Maxine Kalamander, Martha Kimball, Lois Ladd, Don Maxwell, Doris Maxwell, Phil McNamara, Peg Mercer, Kay Moser, Olive Miller, Bert Miller, Barbara Mitchell, Henry Moffette, Trixie Moffette, Marjorie Moore, Ned Morse, Eleanor Morse, Ned Morse, Cole Neff, Bill Packard, Art Pearson, Dana Philbrook, Reddy Powers, Don Richardson, Mary Lee Richardson, Steve Root, Mary Root, Suzie Samson, Dana Sawyer, Walter Scott, John Sexton, Marge Sexton, Dave Small, Bill Spumey, Parker Symmes, Bernice Taker, John Tardiff, Terry Terhune, Jim Ware, Dot Welsh, Ed Williams, Day and Mrs. Wilson.

We hope they'll all be back next year to welcome new players.

WINCHESTER AT MELROSE

NEWS FOR ASTHMA OR HAY FEVER SUFFERERS

A mother of two writes: "My sons, suffering from bronchitis, asthma, now enjoy quiet, restful sleep, with no wheezing or hard breathing."

ARLINGTON HIGH MEETS WINCHESTER ON MANCHESTER FIELD TRACK

Winchester High's budding track team meets another "toughie" today when Arlington High comes to Manchester Field for a dual set of track and field games.

Coached by the veteran "Doc" William T. McCarthy, who has been handling Arlington track teams for 37 years, the Spy Pomers are bringing a strong team to Winchester, spear-headed by the crack middle-distance runner, Dick MayDougall.

MacDougall won the 600 yard title in the New England meet in the winter, this past winter, his time, 1 min. 16.3 sec., being set and only to the record of 1 min. 14.9 sec. made by Concord's "Val" Muscato the year previous.

This spring in the Concord invitation meet, MacDougall broke Muscato's half mile record, running the distance in 2:02, shaving the old mark by more than a second.

The Arlington boys are being trained for State meet honors right now and on what he has shown he can easily produce.

Winchester doesn't have any one to extend him in the half and he can probably win both this race and the quarter, should he elect to do so.

The local boys aren't conceding Arlington the meet by any means, but with a star like MacDougall to build on the Spy Pomers are rightly favored.

"DALMATION" DUCK!

Among the many admirers of the ducks at the Mill Pond is Paul Klimas, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude P. Klimas of 79 Church street, who visits the pond daily with Miss Eleanor Pettenger of Washington street, a high school student. The special object of Paul's affection is a white and black spotted duck, which he has nicknamed "dalmation" because of its similarity to the coloring of the duck, taken for him by Miss Pettenger.

Paul feeds his particular pet about every day and is very proud of an exceptionally fine picture of the duck, taken for him by Miss Pettenger.

ALICE DIXON BOND

Alice Dixon Bond, Literary Editor of the Boston Herald and Transcript, has concluded her 1947-48 series of Book Talks for the Mount Holyoke College Scholarship. Mrs. Bond this completed her fifteenth year of offering her vivacious reviews of contemporary literature. Each year her Book Talk have enabled the Mount Holyoke Club to offer a scholarship to a Winchester girl.

In Tuesday's review, Mrs. Bond sent her audience away with noteworthy full of suggestions for the newest summer reading.

For the youngsters, "My Father's Dragon" by Ruth S. Gannett, offers the delights of a convincing fairytale and "Bill the Brave" makes an experience with the dentist an intriguing event.

For the older's funnybone, Mrs. Bond recommended George W. Morrison's "I Can't Sleep" and Ilka Chase's "Free Admission".

Mrs. Bond predicted that "The Stillwell Papers", which will be released on May 24, will strike the public like solid dynamite. Their reading, she said, will be very important.

Though publishers are swamped with books, and are releasing many this spring, Mrs. Bond suggested three novels in particular to "read for joy." They are "Tobias Brandywine" by Dan Wykemon, "Nothing Ever Happens" "Sunday Morning" by Blanche Cannon, and "Proceed at Will" by Bert Wilkinson.

CAFETERIA MANAGERS MET MAY 5

Miss Gladys Niven, manager of the Winchester High School cafeteria, entertained members of an informal group of cafeteria managers in the cafeteria on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The group organized by Mrs. Marven Cooley of Wellesley High School has been meeting monthly at various schools.

Members present were Miss May Campbell of Arlington, Miss Eleanor McAuliffe of Belmont, Miss Marion Cronin of Brookline, Miss Ethel Wright of Lexington, Miss Lois Carby of Needham, Miss Helen Brooks and Miss Eleanor Murphy of Newton, Miss Agnes Beery of North Quincy, Miss Mildred Brooks and Miss Beatrice Wilson of Quincy, Miss Dorothy Stewart of Waltham, and Mrs. Cooley. After a discussion of cafeteria problems, tea was served. Miss Helen Beanson, head of the Commercial Department, presided.

MRS. FARNSWORTH SAYS FIGHT NOT ENDED

The rejection of the so-called birth control bill by the General Court this week by no means ends the fight to amend the state law, according to Mrs. H. V. Farnsworth, 4 Central Green, chairman of the Winchester Planned Parenthood Committee. Sponsors of the bill will, this summer, collect 5,000 additional signatures to place the question before the voters in November.

Of particular interest to the 653 voters in Winchester who signed the initiative petition last fall, and who are currently working for passage of the measure, is the action taken by Representative Harrison Chulwick of Winchester who voted favorably on the bill. The measure failed to pass in the House of Representatives by a vote of 130-84.

DIRECTED WATER BALLET AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Mrs. H. H. Butler of Vine street was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Klein at the University of Massachusetts last weekend, the occasion being the annual Mothers' Day at the university. Principal attraction was the water ballet put on by the swimming club, the Naiads, under Mrs. Klein's direction and coaching as president of the club.

Two performances were given to accommodate the number of people who wished to see the ballet. Outstanding numbers were a May-pole ballet, a ballet consisting of floating with the girls wearing wrist corsages made of carnations, and a military number without music where perfect rhythm was marked only by the splashing of water as the strokes were made in unison.

Mrs. Klein's aquatic ability started here in Winchester when she was swimming and doing simple ballets with the town team under the direction of Helen Carroll.

PLANS FOR MAYFAIR TEA

"May" because it's the month of May; "fair" because it's a gala sale; "tea" because tea and light refreshment will be served.

The Mayfair Tea will be this year's final project for the World Wide Guild Girls. It will be held on Thursday evening, May 20th at 7:00 p. m. in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church.

The girls, including Jeanne McKinley, Martha Holge, Carol Parker, Marjorie Frick, Alice Frick, Joan Dault, Kay Nelson, Marilyn Ward, and Bertha Penney, have been working since February on miscellaneous articles such as pot holders, sequined earrings, and aprons, and can promise a gay assortment.

The Eight O'Clock Club is sponsoring the Cakes Table under the chairmanship of Mrs. Selma Brothers.

For those interested in "art" there will be a penny display of the masters. You'll have to see these originals.

So get it done! You're all invited to the Mayfair Tea.

TROOP 6 ON ANOTHER WHITE MOUNTAIN EXPEDITION

Friday evening, April 30, a group of Scouts from Troop 6 left Winchester in two cars driven by Scoutmaster Chester P. Wolfe and Committeeman "Tol" Elliott. It was shortly after midnight when the group completed the four and one half hour drive which ended at the Waterville Camp Grounds where the first night was spent.

Early the next morning, after cooking breakfast, the group broke camp and drove for about 20 minutes to within 300 yards of Camp 5, an abandoned lumber camp. From here the group continued on foot, carrying all their supplies. The two and one quarter mile hike was a fairly easy one, taking under two hours. The group was somewhat surprised to find patches of snow, some of which were as deep as 10 inches. Most of Saturday afternoon was spent in preparing camp, that is, cutting a wood supply, pitching tents, or preparing the lean-to there at Greeley Ponds.

During the latter part of the afternoon four boys attempted to climb Mt. Osceola (altitude 4,326 feet), but only went about three quarters of the way up the east peak because their time was running low and also because the two feet or more of snow they found above 2,000 feet, it was snowing hard. Regrettably the group turned back.

After supper that evening, two of the boys explored the trail out the back way, but the majority went quickly to bed.

The next morning, shortly after 7, the boys awoke and looking up saw blue sky for the first time during the trip. After breakfast a church service was conducted for the group by Doug Hawkins, Union breaking camp the group slowly made their way back to the cars. On their way they repaired every bridge along the trail.

They reached the cars about 2, and after eating lunch returned to Winchester, arriving about nine o'clock Sunday evening.

The group cooking was under the direction of Fisher Wolfe and Fred Burt. It consisted of five meals, the food for which was carefully chosen for nutritional value, weight and flavor. The cost for each cook was about $1.75.

The system worked out quite satisfactorily.

The group included Dr. White, Mr. Elliott, Henry Hooper, Neil Muncester, Carl Zimmerman, Ted Elliot, Stanley Goddard, Bill Davies, Doug Hawkins, Fisher Wolfe, and Fred Burt.

The next expedition will be to Mt. Chocoma over the week-end announced.

WORK ON SCHOOLHOUSE STOPPED

Building Commissioner Acts Regulations Not Complied With

Work on the schoolhouse on the mountain stopped abruptly at noon on Monday when Building Commissioner William B. MacDonald found that the contractor, Franklin Construction Company of 26 Mystic avenue, Medford, was not complying with local building regulations.

First of all no building permit has been issued by the Building Commissioner's office for the construction of the school. Local building regulations also require that an inspector be on the job when concrete is to be poured on any construction job in Winchester, and the inspector must be one satisfactory to the Building Commissioner. No such inspector has been on the job, though some of the concrete for the foundation of the building has already been poured.

After an inspection of the work done thus far Commissioner MacDonald decided yesterday that he did not care to be responsible for accepting the work thus far done on the building without the assurance of an inspector that it has been done in accordance with local regulations. He has, therefore, refused a permit to the contractor and referred the entire matter for decision to the Board of Appeal.

In the event the Board of Appeal does not care to accept responsibility, the work will have to be done over.

WINCHESTER MAN PROMOTED TO BRIGADIER GENERAL

Colonel Ralph A. Palladino, 19 North Gateway, has been promoted to the rank of Brigadier General, Army of the United States, it was announced last Friday by Major General Frank A. Keating, Commanding General of the First Service Command. General Palladino took the oath for his new rank at simple ceremonies in General Keating's office at the Boston Army Base.

General Palladino, a graduate of Boston University and a four-letter athlete at Mansfield high school, has been commanding the 94th Infantry Division, a Massachusetts reserve division, since December 1946.

War-time commander of the 104th Infantry Regiment of the 26th (Yankee) Division, General Palladino holds several of the nation's highest awards for his combat service, including the Silver Star, the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star, and the Combat Infantryman's badge. His foreign decorations include the French Croix de Guerre with palm, the Russian order of the Fatherland, and the War Cross of Czechoslovakia.

A graduate of Boston University in 1928 and past president of the Boston University College of Business Administration Alumni Club, General Palladino was called to active duty as a reserve officer in December 1940. He reported for duty as a major with the New Haven Military District, and in April 1942 he was assigned to the 26th Division, becoming executive officer of the 3rd Battalion, 104th Infantry Regiment. In May he received command of the 2nd Battalion, taking the battalion South for maneuvers. General Palladino became executive officer of the regiment in December 1943, going over to Europe with the 26th Division in that capacity.

Shortly after the division opened offensive operations, General Palladino assumed command of the 104th Infantry Regiment on November 10, 1944, and directed its combat activities until the war ended. After duty with the occupation forces in Austria, General Palladino brought his men back to the United States, landing in Boston on December 28, 1945.

General Palladino has lived in Winchester only about a year, coming here from Summerville. A native of a small town outside Naples in Italy, he spent his boyhood in Mansfield and married a Mansfield girl, the former Helen Damato. They have one son, Donald, 12, who is a pupil at the Mystic School and very proud of his father's promotion to the rank of General, as well he might be. The STAR is pleased to offer its own congratulations and to learn that all the Palladinos think Winchester is a nice town, in which to live.

EN KA PIONEER STREET FAIR

The biggest jamboree since the Algonquian Indians first raised their wigwams in this territory seems certain for a week from Saturday when the En Ka Society stages its Pioneer Street Fair on the town hall grounds.

All during the long winter En Ka girls were sewing upons and knitting argyle socks, baby sweaters and such-like which will be offered for sale next week at "Jean Roundy's Emporium".

Settlers the whole length and breadth of Mystic Valley have been busy ransacking their attics for antiques, china and glassware that will eventually stock the shelves of "Ma Kibbee's Trading Post".

Waiter Keyes' wife in charge of the "Open Oven Bakery" says she has promises from the best cooks in town to bake a host of special mouth-watering delicacies in the shape of pies, cakes, cookies and pan biscuits.

A garden shop on the island will offer everything from seed to full grown plants. Louise Elliott and Harriet Wolf have some real bargains for planting time.

The kids will have a time of it riding the merry-go-round and the ferris wheel with prizes galore for those who test their skill at the games along Midway.

Folks from far away sections like Andrews Hill, Born Pond Mountain and the Plains can come into town and make a day of it because there'll be food aplenty for everybody. Ma Jennings and a group of workers will be on hand at the barbeque lunch bar with delicious sandwiches and quick snacks.

In the evening Paul Forester's wife and Virginia d'Elsaux will set out a real sumptuous meal from their Chuck Wagon in the old town hall. A dollar and a quarter buys a big helping of home made Vienna loaf, fresh combination salad, hot brand, coffee and fuzzy ice cream. Music and entertainment too while you eat!

After the supper dishes are cleared away Ken Reeves and his boys will tune up for a long evening of dancing.

Of course, hot dogs, ice cream, popcorn and smoo pop on top all day!

By the way, smart folks are already staking out their claim for the 1948 Ford 2-door sedan—a De-Luxe Model—fully equipped with radio, heater, clock and cigarette lighter, to be awarded at the close of festivities.

There'll be more things to do, more things to see and more fun for everyone at the Pioneer Street Fair, Saturday, May 22nd.

200 CONFIRMED AT ST. MARY'S

Two hundred and forty-nine boys and girls of St. Mary's Parish were confirmed Monday afternoon by the Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D., archbishop of Boston. Sisters at St. Mary's convent arranged beautiful floral decorations for the service, which was largely attended by parents and friends of the youngsters who were confirmed. Every available seat was taken with many standing at the rear of the church.

Archbishop Cushing, accompanied by St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, and Rev. Fr. John Sheehan, curate at the Immaculate Conception Church, who acted as chaplains to the Archbishop. Heading the procession was a crucifer and accompanying the clergy were St. Mary's altar boys and an honorary escort of 4th Degree Knights of Columbus, members of Bishop Cheverus Assembly.

After the entrance of the clergy the children marched into the church in single file, the girls in their traditional white and the boys in their dark suits and button-down shirts. The boys occupied places on the epistle side of the nave with the girls seated on the gospel side. Mr. John Volpe, retiring head of St. Mary's Holy Name Society, was sponsor for the boys with Mrs. Volpe acting in a similar capacity for the girls.

EXHIBITION OF HIGH SCHOOL ART

By all means see the exhibition of art by Winchester High School students being shown this month at the Library art gallery under the auspices of the Winchester Art Association. Be prepared to be pleasantly surprised, too, for you will find a mighty good show. Remember, also, that several of the best things done by high school students this year are not in the local show, having been placed in the exhibition of high school art at R. H. White's in Boston, and from there sent on to the big art contest at Carnegie Institute.

At the library, however, you will find work by the artists represented in the big exhibitions. You will find other pictures that are full of promise too, and best of all, you will find art ideas, some better expressed than others, and some still little more than ideas, as you would expect. Originality of line and color appears in a good deal of the work while some others seem based on certain familiar styles, especially in the commercial field.

There are advertising layouts, several quite well done; book jackets, Christmas card designs and fashion and wall-paper designs. There are examples of impressionism, there is the vivid color you would expect from young artists and there is a wide range of subjects, including many landscapes portraying familiar spots around town.

Most of the pictures are watercolors, though there are one or two pastels, some pencil sketches and some work done in black and white. There is a well done head of a dog in this group, also a reproduction of a square-rigger in remarkable detail, and several watercolor studies in black and white that show imagination and good technique.

Among the watercolors are a conventional type there is a corking little study of a country railroad crossing, good both as to color and composition. There is also a view of Winter Pond with good depth and another of a man gathering maple sap that has both depth and a good sky.

On one of the side walls there is a nice little watercolor of a small white house that is well drawn. Notice the excellent perspective in the two subway paintings, and don't overlook those two studies of high school boys, one wearing his school letter and leaning against a tree; the other, in brown, slouched in a chair, completely relaxed. Anatomically these figures are well done; characteristically, they are to the life.

There is a lot of atmosphere in that study of a haunted house with the moon shining through a yawning window, and good feeling and color in that painting of a boiler room with its man shoveling coal into an open fire-pot door. Very deftly done is that study of snow falling on evergreens shown on the rear wall to the right.

Pauline Goodrich, art supervisor at high school, has every reason to present the work of her pupils with pride. She and Dr. Mildred Landis, art consultant, must have labored long and hard, but very efficiently not in vain.

It's a good show, we said in the beginning. See it!

OCCUPANTS OF CAR HELD

Two young men picked up by the Police shortly after 1:30 yesterday morning were held for a week when they could not satisfy the authorities as to what they were doing in town at that hour.

Headquarters was notified of the suspicious actions of a car parked on Herlick street, and Officers Winthrop Palmer and James Noonan were sent to investigate. As their cruiser approached, two cars came out of Herlick street and started north on Main street.

The cruiser started in pursuit, whereupon the two cars, a Buick sedan and an Oldsmobile, pulled alongside each other and then separated at Myrtle street, the Olds going up Myrtle street and the Buick continuing north on Washington street.

After getting the number of the Olds the Police overtook the Buick in front of the telephone exchange. Two young men were in the car and the operator could not produce a license. At Headquarters he did produce a license and the car he was driving was found to belong to his sister.

Investigation disclosed the fact that the Olds had been stolen in Boston and this and the record of one of the occupants of the Buick prompted the Police to ask for a continuance which the court granted.

They arrived at Black Ball Pond near Shore road field late in the afternoon. Officer Edward F. Bowyer and Mr. Thomas McCormack of Winchester place acting as a reception committee. Former Charles E. French Estate in Woburn Now the Locus of Frances Nursing and Rest Home

The many Winchester friends and patients of Dr. Frances V. Fitzler will be pleased to learn of the opening of this new Nursing Home in Woburn. Dr. Fitzler formerly operated the Frances Massage Parlors in Winchester and Stoneham.

Quoting from the "Woburn Daily Times" of April 1, 1948: "A home-like institution resting very conveniently and agreeably upon an elevation at the dead end of Frances street, provides rest and convalescence as well as expert and efficient treatments in physio and electric therapy, unknown to 90% of the city's population. That the patients, who are referred by hospital authorities and attending physicians, find the Frances Nursing Home the answer to their efforts for recuperation and delightful atmosphere in that section surrounded by the high standard of treatment and living accommodations is reflected in the satisfaction of the patients."

Dr. Fitzler who specializes as a physio therapist, has practiced in Winchester and other towns and has received the full approval of local and State health authorities.

At the present moment she is assisted by two trained nurses who administer to the needs. In event of a full complement of patients, there are six nurses on the personnel besides the dietary experts who prepare the meals.

WINCHESTER AWAITS ELECTRICAL FAIR
Cooking School, Exhibits, Television Lecture, May 26, 27 at Town Hall

Bigger and better than anything previously staged by Boston Edison is its new Electrical Fair sponsored in cooperation with local electrical dealers.

It comes to Winchester on Wednesday and Thursday, May 26th and 27th and on these days at 1 p. m. to 10 p. m., there will be presented a varied program sure to appeal to Winchester residents.

Each afternoon from 2 p. m. to 10 p. m. the Home Service Division of Boston Edison, under the supervision of Emma Maurice Tighe, Home Service Director, well-known to many for her daily chats over WEEK, will offer new ideas to housewives seeking changes in meals in these difficult days of stretching the food dollar. Virginia M. Comstock assisted by Mary F. Deveney will conduct the opening class while Charlotte F. Collins assisted by Kathryn A. Lynch will handle the second afternoon session.

Frozen foods and the preparation of meals from the home freezer such as a complete roast chicken dinner and a vegetable cooker meal are highlights of the afternoon session. Also of interest is the cooking of economical meals such as beef steaks, macaroni and cheese, corn hash, baked stuffed frankfurters, minestrone soup and chicken noodle soup.

For those who really like tasty desserts, there are golden lady cake with boiled frosting, fairy apple pudding, lemon chiffon pie, apple pie and baked cup custards.

Winchester women will be pleased to see these tasty dishes prepared and cooked, and will also learn of many other new ideas in electric cooking that have made the electric way far superior to older methods.

Immediately following the cooking classes, Edison Home Economists take a few extra minutes to explain the advantages of an all electric laundry showing how the family's weekly laundry now becomes a matter of a few hours, instead of days, all because of the automatic electric washer, automatic dryer and electric ironer.

After each class there are more surprises. The delicious cooked food is given away, but more than that, and the prize awards of useful electrical appliances—a two-burner automatic toaster—an electric iron and a coffee maker the first afternoon; and an electric food mixer—beautiful floor lamp and an electric can opener on the second afternoon.

Evenings two, offer a program of appeal to both men and women. At 8 p. m. there's a lecture on television and the latest information about WPZ-TV, Boston's sun-tube completed first television broadcasting station. Lynn Marrow and Dallas P. Wyman, representatives of the Sales Promotion Department of WPZ, will alternate each evening in presenting this interesting and timely subject and will tell how television programs may be enjoyed in Winchester.

Besides these two unusual programs, there will be ample opportunity for those attending to look at all the numerous exhibits of electric home appliances—everything from the all-electric kitchen to the complete electric laundry is on display. Many of these appliances are operated and explained by competent demonstrators and Winchester electrical dealers.

Climaxing the final day will be the presentation of a beautiful General Electric home freezer. This award will be made after the evening program, from registration cards of those who have attended the Fair.

C. Y. O. INTERMEDIATES

Juniors Play Practice Game

Sunday afternoon May 9th, found the St. Mary's C. Y. O. Intermediates playing the Juniors at Leonard Field preparatory to their respective scheduled games. Both will play in the newly formed Middlesex C. Y. O. League which will mean that they will not have to make the long trips to Lowell as they had to do in the basketball league. They will play teams from Melrose, Stoneham, Wakefield, etc. The Intermediates came up with the discovery of another pitcher to help Captain Don Kenton in this department in the person of Dick Bucci who had 18 strikeouts to his credit. He showed a fine tricky curve ball. Juniors Goodwin, Russo and Rand divided the pitching going three innings each. Russo was unscathed upon. Goodwin got a bit of faulty support. Rand showed a fine roundhouse curve that gave the Intermediates trouble. Fred Patterson for the Intermediates, who incidentally won 10 to 3, showed that the catching department is well in hand. His pegs to second were very fine, while Dave Barry of the Juniors smothered all of the wild ones that were slated for the lineup. There were no homers but Joe Riga smashed a triple and collected two runs and proved fast on the bases. Don Kenton got two hits and walked once. Williams got a single. Jack Haggerty a double and Rogers a hit and a walk. Taylor who was loaned to the Intermediates for the afternoon got a fine single and squeezed home a run with a beautifully placed bunt. For the Juniors Jack Flaherty got a double, to left while Powers came up with two hits and a walk. Di-Forte made one hit and received a walk. Bucci for the Intermediates made a couple of singles too. Crowley at first base, Taylor at third and S. Kenton in left field all looked good. Next practice Sunday, May 16th at Leonard Field.

JUNIOR HIGH GLEE CLUB ATTENDS STATE MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Junior High Girls Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Anifantis accompanied the Junior-Senior High School Band and Orchestra to the Northeastern Massachusetts State Festival which was held in Lawrence Saturday, May 8.

The Glee Club was auditioned at 2:24 a. m. in the Y. W. C. A. building. Special comment was made on the excellent appearance and uniformity of the girls who were attractively attired in bright, red skirts, white blouses with red bows and white ankle socks. After their audition, the girls remained in the hall where they listened to other choral groups from Haverhill, Chelsea, Everett, Gloucester, Lowell and Revere.

The main feature of the afternoon was a long parade in which the Glee Club marched proudly behind the Junior-Senior High School Band. Although the day was rather cloudy, more than 3000 student musicians from the various schools paraded and drilled. The long parade which started at 1:30 marched from the Lawrence High School to the stadium where several bands were selected to drill for the spectators. Gay and colorful was the scene where uniforms of every imaginable hue and color were seen.

Officials of the festival were careful to point out that this great assemblage of musicians was not carried out for the purpose of a contest. Judges gave comments and constructive criticisms for each audition and these will be sent to the directors of the various groups by mail.

Members of the Glee Club who took part in the day festivities were: (1st soprano) Nancy Taylor, Carol Cleaves, Patricia Carroll, Elizabeth Curtis, Sheila McGowan, Priscilla Stone, Judith Bramhall, Sonia Norian, Sarah Moore, Barbara Chulcei, Nancy Ross, and Catherine Goss; (2nd soprano) Phyllis De Angelis, Jennifer Meigs, Rosemary Morris, Susan Melanson, Roberta Coon, Joan Moore, Pauline Cossart, Joan Flaherty, Muriel Briggs, Deborah French, Lucille Ann Symmes, Carol Crockett, Dawn Horn and Lynn Reali; (altos) Joan O'Neil, Cynthia Moses, Peggy McHugh, Lynne Stevens, Carolyn Burracker, Ellen McFarlane, Janet Archibald, Jane Vose, and Ellen Shields; (accompanist), Janet MacCauley.

Accompanying the Glee Club besides Miss Anifantis were Miss Charlotte Le Clair, teacher of English and French at the Junior High School, Miss Pauline Louise Anifantis, sister of Miss Anifantis, and Miss Laura Marshall, teacher of art in the Lexington Junior High School.

ORCHESTRAS AND CHORUSES IN CONCERT LAST FRIDAY EVENING

Band Night Tonight

Five hundred people who disregarded the showery weather enjoyed a concert provided by the Winchester school music groups in the High School Auditorium last Friday evening.

First on the program were the Junior High School Glee Clubs with a particularly praiseworthy performance by the Girls' Glee Club. The Grade Schools orchestra, a composite unit organized about two months ago, from which representatives from several schools, played well under the direction of Miss Helen Goodwin. Led by Miss Eleanor Anifantis, the high school girls' Octette sang without accompaniment "Tiritum-ba" and "Can't You Hear Me Callin' Caroline" in their usual fine manner.

Frank Strawbridge's vocal solo "I Love Thee" was well received, and of particular merit was the piano solo "Rhapsody in G Minor" played by Grace Norian.

The high school Chorus did well with their first two selections, and drew enthusiastic applause for their rendition of "Dry Bones", a spiritual arranged by Fred Waring.

Featuring the Clarinet trio of John Holdsworth, John Sheppard, and Kenneth Blake, and the Woodwind trio of Elizabeth Barrett, David Holdsworth, and John Holdsworth, the high school orchestra, with a rather small string section, pleasingly played the Weber suite, selections from "The Nut" by Strauss, and probably were best playing "In a Persian Market" by Kethley.

Results of the State Music Festival held in Lawrence the following day are not official, but Red and Black, student newspaper, says that the band received extravagant praise for its performance.

Director Fred Felmet is eager to have it known that the proceeds of Band Night, tonight at the Auditorium, will be added to the Uniform Fund to get trousers for the band next fall.

CONCORD, 5; WINCHESTER, 1

Winchester found another way to lose a ball game Wednesday afternoon when the home town forces lost a Middlesex League engagement to Concord at Concord, 5-1.

The teams were all even when Concord batted in the 9th. Di-Ruzzo singled and stole. Fenton walked and Slack replaced Kenton. Callahan batted and Slack played the ball to third, too late, in the umpire's opinion anyhow. Robinson walked forcing in the winning run.

Concord got a couple of cheap ones in their 3-run third when Fenton and Callahan both stole home with two men out. Both Kenton's pitches on the steals were outside and Dunaghey was unable to make the tag in time. The Fillippo had a perfect day for Winchester at bat with three hits in three times up. The summary:

QUADRANGULAR TRACK MEET MAY 22

Winchester High School will sponsor a set of quadrangular track and field games at Manchester Field on Saturday afternoon, May 22, commencing at 2 o'clock. Concord, Melrose, Winchester and Woburn High Schools will compete and since these schools are more or less evenly matched this year some good competition ought to result. It is very much to be hoped that the top-layer of fine cinders can be applied to the track before this meet. The track as it has been thus far this spring is little short of dangerous to compete upon, and several boys who have been tripped by the big cinders in the head of the track have been pretty badly cut up.

Miss Mary Marchesi, former high school athlete and red hot sports fan, was the winner of $5 at a recent interview at one of the big league ball parks in Boston. Mary answered all four sports questions put to her correctly, and when it came to throwing a baseball there were few boys around who had anything on her.

TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC TENNIS TOURNAMENT

To be Held at Winchester May 22

Once again Winchester High School will be the host for the state schoolboy tennis tournament which is held annually under the sponsorship of the Massachusetts High School Principals' Association. The date will be Saturday, May 22, and invitations have been sent out to 60 high schools throughout the state. Last year's tournament, in which 55 boys from 12 high schools participated, was won by Winchester, with Charles Watson winning the individual honors and the high school team leading Newton out for the team championship. Roger Swanson, the captain of this year's squad, is making no bones, but he is not unhopful that Winchester will make it three in a row.

An event of this kind requires the help of more than just the team and the coach. Under the direction of Miss Carroll the girls have organized a hostess committee to aid with the transportation and meet the visiting players. The Winchester Tennis Association has asked its members to act as umpires during the matches, while the Park Department has granted the use of the town courts for as long as is required to finish the play. With the En Ka Fair coming on the same day, there will be many Winchester folks praying for good weather next Friday and Saturday.

SOFT BALL LEAGUE TO HAVE 11 TEAMS

The Town Soft Ball League, under the direction of the Winchester Recreation Commission, is to have 11 teams this year, four more than a year ago, with all of last year's teams in the fold except the Christopher Columbus Club. Most of this team will play under St. Mary's banner this year as one of the four new teams in the league, the others being Beggs & Cobb, Winchester Brick Co., and the Rockets, an independent team handled by Fred Kimball.

Hollovers from last year are the Championship Schemers, Sons of Italy, runners-up; Veterans of Foreign Wars, Knights of Columbus, Red Shirts, Tub Thumpers and the Barracudas.

There will be another important meeting of the league next Tuesday evening, May 18, at the Legion Home, at 7:45, at which time a final organization will be completed, and a schedule drawn up. It is planned to commence play Monday, May 24.

With so many teams playing this year it will be necessary to use Loring avenue field, which is sure to please the residents of that section, since many of the league players live nearby and are well known to them.

These walks are open to all, whether members of the Society or not. The trips afford a splendid opportunity for neighbors and friends to enjoy together the height of spring migration in one of the loveliest months of the year.

Marshall Berry of Biddeford, Maine, was in town recently looking up old friends. He was burned out last fall during the terrible fires in Maine.

ST. MARY'S HOLY NAME SOCIETY

On Sunday morning May 10th St. Mary's Holy Name Society held their final monthly meeting until Fall. After attending Mass at 8:00 a. m. and receiving Holy Communion in a body, the members convened at K. of C. Hall where coffee and donuts were served. Dana Kelly's fine harp solo voice was heard in appropriate selections with all of the men urged by him to join en masse in his final number. Rev. Father Edward L. Murphy S. J., Professor of Theology at Weston College addressed the men as invited speaker. In his discourse which the men enjoyed very much, he extolled womanhood, it being Mothers Day and urged the men to help thrust aside the forces at work today who are trying to belittle and degrade women. Women are noble creatures, our Mothers, Wives, Sisters, Daughters, and others. We must keep them on the high plane they richly deserve, were the gist of his remarks. An election of officers took place with the following being nominated and elected for one year: President, Vincent F. Erhard; Vice President, William J. Croughwell; Secretary, Charles Dolan; Treasurer, Eric Johnson; Marshall, John Kinton; Delegates, John Volpe and Frank Rogers. These officers will meet soon to line up committees for the coming year. Mr. John Volpe, outgoing President, thanked the men for their loyal support during the past year. Fr. Sennott spoke briefly and told the Society that they are the "pioneers" and that we will grow and grow but like all pioneers, the job cannot be done overnight. Mr. Erhard said that with the example shown by Past Presidents, Frank Dolan, Frank Hurley and John Volpe and their fellow Officers and Committees that we will function admirably. He praised the men who are active members as "the backbone" of the Society, and said that big committees would be the "order of things" to enable more men to be active in the functions of the Society. The meeting closed until Fall with prayer conducted by Fr. Sennott who earlier had also conducted the installation exercises with the new officers.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The annual meeting of the League of Women Voters of Winchester was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph M. Sparks of Cabot street, on Thursday May 6th. Reports of the Committee Chairmen were read, a budget for the coming fiscal year was voted upon and a new local Program adopted. The discussion of the items for local Program was of particular interest again this year. However the high point of the afternoon was the report on the National League Convention held recently in Grand Rapids, Mich. Members of the League had the pleasure of welcoming a speaker, an old friend and former resident of Winchester, Mrs. Theodore Monroe, who now lives in Pasadena, California. Her subject was "Highlights of the National Convention" to which she had gone as delegate from California.

Mrs. Monroe gave a most interesting picture of the Convention. Of the 621 delegates from local Leagues throughout the country who had finally, after long debate, decided a National Program which would be the basis for work on a national level for the next two years. With a feeling that this is an hour of destiny for the United States, the main theme of the Convention had been support for the United Nations. Emphasis had been on the wisdom of utilizing what has already been organized at such great cost, and that we must be more patient with it, realizing that the whole concept of a world organization is only about thirty years old.

Mrs. William Spaulding, President of the local League, and delegate to the Convention from Winchester, supplemented Mrs. Monroe's talk by presenting the actual Program.

The League of Women Voters will work for United States Policies directed toward an enduring world peace, supported by a strong United Nations and made possible by a sound domestic and world economy. To this end—

1. The League will support
The United Nations and its specialized agencies including their development through increased use, adequate budgets, and improved procedures under the present charter.

2. Use of all means available under the Charter to increase the security functions of the United Nations.

3. A full information program on methods to strengthen the United Nations in order that it may better fulfill its stated purpose.

4. The League will support
Promotion of international reconstruction and the expansion of world trade.

5. The League will analyze Federal taxes and expenditures in order to understand and support such fiscal policies as make for a stable domestic economy.

As chairman of the Town Affairs Committee, Mrs. Philip Woodward gave an analysis of the following items which comprise the new local Program:

1. Continued support for an adequate building program for Winchester schools to meet present and future needs.

2. Study of teachers salaries.

3. Continued support for a broad and well-coordinated recreation program for Winchester.

4. Study of the limited Town Meeting form of government.

In reviewing League action on the local level during the past year, Mrs. Woodward pointed out that the function of the League had been to act as sounding-board for public opinion. By holding open meetings on the school building problem the League had brought together the varying interests in the town for discussion and exchange of information.

A most delightful tea followed the final business of the meeting - the election of officers and committee chairmen for 1948-49.

President - Mrs. Harold A. Hall

WYMAN PAPER PRAISED

The Wyman Eagle, published by older pupils of the Wyman School and sponsored by Mr. Joseph Forie of the staff recently received national recognition in a grade school news periodical The Weekly Reader. The reviewer who signs himself "Chuck" Wood, praised an interview column in which pupils answered the question: "What Can I Do To Help the People of Winchester?"

Miss Candace Bostwick, a pupil, in reporting the recognition to Dr. Norris said that the article had resulted in an exchange of letters and newspapers with the editor of The Burlington (California) Star, an elementary school publication.

ARLINGTON TRACKSTERS

HEAT WINCHESTER

Arlington High's capable track and field forces, paced by three State champions, beat Winchester, 14-2, last Friday afternoon on Manchester Field with the locals winning only the mile and 220 yard sprint event.

Winchester's "Whip" Saltmarsh ran another impressive mile, coping this event from Arlington's Grieco in the good time of 4 minutes 49 seconds, very good going for the rain and cold of last Friday.

"Whip" dogged Grieco for three laps, and then finding the pace too slow for his liking, took over and led all the way to the worsted.

"Don" Berridge, kept out of the 100 on the supposition that a win in the relay could decide the meet, topped the 220 from Arlington's champ, Connolly, by better than five yards in 24.4s. In the hundred Winchester swept all three places only to have the starter call for a re-run because of a false start. The second time Connolly of Arlington was first home, chased by "Lally" Myers and "Pete" Dillingham.

The locals' total could well have been higher. Capt. "Ben" Coe lost a 57.5s quarter to Groppi of Arlington by trying to get past him on the outside on the curves, helping run wide and finally losing out by a couple of strides in time slower than he is capable of.

In the broad-jump Dillingham uncorked a jump that must have bettered 21 feet. Instead of falling forward Peter sat down in the pit, and still got 19 ft 1 in., only three-quarters of an inch behind Arlington's winning McDougal.

There were two firsts the locals might have had, and Charlie Cogan got the shot out well beyond the third Arlington man on his final try, only to have his heave scratched when he unnecessarily reached down and touched the board after his put. These 11 points instead of 4 would have made a lot of difference. Whether Berridge could beat Connolly in the 100 is a question. He surely walked away from him in the furlong. The relay was scratched because of the cold and rain. The summary:

100 Yard Dash — 1. Connolly (A); 2. Myers (W); 3. Dillingham (W). Time 19.5s.
400 Yard Dash — 1. Grieco (A); 2. Coe (W); 3. Sorokin (W). Time 57.5s.
800 Yard Dash — 1. Saltmarsh (W); 2. Grieco (A); 3. Goff (A). Time 1:49s.

220 Yard Dash — 1. Berridge (W); 2. Connolly (A); 3. Myers (W). Time 24.4s.
800 Yard Run — 1. McDougal (A); 2. Parkhurst (W); 3. Hardy (A). Time 2:12s.

WINCHESTER GIRLS FINALLY

LOSE

Tennis Team Edged by Belmont, 3-2

For the first time in a good many years Winchester High School girls' tennis team lost to a high school opponent on May 4 when the Belmont High girls eked out a 3-2 victory over the locals on the Palmer street courts.

Winchester High girls, off and on, have lost to the strong Winsor School team in the private school racks, but have racked up unbeaten seasons against high school teams with monotonous regularity. The locals had to lose sometime of course, and Belmont, headed by Edith Sullivan and Eleanor McGrath, well known young State players, has the distinction of being the first to turn the trick.

Strangely enough it wasn't Belmont top flight players who engineered the win. Winchester's "Ruthie" Murray took Edith Sullivan in the No. 1 singles match, 1-6, 6-2, 6-4, in a hard fought battle. Ann Albrie, a much improved player, beat Eleanor McGrath in straight sets in the No. 2 singles, 6-4, 7-5, though she too had her work cut out for her.

June Frisbee gave Belmont the No. 3 singles, beating Marilyn Chase in straight sets, the first one being a real Marathon affair, 13-11. Belmont took both doubles matches to gain its single point edge. The summary:

Singles: Ruth Murray (W) beat Edith Sullivan, 1-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Ann Albrie (W) beat Eleanor McGrath, 6-4, 7-5.

June Frisbee (W) beat Marilyn Chase, 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles: Jill McKeown and Marion Koss (W) beat Barbara Buracker and Nancy O'Rourke, 6-1, 6-2.

Barbara Drake and Ann Dolan (W) beat Joyce Dana and Nancy Sutter, 6-1, 6-2.

WEST SOMERVILLE P. O.

BOWLING CHAMPS

By virtue of the lead entering the last two matches of the Middlesex P. O. Bowling League, West Somerville P. O. was able to hold the advantage it had. Belmont has been coming strong, but Cambridge was able by one point to take second place away from them.

In the final match of the season, Winchester took Cambridge 3-1 and by the comfortable margin of 100 pins.

STRETCH SIMONDS SETS NEW

SNIPE FLEET RECORD

For more than eight years, the record of 45 minutes and 10 seconds for the three-lap Snipe race course, has withstood every attempt to lower it. But last Sunday morning, Don Simonds, Jr., sailed SINBAI sensationally to cut more than a minute from the old record. His time for the three laps was exactly 44 minutes. This new record should stand for many years because it was set in a near-gale wind. As a matter of fact, the race was almost postponed because the good old Mystic looked like mid-Atlantic.

Needless to say, Stretch was the race going away, but Mal Moller, Daw Blamire and George Field finished in that order — and believe us when we say just being able to finish was a feat of extraordinary seamanship.

Stretch Simonds also won the Saturday afternoon race with Carl Freyer finishing second and Davy Blamire third. With one race to go in the Simonds Series, the Field-Freyer combination still holds a slight lead over Moller and Blamire. But either of these skippers can cop the cup, with a break on Saturday.

The Bureau is an organization controlled and supported by thirty public school systems in the six counties of Wayne, Washtenaw, Macomb, Oakland, Monroe, and St. Clair, and The University of Michigan and Wayne University. In function the Bureau is very similar to The New England School Development Council which aims to provide member school systems (more than 72 in New England) with information on the latest current practice and provides workshops to evaluate and improve school courses of study and the relation of the school to the community.

FIRE AT WEST SIDE HOME

Woman Taken Down Ladder
From Roof

An early-morning fire did considerable damage to the living room of the home of Mr. John L. Munro, 35 Central street, last Saturday morning.

Mrs. Munro was awakened about 1 o'clock by the crackling of flames on the floor below her. She awakened her husband, who found that the flames and heat from the fire prevented him from getting to a telephone.

He assisted his wife to a roof outside their bedroom and then secured a ladder, which he carried her to safety. This done, he summoned the Fire Department by telephoning from a neighbor's house at 1:15 o'clock.

The firemen found the makings of a real fire upon their arrival, and Chief Callahan stated that another ten or fifteen minutes could easily have resulted in serious consequences.

The men localized the fire and confined it to the living-room. The door was charred nearly through and the rug, a divan and chair were pretty well burned. The piano was scorched and there was some or less damage from the heavy smoke, which made it necessary to use the smoke ejector.

SEVERAL INJURED IN WEST SIDE COLLISION

Several persons complained of injuries following the collision of a Mercury coupe with a Pontiac sedan Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the junction of Fletcher and Church streets.

According to the police the Mercury was being driven west on Church street by Daniel T. Hughes of 58 Lombard terrace, Arlington. The Pontiac was being driven south on Fletcher street by Frank F. Vitagliano of 126 Glendstone street, East Boston. Both cars were damaged.

Riding with Vitagliano were Mary Norton and Margaret Norton, both of 10 Quindfield street, Dorchester. George Stewart of 213 Harvard street, Cambridge, and Maurice Foley of 63 Washington Elms, Cambridge. The latter complained of head injuries. Mr. Stewart of injuries to his shoulder. Margaret Norton complained of being shaken up and Marie Norton of injuries to her left leg.

Riding with Hughes was Mrs. Helen Hughes of 48 Lombard terrace, Arlington, who complained of injuries to her head and left knee. Hughes, license to operate had expired February 14, 1948, and he was summoned into court by the police, charged with driving after his license to do so had expired.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

Mrs. Frances M. Bartlett of Pittsfield, Maine, has been elected to teach in Winchester High School next year.

Election of teachers was a major item of business at the Committee meeting on May 2. Contracts will be mailed out soon.

A report of the teacher turnover in Winchester was presented to the Committee. A chart showing the per cent of turnover in each of the last twelve years appears elsewhere in this issue of the Star.

WEEK-END FIRES

Besides the early-morning fire at the home of Mr. John L. Munro on Saturday the Fire Department was called out twice over the past week-end.

At 11:23 Saturday night the men were called by telephone to put out a chimney fire at the home of Mr. G. B. Redding, 10 Cranston road.

Sunday afternoon at 5:27 there was a still alarm for rubbish fire at a dump off Hutchinson road. The men had about an hour's fight before this fire was finally extinguished.

INTER-RACIAL UNITY
DIVISION OF M. S. F. W. C.
BROADCASTS

Two Winchester Residents on Program

The new Division of Inter-Racial Unity of the M. S. F. W. C. of Women's Clubs had its first broadcast recently on the North Shore Women's Clubs' Program in Lynn. Mrs. James W. Vase, president of the Marblehead Woman's Club, presented Mrs. Malcolm Green, Chairman of the Division. Mrs. Green gave an interesting report of the activities of this Department which has as its objective a better Inter-Racial Unity. Mrs. Green presented Mrs. William E. Priest, Vice-Chairman of the Division, commenting that she thought Mrs. Priest expressed the spirit of Inter-Racial Unity in her creative prayer. "Lord! Though I may not come to love my neighbor—let me be kind!—Help me to see below the tinted skin or difference of race—The Soul, that but for accident of birth—Might well be mine!—Help me to pierce the phantom wall of whisper-making 'background'—To find the martyr ancestor, philosopher or saint—Who may, perchance, outshine the heritage of which I am so proud!—And, lastly, Lord, help this neighbor to be—Spite of my faults, as tolerant of me!"

Mrs. Green, in presenting the next member of the Division, said "Mr. Norman von Rosnyne, Danish Consul, gave an address some months ago at the Ralston Association of Greater Boston on 'King Christian's Personality and Achievements' I have asked Mrs. Theodore von Rosnyne, Sr., to read that address. Mrs. von Rosnyne read the entire address. Excerpts from the address are: 'King Christian was the symbol of decency, kindness, tolerance, intelligence, humanity and success. He stood for all of these qualities and was possessed of them. This was evident during his entire reign as King—a long one. He served from 1012 until he died in April last year.' and further along in the address: 'We know much of the trivial that has become legend about King Christian; that he took daily rides in the Park unguarded; that he engaged in informal conversation with those of his people he happened to meet. We know that his people respected his privacy. We know that he was of equal and yet appeared to be of the people. King Christian had a reputation for tolerance and good fellowship. An opportunity came to him at the time of the German occupation to show that this reputation was more than a window-dressing to impress his people and the world. On the 9th of April 1940, the Germans occupied Denmark, under the guise of protecting Denmark against the British. There were then about 8,000 Jews in the country, including about 1,500 who had come as refugees after April 1933. From April of 1940 until August of 1943, these people were not molested. At one point Hitler decreed a terror against Danish Jews, and the King was informed that the Jews were ordered to wear the yellow star of David. King Christian and the rest of the Danes rebelled. 'They are my people,' said the King. 'We have no Jewish problem in this country, for we have never considered ourselves inferior to the Jews.' But in this case, he added, he and his family would all wear the star as a sign of the highest distinction. The King then attended synagogue in full Court Regalia. This is not the first time the King had attended synagogue. A continental was celebrated in April 1933, just after the German boycott of the Jews, when the sign 'Jude' was pasted on all Jewish shops and warehouses in Berlin. The King and his suite attended the ceremonies. On August 20, 1943, the Germans invited King Christian and suppressed the Danish Government and Parliament. The Gestapo brought three transports to Copenhagen to take away Danes of Jewish faith. Saboteurs blew up two of the ships. One got away with 700 Danes. The rest died in Sweden. Everybody helped them. All together some 15,000 Danes escaped and were received with unflinching hospitality by the Swedish government and people. The final paragraph is timely: 'Let us thank God, through whatever channels of worship we may have, for such a man and for such a symbol. I hope the things he stood for may be considered important by enough people so that the results attained in Denmark may be achieved throughout the World'.

ART COMMITTEE WINS
THIRD PRIZE

The Art Committee of the Fortnightly was awarded third prize by the Penny Art Fund, Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs, and the prize will be presented formally to the Club, through the Art Chairman, Mrs. George E. Connor, at the annual meeting of the Federation in Swampscott this coming week.

In April, with 90 paintings by leading New England artists on exhibit at the Copley Society in Boston, the Federation's Art Chairman, Mrs. John MacAuliffe, her committee and the judges, selected the Women's Clubs which had achieved the most in art work during their club year, and made the awards. The Fortnightly was given the third prize, and Mrs. Connor selected the award—a painting of New Harbor, Maine, by Ruth Woodward. The painting will be presented to the Chairman at the Swampscott meeting, and will be on exhibition for the public and club members in the fall. This is the first time that an award has been given to the Winchester club.

Performing under its new conductor, William Ellis Weston, the club will present an interesting program which should please all types of music lovers.

FINE EVENING AT WEDGEHIRE OBSERVATORY

Winchester residents who accepted the invitation of the Wedgemore Observatory last Saturday had a rare opportunity to join in the astronomical enthusiasm of six young scientists, whose worth while hobby is the observation of the night sky through compact and efficient telescopes. Interest was centered about two 3 1/2 inch reflectors, one 2 inch refractor, and one 3 inch refractor. All were excellent instruments. In addition several of the operators were equipped with valuable binoculars. One Navy 7x50 was noted. This is the finest instrument of its kind ever made. The operation of all glasses was under the supervision of Bradford Smith, Harry von Rosenberg, John Davis, Robert Kleder, Jack Wilcox and Ted Jones.

Observations were made on the Moon, Alor-Nizar, Venus and Saturn. The Rings of Saturn were a particular target because of its favorably position at this time. This visitor to the Observatory was very much impressed with the speed and accuracy with which the young operators trained their telescopes on target, showing their practical knowledge of their hobby.

Refreshments and a social evening followed the observations of the sky. About two hundred visitors accepted their invitations.

NEW LADDER TRICE EXHIBITED

Poor weather interfered somewhat with the public exhibition of the town's new aerial ladder truck on the Shore road last Sunday afternoon. A fair sized crowd, including a number of town officials, assembled for the exhibition, which because of the weather was limited in scope.

The big ladder was not extended to its full length and was not sealed by any of the firemen present. A hose line was run up the ladder to the fitting at the top and water sprayed from the nozzle, the pumping being done by Engine 3 driven by John J. Flaherty. Fireman Michael Connolly controlled the hose from the ladder platform.

Chief James E. Callahan was in charge of the demonstration with Captain Ray V. Hanscom. The big truck was driven by Fireman Robert Haggerty.

Former Chief John J. Gorman was an interested spectator and other firemen present included Call Captain Hugh J. Sherry and Call Men Charles E. Ward and Warren Osborn, and Auxiliary Firemen T. Parker Clarke, Clarence W. Russell and Edward J. McDevitt.

PERFECT MATH EXAMINATION

Peter Sorokin, son of Prof. and Mrs. Pitirim A. Sorokin of Cliff street, was one of the very few to have perfect mathematics papers in the college board examinations during April. "Pete," who is a senior at Winchester High and a member of the football and track teams, received better than 99.9 percent in the examination. As far as the STAR could learn only one other Winchester student has had such a paper in a college board exam.

12th ANNUAL STREET FAIR TOMORROW

A parade through the downtown section headed by the Winchester High School band under the direction of Mr. Fred Felnet will mark the opening of the festivities shortly before noon.

The entire area at the rear of the Town Hall has been transformed to represent a Pioneer Village with gaily decorated booths bearing names reminiscent of the Gold Rush days. "Ma Kibbee's Trading Post" will offer an unusually large assortment of china, glassware, antiques, and bric-a-brac. A sturdy white canvas scout tent will be awarded some lucky visitor.

There's sure to be a crowd around "Jean's Emporium" with its offerings of aprons, linens, knitted articles, and hand-painted wooden ware. The Open Oven Bakery of Mrs. Walter Keyes has on sale a big stock of home-made cake, cookies, pan biscuits, and other goodies. Flowers, plants, and garden accessories will be artistically displayed for sale on the island.

The youngsters may dig for buried treasure in the form of prizes at the "Gopher Hole," with some really valuable prizes waiting to be uncovered. The Midway—"Poke Along Trail"—complete with ferris wheel, merry-go-round, kiddie auto, and many games of skill is under the direction of Mrs. Donald F. Connors, and Mrs. D. Twiney-Tilton.

Balloons, popcorn, hot dogs, ice cream, and soda pop will delight the children. For the older folks a refreshing cup of tea will be served at the pergola. Madame Mari, the "Royal Palmist," and Mrs. Parsons, the fortune teller, will be on hand to give tips on what the future holds.

There'll be food aplenty. A delicious luncheon of lobster, ham, chicken sandwiches, and cakes will be set out by Mrs. Irving Jennings' Luzy J. Snack Bar.

Plan to stay for dinner too, for in the evening the Chuck Wagner offers not only a delicious dinner but also a delightful musical entertainment while you dine.

During this time you'll see exhibited on the stage a beautiful water color by Mr. Forest W. Orr, one of Winchester's most outstanding artists. The title of this picture is "Spring on Commonwealth Avenue" and is for sale, the proceeds from which are being generously donated to the Street Fair Fund.

Ken Reeves and his orchestra take over the Abernethy House for dancing till midnight.

With the closing of the fair comes the awarding of a new Ford 2-door sedan, deluxe model, completely equipped with radio, heater, clock, and cigarette lighter, to some lucky person. It could be you! Don't forget the En Ka Street Fair tomorrow!

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Croughwell of Rye road are spending the week-end in Maine, driving to Dexter to attend a Saturday wedding in that town.

LEGION PRE-MEMORIAL DAY BANQUET

Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, will hold its annual Pre-Memorial Day banquet at the Legion House on Saturday, May 29, at 7:30. This is a long established event on the Legion calendar and sure to be well attended.

The committee is negotiating for the appearance of an excellent guest speaker and other features sure to prove popular. Comdr. Walter J. Burns will preside and introduce the speaker, as well as announce plans for the Post's participation in the Memorial Day program the following Monday.

Senior Vice Commander Robert F. Murphy, Norman Noonan, Gordon Clemon and Frank Cefali comprise the committee of arrangements. They have announced a catered dinner and that tickets may be secured from P. T. Foley, Fred Mitchell, Louis Barber or at the Legion House.

NEW LIGHTS FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Fire Department received this week a new Home-Lite outfit, consisting of 250 and 500 candle-power searchlights and a one cylinder gasoline power unit to run them.

The lights are valuable for use in an emergency at night, principally to enable firemen to see what they are doing at fires. The motor will run lights or other electrical gadgets which can be plugged into it and can be used in an emergency to supply light for a home, or at the hospital or public building.

Everyone who has seen the outfit, made by the Home-Lite Corp., of Portchester, N. Y., seems agreed that it is a good thing to have.

NEW POLICE CHIEF FETED

Harold Minor Guest at Boston Dinner

"Charlie" Harrold newly appointed Chief of the Winchester Police Department, was feted Tuesday evening by a group of 250 enthusiastic well-wishers at a reception and banquet at the Hotel Manger in Boston. Many of those going in from Winchester went in a body on the 6:07 train.

Preceding the dinner, from 6:30 to 7:30, there was an informal reception with guests flocking around the new chief to extend congratulations and best wishes of renewing old relationships with friends they had not seen for years.

"Charlie" Dolan, entertaining committee chairman, served as master of ceremonies and those occupying places with him at the head table were Chief Harrold's predecessor, former Chief William H. Rogers; Judge William Henrich of the Fourth District Court of Eastern Massachusetts in Woburn; Probation Officer Harry Ainsworth of the Woburn Court, former chief of Police in Wilmington; Chief Charles J. McCauley of the Woburn Police Department; Chief Thomas Wall of the Reading Police Department; Capt. Clarence Nelson, head of the Stoneham Police Department; Sgt. Roy Hodgson of the Metropolitan District Police; Fire Chief James E. Callahan, former Rep. William E. Ramsdell, Building Commissioner William B. Macdonald, Michael Brennan, father-in-law of Chief Harrold; Norman Harrold, the chief's brother; Judge John J. Murray, Chief Harrold's brother-in-law; Constable Francis W. Tansy, Attorney James Hinchey of Woburn, Jack Fogarty, Navy associate of Chief Harrold during the war; R. A. Somerby, Officer Edward F. Bowler, and the pastures of Winchester's two Catholic parishes, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan of St. Mary's and Rev. Fr. Edmund C. Slattery of the Immaculate Conception.

Father Slattery made the invocation and the toast to the new chief was proposed by Mr. Fogarty. "Charlie" Dolan acted as toastmaster and those who responded to toasts were Officer Edward F. Bowler, president of the Winchester Police Association; Judge Henrich and P. T. Foley of the banquet committee.

Officer Bowler presented the new chief with a handsome gold badge, emblematic of his office, the gift of members of the Police Association. He also extended to Chief Harrold the congratulations of his brother officers upon his appointment and the assurance of the support and cooperation of the members of his department.

Chief Harrold, in responding, said humorously that he now knew why it had been impossible for him to secure a new badge through the regular channels. Judge Henrich was the principal speaker, expressing his admiration for Chief Harrold and stating that under his leadership Winchester can have one of the best police departments in the State.

"Pat" Foley presented Chief Harrold on behalf of those present with a handsome Gladstone bag and matching brief case. His remarks were obviously sincere and the new chief responded in kind, stating in the course of his brief speech of appreciation that his real friends mean more to him than the job of chief of police. At the close of the chief's remarks that his father, the late Police Lt. John A. Harrold, could not have been present at the banquet.

Toastmaster Dolan presented the chief with another gift from his friends, a purse of money.

During the dinner professional talent, furnished by "Al" Somerby, provided excellent entertainment, and there were the usual impromptu stunts by guests. Former Selectman James A. Cullen obliged with "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," being joined in the chorus by "Maxie" Mayer, "Jim" and "Phil" Savage also danced a breakdown and Eric Johnson led the singing of Irish songs by all present. Phil Gallagher obliged with several humorous anecdotes and "Charlie" Doucette sang "The Old Shillelagh," giving an exceptionally fine rendition "for a Frenchman." Fred Donahue contributed piano selections.

Besides Chairman Dolan, committee members included P. T. Foley, Francis W. Tansy, Thomas Duddy, Walter J. Burns, Dr. Arthur Collins, Dennis Collins, Pasquale Tofani, Mack Kelly and J. Albert Horn, Jr.

BAND NIGHT

High and Grade School Bands Performed

The Winchester High and Grade School Bands, under the direction of Instructor Fred Felnet, presented the following program in the high school auditorium last Friday evening:

Hayden, "Choral"; Fillmore, "His Honor" March; Johnson, "The Three Trombones"; Isolates, Fred Walsh, Douglas Mason and George Hatchings; Bachet, "Travellers' Quartet"; Long, "The Story of the Three Bears"; Lowe, "It's Almost Like Being in Love" from "Brigadoon"; Fillmore, "The Footlight" March; Winchester High School Band; Southwell, "March"; "Auld Lang Syne"; Fillmore, "Dot and Phil" March; Fillmore, "Hermania" waltz; Fillmore, "Bohemia" march; Waldorf, "Stargazers" waltz; Fillmore, "Hermania" waltz; Phillips, "Marines' Hymn"; Winchester Grade School Band; Brattin, "The Teddy Bears' Picnic"; Stalder, solo by Philip Nelson; Spirited, "We're Not There"; Traditional, "Battle Hymn of the Republic"; Brass Quartet, John Hammond, Fred Hadley, Fred Walsh and George Hatchings.

A good sized and very enthusiastic audience greeted Mr. Felnet and his young bandmen. It's really too bad the hall wasn't packed, because the kids put on a grand show. The high school boys and girls in their scarlet uniform jackets and white trousers presented a colorful spectacle jammed into the wholly inadequate stage, and their performance was very creditable.

The thing you noted especially was the smoothness of ensemble and the rhythm. Mr. Felnet has labored to have his band a cohesive unit, with balance and he has been successful to a remarkable degree. The bandmen watch him well, follow his helpful hints and generally show both skill and painstaking instruction and coaching. Their playing of Burhett's descriptive overture, the "Crisaders" was very praiseworthy, with the woodwind contributing a noteworthy bit, both in this number and in the opening march, "His Honor".

The new number, "The Three Bears", one of those "Three-Tunes" sort of things, with the various parts playing passages descriptive of the accompanying story, was also well done (the first time), with the tubas and trombones scoring heavily as the "big bear". Incidentally Bob Singer handled the important narrator's role in playing fashion. The tricky tempo of the "Brigadoon" number was also commendably done, and the percussion solo in the finale was another good bit of work.

JENNINGS — CASSARI

White flowers decorated the altar of St. Mary's Church on Saturday afternoon, May 15, for the marriage of Miss Katharine Ann Cassari, daughter of Mrs. Dominic Cassari of Florence street, and the late Mr. Cassari to Patrick Joseph Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Jennings of Hovey street, North Quincy. Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, pastor of the church, officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony and the bridegroom was played by the church organist, Miss Mary Callahan.

Miss Cassari was given in marriage by her brother, Samuel Cassari. She wore a gown of white frosted organza, fashioned with a full skirt extending to form a court train. Her matching finger-length veil was caught to a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses, white carnations and orchids with streamers of stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand of white pearls worn as a necklace.

Miss Connie Prosopio of Winchester, niece of the bride, was the only bride attendant. She wore a dress of peach marquisette with a blue hat and matching shoulder-length gloves. Her bouquet contained talliesman roses with blue delphinium. Patrick Corrigan of Dunstable was best man for Mr. Jennings.

After a honeymoon spent touring along the New England seaboard into Canada Mr. and Mrs. Jennings will make their home in Quincy.

The bride, a graduate of Winchester High School, received the degree of A.B. from Suffolk University College of Liberal Arts and the LL.B. degree from Suffolk University Law School. She has been employed in the office of Attorney William J. Holbrook in Boston.

BUNDLE TEA

On May 26th at the home of Mrs. Francis E. Booth, 64 Oxford street, the Epiphany Branch of the Church Home Society will sponsor its annual Bundle Tea. This is an ingenious way of collecting no longer needed possessions of fellow parishioners which can be taken in town to the Penny Wise Thrift Shop. There these articles, clothes, bric-a-brac, costume jewelry, etc., are sold to enable the shop to earn money to support its two beneficiaries—The Episcopal City Mission and the Church Home Society.

A Fund Sale is to be held in conjunction with the Tea so all who are interested are cordially invited to come with their bundle, perhaps a cake or cookie to sell and some loose change to buy a neighborhood contribution.

Mrs. Booth will be assisted by Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter as co-hostess with Mrs. Clarence Perkins pouring, Mrs. William Sacke, Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Charles Butler, Mrs. Albert Crockett, Mrs. Howard Richardson, Mrs. Elsworth Snow and Mrs. E. Phillips Walker will assist in the dining room while Miss Barbara Booth and Miss Nancy Snow will have charge of the fund sale.

WINCHESTER MAN IN PATENT GRANT

On May 4, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,440,957 on a "Pupillometer" to John L. Kennedy, Winchester, Leonard C. Mend, Somerville, and Bertram Wellman, Lincoln, Mass.

As is commonly known, a pupillometer is an instrument for measuring the distance between the pupils of the eyes; and it is the general object of this invention to provide an instrument of this type that is relatively simple and inexpensive to construct, but which, at the same time, operates in a facile manner to give the desired dimension to a reasonable degree of accuracy. As further objects of their invention, Messrs. Kennedy, Mend and Wellman state that, in its use, an unmistakable visual indication or signal is produced when the person, being measured, has effected the correct adjustment of their instrument; and, in addition, a person may measure the distance between the pupils of his own eyes.

Furthermore, it is interesting to note that this patent has been assigned to the United States of America as represented by the Secretary of War.

Although the theory and details of their device are understandable only by those skilled in the science of optics, in general, it comprises a frame or casing, rectangular in cross section and with an opening at one end. A hood, shaped to fit the head of the user of the instrument, is secured to this opening. A pair of holders, each carrying a number of properly spaced plates with polished reflecting surfaces thereon, are mounted near the open end of the casing, and at the rear end of the latter are so-called left and right targets, separately movable in a horizontal direction toward and from each other by the manipulation of either one of two knobs positioned at the side of the casing near the above mentioned hood.

In operation, the contrivance is positioned with the hood thereof against the head of the user who closes one eye and observes the target corresponding to the open eye. Because of the reflection of the polished surfaces of the plates, the eye sees a number of images of the center point of the target, but by manipulating the knobs, these images may be made to converge into the direct view of the point itself and create an unmistakable signal that correct adjustment has been effected.

A similar determination likewise may be made for the other eye, and the distance between the pupils is then read directly from a scale connected to the targets.

TELEPHONE SERVICE EFFORTS CONTINUE

More and better telephone service is in store for Winchester users, it was stated today by Reginald A. Holm, local Telephone Company Manager.

Everywhere you look these days, he said, you will see Telephone Company crews working underground and overhead, around the clock in most places, part of an army of over 36,000 Telephone workers in the New England Company, all striving earnestly to speed the day when the high pre-war standards of telephone service will be met and exceeded.

Faced at the close of the war with an almost insurmountable task, each succeeding year has brought steady progress, in spite of delays and shortages beyond the Company's control.

The year 1947 for example, Mr. Holm pointed out, was a year of tremendous accomplishment. From a Company standpoint the expenditure in that year of $60,584,000 for new construction and expansion exceeded the total outlay of any previous year, the highest of which was in 1946 when $59,000,000 was spent.

In 1947, 1,500 toll circuits, an increase of 12 1/2% were the largest in any one year period. Placed in service were 66,000 lines of dial equipment with 103,400 lines in progress. 715 switchboard positions were installed, with 250 in progress. To the outside facilities 2 1/2 billion conductor feet of wire in cable were added with 6 billion more in progress. 13,000 circuit miles of open wire and 62,000 poles were also placed in service.

Dial replacements, new buildings and building additions were completed in over 50 New England cities and towns.

It should be noted, Mr. Holm emphasized, that Telephone work, whether it be right here in Winchester or at a distance, directly benefits all telephone users here and everywhere by speeding and improving long distance service all around.

Most of the local cable work recently has been in connection with the Modern Dial Installation. Several additional circuits to the new dial offices will thus be in service later this month and in addition a 300 pair cable has been installed along Cambridge street and a 100 pair is now being placed along Cross street.

Recently installed in our Central Office building on Washington street a six position automatic "listening and display" switchboard of the latest design is now in operation. An interesting feature of this new switchboard is that on calls handled through it, the called telephone bell is rung by machine rather than by hand.

Miss Mary Vaughn, Chief Operator, now has under her supervision a force of 35 operators handling approximately 42,000 calls daily. Among her many responsibilities is the all important one of prompt answers when you lift your receiver and Miss Vaughn points out that for a while longer there may be times when slight delays will occur. This is especially true when the weather is bad and folks telephone rather than venture out. Also from 9 to 11 in the morning, 3 to 4 in the afternoon and 7 to 8 in the evening when the local calling rate is highest.

Mr. Holm mentioned that toll circuits have been built up and improved, throughout the Company's territory and toll service is now approaching the high standards of pre-war days.

Practically of the bell orders in Winchester for changes from old style upright telephone to the new type have recently been completed. There are, however, 617 customers in Winchester who because of shortage of materials beyond the Company's control had to accept party lines rather than be placed on a waiting list as was the case in many other communities. These 617 cases are a part of a company total of 188,000 that are on our records for higher grades of service.

Said Mr. Holm, "We would like nothing better than to be able to fill these orders but the job is colossal and will take time. However, I want to assure everyone of those waiting customers that this particular task is one that is receiving our best attention. No effort will be relaxed until we are again back to normal."

Miss Florence A. Parker of Cumberland Mills, Maine, is visiting with Dr. and Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard of Dix street. Miss Parker was for many years an English teacher in the Winchester High School.

WINGS

The Wings have been very busy during this last month. We had an airline hostess tell us some of her interesting experiences. We went on a tour of Bedford Airport. Fire Chief DeCourcy, one of our girls' father, took us on a personal tour so we saw many things we would have otherwise missed. Early in June we are planning to fly down to the Cape for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. McCall are very kindly loaning us their summer cabin and their car. Mrs. McCall and our leader Miss Holly James will be the chaperons. Both McCall will drive half of the girls down while the other half flies. On the way home they will switch. Elaine Hersey and Joan McKinley are flying both ways.

We are looking forward to having Miss Fattie Nells from Stonham come tell us how she got her pilot's license and some of her more interesting flights.

STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC TENNIS TOURNAMENT HERE ON SATURDAY

Weather permitting, the Twenty-first Annual Interscholastic Tennis Tournament will be played in Winchester on Saturday. The first matches will begin as soon as possible after the players have checked in at the Palmer street headquarters at 8:30 a. m. and it is hoped that the play will have reached the quarter finals by late Saturday afternoon. Semi-final and final rounds will be played of next week.

More than sixty boys have been entered, and among the schools represented will be the following: Belmont, Roxbury Memorial High School, Newton, Beverly, Dedham, Norwood, Hingham, Boston Technical, Boston Public Latin, Boston College High, Waltham, Boston English, Brookline, and Winchester.

In Winchester High School's line-up will be Sheldon Caldwell, Richard Hills, Roger Swanson, Robert Lorne, Robert Morris, and Peter Clarke. As usual Newton is sending one of the strongest teams to the tournament, with Bob Rich, last year's runner-up, leading a team of six that includes three other veterans: Bob Parker, Richard Whittinghill, and John Segal. Boston College High is sending a six man team, headed by Philip Maloney, who is known as one of the best school boy tennis players in the state. From Boston Technical comes Sam Zide, who was the runner-up in the Boston City Singles Championships in 1947. After getting a peek at the list of entries, some of the Winchester boys opined that, in addition to the usual rivals, there seem to be a number of dark horses in the tournament this year, so there may be some upsets.

ON DUTY WITH AIR FORCE

Major Hall B. Gannage of Winchester, Mass., reported Sunday, May 16, at Bedford Air Field for a period of two weeks active duty with the 3rd Air Division.

The 3rd Air Division, commanded by Brig. Gen. Roy E. Stocker left Monday, May 17, for Biggs Field, El Paso, Texas, where they will train with the 47th Light Bomb Wing, returning to Bedford on May 30. While at Biggs Field, members of the Division will train in the latest type equipment and will participate in the latest maneuvers of the parent group.

Major Gannage is employed by Hinks & Hodges Co., in Boston and makes his home at 64 Salisbury street, Winchester.

OUTCLASSES GREATER BOSTON IMPERIALS 5 TO 3

In its second game in three days in the Mayflower League Winchester Hockey Club won a well-deserved victory over the Greater Boston Imperials at the Skating Club last Monday evening. The locals were at full strength on the ice again, which seemed to be what was needed to make their team play slick. And click it had to be in order to win from the Imperials, paced as they were by such stars as Laula, coach of Massachusetts Institute of Technology varsity, in goal, Madden, captain of next year's Technology team, for vocal boost of the year a season ago, and another player reported to be from this year's McGill University team in Canada who could not be positively identified.

Dave Morrow put the locals out in front in the first period on assists from Don Armstrong and Jim Puller, and from then on Winchester was never headed. In the second period Wimpy Bartlett scored a pretty goal assisted by Scott Domb. Then Hallowell counted for Imperials. Immediately thereafter Don Armstrong took over in earnest to score his first of three sizzling goals. Don got his second in the final period on an assist by Don Ellis and came up with his third in quick succession (unassisted) to open him a hat trick. For Imperials Wilson counted in the third period on a pass from Hackett and Madden generated the third and final enemy marker unassisted.

Don Armstrong was the star of the evening for Winchester. Scott Domb and Don Ellis played their usual stellar roles defensively and offensively. In fact the entire team skated fast and worked hard for victory. Laula in goal starred for Imperials with many smart saves, while Madden and Wilson were strong both on defense and offense, and Hackett and Hallowell excelled in the forward line. Not a single penalty marred the contest.

President Rowe of the Mayflower League complimented the Winchester boys highly for their fine spirited play throughout the evening and said he hoped they had some more games like that up their sleeves.

The next game on the schedule is with the Jamaica Red Sox Saturday afternoon at 5:30, May 20th.

WINCHESTER PLACED IN BELMONT RELAYS

Winchester placed third in the Class C division of the State Relay carnival at Belmont last Saturday, behind winner Belmont and Malden Catholic, runner-up. The locals competed with schools on the average too big for them and did as well as could be expected on the whole.

The locals scored only three points, placing second in the two mile event. Andy Antippos, Tom McGowan, Ben Lee and Steve Parkhurst ran for Winchester in that order. Burgess Powell of Belmont edging Parkhurst over the anchor leg as the winners posted an 8 minutes 18 seconds to Winchester's 8 minutes 51 seconds. Winchester's half-mile team of Harry Myers, Peter Sorokin, John Mudding and Don Berridge Winchester's half mile team won its heat from St. John's of Danvers and Gardner, but its winning time wasn't fast enough for a place. The heads undoubtedly lost because of the quality of the competition for they were never pressed.

The locals' mile team of Andy Antippos, Pete Sorokin, John Mudding and Ben Lee couldn't place despite Coo's sub-55 second quarter over the anchor leg.

In the quarter-mile event Harry Myers, Dick Smith, Pete Mudding and Don Berridge placed second to St. John's of Danvers, but once again the time wasn't good enough to get in the places. Just how the officials arrived at their times is hard to see for Don Berridge, starting the anchor leg for Winchester a good three yards back of the St. John's anchor, pulled up even with him over the last two yards, the two finishing so close a discussion of judges was necessary to pick the winner. When the times were announced however Winchester was given a shocking two-tenths of a second slower than St. John's which in a 110 yard leg with a flying start would be good for about four yards. If the St. John's boy won it was by the thickness of his jersey. It was that close.

Newton won the Class A division, Watertown, the Class B and Lexington the Class D.

TENNIS INSTRUCTION AVAILABLE

Any Winchester boy or girl (grades 5 through 12) interested in learning tennis, but lacking a teacher, can be assigned to a willing sponsor by mailing a penny postal card to Ken Hills at 17 Mason street. Small groups will be taught the fundamentals of the game by a more experienced player. No charges whatsoever will be made. It is necessary, however, that each pupil have a tennis racket and foot gear acceptable for play on our town courts.

Merely send your name, address and (if possible) telephone number to Ken Hills; don't telephone. After that, as soon as possible, your sponsor will make a date with you at some point and your first lessons will begin. Be sure to keep your first date, or let your sponsor know ahead of time if you are going to be unable to be present. All Winchesterites or friends desirous of aiding this program as sponsors, or otherwise, are invited to communicate with Ken Hills, May 21-48.

DORCHESTER BOYS
PICKED UP

Monday night at 10:35 Officer Winthrop Palmer picked up at Symmes Corner two Dorchester boys, one 12 and one 13 years of age. He also recovered a boy's raincoat at the corner of Everett road and Main street.

The boys were taken to headquarters and questioned by Sgt. Joseph J. Derro. They said they had gone for a ride on the elevated and had become lost, finally arriving in Winchester. One of the boys said they had found the raincoat near some railroad tracks and had dropped it when they saw Officer Palmer.

They gave their names as Daniel Linehan, of 11 Melbourne street, Dorchester; and George Gately, of 1 Davis street, Dorchester. They were held at headquarters until the arrival of relatives who took them home.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

At their regular meeting on Monday evening the Winchester School Committee voted to place all teachers who have served 20 or more years in Winchester schools on the maximum salary for teachers of their qualifications, effective Sept. 1, 1948.

Two more teachers were elected to fill vacancies. They are Mrs. Mildred Z. Abrahamson of 3 Holton street, Winchester, to teach in the primary grades; Miss Claire Fitzpatrick of 14 Oswego Park, Melrose, to teach at the Junior High School.

The resignations of the following teachers were accepted: Miss Helen Blanchard, on substitution leave this year, formerly of the Lincoln School and Americanization classes; Miss Elizabeth Van Dusen of the Lincoln School, mid-year replacement for Mrs. Gertrude Isaacs, who requested retirement; Miss Ethel Sivinski, first grade teacher at Wyman School; and Mrs. Dorothy Hammon, secretary at the Washington and Noon schools.

MOTHERS URGED TO ATTEND
MAY 25 MEETING

The annual meeting of the Winchester Mothers' Clubs will be held next Tuesday afternoon, May 25, at the Wyman School auditorium at 2:30. Mrs. Richard C. Cunningham, president of the Central Mothers' Club and other officers and members are making a joint effort to have a large audience to greet Dr. Mildred Landis, art consultant for Winchester and director of the art for the state of New Hampshire.

Dr. Landis, a recognized authority on school art and possessor of the happy faculty of making her subject appealing, will describe the objectives and technique of modern school art. Those familiar with the high calibre of school art will be glad to hear Dr. Landis discuss the methods employed today which have made the improvement possible. A parent herself, she will outline the sympathetic understanding of the youngster's expression which can lead to a happier life, whether or not art is to be accepted as a career.

RAND NIGHT

Good as the older band was, it was the Grade School youngsters who stole the show. This group packed into the pit in front of the stage, really played remarkably well, brightening the future of Winchester school bands tremendously. The younger group had rhythm all the way, particularly in that rather tricky little Berminia Waltz, with its counter melody, and the kiddies played very well in time, for such a large group. Their performance of the familiar movement of the Skaters' Waltz was all right and they tied into the Marines' Hymn with a will.

The hit of the Grade School program was the dramatic comedy with drummers, "Music" Bellini and David Hovig adding the extras on the wood and triangle. Little Eugene Noff was the darling of the audience as she bounced up and down in time to her drumming. Phil Nelson's tuba solo was very well received and his playing of the rapid skipping passages of his score, most commendable. Ted Cole played a good accompaniment, giving the soloist plenty of chance for breath.

The trombone trio and brass quartet were also enthusiastically applauded, particularly after Mr. Edmet told of the trombonist who got out of a sick bed to play. Both these numbers would have been improved had the trombonists played their notes "straight". If we may be pardoned a word of criticism, music like "Wire You There" should not be played "thud" and the constant motion of a trombone slide adds neither intonation nor, particularly, pitch.

No mention of the concert would be complete without the highest praise for Mr. Edmet's handling of his band. He gave the youngsters just the help and inspiration they needed and his little informal remarks about the concert and his pride in the boys and girls were both pleasing and good to see. At the finale Fred Walsh in a neat little speech presented the perspiring conductor with a gift on behalf of the band, the huge bag containing a small gift wrapped box for Fred and a large white toy doggie for the Edmet baby.

The program closed with the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner". We have yet to hear a school band eclipse Winchester's performance of the National Anthem.

Following are the members of the bands:

High School Band
Robert Walsh, Fred Whitton, Richard Cunningham, Arthur Benson, John Shibley, Katherine Parker, Robert Dackworth, David Mestek, Robert Rouse, David Matthews, Richard MacLure, Gus Hubbard, Richard Enrico, Elliott Hodge, William Maguire, Donald Swanson, Shirlie Farnham, John Dackworth, Thomas Melanson, Benson Shuler, George Ganser, Philip Nelson, Allen Hovey, George Hutchinson, Fred Walsh, John Davis, James Hennessey, Ted Cole, Marvin Wilson, George Johnson, Edward J. Scrimas, Robert Deane.

Grade School Band
Raymond Smith, John Becker, Polly Kroll, Stephen Dunn, Tommy Sevelby, Dale Grant, Arthur Goss, Paula White, Judy Scott, Catherine Wadsworth, David Paul, Richard Rouse, Ronald Carter, Ben Rhodes, R. B. Brown, Rosemary Egan, Charles Brown, Edith Johnson, Joy Rappson, Robert Becker, Albert Berkey.

Two Winchester young women have recently been elected officers of two Y.W.C.A. Business Girls' Clubs. They are Miss Barbara Fitzgibbon, 505 Washington street, president of the Sigma Theta Nu Club, and Miss Barbara Donaghy, 14 Glenwood avenue, program chairman of the Beta Gamma Club.

QUAD MEET SATURDAY

Winchester will play host to Woburn, Melrose and Concord in a quadrangular track and field meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. On paper the teams seem even enough matched to ensure some good competition and an interesting meet. It will be the first of its kind held in Winchester, at least in recent years.

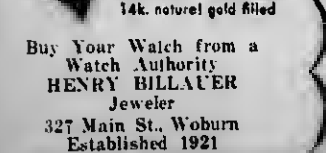

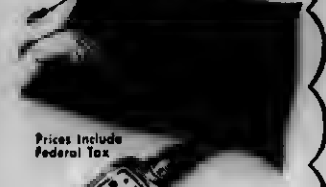

The meet will commence at 2 o'clock with competition in the high jump and shot put, followed by the 100 yard dash.

Among those to watch are Cannon, Woburn miler, the Fawcett twins, Orange middle distance stars and big Bob Garvey, sprinter and shot putter whom Winchester fans can well remember from last Thanksgiving.

Rose, Melrose quarter-miler is another good boy as is Surtelli of Concord in the dashes.

Winchester favorites to place are Don Berridge, sprinter; Capt. Ben Coo in the quarter and high jump; Whip Salmars, undefeated in the mile this season; Pete Dillingham in the broad jump; "Amly" Antipias, Sargent, Parkhurst and Tom McGowan in the half; McGowan, a miler to start the season, has been shifted to the half and has been showing real improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Humphrey of Elmwood avenue with their daughter, Miss Mary Humphrey and Miss Miriam O'Leary of Kendall street, leaves Friday for Arlington, Va., where they will spend several days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Newell Hendey (Ruth Humphrey).

BELMONT TRACKSTERS BEAT WINCHESTER

Belmont's strong track team, conqueror of such schools as Newton and Boston English, beat Winchester in a dual meet at Belmont Wednesday afternoon, 52-25. Most close followers believed the Red and Blue margin would be larger.

Don Berridge beat Vern Wynant of Belmont in a 2400 furlong, winning by a good three yards, with Murbill of Winchester in third place. Wynant just nosed out Berridge in a 1945 century when he got a bad start. The Winchester boy was closing fast and was only the thickness of his body behind the Belmont flyer.

Capt. Ben Coo won the quarter in 56.1s, and "Whip" Salmars coasted to a win in the mile, copying his favorite event in 4m. 51s. by a good 15 yards.

Belmont's Powell won the half in 2:10 but Andy Antipias ran a good race to finish third. Hurry Easton picked up a third in an 18 ft. 11 in. broad jump, both Pete Dillingham and Harry Meyers being out of competition with bad legs. Belmont swept the shot and also won the relay.

WINCHESTER BOYS DO WELL AT EXETER TOURNEY

The four-boy tennis team which Winchester High School entered in the annual New England Interscholastic Tennis Tournament at Exeter last weekend came away with seven points and fourth position among the teams represented. Considering that, among the 80 boys entered, there were the top players from Amherst, Exeter, Deerfield, Milton, and Tabor Academies, the Winchester boys did very well. They easily scored more points than any other high school team.

Sheldon Caldwell, Richard Hills, Roger Swanson, and Robert Morris entered the singles, with Caldwell, Hills, and Morris all surviving the first round of play. Swanson had the "luck of the draw" and met Deerfield's number one player in his first match. In the doubles, Hills and Swanson went out in the second round, while Caldwell and Morris got into the quarter finals. The boys were pleased to meet two other Winchester lads in the tournament, Charles Wansker and John Duffell, both students at New Hampton.

DR. MILDRED LANDIS TO SPEAK AT MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION NEXT TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Winchester mothers will have the opportunity to hear Dr. Mildred Landis, art consultant for the Winchester schools, discuss the essentials of a good art program at the annual meeting of the Winchester Mothers' Association, which will be held next Tuesday afternoon, May 25, at 2:30 p. m. at the Wyman School Hall.

WINCHESTER TENNIS TEAM BEATS TUFTS FRESHMEN

The weather finally cleared on Wednesday and the high school tennis team was able to resume its schedule, playing the Tufts Freshman team at Tufts, and winning 6-3. Larry Palmer, the Tufts coach, having taught some of the Winchester boys the game several years ago, could not have been too disappointed when Winchester took the match.

The high school's faithful rooting section, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Morris, and Mrs. Hill, was there to add its shivers to those of the players.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Boulwell of Foxcroft road are leaving this week for Clifton.

SOFT BALL LEAGUE STARTS MONDAY

Following a meeting held Tuesday evening at the American Legion House, Director Edward A. Bartlett announced that the Town Soft Ball League will officially open on Monday, May 24.

A schedule has been drawn for next week only, due to the fact that at present there are insufficient town playgrounds available for the use of the league to enable the 11 teams to play each other. It is expected that more fields will be available so that the league can function properly in the near future.

There seems unusual interest in the league this year, with 11 teams entered against seven a year ago. Heading the list are the Sachems, defending champions; and the runners-up, the Sons of Italy. Other teams who played last year and are again in the league are the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Knights of Columbus, Red Shirts, the Tub Thumpers and the Barracudas. The Tub Thumpers will play this year as the Alomies and the Barracudas as the D-J Club.

New Clubs this year are St. Mary's, who have absorbed most of last year's Christopher Columbus Club; the Comets, Beggs and Cobb and the Rockets. Rev. Robert J. Supple's name appears on the active player list of St. Mary's and those who have seen him in action say that the clergyman plays a neat game. "Moe" Hultgren of Sachems' basketball fame, is handling the Comets, which should insure color on the part of this new club.

The schedule for next week follows:

Monday, May 24
Sachems vs D. J. Club at Ginn Field

Rockets vs Alomies at West Side Field

Tuesday
Sons of Italy vs Comets (Ginn)

K of C vs V. F. W. (West Side)

Wednesday
Red Shirts vs St. Mary's (Ginn)

Rockets vs Sachems (West Side)

Thursday
K of C vs Sons of Italy (Ginn)

Comets vs Beggs & Cobb (West Side)

Friday
St. Mary's vs Alomies (Ginn)

D-J Club vs Red Shirts (West Side)

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Winchester High School girls' tennis team was defeated, 4-1, by Winsor at Winsor, May 19. It was their second loss of the season. Having been rained out of their previous four matches and lack of favorable weather for practice was an unfortunate handicap for the girls. The summary:

Singles
Ruth Murray defeated Cynthia Groener, 6-3, 6-4.

Ann King defeated Ann Miller 7-5, 6-1.
Dore Griswold defeated Marilyn Chase, 7-5, 6-2.

Doubles
Virginia Lapham and Priscilla Dunphy defeated Nancy O'Rourke and Dorothy Duncker, 6-0, 6-0.

Lee Higelow and Betty Hood defeated Joyce Hanna and Betty Symmes, 7-5, 6-0.

SOUTH POSTAL LEAGUE TAKES MIDDLESEX P. O. LEAGUE

The Middlesex Post Office Bowling League was taken over the hurdles by the South Postal Bowling League at the South Station alleys by 147 pins.

As the match was held on the South Postal home alleys, it was to be expected that the South Postal League would have the upper hand and they did as some of the best bowlers in the Middlesex League slipped.

This match is the forerunner of what will next year be some form of a round robin between the post office leagues of Greater Boston after their bowling season has finished. Manager Davey of the Middlesex League brought this up at the Boston Post Office League Banquet. Postmaster Crowley of Boston was the principal speaker at the banquet.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Trophy for Family Doubles

Heaven et al being willing, the Winchester Spring Town Get-together Tennis Tournament will start on Saturday, May 29, at 10 a. m. There will be family doubles, men's draw doubles, women's draw doubles, and mixed draw doubles; four events in all, and it costs only 25¢ per person per event. It is planned to begin the men's and women's at 10 a. m. on Saturday, May 29. The family and the mixed will begin at 10 a. m. on Sunday, May 30.

This get-together is an annual town occasion. It is open to everybody in Winchester; there are no guests; everybody, including the onlooker, is a host. This year the responsibility for organizing and directing the tournament devolves upon Ed Williams of 37 Middlesex street as chairman, Whit Gray of 39 Kenwin road, and Bud Nutter of 3 Black Horse terrace. Ed's telephone number is 6-1191-W, Whit's is 6-1930-M, and Bud's is 6-0545-R. Since your entry must reach them before Tuesday night, May 25, when the draw will be made, call them up as soon as you have read this far. Tell them which member of the family will be your partner; put your name down also for the draw doubles and the mixed. The maximum cost to you is thus 75¢ plus a playable set of balls. If Heaven et al cooperate you will discover that you never spent a better week-end at such low cost. Be sure to appear at the courts on time, and make your presence known to those in charge.

The special attraction at the tournament this year will be the awarding for the first time of a permanent town trophy for the family doubles. This trophy has been presented to the Town of Winchester by the Winchester Tennis Association. The winning pair each year will have their names inscribed upon the trophy and will become the holders and displayers thereof for the ensuing year, whereupon it will again be up for open town competition. The family doubles event has always been an outstanding feature of the Spring tournament, and it gives general satisfaction that there should now be available a suitable palladium upon which to preserve in secula the prowess of family pairs. The committee expects to be reasonably liberal in its interpretation of the word family!

The Winchester Tennis Association, which has offered this trophy, consists of a (unfortunately) small group of Winchesterites who each pay to their treasurer a token of one dollar per year in order to preserve a nucleus where the ideals of the game may be nurtured. Before the war the group was able to form tennis which played league matches with neighboring towns and clubs; to date it has been impossible to revivify this league, although the Winchester group could put a team into the field any day. The Association maintains membership in the State and National Associations in order that there may be entry for its members into tournaments operated under the supervision of these other groups. Why not make yourself an "official" tennis fan by joining our Association. Membership is open to all Winchesterites. Inquire about it at the Palmer street courts.

ST. MARY'S MIDGETS LOST

St. Mary's Midgets lost their week-end game to Wakefield, 3-2, despite some fine relief hurling by Gregg. "Mitch" Mawn started on the hill for St. Mary's with Gregg taking over in the 6th. Wakefield found the latter for only one hit in three frames. Paul McManus was a standout in the field.

Besides Mawn, Gregg and McManus, St. Mary's had Pearson, Powers, Kerrigan, McLaughlin, Callahan, Leger, Barry and Reardon in the lineup. The score by innings:

St. Mary's	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

MAIULLARI—TORTALANO

At the Immaculate Conception Church on Saturday afternoon, May 15, Miss Edith E. Tortalano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Tortalano of Lake avenue, Woburn, became the bride of Harold E. Maiullari, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maiullari of Holland street. The pastor, Rev. Fr. Edmund C. Sliney, performed the marriage ceremony at 3 o'clock, and the bridal music was played by the church organist, Mrs. William McGinn. Miss Dorothy Hickey was soloist, singing the Ave Maria and "Just for Today".

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Tortalano had for her honor attendant her sister, Miss Mary Tortalano of Woburn. Another sister, Miss Angelina Tortalano, was one of the four bridesmaids, the others being Miss Phyllis Tortalano, cousin of the bride; Miss Violet Melaragni and Miss Rosalie Maiullari, sister of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a sweetheart neckline outlined in marquisette and lace. Her long matching veil was arranged with a crown of orange blossoms and she carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. The honor maid wore a dress of chartruese having marquisette at the sweetheart neckline. Her headpiece matched her dress and she carried red carnations centered with the same flowers in yellow.

The bridesmaids also carried yellow and red carnations, two wearing dresses of peacock blue and two wearing American Beauty. All wore headpieces to match their gowns.

Leonard M. Ciampa was best man for Mr. Maiullari and the ushers were Laurence Orsillo, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Eugene Mattolo, cousin of the bridegroom; Antonio Tortalano, brother of the bride; and the bride's cousin, Dominic Tortalano. Following the ceremony a reception was held in Waterfield Hall, after which Mr. Maiullari and his bride left on a wedding journey. Upon their return they will live at 5 Border street in Woburn.

The bride attended Woburn High School and has been employed by the Hood Rubber Company in Wintertown. Mr. Maiullari attended Winchester High School and was graduated from Somerville Vocational School in the class of 1943. He is employed as a maintenance man at the Briggs & Cobb leather plant in Winchester.

SEARCH FOR URANIUM IN COLORADO HAS EARLY STORY, SCENIC BACKDROP

The southwest Colorado country, where drilling for uranium deposits is soon to begin, offers a fitting backdrop for the recovery of the mineral that yields atomic energy.

Occupying about 40 square miles, the public lands set aside for use of the Atomic Energy Commission form a little-traveled corner in the spectacular, almost violently colorful Southwest, notes the National Geographic Society.

It was in this vicinity that one of the earliest finds of radioactive ore was made. Obtained near the little settlement of Naturita, in Montrose County, several tons of this uranium-bearing ore were shipped in 1898 to Paris, where they were used by Madame Curie in the extraction of the element radium.

Later, after minor sources of uranium ore were turned up elsewhere, the Colorado workings were abandoned as unprofitable.

Drought Becomes Flood

The districts to be explored in Colorado's Montrose and San Miguel counties reach to the south-east borders of Utah. Off the main highways and railroads, they lie deep in a region in which scenery and weather seem to vie for melodramatic effects.

In the San Juan Mountains that cut off this part of Colorado from the rest of the state, some of the nation's highest peaks reach icy heights above sage and cactus plains whose sun-baked rocks are often too hot to handle. There, wind and sand have created fantastically eroded shapes in sandstone arches and towers, painted through the day's changing lights in all the colors of the rainbow.

When the deep snow melts in the mountains, it may send water raging through dry gullies of drought-plagued communities so suddenly that unwary motorists have been caught in the flood.

Winchester artists appearing in the Annual Musical Presentation of the Arlington Academy of Music, May 26th at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall are: Charles Mirak, Richard Violante, Beverly Snell and Joseph Vemardi.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Spinnola of 1 Everett avenue, announce the birth of a son born Mother's Day, May 9 at the Winchester Hospital. Mrs. Spinnola is the former Patricia Davis of Winchester. It is a coincidence that the 20th grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Carmine Spinnola of 1 Church street, Woburn was born on Mother's Day as their first grandchild. Mrs. Anna Snow, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon W. Jones on Dix street, pinch-hit for the Jones on a Tel-Test radio quiz Tuesday and won herself $35. The quiz-master called the Jones' phone, but neither Vernon nor Vivian was at home. Mrs. Snow answered the phone and the quiz-master put the question, that of identifying the author of a well-known quotation, to her. Mrs. Snow came through with the right answer, "Bobby" Burns, and won the prize. Of course, the Jones could have identified the author had they just been there!

Dr. Daniel C. Bennett of Washington street was among the 50 year members of the Massachusetts Medical Society honored at the organization's annual luncheon Tuesday at the Hotel Statler in Boston. The society will conduct its 107th annual meeting at the Statler next week, May 25, 26, 27. Dr. Bennett has been a member since 1898.

Wednesday morning considerable excitement was caused in the center when two automobiles came together at the intersection of Main and Mt. Vernon streets.

According to the police a Ford sedan being driven north on Main street by George O'Brien, Jr., of 17 Sturges road, Woburn, was in collision with a Ford sedan being driven easterly from Church street across the center into Mt. Vernon street by Francis X. MacFeeley of 207 Washington street.

MacFeeley's car was knocked toward the Edison Light office and finally stopped with its front end on the sidewalk in front of the store. Two women, one crossing the street from Hevey's Pharmacy to the northerly side of Mt. Vernon street, had to step lively to avoid being hit.

MISS DAVIS REQUESTS RETIREMENT

After nearly a half century of teaching Winchester pupils from grade one through grade eight, Miss Mercy Jane Davis has requested retirement from teaching to become effective at the close of this school year.

In 1901 Miss Davis began her Winchester teaching after two years' experience in the schools of her home town, Amesbury, following her graduation from the State Teachers' College at Salem. In the next decade she managed to teach in every grade, reaching her present status as teacher of history to eighth graders at the Wadleigh School in 1913.

When Principal Joseph Heffon was granted leave of absence during World War I, Miss Davis served as acting principal, a position which she filled with honor for two years.

During that war period she was also head of the Americanization classes, a position which she retained for three years.

Now, as she looks fondly back over her teaching years, Miss Davis can recall the classroom performances of Winchester mothers and fathers whose children also benefited by her expert and kind teaching.

Upon retirement Miss Davis will return to her ancestral home in Amesbury which she proudly points out has been in the possession of her family since 1650.

Thursday of this week Miss Davis's colleagues gave a dinner in her honor at the Winchester Country Club. At that time she was presented with a radio and other items to mark the occasion. In presenting a sheaf of personal testimonials from her fellow teachers, Dr. Forbes Norris referred to it as her diploma Magna Cum Laude.

EN KA STREET FAIR

Workers Serve Crowds in Sweaters, Heavy Coats and Galoshes?

The En Ka Street Fair, the annual event eagerly anticipated by old and young of the community, took place last Saturday on the Town Hall grounds. Club members and their many friends, weather-conscious for many days, hoped and prayed for a sunny day, but on Saturday morning the rain poured as it has seldom poured before, even in this soggy Spring, and weary workers who had hopelessly set up their booths outside in the rain on Friday, moved their wares into the Town Hall. However, the skies cleared at noon and by four o'clock the sun made a welcome appearance, though the air was cool. Quite a few fur coats were in evidence, and sweaters, heavy coats and even galoshes were a necessity all day.

The theme of the 1948 Fair was a Pioneer Village. Each booth had a western name, and the costumes worn by the workers included colorful aprons and scarves, dungees and plaid shirts.

Much credit and praise goes to Mrs. Franklin A. Flanders, chairman of the Street Fair. Through months of work and planning with her general committee, overseeing all arrangements of the various booth managers and co-operating with the many professional workers, Mrs. Flanders was poised, efficient and most generous in her praise and appreciation of all who helped.

On her general committee were Mrs. Harold N. Stevens as secretary; Mrs. Marion R. Clark, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence S. Luitweiler, Jr., donations; Mrs. Theodore E. Chilcott, properties; Mrs. Clark W. Collins, costumes; Mrs. Morris B. Kerr, publicity; Mrs. Donald F. Connors, midday; Mrs. Forrest L. Fitman, president of the club, who aided and advised in many ways.

Through the co-operation of Mr. Fred Felmet, supervisor of music, the Winchester High School band made a striking appearance at 11 o'clock to open the Fair. From then on, the grounds were thronged, the crowds never thinning until after 11:30 that night. Booths were quickly sold out and the food and soft drinks disappeared like magic. The midway did a thriving business, the ever-popular Ferris wheel and flying horses had standing lines, and the lunch bar sold gallons of steaming coffee to shivering customers until midnight. Afternoon tea was well attended, as was the delicious supper served at the Baptist Church hall, which was most generously turned over to the club when the rain made it impossible to keep to the original plan of serving it in the Town Hall. Winchester Boy Scouts, under the direction of Mr. MacFeeley, were busy all day keeping the grounds as clean as possible, while our efficient police force kept law and order, and, on occasion, lent a helping hand wherever needed. There were also firemen on duty, and it is to the credit of all that there were no accidents to mar the day. Another hard-working soul was Mr. Lee Mellett, the custodian, whose good nature always prevails during strenuous times, and without whose help it would be a difficult affair indeed.

CELEBRATED 59TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hamilton celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary last Sunday, May 23, with a small gathering of relatives and friends, at the home for Agel on Mt. Vernon street.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

The Mystic Glee Club, directed by William Ellis Weston and with Mary Louise Wood as accompanist, gave their annual spring concert last Friday evening in the high school auditorium, presenting the following program:

Händel, "Let Their Celestial Visions" (Tonerma; Silenus, "Vale of Tuoni"; Logan, "Lift Thine Eyes"; arr. by Baldwin; Chutleigh-Candish, "The Song of the Jolly Roger"; Protheroe, "Shadow March"; Schubert, "My Sylvan Nest"; Buck, "On the Sea"; Chantey, "Shenandoah"; arr. by Bartholomew; Porter, "Begin The Beguine"; arr. by Howarth; Spirituals, "Ready When He Comes" and "Roll, Jordan, Roll"; arr. by Bartholomew; Romberg, "Deep in My Heart Dear"; arr. by Scottson; and Romberg, "Serenade".

Assisting artists were the Mystic Four, male quartet, comprising Erskine N. White, Jr., 1st tenor; William M. Hopkins, 2nd tenor; Thomas Worthen, baritone; and Albert H. Sweet, Jr., bass; and John E. Gilbert, pianist; all members of the Glee Club's singing personnel.

The Glee Club sang to its usual large and cordial audience. The hall was full even on a bad night and the enthusiastic applause throughout the program was the best sort of proof that the audience liked what it heard.

This was the first local concert under Mr. Weston's direction and perhaps for this reason the opening numbers were a bit uneven and noticeably poor in their climactic releases. There were one or two premature entrances, particularly in the number by Dudley Buck, and generally the singers seemed not too sure of themselves.

Very probably the club and their new conductor are not yet completely in rapport and the mistakes apparent over the first half of the program may well be charged off to nervousness. Certainly the performance improved greatly after intermission, and it should be said at once that the club's best singing last Friday was the best of its career, insofar as this reviewer has heard.

Mr. Weston has greatly improved the club's tone production. At times when he and his singers were clicking their performance made the club's top ranking in its class in the New England Federation entirely credible. Particularly in the softer passages the men sang with a beauty and breadth of tone, phrasing, and style that eclipsed any of their previous efforts here. Even their thinnest, most sustained pianissimos had real musical quality, and there was seldom any noticeable deviation from pitch, despite the fact that it is as hot as hades on that stage with its hot water tank underneath, and the program was vocally a taxing one. It was particularly taxing for the tenors, lacking as they were five of their number. In view of this a noticeable lack of volume in the upper voices was to be expected.

Individual voices still stand out in the louder singing, but considering the time improvement already accomplished, it is safe to say this noticeable fault will be soon corrected.

The club followed its uncertain singing of the opening numbers with a truly superb performance of "Vale of Tuoni" by Sibelius, surely as fine singing as any one could ask for, and the best this reviewer has yet heard from the group.

The bass section scored heavily in this number and again in Baldwin's arrangement of the number by Logan, the basses echoed the tenors with a fine head voice which has not been apparent in previous concerts.

Regarded as one of the fastest-growing construction companies in New England, the Volpe Construction Company is currently engaged in erecting new units, involving an estimated expenditure of over four million dollars, for the Beth Israel Hospital of Boston.

Congressman Angier L. Goodwin of the 8th Congressional District paid tribute to Mr. Volpe's achievements and to his outstanding record of service to his country and to his community. ## CENTRAL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

At the annual meeting of the Central Mothers' Association held on Tuesday, May 25th, a question was asked regarding the policy of the Winchester School Department concerning the notification of parents when a child is exposed to a contagious disease in the classroom.

Dr. William D. Barone, the School Physician, states that, in accordance with the rulings of the State Board of Health, notification is sent to the parents of the child in the same class with a child who has developed one of the following diseases: whooping cough, poliomyelitis, meningitis, scarlet fever, or diphtheria. These are so-called "restrictive" cases. With these diseases not only are the patients subject to certain restrictions, but also all non-immune children in the patient's family are excluded from school during a possible incubation period, and non-immune classmates of the patient are inspected daily by the School Physician for a period of 7 days with throat cultures taken when necessary.

WALTER HERBERT DOTTEN

Walter Herbert Dotten, former Selectman and widely known resident of Winchester, died early Tuesday morning, May 25, at his home, 10 Allen street, after several months of failing health. He came from a family long identified with town affairs, his father, the late William T. Dotten, having been for many years superintendent of the Water Department, and his uncle, the late Thomas Dotten, having been one of Winchester's out time police officers.

Mr. Dotten was born in Winchester July 26, 1876, son of William T. and Ellen O. (Oulton) Dotten. He was educated in the Winchester schools and on June 25, 1902, married Grace Bond Carter of this town. During his early married life he was a foreman at the watch-dial plant of J. H. Winn's Sons in the Highlands.

Later he became one of the town's early automobile agents, holding the agency for Chandler cars for some time. During World War II he worked as a machinist at the Charlestown Navy Yard. Following the completion of his service there his health forced him to retire.

Mr. Dotten took an active interest in civic affairs. He was a member of the Finance Committee from 1913 to 1916, and was for seven years a Selectman, serving from 1923 until 1930, and acting as chairman of the Board in 1925. He was collector of taxes from Oct. 6, 1924, until March 2, 1925. Flags on the Common and town buildings were displayed at half staff in his honor.

Peter P. Sorokin, son of Prof. and Mrs. Pitirim A. Sorokin of Cliff street, was one of 11 young men living or studying in Massachusetts who have been awarded Harvard College National Scholarships. Over 500 of the Nation's outstanding high school seniors and recent graduates completed this year for these scholarships, which are established in 1934 and which are awarded to men of exceptional ability and promise who have distinguished themselves as leaders in extra-curricular as well as in scholastic activities.

The purpose of the scholarships is to enable deserving young men, not only to go to Harvard but to continue their high academic and personal achievement there.

Besides his high scholastic achievements at Winchester high school, Sorokin has played tackle on the school football team and run on the varsity track team. He graduates from Winchester High this year.

WINCHESTER DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

At the May Board meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association in the Red Cross room, Wadleigh School, Mrs. William Kugler presided with reports from Mrs. Henry E. Moffette, Mrs. Raymond Holdsworth, and Mrs. Guy Livingston on the Mental Hygiene Institute in Boston May 13 and 14. Miss Alice Peterson, R. N., reported 130 patients under care this month, 73 of which were new cases.

Mental Hygiene Institute
A number of Nursing Association board members attended the Mental Hygiene Institute in the Gardner Auditorium of the State House last week, and in her comprehensive report, Mrs. Moffette, Education Chairman, outlined the topics presented by key speakers on this challenging subject.

Miss Frances A. Thompson, R. N., Chief Supervisor of Psychiatric Nursing, Massachusetts Department of Mental Health, presided, and drew a rather dark picture of mental health problems because of the great number of patients, the small number of clinics, hospitals, doctors and nurses who are both fitted for and interested in the care of the mentally ill. Too, the State lacks funds for such a program. "The patient in a mental hospital is an individual, with a mother, father and family, and as such he must be acceptable to larger numbers of people upon his release," she stated.

Mrs. Moffette heard Dr. Clifton T. Perkins, Commissioner, Massachusetts Department of Public Health, speaking on the recent developments in mental health programs which aim to prevent mental ill health by providing assistance to clinics dealing with the problems of children, sympathetic service to training schools for delinquent children, service to courts, supervisory service to provide understanding nurses and attendants, calling regular practitioners to mental hospitals and clinics so that specialists may be freed for more difficult duties. But Dr. Perkins stressed the one great need today: "that the public become fully aware of this mental health problem."

Mr. John Lobb, Ph. D., Professor of Economics and Sociology at Mt. Holyoke, spoke on "The Family in the Culture of Today, showing how the family is beset in confusion as evidenced by the divorce rate, declining birth rate, crimes, etc.

Dr. Henry Work, Psychiatric Service Advisor and Director of Mental Health Unit, U. S. Children's Bureau in Washington, spoke on "Pre-Natal Influence and Early Childhood which affect the adjustment of the individual, and urged 'help in bringing the child up to life harmoniously in a changing environment.'"

Mrs. Holdsworth Reports
Mrs. Holdsworth reported on the afternoon Mental Hygiene session of Thursday, May 13, when Ethel Luffis, R. N., President of the Mass. Organization for Public Health Nursing, presided, with Dr. Clarence Cloutier from the New England Home for Little Wanderers as first speaker. Dr. Cloutier, from the wealth of her own experience at the Home, explained that "any behavior is understood if one knows the background and causes of it," the child must feel needed as well as trained.

The afternoon session was marked by an interesting symposium on "Community Resources; Their Policies and Functions in a Mental Health Program", with Elizabeth Hull, R. N., Boston University School of Nursing, as the leader, and the following participants: Dorothy Grant, R. N., Boston Floating Hospital; Halldor Albert A.

Goldman, Temple Israel; Francis J. Daly, Head of the Juvenile Adjustment Division, Boston School Department; Francis Marley, M. S. P. C. C., Dr. Ella Prescott Cahill, Mass. Department of Mental Health; Donald Donahue, R. N., Longview Farm; Justice John W. MacLeod, District Court of Chelsea.

Community Council Sessions
Mrs. Moffette and Mrs. Guy Livingston attended the recent Community Council meeting of all the social organizations, councils, and hospitals, with The Place of the Community Fund in the Postwar as the main theme, and three two delegates reported on this meeting at the Board session last Friday.

Reports were also read by Miss Peterson on the recent Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's Nutrition Course, and on the recent Mass. Safety Meeting at the Hotel Statler, with Dr. Waldo Gettling, chairman. Mrs. Olive Redmond's report on nutrition was read by Miss Peterson, and in her report she told of the progress made in the last 30 years in our knowledge of foods and their values.

MRS. ROGERS TO DESIGNATE MIDSHIPMEN AND CADETS

Examinations in Lowell Monday, July 12

Edith Nourse Rogers, member of Congress for the 5th district, has been notified by the Navy and Army Departments that she may designate from her district, which includes Winchester, three candidates for cadet in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., and two candidates for cadet in the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., all to enter during the summer of 1949. She will also designate nine alternate candidates for admission to Annapolis and six alternates to West Point.

To this end Mrs. Rogers has arranged for an unofficial district-wide examination to be prepared by the Civil Service Commission and held under their supervision at Lowell High School July 12, 1948, at 9 a. m.

The three and one-half hour examination will consist of vocabulary and reading, understanding of spatial relations, and algebra. The highest men in rank in this examination will be subsequently examined by an official United States medical examiner so that the highest, both in mental and physical qualifications can finally be selected by Mrs. Rogers as principals and alternates.

These candidates in turn will be notified by the Navy and Army of their appointment, after which they must report for official examination before a board of Army and Navy officers.

Candidates must be citizens of the United States and residents of the Fifth Congressional district for the past 10 years. For Annapolis they must have reached their 17th, but not their 21st birthday April 1, 1949. For West Point they must have reached their 17th, but not their 22nd birthday July 1, 1949.

Any man who has served not less than one year honorably in the Armed Forces of the United States will be eligible up to 23 years of age April 1, 1949, for appointment to Annapolis, and up to 24 April 1, 1949, for appointment to West Point.

Complete information about the examination will be sent upon application to Edith Nourse Rogers, Member of Congress, 1725 New House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Those desiring to take the examination July 12 should furnish Mrs. Rogers with their names, addresses, schools and length of time they have resided in the Fifth District as soon as possible, but not later than June 4.

STREETON SWIMS AS SIMONDS SCORES

What started out as a sensational ship race between Stretch Simonds in "Sinbad" and Jack Streeton in "Wild Hare" turned into a runaway for Simonds when Streeton swamped. Nearing the end of the first lap, these two boats already far ahead of the rest, were approaching the Winchester marker side by side. Suddenly something let go on Streeton's speedster, and in a twinkling, he and his capable crew, Mert Ober, were rushing the swimming season, and the "Wild Hare" had a barren boom.

With Streeton taken care of Don Simonds needed only to sail the course to win quite handsly. John Pownis brought in the "Pony" second, but only after a bitterly contested battle with Bart Sullivan. And Mel Moller just managed to hang on long enough to nose out Ruddy Long for fourth.

Sunday's race was the first official point score race of the season, and it was sailed in a terrific race. It was a tough break for Streeton to come a cropper in his initial start because he is one of the chief contenders for Simonds' crown. However, there are plenty of races to come, and if Sunday's first lap was any indication of how dark is going to sail, Simonds will have to extend himself to keep the cup.

TENNIS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Some 30 Winchester boys and girls (grades 5 to 12) have already signified their desire to be assigned to tennis sponsors. Ken Mills, strongly supported by the Tournament Committee, is hard at work arranging a schedule, but owing to the long holiday week-end and the Spring tournament things are going to be delayed for a few days. If all goes well, every boy and girl who sent in a postal card ought to hear from a sponsor around June 3 or 4. If you don't, then contact Ken Mills immediately.

Town Treasurer E. Abbot Braille has set ahead the day for paying town employees from Wednesday to Tuesday, primarily to assist the local banks which close at noon on Wednesday. So far the "Star" has heard no kicks from the town help!

HARVARD SQUARE A. C. 21, WINCHESTER ALL- AMERICAS 18

In one of the most outstanding upsets in years, the curtain was rung down on the local 1947-48 volleyball season last Thursday evening at the First Congregational Church.

The final game of the evening found the veteran Winchester All-Americans opposed by the visiting Harvard Square A. C. In view of the great reputation of the local aggregation, before game time, the Cambridge club were practically ready to admit defeat.

The visitors were led by Old Ty Young, ably assisted by Young Ty Young, occasionally called "Tuck," both former residents here. These players are not to be confused by the older generation with the famous pitchers of the same name who sported Boston regalia in those days when the Red Sox were in the first division. Remember?

To the surprise of the spectators, the Cambridge club rushed to an early 15 to 5 lead. Here the game was temporarily halted and a formal protest was entered by the All-Americans. It was claimed that this lead was due to illegal tactics, that the opponents were intentionally pulling the net down six inches to permit their low returns to go over and that the Cambridge forward line was reaching illegally two feet over the net into All-American territory on snap shots, causing damage to opponents' eyes and heads.

These irregularities were immediately disclaimed completely and the game resumed.

Possibly affected by guilty consciences in refuting these illegal tactics, the Cambridge attack now collapsed completely. Paced by brilliant kills on the part of the home club stars, Dr. Moses and Otto Schaefer, the score was eventually tooled up at 17 all. Here the game was again temporarily halted and a formal protest was entered this time by the Harvard Square A. C. It was claimed that the game had been tied by illegal tactics, that the home team were counting their single points by tens instead of ones. This charge was denied as ridiculous and play was resumed.

The slugging Cambridge club now put on the pressure and with phenomenally lucky shots ran the count out at 21-18. It was noticed in the closing minutes that Abbe and Atkinson of the All-Americans were tiring rapidly, possibly due to their sterling efforts in the previous rally to tie up the contest. As both of these players had taken training trips to Florida this winter, perhaps they should have stayed longer. It is reported that they had returned early, having been misled by information that there was to be a spring in New England this year.

The losers missed keenly the services of Superintendent of Schools, Forbes Norris, who felt his appearance in such fast vires might jeopardize his amateur standing.

After the contest, Capt. Young of the winners was heard to say that a cheer for the losers might be in order, but as this was not forthcoming, it was assumed that the victors were completely exhausted by their exertions in this major upset.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gillett were in New York last week attending the tenth anniversary of the ordination of their son, the Rev. Gordon E. Gillett.

NEW ENGLAND THE PLACE TO LIVE AND WORK

RED CROSS ANNUAL MEETING AT MUSIC HALL

The Music Hall on Bacon street was the scene of the annual meeting of the Winchester Chapter, American Red Cross on Thursday evening, May 20. Speeches, announcements of new officers, music by Mary Ranton Wilbur at the organ, and refreshments provided by the Red Cross Chapter Service made the evening an interesting and pleasant occasion.

A large group of Red Cross members heard an inspiring address by Mr. John D. Shuart, Assistant Manager in Charge of Programs in the North Atlantic Area of American National Red Cross, whose topic was "The Red Cross in the Post War World". Mr. Shuart spoke particularly of the Home Service program which carries on in time of peace, the Blood Donor program, and the part played by the Red Cross in disasters, large and small. Mr. Shuart stressed the importance of an understanding of the spirit and work of the Red Cross on the part of the American public and pointed out that work for the Red Cross and similar agencies is valuable to each of us in that it gives an opportunity for personal service.

Special appreciation went to Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols for her devoted service to the Winchester chapter of the Red Cross. Mrs. Nichols has been a member of the chapter Board for fourteen years, has served as staff assistant for nine years, and has made innumerable knitted garments for the production quotas. Mr. James S. Allen, Chairman of the Chapter, paid tribute to Mrs. Nichols and announced that she has been awarded honorary life membership in the Winchester Red Cross.

Mrs. Violet Chiarandini expressed the gratitude of the Chapter to Mr. Allen who is retiring after six years of faithful service as Chairman and presented to him a gift from the members of the Red Cross Board.

The Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Mr. Ben R. Schreiber, presented the following slate of officers for the coming year:

Chairman - Mr. Raymond C. Strachan
Vice Chairman - Mr. Vincent P. Ambrose
Secretary - Mrs. James H. Murray

GIRL SCOUTS

The Advisory Board of the Winchester Council of Girl Scouts met last week at the Girl Scouts office for discussion of the proposed changes in the Camp and the cabin site. The name of Mr. William E. Beggs, prominent Winchester lawyer was proposed and accepted for membership. Also the name of John A. Volpe president of the Volpe Construction Co., was approved for membership on the Camp Building Committee. We are happy to have these two men serve Scouting with us. Members of the Advisory Board present were Mrs. James George Cary, Clifford Hall, James Willing, Francis Parsons, and Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, Director. Also Messrs. Bradford Hersey, Richard Johnson, James Willing, Vincent Ambrose, and John Joy. Mrs. Stanley Howe and Mrs. James Campbell were unable to be present.

All the friends of the Girl Scouts will be interested to know that, during the recent Cookie sale, about 3,200 boxes of cookies were sold. Mrs. Vincent Ambrose, chairman, reports. The girls worked hard, as did the committee of mothers who assisted Mrs. Ambrose. This committee included Mrs. Mahala Dodge and Mrs. Charles Sweetser of the Wyman School; Mrs. Melvin Sears of Mystic; Mrs. Charles Wilson of Nonantum; Mrs. Richard Cunningham, Washington School; Mrs. Wabbe Dade, Lincoln School; Mrs. Carl Morse for Junior High School. These mothers superintended the distribution of the sales books and the cookies and we are grateful to them for their fine work.

At the Council Meeting last week in Lynn Hall, where Mrs. Ambrose fine report was read, other committees gave their reports too. As a fitting climax to reading her report, Mrs. Cole D. Neff was presented a "Thank You" Badge by Mrs. George Cary, Commissioner, as a token of appreciation of Mrs. Neff's work on the Camp Committee. We shall miss her very much, but feel sure Lois will make new friends down in South America and as usual, find much to do. We all wish her and her family bon voyage!

Mrs. William Bond of Cambridge spoke that night on "Your Girl and the Out-of-Doors". Between her inspiring enthusiasm and the movies shown by Brad Hersey (with comments by Mrs. Hersey, . . . leader of the Starry Troop No. 1) I think that many of us privately vowed to give our own troops more out-of-door activities next year! Our thanks to the Herses for showing the Day Camp pictures and those of the Hostel trip.

Don't forget the "Girl Scouts' Open" on June 4th, and the Brownie Mural Gras on June 5th!

We'd also like to remind Girl Scouts, who play on marching in the parade on Memorial Day, to assemble at the Town Hall. Those who intend to march to Calvary Cemetery should be there at 8:30 a. m., while those who will march to Wildwood should be at the Town Hall at 10:00 a. m., sharp. We should remind you that you may march only one of the parades . . . either Wildwood or Calvary.

Three ardent Winchester disciples of the immortal Isaac Walton, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, pastor of the First Congregational Church; George T. Davidson, former chairman for many years of the Board of Park Commissioners; and Charles A. Gleason, perennial chairman of the Board of Cemetery Commissioners, returned the first of the week from a fishing trip at Moosehead Lake in Maine. Unofficial and incomplete reports indicate that the luck, like the weather, was none too good.

The money raised from the sale of Christmas Seals was allocated to various projects. This money can be spent only in ways which are approved from a public health standpoint. It is felt that several valuable contributions have been made to the town along these lines. (Money was set aside for scholarships in the event that any nurse or teacher working in Winchester wishes to further her education along health lines. Because the committee felt that interesting, informative books on health would benefit school children and library patrons, a sum was set aside to purchase these. Provision was also made to grant scholarships to local tuberculosis patients for training programs.)

In addition a sum of money was set aside for special projects which money will be used for one or more of the following services: to provide a part time instructor for a course in household management for women patients in Middlesex County Sanatorium; to continue to provide ex-patients with rehabilitation services; to purchase needed equipment and material for rehabilitation projects with the patients in the sanatorium, Rutland Training Center or at home; to contribute to Rutland Training Center for general scholarships and to help provide chest x-ray surveys for communities with inadequate funds.

Workers from the Middlesex Health Association will aid the Winchester Tuberculosis Committee in carrying out these plans during the coming year.

WINCHESTER GIRLS BEAT MELROSE

Winchester High School girls softball team beat Melrose girls, 12-11, on Ginn Field Tuesday afternoon, with Morris and O'Leary pitching.

Peg Holmes failed to hit safely for the first time this year when she popped to the pitcher her first time up. She then hit four straight bingles including a triple, "Marcie" Knowlton also tripped along the first base line and both "Dee" Barrett, playing despite her recent automobile injury, and Lynn Atkins bashed out doubles. The locals' fielding game was not so hot, which accounted for many of the Melrose tallies.

K. OF C. SPORTS NIGHT

Winchester Council, 210, Knights of Columbus, put on an interesting sports night Tuesday evening in the council chambers, the affair being in the nature of a quiz-program with several well known sports figures answering questions shot at them by council members and their guests.
Winchester's "Jerry" Nason, sports editor of the Boston Globe; "Al" Priest, middleweight boxer, and his manager, Johnny Buckley; Johnny Pote of the Boston Yanks; Joe Tansey, athletic director at Wentworth; and Henry Knowlton, Winchester High School's athletic director, were among those who spoke briefly and answered numerous questions. There was a professional entertainment program.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

As usual the spirituels were well done and the introduction of the two selections which the club sang at the recent Federation contest in Boston helped to bolster the latter part of the program which was not too strong.

"Swedish Serenade" was done after the spirituels and the Federation prize song, Williams' arrangement of "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace", closed the concert, being done as an extra after the Rumberg numbers. Both were sung very effectively, and Mr. Weston wisely omitted the club's usually sung theme song after the prize song. This theme song has often proved an anticlimax after some finely-sung closing number.

Mr. Weston conducted with authority and with an obvious intent to let you hear the musical features of the various songs as they had been arranged for male voices. Never satisfied with a routine reading, he asked a lot of his singers and when he got what he wanted the performance was exceptionally good. He was careful, too, to insist that both the club and their gifted pianist, Mrs. Wood, should share frequently in the applause.

Mrs. Wood's accompaniments, what few she had to play, were as usual unobtrusive and a pleasure to listen to. She was equally good to look at as she sat quietly at the piano during the singing of the unaccompanied numbers.

So much has already been said and written about the Mystic Glee Club's talented young quartet, that whatever we could say here would be gliding the lily. They are good! Make no mistake about it! No assisting artist, not even the gifted John Herick, has been so popular, and despite their generosity kept Friday, the boys could have kept on indefinitely. For a top job with "Minnie Lee" with Bill Hopkins' sweet tenor heard in the solo melody and the two Cohen songs, "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and "She's a Grand Old Rag" with "Skip" White's acrobatic push-up for the final high one, "Tumblin' War", then contributed an incidental solo that was very pleasing and the bass leads of the towering "Al" Sweet were done with just the right humorous touch and in excellent voice. You don't hear a low bass like his too often these days.

Rounding out the assisting talent was John E. Gilbert, another member of the club, who offered a mighty good piano solo that combined popular numbers like "Star Dust", "April Showers", "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and other favorites in original arrangement. The audience liked him, and he too had to do extras. The club is blessed in having such talent right in its membership.

AIDING CRIPPLED WAKEFIELD GIRL

Eastern Middlesex Lodge, 1428, Enai B'ith, largest Jewish service organization, of which Mr. Morris L. Snyder of Hillcrest Parkway has been for the past five years treasurer, is conducting a drive to raise funds for an expensive operation to restore to full effectiveness the left hand of Barbara Colucci, Wakefield girl, who was injured recently when a blackboard fell upon her while she was engaged in a relay game during a meeting of her troop of Girl Scouts.

The fingers of Barbara's left hand were shattered and pieces of slate driven into her arm. Eastern Middlesex Lodge has already raised $523.00, to which the executive committee of the organization added $15.00. Any resident of Winchester interested in assisting this worthy cause may leave a contribution at Mr. Snyder's business establishment, McLaughlin's Shoe Store, on Thompson street.

"NORWAY IN WINCHESTER"

With dance and song, food and fun, the committee in charge is bringing the spirit of Norway into the Epiphany Parish House next Wednesday evening with their "Norwegian Night" supper and entertainment to benefit the burned schoolhouse of the "adopted" Halsen School at Kvalsund, Norway.

Mrs. Georges Houle, head of the committee, is announcing today details of the program, which will be in charge of Toastmaster Ingvald Hockmann of Rindge Tech, a native of Bergen, Norway.

The smorgasbord supper is under the expert direction of Mailame Ola of The Ola, Norwegian restaurant on Currier street, Boston; it promises a variety of tempting appetizers and hearty satifiers.

Madame Ola, known to many as Mrs. Lucie K. Frolich, is highly regarded for her vocal reputation also, and she will star in the entertainment which follows the supper when she will sing Norwegian folk songs, dressed in native costume. Sharing the spotlight with her will be a group of Norwegian-Americans who will give a dance demonstration of the simple country dances. They will be led by Miss Gertrude Samille, the musician from Arlington.

The most recent sound and color movies of Norway, loaned by the "Norwegian Travel Bureau," will bring these attending up to date on the interest and beauty of this friendly land, and in addition to this feature the evening will also offer an auction of Norwegian handwork, and the raffle of a big and luscious ham.

Members of Mrs. Houle's committee not previously mentioned are: Mrs. John P. Anderson of Highland avenue, Mr. and Mrs. George Connor, Prospect street; Mrs. R. J. Dickman, Grove street; Mrs. Charles Nichols, Jefferson road; Mrs. Alden Symmes, Ridgefield road; Mrs. Frederick B. Withington, Mystic Valley Parkway; and Mrs. Gordon Allen of Medford.

"SEE YOURSELF IN WORLD TRADE"

Have you seen the display on "World Trade" in Hovey's window? It tells the story of what imports mean to our economic well-being. You will see that they are essential in keeping our standard of living high and providing needed materials for our factories. Clevary arranged by Mrs. Antonio Mezzacappa and her committee on International Relations in the League of Women Voters, the display provides excellent material in support of the renewal of the Trade Agreement Act.

The present Act will expire on June 12th. Legislation renewing it must pass both Houses of Congress. Since it was first passed in 1934 it has been periodically renewed and has received increasing support from both the Republican and Democratic parties. Reciprocal Trade Agreements were endorsed by both party platforms in 1944. Now is the time to let your representatives know how you feel about it.

They contribute to the prosperity of the United States by helping us to market our goods abroad. They increase our national wealth by bringing us goods of other countries in payment. We must be willing to buy the goods of our creditor nations so that they will have a way to repay us. World Trade must work both ways; if we do not buy, we can't sell.

STANFORD STUDENTS APPRAISED COMIC BOOKS

Three Stanford University graduate students, who recently conducted surveys into the comic-book reading habits of junior and senior high school pupils in Palo Alto, South San Francisco, and Mountain View, have returned the verdict that comic-books are not so harmful as many a harassed parent has supposed. They found the comic-book reading while spread, but not a major time-consuming recreational activity. Animal cartoons and fun and humor books were the favorites, fewer being read in Palo Alto, a college community, than in the industrial city and the rural community.

In general, pupils of the least intelligence, poorest scholarship and citizenship, and lowest reading ability read only a few more comic-books than those at the superior end of the scale. The appeal of the books in all three communities was found to be the children's liking for the animal characters, the lively and humorous adventures, and such factors as slapstick comedy in pictorial presentation. Boys read more such books than girls and are slower to lose the habit. However, both boys and girls read fewer comic magazines as they progress through the school grades.

In Palo Alto 43 per cent read less than one comic-book a week; 26 per cent read one or two; 16 per cent read three or four; 15 per cent, five or more. The champions were two seventh-grade boys and one ninth-grade girl who read fifty a week. One of the researchers concluded significantly: "Those who would criticize this relatively harmless form of recreation should be prepared to supply a more constructive pastime before they take definite action."

The California Congress of Parents and Teachers requested and partially financed the survey because they wanted to know the extent of comic-book reading, the basis of its appeal, and the relationship of comic-book reading to general reading habits, reading ability, intelligence, scholastic achievement, and school citizenship.

KIDNIE WEDGED BEHIND PIPES

Wednesday morning, shortly before 10 o'clock Mrs. Edmund Olson of 307 Washington street notified Fire Headquarters that her small daughter had wedged herself behind some pipes in the kitchen and could not extricate herself.

The firemen responded with Officer William E. Cassidy of the police department, a juvenile expert. They found the little girl stuck fast between the gas stack and the water pipes behind the stove, it being necessary to spread the pipes to release her. The firemen praised the child's conduct while they were working to get her from the trap into which she had gotten herself.

K. U. F. C. NOTES

P.G.K. Charles Haggerty has been appointed chairman of a committee to run a Ladies Night. Other members of the committee will be advised of their appointment and the date of the first committee meeting, by mail. This event is being looked forward to by the wives and ladies of our brother knights. More on this after the committee meets.

P.G.K. Henry Murray and our Chaplain Father Slaney, are completing arrangements for a Holy Hour for K. of C. members, their families and friends, to be held on Friday, June 4, at 7:45 to 8:45 p.m. at the Immaculate Conception Church. All brothers are urged to arrange with their families to attend together this Holy Hour.

Our softball team got under way to a good start at their first game held Tuesday night by holding their opponent to a tie game. Manager Andy Capone reports that we should have won the game.

The Sports Night held Tuesday, was a huge success. At "Red" Priest, well known Cambridge and Boston boxer, together with his manager, Johnny Buckley gave a very interesting account of the boxing game. Johnny Poto, star back of the Boston Yanks was a most interesting speaker. Jay Tanzy, athletic coach at Wentworth Institute and Henry Knowlton, athletic director at Winchester High School, both were delighted with questions of sporting interest. "Jerry" Nason, sports editor of the Boston Globe, was well received by the audience. Jerry developed a question and answer period and this went on for the remainder of the evening. The audience was very much sport minded and Jerry enjoyed answering the inquiries. Eddie and Charles Danahue of Lowell were tops with their entertainment.

WINCHESTER SMITH COLLEGE CLUB

At this annual meeting, final reports will be read, results of the annual plant sale and luncheon will be announced, and new officers will be elected.

Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, vice president of the club, is making all arrangements for this final picnic meeting, and the executive board will act as hostesses: Mrs. Neil H. Barlow, president; Mrs. Frederick J. Walsh, secretary; Mrs. Percy A. Goodale, Jr., treasurer; and Mrs. James Hoty, chairman of the scholarship committee.

THE SECURITY LOAN

The Security Loan, sponsored by the U. S. Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Department, is the first peacetime campaign to sell Savings Bonds as we sold the well-known war bonds.

The voluntary purchase of the popular Series E, F, and G United States Savings Bonds will materially assist the Treasury Department to properly manage the National Debt, as well as assisting in the control of inflation by taking money out of the competitive spending stream.

We, individually and as a Nation, must preserve the integrity of the dollar and, economically, show the world that our democratic management is the very best.

The Series E, F and G bonds may be purchased through your own payroll savings plan or from any of the local banks. The post office is limited to the cash sale of Series E bonds only.

The Treasury Department has announced the appointment of Mr. Vincent C. Ambrose, Asst. Treasurer of the Winchester Trust Co., as chairman of the Winchester Security Loan Committee. Others serving on the local committee are Mrs. Hazel Curry, Mrs. Ruth E. Hilton, Dr. Forbes H. Norris, Mr. John McIntyre and Mr. P. J. Foley.

Remember, America's security is YOUR Security.

In this same period the activities of the church have been enlarged to include study groups and work groups for all ages and financial pledges to the church have increased substantially over the past year.

SUSPECTS FOUND NOT GUILTY

The two young men picked up by Officers Winthrop Palmer and James F. Noonan on the morning of May 13, at 1:30, were found not guilty of having stolen goods in their possession when their case was finally disposed of Monday morning in the District Court at Woburn.

The pair were picked up by the police after a chase from Herriek street to the Telephone Exchange on Washington street and held when they could give no satisfactory explanation of where they got an auto radio which was in their car. Another car which was with the one in which the young men were riding when the police first spotted it, eluded the officers during the chase. This car was found to have been stolen.

Investigation disclosed the fact that both young men had interesting police records, and one of them was found to have given a fictitious name to the local authorities.

When they first appeared in court their case was continued for a week until last Thursday. At that time it was continued until Monday for disposition. Monday the court found the young men not guilty when the prosecution's chief witness was unable to identify the radio found in the young men's car as one stolen from his machine. The young man, who gave the fictitious name, was not released by the authorities, the Charlestown police wanting him on two default warrants, one charging larceny and the other, taking an automobile without permission. He was turned over to the Charlestown authorities by the Winchester police.

WINCHESTER MAN HEADS JUNIOR C. C.

Elliot J. Friedman, 31 year old Winchester and Marlborough construction man, has been elected president of the Boston Junior Chamber of Commerce which now boasts an active membership of approximately 250 of the city's future leaders.

Friedman is a graduate of the Harvard Law School and during the war served as a lieutenant in the navy. In accepting office at the annual meeting held Tuesday evening, he expressed the opinion that Boston, with the help of its young men, faces a brighter future than even its illustrious past.

Vice presidents elected include Foster D. DuCharme, of Arlington; Robert G. Paine, Jr., of Brookline, and F. Reed Estabrook, Jr., of Dedham. Charles H. Pratt was re-elected secretary, Milton J. Smith was named treasurer and Harris Reynolds was chosen as national councillor.

The Jaycees are currently engaged in a novel fund-raising campaign for the benefit of Boston's underprivileged children in which pennies from the sale of gum balls in machines being placed in factories and office buildings, will make possible a youth activities program. Harry McGrath, Jr., of Winchester, just elected a member of the board of directors, is chairman of the fund-raising committee.

MR. WILLING C. P. A. OFFICER

Mr. James B. Willing of Ladysard road was elected secretary of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants, Inc., at the meeting held May 24 at the Parker House in Boston.

Mr. Andrew B. Fielding of Lawrence street was elected to the organization's executive committee and Mr. E. Ober Pride of Foxcroft road was elected to the nominating committee.

Norman H. S. Vincent of Newton was elected president; Harold A. Mock of Wellesley, vice president; Richard S. Chamberlain of Wellesley, treasurer and William Boynton of Brookline, auditor.

Cyril N. Angell of Needham, Gerry Keene of Marlborough and Richard P. Smith of Shrewsbury were elected to the executive committee and the nominating committee includes Robert D. Dana of Newton, John J. Harrington of Waltham, Ethel S. Kingman of Cambridge and Donald P. Perry of West Newton.

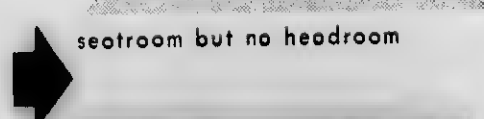

The Fire Department had two alarms Sunday afternoon. The first was for a chimney fire in a house on upper Main street, but the firemen could find no fire upon arrival. At 3:15 the men were called out to a brush fire near Winn's watch-haul factory on North Washington street.

WINCHESTER WON QUAD MEET

Track and Field Men Scored 37 Points to Lead Concord, Woburn and Melrose

Coe and Berridge Stars

Winchester High won the first quadrangular track meet held on Manchester Fiddl, at least in recent years, last Saturday, scoring 37 points to lead Concord, Woburn and Melrose. Concord and Woburn tied for second with 24 points. Melrose trailed with 13.

Captain Ben Coe led the local forces with a first place in the quarter, a tie for first in the high jump and a smashing anchor leg on the relay team that pulled the locals from the rack into an impressive win. "Don" Berridge also contributed heavily to the Winchester victory with wins in both dashes. He was pushed all the way in both by Sattile of Concord, his winning margin in the furlong being the greater.

Don was clocked in 24 flat for the 220, which was good going on such a slow track and under such adverse weather conditions. His 10.8s for the hundred was also good under the conditions.

Coe was caught in 51.8s for the quarter, good going on such a day. He won sweet revenge for an earlier beating by Rose of Melrose, running away from the sear-shirted visitor last Saturday after opening up on the back stretch.

Perhaps the most impressive running of the afternoon was contributed by Woburn's miler, Cannon, who led his team-mate, Bob Fowler, to the tape in the mile in the fast time of 4 min 42.3s. Winchester's "Whip" Saltmarsh, running the fastest paced race of his career, challenged on the back stretch of the gun lay, but couldn't hold on and jogged in third, complaining of a pain in his side. Whether Saltmarsh could otherwise have taken second from Fowler is something to argue over. He isn't ready for runners of Cannon's caliber quite yet, though he has had a great season for a first-year on the track.

Dick Fowler, the other half of the Woburn twins won the half mile in a great race with Adams of Concord, a heavy boy, who charged past Fowler on the back stretch but couldn't quite match the slighter Orange runner's final sprint to the worsted, losing by a couple of yards in a great race. The time 2 m. 10.1sec. wasn't too impressive, though it wasn't too bad either in view of conditions. Parkhurst of Winchester came home in third place, making a game finish after being jostled off stride by a Melrose boy who was tripped and got a nasty spill on the back stretch, driving his spikes through Parkhurst's leg just above the ankle. Tom McGowan just nipped Andy Antippos on the tape for third.

Winchester scored in every event but the shotput, in which the Woburn muscle men, Foothall Bob Garvey and Joe Gordon finished one-two, with Low and Lindstrom of Melrose 3rd and 4th. Garvey's winning 39ft 8 1/2 in was just so-so. Coe and Harry Easton tied at 5 ft. 3 in. in the high jump, good for a day like last Saturday. Easton's 4th was the best Winchester could do in the broad jump, won by Ware of Concord at 19 ft. 5 1/2 in. Wenfer of Woburn, on his last jump, got out as far as this if not further, but fouled. Pete Dillingham, handicapped by a bad ankle, could get no lift at all and failed to place.

Young and Muehlitz, local sprinters, added three points to the Winchester total by finishing third and fourth in the 220, which was something of a surprise.

The final relay event was a thriller. Rose of Melrose and Ware of Concord both beat Dick Smith of Winchester to the first turn and at the end of the first leg Melrose had a big lead with Concord in second place by a good five yards.

Low of Melrose and Wheeler of Concord added to their advantages until Pete Dillingham got away perhaps 20 or 25 yards behind the leading Kumpke of Melrose. Peter ran a mighty good third leg, pulling Winchester back into the race and closing up the gap appreciably before passing the baton to Captain Coe.

Ben was surely 15 yards behind the leaders when he got away, but his long, high gaited stride literally ate up the ground to the turn and around the bend he was perhaps a couple of yards back.

Whaling off the turn the tall Winchester runner caught the leaders in the rush to the worsted and whipped past them, using both his long legs and his arms to drive him to the tape for an impressive victory by a good two or three yards. Adams of Concord beat out Eldridge of Melrose for second in the rush to the line. The summary:

CINDER DUST

This being the first meet of its kind, the performances set records for future quadrangular meets. With this in view it's a good thing that L. E. Goldu was handling one of the stop-watches. Lou has been timing for years and is very accurate. Undoubtedly the other timers were O. K. too. We just happen to know about Lou.

Saltmarsh didn't need to feel badly about losing to a couple of jumpers like Cannon and Bob Fowler both experienced performers. The Winchester tyro ran probably the fastest three-runners he has yet put together and if he hadn't had to pull up when he did, would have been home in his best time to date, even though he didn't win.

Could be that "Whip" has been getting a bit too much work, what with mile racing and playing hockey with the hockey club. Both sports take a lot of stamina, and another year it might be a good idea for "Whip" to decide which one he wants to compete in during the spring. He ought to be track, for he surely has the makings. Hockey is a winter game!

The performances were plenty good enough to give future Quad performers some good marks to shoot at. That mile time turned in by Cannon of Woburn was mighty nice running on such a day, but the Woburn boy would have gone faster.

The only raucous note occurred during the broad jump when some Woburn competitors and spectators took exception to the judges ruling a foul on Wenfer's last jump. The foul was unfortunate for the Orange jumper got off a nice leap, but he was clearly over the line. The judges, Hamilton, an old broad-jumper himself and a good one, and Carl Reed, were right on the takeoff and called the foul at once. The objectors were 50 ft. away and behind the takeoff, being in no position to see whether Wenfer fouled.

This kid Gordon of Woburn, is a fine competitor. He was eliminated in the high jump, but was going to score in the shot or else. He did, too, picking up second. Garvey, the winner and another good competitor was the back who ruined Winchester's last Thanksgiving. He's a nice kid as well as a good athlete, and we hear he's headed for Dartmouth.

Too bad Pete Dillingham wasn't in shape to do his best jumping. Peter might have won the broad-jump had his ankle been sound.

Berridge had to step to beat Sattile of Concord in the 100, but he got a poor start. There were about four false starts before Tom Morse got the boys away, and Don was probably playing it safe the last time.

You won't see many more exciting finishes than that relay produced. The time was slow, but that last leg by Ben Coe was a corking individual effort. Tall Ben was really running off that turn and he had the stuff to last through all the way to the tape despite his good quarter earlier in the afternoon and his high jumping. Quarter-mile running and high jumping is a funny combination but Ben has managed it and been a consistent scorer in both events.

Coe wasn't making the same mistake he made in the Melrose meet of running outside Rose on the turn in the quarter. He waited for the back stretch to pull away and really won his race on that straightaway.

Parkhurst probably could not have caught either Adams or Dick Fowler in the half, but it would have been interesting to see how close he could have come, had he not been knocked off stride and spiked on the back stretch. "Steve" did well to recover and stay in third place under the circumstances.

Tom McGowan showed a driving finish in the half, but he started his sprint too late. This kid is looking better each time out.

WAKEFIELD EDGED WINCHESTER

Winchester lost a tough 2-1 decision to Wakefield High in the Middlesex League series at Wakefield Monday afternoon, poor base-line coaching twice losing the locals runs, while on another occasion a missed steal signal resulted in the probable loss of the equalizer.

Bellino was on first at the time and Sammy is not too easy to flag on a steal attempt. The ball on which the steal was called for would have been a tough one for the catcher to peg, but both Sammy and the roacher missed the sign and Sammy held up. On the next ball Switzer hit into a double play, erasing Bellino, after which Slack drove a clean single to center field and any time Sammy doesn't score from second on a hit, he'll be missing a leg or two.

All this happened in the 8th. In the 4th with Daniels on second Coran hit over second into the center field. The ball rolled slowly to the fielder and finally slowed off his glove. The coacher at third, however, before seeing what happened had fingered Daniels at third when he could have scored easily. Bellino popped up to the pitcher and Switzer fanned with Daniels still on third.

Cocher Barthett twice protested Umpire "Sliger" Kingsley's failure to call palpable balks on the Wakefield pitcher, one of which at last would have resulted in a run. The summary:

After that, as soon as possible, your sponsor will make a date with you at some court and your first lessons will begin. Be sure to keep your first date, or let your sponsor know ahead of time if you are going to be unable to be present.

All Winchesterites or friends desiring of aiding this program as sponsors, or otherwise, are invited to communicate with Ken Hills, my 21-4t

WINCHESTER TRACKMEN BEAT WOBURN

Winchester High beat Woburn in a track and field meet at Manchester Field Wednesday afternoon, 46-26, winning firsts in six of the nine events.

From the Winchester standpoint "Whip" Saltmarsh's mile against Bobby Cannon, Woburn's great racer, was outstanding. Saltmarsh stuck to the Woburn boy all the way and pushed the more experienced runner to a corking 4 min. 40.5 sec., finishing only a scant five yards back in the best time he has ever made, 4 min. 44.5 sec., one of the two or three fastest miles run by a Winchester High undergraduate.

Andy Antipapas also turned in his best half mile to date to top second behind "Red" Powle of Woburn who did a commendable 2 min. 23 sec. Don Berridge shaded his quad meet times in winning both sprints and Coe, Easton and Reil tied at 5 ft 3 in. in the high jump, being stopped with no Woburn competition left. Captain Coe won the quarter and Harry Easton, the high jump. The summary:

100 Yard Dash—Berridge (W); Myers (W); Muehlig (W). Time 16.6.

The Town Softball League got away to an auspicious opening of its 1948 season with six games played. A large crowd was on hand at Ginn Field on Monday night to witness the 1947 champions, the Sachsams, inaugurate what promises to be an exciting league rare. It is amazing how popular this after-dinner activity has become and the interest of players and spectators alike has picked up right where it was dropped last September.

The Sachsams opened in impressive fashion by virtue of their double wins during the week but were forced to the limit by the Rockets before downing them 11 to 10. The newly organized Rockets served notice that they will be strong contenders as they defeated one of last year's teams, the Atomies, and were defeated in a last inning rally by the Sachsams. The K. of C. demonstrated that they will not be doormats this year as they played the strong V. F. W. to a 17 to 17 tie in a slugfest that was ended by darkness.

WINCHESTER OBSERVED MEMORIAL DAY

In spite of unfavorable weather conditions a large number turned out for Winchester's official observance of Memorial Day on Sunday and Monday of this week.

The usual Memorial Day church service was held this year at the Unitarian Church, the minister of which, Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, is also chaplain of Winchester Post, A. L. Both Winchester Post and Aberjona Post, V. F. W., were represented in the good sized service delegation attending the service with their colors and color guards. Mr. Chapman preached and the musical program was directed by Mary Ranton Witham. Raymond Sheppard Pugh was the organist.

Following the custom of recent years both parades to Calvary and Wildwood Cemeteries were held during the forenoon. The line of march in Calvary formed first at 9 o'clock at the town hall.

Led by Motorcycle Officer William T. Haggerty and a Police Escort of former service men, under command of Chief Charles J. Harlow himself, a veteran of both World Wars, the parade proceeded along Washington street to Calvary Cemetery, passing Augustus M. Leonard Field, named for a Winchester boy who died in World War I, with eyes left.

At the cemetery the exercises were held at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, which was decorated with wreaths by Commander Francis Murray of Aberjona Post, V. F. W., and Walter Burns of Winchester Post, A. L. Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Sennott of St. Mary's Church offered prayer and delivered the Memorial Day address.

Concluding the exercises the firing squad of Aberjona Post, commanded by Thomas Mearls, fired three volleys and echo taps were blown. On the return parade a stop was made in front of the town hall to decorate the World War I and II honor rolls and to sound taps.

Following a brief rest, the parade formed for the march to Wildwood, leaving the town hall about 11 o'clock. The line of march went by way of Washington street to Main street, thence to the center, stopping in front of the World War I Memorial Statue on the high school lot.

There the marchers came to attention while Commanders Murray and Burns with their respective quartermaster and adjutant went to the statue to place wreaths at the base. Taps were blown from the trees at the rear of the statue following the ceremony, while the military stood at salute.

Proceeding through the center the parade went to Wildwood by way of Wildwood and Willow streets. Exercises were held as usual at the Soldiers' Monument on the hill, the prayer and address being made by the Rev. John Snook, Jr., new pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church. Three volleys by the firing squad and echo taps concluded the exercises.

The Park Department moved this week to the Loring avenue playground the small so-called studio building on the old Skillings estate opposite the town hall. The building was given to the Park Department by the Selectmen and will be used as a comfort station and field house at the Loring avenue playground.

The building will be placed on a foundation erected by Builder "Al" Elliott behind the tennis court. The Park Commissioners estimate the entire cost of getting the building into use will be $500, whereas Mr. Elliott claims a similar building would cost at least $4000 to erect. C. E. Hall moved the building.

ROTARY 21 YEARS OLD

Winchester Club Honored Charter Members

The Rotary Club of Winchester, observing its 21st anniversary at yesterday noon's meeting, the program being given over largely to honoring the charter members. A central table, decorated with a large centerpiece of flowers and adorned at each end with handsome birthday cakes, provided an honor place for the old-timers, each of whom was placed by a unique and attractive hand decorated place card. Seated at the table were:

Mr. George T. Davidson
William E. Priest
T. P. Wilson
Raymond Bancroft
Joseph Wallace
Frank Randall
Ed Samelson
Ralph Bonnell
Doc Hinds
Doc Sheehy

Those other members of 21 years' standing were included in the group: Jim McGrath and Tom Quigley.

The charter members were introduced by George T. Davidson, the club's first president, who was assisted by President Harry Benson in the presentation of a pink to each. The birthday cake, made by Christie McDonald and decorated with the Rotary emblem, was cut by Ralph Bonnell and distributed among the members and guests. Rotarians Blanchard, Pollard and Koch favored the party with a group of old songs, prominent among which was "Happy Birthday."

Mr. George Matthews of the Current Stenograph Company and a member of the Boston Rotary Club, was the speaker, giving a most interesting talk on aims and accomplishments of Rotary.

Ben Brennan announced that the club will attend the ball game on the 15th as the first of a series of such visitations.

Memorial Day is always an important anniversary in the life of Dr. Phillip J. McManus, popular Winchester medical man and sports follower. Twenty-four years ago on May 30 while playing right field for Hudson against rival Marlboro "Phil" contributed a stellar catch that saved the game for Hudson. How the clutch compared with that memorable grand larceny of Sgt. "Dukes" Farrell on Manchester Field years ago in a Winchester-Woburn game we can not say. Both at least were made in right field.

WEEK-END THOUGHTS (For The Winchester Star)

In these days of tribulations and tidings of great evil, when we are mobilizing our material resources for national defense, European rehabilitation, let us not fail to mobilize our faith in the inexhaustible resources of the Almighty, and our faith in the ultimate triumph of Truth and Righteousness in Winchester, State and Nation.

Today the need is more urgent than at any previous time for alert men and women and youth to weave out of the loom of the trials and hard experiences of life a character that is worthy of being perpetuated by posterity.

The present are trying hours. A great many things affecting the welfare of all of us await discernment and right judgment. It is essential that we look upon what is going on in the world about us with a clearness of vision that will enable us to see things in their true proportions, in their correct relationships, that the ambition of men may not be a thirst for gaining an advantage over somebody else but a desire to be supremely useful in challenging our fellows to live on in the absolute certainty that Right will be triumphant in the end.

It is better for us to be generous than selfish, to be chaste than not chaste, true than false, brave than to be a coward. We hold in profound respect that man in or out of Winchester who even obstinately clings to moral good. God gave us men who are endowed with unflinching courage and unflinching faith.

HIGH SCHOOL HELD MEMORIAL ASSEMBLY

Student Council President Ned Moore opened the pre Memorial Day exercises at Winchester High School by reading the Nineteenth Psalm. After lending the audience in the Lord's Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance, Moore spoke of the increasing consciousness that the hope of the world is peace and cooperation among nations.

Peter Sorokin, speaking about the United Nations, said that the U. N. must succeed, not plan to succeed in providing world peace. The fault, he said, is not in the charter, but in the number nations themselves!

Quoting from Goethe that "What you cannot understand you cannot possess," Edward Shaw told of the disunity and disinterest in the U. N. He pointed out, however, that the less publicized committees of the U. N. have made notable progress during their tenure.

Miss Eleanor Anfantis then led the large chorus of over one hundred voices in singing "Beautiful Savior" and "America the Beautiful."

In summarizing the thought expressed by the speakers, Principal Wade L. Grinnell said, "The scientific and technological advance in civilization has been far greater than the moral and Christian development."

In his introduction of Commander Walter F. Burns of Winchester Post 97 of the American Legion as guest speaker, Mr. Grinnell welcomed him back as a member of the Class of 1933 and their related events in Commander Burns's war record.

The told of meeting Commander Burns, then a sergeant in the Military Police, in 1942 and later following with interest his service in North Africa with the first landing force there, his being taken prisoner by the Germans, and his being eventually freed and returned to the United States for hospitalization.

Following convalescence, Commander Burns requested further duty and after intensive language training at the University of Virginia and Harvard, he was sent to Korea, where he continued as an officer of the Military Police.

Commander Burns, who received the Purple Heart medal and the Distinguished Service Cross, then spoke of the American heritage of freedom. Illustrations drawn from his own experience were interestingly narrated and impressive.

Significant items among his remarks were allusion to the ninety per cent tax levied by the Arab lenders, the failure of the German Youth to think for himself, and the lack of unsolved crime in Korea where the suspect always is forced to confess.

Turning to Russia, Commander Burns alluded to the tremendous number of Russian deserters as exceeding those of all other nations combined, and the large number of suicides among Russian prisoners when confronted with return to Russia. He held the high command at fault in the failure to be strict with the Russians in their dealings together.

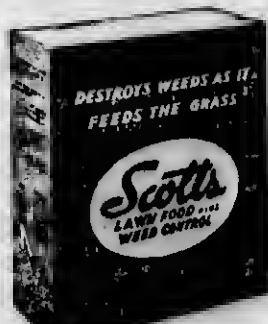

He concluded his effective address by urging his audience to help themselves and the world by "Living and believing in what we have."

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES Interesting News

Our members will be glad to know that our neighbors who are attending the meetings in Portland, Ore., of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, are Mrs. A. Chesley York, newly elected president of the Massachusetts State Federation, and Mr. Chesley York of Medford, immediately Past Regional Vice President, and Mrs. Arthur Mansfield of Arlington, President of the Arlington Women's Club. A clipping from an Oregon newspaper received by our Press Committee will interest our members and reads as follows: "Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck of Richmond, Va., president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, flew into Portland Friday night just in time to reach some of the excitement of Oregon's primary elections."

Elected to the top job in 1947 for a three-year term, she seems not at all intimidated by the strenuous days ahead, having lots of official federation experience behind her. "The sessions will cover a wide range of subjects," she said, "but emphasis will be largely on the convention theme, 'Mobilization for Peace,' and how to strengthen our democracy at home and build better international understanding."

Mrs. Buck heads the largest women's organization in the world, with about 17,500 clubs in the United States boasting 3,000,000 members looking to her for leadership, according to Mrs. William B. Chandlee of Hillsboro, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and general convention chairman.

This is the first time the convention has met on the Pacific coast since 1939, when it convened in San Francisco. All day Friday delegates from all over the country streamed into Portland, with 2500 to 3000 registrants expected from every state, Alaska and the Philippines.

The trip planned for June 9 to Old Sturbridge Village will leave the Common about 9:30 a. m. Old Sturbridge Village is a living museum and crafts center, where the visitor may learn about the life of his forefathers, of their arts, their skills, and the products of their labors. This Village portrays a typical country town of central New England as it might have appeared early in the 19th century.

The 28 shops, mills, houses, church and general store forming its complete picture are arranged in a large tract of meadow, woodland, and river shore.

The collections range from crude farm implements to delicate household furnishings.

Please call Mrs. Seales, Winchester 6-0521-W or Mrs. Nelson, Winchester 6-0539-W for reservation before Monday, June 7.

WON ATHLETIC HONORS AT ROLLINS

Marjorie "Marnee" Norris, daughter of School Superintendent and Mrs. Forbes H. Norris of Church street, was one of six Rollins College girls to receive special "R" Club "R" for participation on three of the college's honorary Varsity teams.

"Marnee", who was a three sport player and outstanding athlete while at Winchester High School, was elected to the honorary basketball, tennis and volleyball teams at Rollins. These teams are chosen from the outstanding players of the intramural competition at the college. Incidentally "Marnee" has been elected secretary of the intramural league for next year, which is quite an honor for a competitor completing her first year at college.

The Winchester girl was placed fifth on the Rollins tennis team, behind such nationally known stars as Shirley Frye, Nancy Clark, Jean Morrison and Doris Jensen. "Marnee" herself was ranked 18th nationally last year, but this year Hamilton Chambers, writing in the American Lawn Tennis Magazine, picks her to rank ninth among the teen age tennis stars of the nation. She ranked first in New England last year and Mr. Chambers believes she will repeat this standing this coming summer.

WINCHESTER IN PAUL REVERE LEAGUE

Winchester will have a team in the Paul Revere League this summer, composed of boys too old to play in the Junior Legion League. The Paul Revere League has been in operation for about 20 years and is a good circuit, headed by "Polly" Harris, former Colgate all around athlete and present A.D. at Belmont High. Belmont, Acton, Lincoln, Maynard, Lexington and comparable communities are represented in the league which has provided some excellent competition among the member clubs.

Winchester's team is being sponsored by Edward A. Bartlett, high school baseball coach, and Lou Warsky. Warsky will handle the team, and among those from this year's high school who will play are Vern Slack, pitcher and centerfielder; "Pete" Priest, second baseman; and Paul Roche, who would have been the team's third sacker had he been eligible.

Others who have already been signed are "Sarto" Walsh, catcher; "Sam" Tompkins, and "Pete" Twombly, pitchers. Ted "the Great" O'Rourke, first base; "Jimmy" Olivier, shortstop and "Kenny" Wright, third base.

Twombly has been pitching for Middlebury and Kenny Wright has been playing second base for N. I. T., while Olivier has been playing for New Hampton. Several other former high school players are interested in becoming members of the team, and Manager Warsky expects to field a representative club by the time the first game rolls around in a couple of weeks.

The idea behind Winchester's entrance into the league is to provide an opportunity for Winchester High School ball players, too old to play Junior Legion ball, with an opportunity to get some valuable experience playing summer ball in faster company as well as giving high school graduates and other residents of the town a chance to play organized ball during the summer season. Coach Bartlett is greatly interested in stimulating interest in baseball in Winchester as a means of improving the grade of his high school ball team. Junior Legion ball and competition in the faster Paul Revere League should help a lot.

TO GRADUATE FROM NEW HAMPTON

WINCHESTER WON STATE CLASS D TRACK CROWN

Winchester High won its first State track and field crown last Saturday at Dickinson Field, Newton, colling up 19 1-5 points to lead runner-up Wellesley by 4 1-5 points. Needham, Lexington, Hingham, Concord, Norwood, Jamaica Plain, Milton, Wintthrop, Methuen, Leominster and Saugus finished in that order behind the leaders.

The locals showed surprising balance in the track events, winning the 220 yard dash and high hurdles and placing in the furlong, mile, hurdles, quarter and high jump.

Don Berridge had nearly five yards on the field as he turned in a good 22.4s for the 220 with teammate Johnny Muehlig, promising sophomore sprinter, who finished strong to grab off fourth place for another point.

Don didn't run in the century, no boy being permitted to run in two track events. He undoubtedly would have gotten a piece of the 100 had he run, although the winner's time is faster than anything he has shown this spring.

Pete Dillingham was Winchester's only hundred yarder, and Pete, favoring a bad ankle, finished well in the rack. "Lally" Myers, who was entered in the 100, was scratched because of a bad hip.

Capt. Ben Coe didn't open up quite soon enough in the 440 to do better than fourth, and he really had to run to cop the last of the scoring places. The winning time of Wellesley's Arthur Maey was a fast 1:28, better than anything Ben boy didn't one one of his best races last Saturday, and on form should have been fighting for a higher notch in the scoring.

Steve Parkhurst ran a front race all the way in winning his heat in the half mile, but had the misfortune to draw a slow heat and wounding as he pleased, his time was not good enough to get him into the final division of points, which was by times, rather than racing. Steve ran in 2m. 38s, fastest time of his career, but he could easily have gone faster, good judges believe he well could have gotten into the scoring.

The surprise from the local standpoint was the one-two finish of Harry Easton and Dick Smith in the high hurdles. These boys have been working over the sticks this spring, but haven't competed in them until last Saturday, making their showing the more remarkable.

Both boys won their heats and in the final strode through virtually neck and neck, Easton having just enough to get the judges nod for the blue ribbon. His time, or really both boys' time, 18.8s, compares pretty well with the 16.4s clocking in class A where the boys run the hurdles in all their meets.

The Class D mile race was a real thriller with "Whip" Saltmarsh finishing second to Woburn's great racer, Bobby Cannon, in a corking two-man battle.

"Whip" dogged the taller Woburn boy, who had twice beaten him this spring, and was close behind the Orange strider at the half-mile mark when another competitor tried to shoulder his way to the pole between the two. Saltmarsh refused to let the challenging boy by and was twice victimized by the other, being jostled and pushed until he elbowed his way past.

"Whip" was, however, knocked off stride and as he reached a bit to recover his balance his spikes caught Cannon's ankle and right foot, ripping off his shoe and cutting his foot.

The Woburn boy gamely continued without his shoe and despite his injury, he and Saltmarsh putting on a two-man show that was a pip.

After dogging Cannon into the bark stretch on the final lap, Saltmarsh sprinted past the one-shoed Cannon and took over. Cannon in turn put on steam, and the two ran stride for stride around the turn. Cannon, however, had the most kick left and jumping Saltmarsh he had his advantage to win by not more than five yards in the fast time of 4m. 41.6s, great going for an injured boy with only one shoe.

Saltmarsh, in turn, did 4m. 40s which, aside from his own time at Woburn, must have been under anything a Winchester runner has shown for the mile since Ray Underwood was credited with 4m. 35.2s in 1935.

The locals' remaining points came in the high jump where Capt. Coe and Harry Easton finished in a four-way tie for third in the high jump, clearing 5ft. 11in.

The local relay team won its heat, but didn't make fast enough time to finish in the money, places being awarded on times. Johnny Muehlig, running first for Winchester, was given the business on the first turn by another runner, knocked off stride and finished some 15 yards in the rear. Pete Dillingham closed the gap slightly and Ben Coe, flashing a replica of his blazing relay leg in the final meet, got Don Berridge away on the anchor leg about four yards back, a smooth baton exchange helping plenty.

Berridge in a whirl of arms and legs, whipped himself up with the leaders coming off the turn and down the straightaway to the worsted left the field behind him as he pleased in a great individual effort.

Following are the point scores and summary:

WINCHESTER HAS HAD FAMOUS RESIDENTS

Editor of the Star:

Memorial Day reminds me to reminiscent the readers of the "Star" that several famous men of national reputation have resided in Winchester. In the list of United States Senator Edward Everett, Samuel McCall, war-time governor of Massachusetts, Admiral Thatcher of the United States Navy, Captain Spicer, Captain West, a famous surgeon in the Civil War; Samuel J. Elder, a brilliant attorney and graduate of Yale University who represented the United States of America in the international fisheries dispute; Frederick
O. Prince, ex-mayor of Boston; Thomas W. Lawson, the wizard of "Frenzied Finance"; and last but not least, that grand old veteran, General John Murray Corse, who resided opposite the public library at the corner of the Mystic Valley Parkway and Washington street.

He was a former postmaster of the City of Boston, appointed by President Grover Cleveland, and one of the picture-book Union generals commanding 2000 troops at Alamo Pass in the Civil War.
Civil War General Sherman ordered him to hold the pass at all costs until Sherman's army arrived to aid him. The fighting was fierce and bloody. The Confederates were obliged to withdraw.
General Corse was badly wounded, but he wired General Sherman, "I am short a cheek-bone and one ear, but am able to whip all hell." Yet
I was General Corse's heroic defense of that important post that inspired the writing of the Civil

TO CLARIFY THE RECORD

Editor of the Star:
In last week's Star certain statements were made regarding the services rendered by the Town Engineer in matters pertaining to the erection of the new school on Andrews Hill by the Andrews Hill School Building Committee.

One statement by the Committee, namely, "and to locate the building upon the lot when work thereon was undertaken," is incorrect.

The Town Engineer did locate the area as shown on the architect's plan within which the building was to be located and marked certain grades thereon.

Whether the building was finally located within this area or not, the Town Engineer does not know.

PARADE PICKUPS

Considering the day the parade turnout was considered good by those who have been watching them for any length of time.

The Vets firing squad made a good showing, under Tommy Mearls, all wearing white helmets, belts, leggings and gloves.

Seemed funny not to see any Sea Scouts in line this year, and the boys were missed for they always marched well and knew their parade etiquette. For many years this group was drilled by Lou Goddn, who insisted on and got strict discipline in public.

Lou, himself, was in line with the Legion, but he didn't look natural in the Legion blue instead of the whites of the Sea Scouts. He went prepared for eventualities, having his raincoat tucked into his belt.

That was quite a police detail up front, headed by the new chief,
"Charlie" Harold, "Charlie's" father, the late Lt. John A. Harold, led the Memorial Day parades for years and years, being a familiar figure to everyone at the head of the line.

Police men who marched included Clarence Dunbar, Thomas Han-non, Winthrop Palmer, John Dolan, Richard Hempsey, Thomas Parsons, John and Robert Elliott, Archie O'Connell, James Noonan and John Remond. All these men and veterans, Danbury and O'Connell of World War I and the rest of World War II. Chief Harold served in both wars.

The Police wore regulation Legion overseas caps instead of their regulation uniforms caps. All the department veterans weren't in line. Billy Cassidy being a veteran of World War I and Joe Quigley, of World War II. Motorcycle Officer Billy Haggerty served in World War II.

Busiest man of the morning was Bob McKee, former Vets commander and chief marshal of the parade. He was dashing about trying to keep things going smoothly.

LINCOLN-MYSTIC SCHOOL NOTES

The teachers at the Mystic School will go to the Toll House for dinner on Tuesday evening. Miss Winifred Richardson, kindergarten teacher at the Lincoln School, has invited the teachers for a picnic supper at Wheelgate Farm, No. Wilmington on June 10. Miss Richardson has entertained the Lincoln teachers at her home for the past three years.

Now available in the paper line: Dusting tissue, paper napkins, coffee cups, at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

BRIDGE, BOX LUNCH AND SQUARE DANCE NEXT BOAT CLUB ATTRACTIONS

Here's good news for the ladies! The popular Wednesday afternoon bridge parties are going to start on June 10th. Under the guidance of Birtle Newman, these grand gatherings will be run the same as in previous years. There is no charge for club members and a modest charge of only 50c for guests. There'll be loads of prizes and refreshments for all. Make up your own tables or call Mrs. Newman and she'll see if she can't fit you into a foursome.

A Box Social and Square Dance is the next shindig here at the club, Saturday evening, June 19th. Bring your own box lunch and the club will furnish dessert and coffee. It's scheduled to be an outdoor affair, with dancing in the driveway, just like last year. Weenie Pratt has promised to do the "calling," and you all know he's tops.

Fleet Facts

"Mel" Moller proved that his victory in the Simmonds Series was no "fluke" by scoring two slick victories over the holiday week-end. On Saturday he "stole" a race from Al Littlefield who had led all the way only to be betrayed by the wimpy on the last leg. Monday morning "Mel" got off to a sensational start and just stayed out front all the way.

"Stretch" Simmonds won the Monday afternoon race, in one of the most thrilling contests we've ever witnessed. There were eight hots battling for the lead every boat length of the way, with "Stretch" just beating out John Powers and Jack Strepton.

TENNIS INSTRUCTION

The response from Winchester boys and girls for tennis instruction has been so great that it has been necessary to close the offer, at least for the present, as the supply of available sponsors does not meet the demand.

Every effort will be made to establish a program whereby the 60 boys and girls will receive two lessons in small groups. For those new to the game it is hoped that the following objectives can be attained:

To acquaint members of a group with one another so that they may continue to play by themselves.

To gain a knowledge of the fundamentals including keeping the score of play.

To explain the use of the backboard for practice.

For those a bit more advanced, it may be possible to offer helpful advice as to various strokes. It is not expected that too much progress can be made for any individual. It is hoped that the program will stimulate interest among groups at similar levels of play.

On Sunday, June 6, Raceland, the beautiful estate of John R. Macomber in Framingham Center, will once again provide the setting for the Annual Dog Show of the Framingham District Kennel Club. The Framingham show is the largest outdoor dog show in New England, and Raceland deservedly the most popular location among sportsmen and dog lovers.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT NEWS

The annual Town Draw Get-acquainted Tennis Tournament started last Saturday with the Men's Doubles and Women's Doubles being played up to the quarter final rounds. It was planned to start the Mixed Doubles and Family Doubles on Sunday, May 30th, but due to the continuation of the May rains no further progress was made on either Sunday or the holiday. The revised schedule now calls for the Mixed and Family Doubles to get underway at 10 a. m. Saturday, June 5th. The Tournament Committee would appreciate it, if all the entrants in these events would be at the Palmer street courts at the starting time. If any quirk of fate Saturday is another one of those very moist days, it will be Sunday the 6th, same time and place when play will continue. The results of the matches to date are as follows:

The Town Softball League swung into its second week of play with the Sachems continuing to show the way with three straight victories. The V. F. W. demonstrated that they must be considered one of the strongest teams in the league when they edged the Sons of Italy 10 to 9 in a game replete with thrills. In that game the Vets were leading 8 to 6 when the Sons came to bat in the top of the seventh. Pinch-hitter Del Grosso doubled to drive in two runs to tie the score and then another pinch-hitter, DIMINIO, singled to score Del Grosso and put the S. O. I. in the lead 9 to 8. The Vets were not to be denied, however, as DeTeso reached on a base on balls as lead-off man in the last of the seventh and Joe Luran batted a long home run to right field to clinch the verdict.

The D. J. club has been reorganized and will be sponsored by and compete under the name of the Maguire Motors. The Sons of Italy, St. Mary's, Sachems, and Beggs & Cobb are all uniformed with other teams to follow in the near future. These uniforms add considerably to the appearance of the teams on the field and are appreciated by the spectators.

The feature game of next week will come on Wednesday when the Sachems play the Sons of Italy at Ginn Field. These two were the finalists in last year's play-offs and are great natural rivals and this game should bring out the biggest crowd of the young season.

A TRAVELLING DOLLAR

A dollar travels in the direction it is spent. If you spend it out of town it is gone forever. A dollar spent in town circulates in our community in and out of the bank to pay local labor, to pay local bills and eventually right back to you.

Isn't it better economy to keep our money where it belongs — right at home.

TROOP 12, ST. MARY'S PARISH

Invited to K. of C. Sports Night

Through the gracious invitation of Grand Knight Alfred J. Pullo of Winchester Council 210, the Boy Scouts and Committeemen of Troop 12, St. Mary's Parish, were invited to K. of C. Hall on Tuesday evening, May 25th, where an interesting "Sport Night" was held. As is sometimes the case where guest speakers and entertainers have a long way to come the meeting was a little late in starting and the Scout Committee was a little apprehensive over the scouts being up so late. The fact that the Scouts enjoyed, thoroughly, every minute of the affair, was well worth the late hour. Two of the best "Song and Tatter" men that we have ever heard, Charlie and Eddie Donoghue of the Lowell K. of C. proved crack entertainers. Several old time songs took on a new lease on life with their renditions. At their insistence the Scouts were drawn into a song contest with one group pitted against the other. The group that sang "Take me out to the Ball Game" won. Later on Peter McLaughlin rendered a solo which was finely received. Earlier some of the Scouts who sing in St. Mary's Boys' choir, sang a few songs with Jimmy Davis, piano maestro of Winchester's own 210 Council, accompanying them on the piano.

Fr. Sliney, Chaplain of Winchester Council, accompanied Johnny Buckley and Al "Red" Priest into the hall and fired questions at them as did the other members when they spoke from the rostrum. Buckley is the former manager of Jack Sharkey and is now currently managing Al "Red" Priest, Johnny Pato of the Boston Yanks Pro Football team spoke on the Pro game and dwelt on the Yanks-Rams game in which he had a big part. He answered many questions also. Our own Joe Tansey of Wentworth Inst. narrated many humorous and serious stories on Coaching. Coach Knowlton of Winchester High outlined the vast baseball program scheduled for Winchester this Summer. He was optimistic over Winchester's chances next Fall in Foothall. Jerry Nason, Sports Editor of the Boston Globe, was the final speaker and proved very interesting while answering a barrage of questions hurled at him. Many subjects were covered especially the Red Sox and Braves. He had several intimate inside years to tell that delighted his audience. Finally coffee with plain and sugared and jellied donuts was served with the Scouts doing full justice. All in all it was a fine evening and the Scouts are very grateful to the K. of C. and to Mr. Pullo who was a very fine toastmaster for the evening.

The appointment of Professor John E. Burchard, formerly of Salisbury road and widely known in Winchester as Dean of Humanities at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was announced recently by Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the Institute. Professor Burchard, who is Director of the Institute's Libraries and of the Albert Farwell Bemis Foundation, will succeed Dean Robert G. Upon completion of his graduate work, Mr. Burchard joined the staff of Bemis Industries, Inc., and during a period of thirteen years became director of research, vice president, and member of the board of directors of that corporation and of its subsidiary, The Housing Company. It was during this period that he became internationally known for his work in housing. In 1938 he returned to the Institute as director of the Albert Farwell Bemis Foundation, with the rank of full professor.

From 1940 to 1945 Mr. Burchard was on leave of absence from the Institute while engaged on important war work. He served progressively as executive officer of a committee of the National Research Council, as chief of one of the eighteen divisions of the National Defense Research Committee, as chairman of two ad hoc committees engaged in studying the problems of navigation and of demolition of obstacles to landing operations, both in preparation for the great amphibious operations which marked the last phase of the war, and as deputy chief of the Office of Field Service. He was chairman of the Joint Army-Navy-OSRD Committee on Scientific Information Policy and of the OSRD Publications Committee, a member of a joint committee to study the ballistics of wounds and of the Committee on Conservation of Cultural Resources of the National Resources Planning Board. As part of his war work he headed four military-scientific missions to theatres of operations including the United Kingdom, the Caribbean, the Central Pacific, and Germany.

Mr. Burchard returned from war work in 1945 to take up duties as director of libraries of the Institute, a post to which he was appointed in 1944. During his term of office plans were consummated for the construction of the new Charles Hayden Memorial Library now being built. He served as a member of the Cooperative Committee on Library Building Plans which, under a Rockefeller Foundation grant, has prepared a monograph shortly to be published on the planning of university library buildings. He was chairman of the sub-committee of three charged with producing this monograph. He has been adviser on library building problems to the Rice Institute, New York University, and the United Nations.

He has written extensively for domestic and foreign journals on housing, library planning, architecture, and educational and cultural subjects. He was the co-author with Albert Farwell Bemis of "The Evolving House," and with Lincoln Thiesmeyer of "Combat Scientists." He is the author of "Q. E. D.—M. I. T. in World War II," which has just been published, and is editor and co-author of a forthcoming volume in the series dealing with the official history of OSRD.

Mr. Burchard is chairman of the Publications Board and of the Patent and Patent Management Committees at M. I. T., member of the advisory council of the Department of Physics of Princeton University, member of the American Institute of Architects, and the Chi Psi and Tau Beta Pi fraternities. He married Marjorie Walker Gaines, a graduate of Smith College, in 1926, and they have two sons, John Jr. and Marshall Gaines. Their home is in Bedford, Massachusetts.

It is not what a man says or does. Not what his opinion of himself is. But what he is in his heart all the day. If a man has knowledge of what he is, and freely admits what he knows About himself to be the truth—Such a man can hardly help from being humble. Eugene Bertram Willard.

INTERCONNECTED power lines

Insure your ELECTRIC SERVICE

NOW BUILDING!

More Electricity — 834,000 KILOWATTS more — coming from New England's electric plants by 1952! This expansion program will bring total resources of our six state neighborhood up to more than FOUR MILLION KILOWATTS — ample safeguard for a bright electrical future.

AMERICA'S SECURITY IS YOUR SECURITY

Interconnected transmission lines can bring you electricity from far and wide in case of need. That's good insurance for every customer. It permits instant cooperation between companies to meet unusual demands and to put surplus electricity to work. It helps to minimize the expensive standby equipment that each company would otherwise have to maintain. Interconnection is a big factor in the efficiency, reliability and economy of New England's electric service to you.

WINCHESTER BEHIND JIMMY CANCER FUND

Larry Penta, Fred McCormack, Don McFarlane, Jr., Bob Goodhue, Nancy Woodward and George Butler are a local committee working in aid of the Jimmy Cancer Fund benefiting the Children's Hospital.

This particular drive started when the radio program, "Truth or Consequences" had "Jimmy" a young cancer victim at the Children's Hospital on the air recently, telling something of himself and his hobbies. Among the latter is baseball, and so appealing was the ball's story that Big League Baseball has gotten behind the Jimmy Cancer drive and is doing a great job.

Last Sunday at the Red Sox game in Boston Ted Williams and Tommy Holmes bats were given away to the largest contributors to the fund with announcements in aid of the drive being made by Announcer Jim Britt.

Winchester sports followers were sorry to hear no contributions to the fund announced from Winchester, and as a consequence the committee named above got together to do something about local support for the drive.

Boxes have been made and placed in many of the town's stores, and contributions left in them will be forwarded to drive headquarters by the Committee. Checks or donations may also be sent to Fred McCormack at McCormack's Pharmacy or to Larry Penta at the Star office, either of whom will take the gifts get to the proper place.

The general idea is of course to aid a worthy fund. The local committee was formed to get Winchester into the drive along with other neighboring towns and cities.

BULLETS FOUND IN WEST SIDE TREE

John F. "Jack" Donaghey, veteran employee of the Park Department, has presented to the Star a number of old bullets which were taken from a tree, described by "Jack" as a "huttonwood" and located before it was taken down just off Palmer street on the banking sloping down to the first court of the town's Palmer street tennis courts.

The tree, approximately four feet in diameter, was well over 100 years old, and the bullets were found embedded in the wood close to the center of the tree. Some are of the type cast in round molds years ago and still spherical in shape, being hard enough to withstand being shot into the wood. Some of the others are flattened or partially flattened from the force of striking against the wood. What the real story of the bullets is would be interesting to know. They are at the Star office and may be seen by any one interested.

Perhaps some of the real old timers may have some idea of how they happened to get into the old tree.

MRS. FRANK L. RIPLEY

After an illness of many months, Mrs. Frank L. Ripley, a widely known and prominent resident of Winchester for 60 years, died Tuesday afternoon, June 8, at her home, 34 Wedgemere avenue. The twentieth of this month she would have been 93 years of age.

Ida Law Ripley was born in Lynn June 20, 1855, the daughter of George W., and Julia Ann (Woodbury) Law. On July 18, 1877, she married Frank Lyman Ripley of Cambridge, and for several years they lived in Cambridge where two daughters were born.

In 1882 they moved to Winchester, residing in a home on Main street since removed to make room for the Junior High School. In 1923 they built the home on Wedgemere avenue where Mr. Ripley was destined to spend but two happy years before his sudden death.

During her active years, Mrs. Ripley was prominent in church and civic affairs. She was a charter member of the Woman's City Club of Boston and of the President's Club; a member of both the Boston and Winchester Women's Republican Clubs; an early president of the Fortnightly Club; a member of the Daughters of Massachusetts, and of both the Boston Tea Party Chapter and the Committee of Safety Chapter of the D. A. R.

Mrs. Ripley was very active in the First Congregational Church. If she had a special interest there, it was in the Mission Union, of which she was a past president, and the meetings of which she attended regularly as long as she was able to leave her home.

In 1926 she gave Ripley Memorial Chapel to the First Congregational Church in memory of her husband, and she would have been thrilled to hear the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, say last Sunday that Ripley Chapel has become, in truth, "The Young People's Church."

Her daughter, Mrs. Ripley was a prolific reader and great traveler. Hers was indeed, a full life. During the twilight years her interest centered in her family, of which there are two daughters, six grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Surviving are Mrs. Harold F. French and Mrs. Harry S. Parsons, both of Winchester. Grandchildren are John R. Ordway of Chicago, Mrs. Vincent Farusworth, Jr., of Winchester, Mrs. Lawrence S. Martin of Chevy Chase, Md., and Frank R. Parsons, Mrs. Malcolm D. Bennett and Mrs. Bertram H. Dube, all of Winchester.

Family and friends met at the home Thursday afternoon for services conducted by Dr. Chidley. Interment was in the family lot in Wildwood cemetery.

JOHN LUDVIG BENSON

John Ludvig Benson of 312 Washington street, a resident of Winchester for more than half a century, died Sunday morning, June 6, after a long illness.

Mr. Benson was born Dec. 8, 1869, in Halland, Sweden. He came to this country at the age of 20, settling in Ludlow, Pa., where he learned the leather business. In 1895 he was brought to Winchester by a representative of Beggs & Colby who were at that time opening their local plant for the manufacture of leather. For nearly 30 years, until his retirement four years ago, Mr. Benson was associated with Beggs & Colby, during most of that time serving as a foreman in the finishing department. He knew thoroughly all the processes entering into the manufacture of fine leather and could take a green hide through all the stages that led to the finished product used in fine shoes or bags.

Mr. Benson was a member of Skandia Lodge of Woburn. In 1907 he married Augusta Gustafson, who survives, with a daughter, Mildred Benson, of this town; and two sons, Kenneth, of Benton Harbor, Mich., and Dr. Harry L. Benson, practicing physician in Winchester who was recently appointed associate medical examiner for the Fourth Middlesex District.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Kelley & Hawes Chapel with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Wildwood cemetery.

One of the biggest problems that faces pet owners during the summer is what to do with their pets while the family is away on vacation—whether to take them along or leave them at home.
Thousands of these animals are taken along to enjoy the carefree existence of vacationland. But all too often, some pets will be left behind to fend for themselves when there will be other cases where pets will be acquired at the summer home and abandoned at the end of the season.
The abandonment of pets invariably results in extreme suffering and we ask all pet owners to make proper provision for their animals. If pets must be left at home, see that they will be properly cared for either by friends or in boarding kennels. Should pets be adopted at the summer home and provisions cannot be made to bring them back to the city at the end of the vacation period, arrange with the nearest humane society or veterinarian for humane disposal.
The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals receives scores of complaints about the abandonment of pets. The helpless victims of this thoughtless cruelty suffer intensely from hunger, thirst and exposure.

STUDIO GUILD HELD ANNUAL EXHIBITION
The Studio Guild, an organization of Winchester women, who paint with Mrs. Elizabeth M. Lobinger in the studio over Randall's on Mt. Vernon street, held its annual exhibition and ten last Friday afternoon and evening. Pouring were Past President Rosalie Bown, President-Elect Florence Simonds, Margaret Bailey, Adelaide Bratt, Mollie Hodge, Emma Boardman, Isabel Monk and Dorothy Howard. Helen Enman and Pearl Condon were in charge of refreshments.
The Studio Guild has been in existence ten years and in this time has come a long way. One should of course remember in evaluating the things in its shows that these are women who are amateurs in an art sense, busy housewives for the most part, with a number of grandmothers, who paint for the pleasure and satisfaction they get out of it.
The Guild's best work is very finished. A great number of the more than 100 studies shown last Friday would not be out of place in your average exhibition, while several might be hung in most any gallery with propriety. The pictures of Ardys Cairncross, Adelaide Bratt, Dorothy Howard, Polly Hall, Helen Enman, Florence Simonds, Pearl Condon, Marion Whitten and Isabel Monk were some of those that stood out, but there was hardly a picture in the show that did not have something to commend it.
Landscapes, still life, seascapes and a few portraits were shown, done in oils, watercolors and in the more unique watercolor with which the Guild has been working. Here you saw a nice wash on some water, there a well done sky or some delicately painted trees. Colorful Latin-American sketches appeared beside familiar Winchester scenes, with the cleverly lighted sky of a seagull being watched by the human interest touch of a couple on a park bench.
Here appeared an example of good, there a touch of imagination. A well done large vase of flowers on one wall was balanced by an intriguing sketch of an attic opposite, while the study of a fisherman's gear on the southwesterly wall of the studio was very realistically painted.
Enhancing Mrs. Lobinger's fine study of the Burgess Church, our Lady of Good Voyage, in Gloucester, was a poem displayed beside it, written by Amy Bridgeman of North Andover, formerly of Winchester, who got her inspiration for the verses from the picture itself.
Mrs. Lobinger had two large canvases in the show as well as the study of the church. All lent finish and the professional touch to the exhibition, but Mrs. Lobinger seemed to find her greatest satisfaction in the work of her pupils, and it is easy to see why. They have come far under her instruction and the inspiration of her own enthusiasm. Best of all these busy women are having real fun out of their contact with art.

MR. MRS. GUILD
All young married women of the First Congregational Church are cordially invited to meet with the Mr. Mrs. Guild at their second summer sewing party on Tuesday evening, June 16, 8 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Paul Mason, 25 Oneida road. Mrs. Richard Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Ashley Lewis, who are assisting Mrs. Charles Clark with the sewing and knitting for the Fair Table, have an inspiring collection of ideas and plans which will certainly be fun to work on as well as being most remunerative, and promising each member a sense of accomplishment. CORRECTION: Due to an error as reported to the Star published May 28, the name of Mrs. Robert Mulford was incorrectly substituted for that of Mrs. Benjamin Gowing as Pleasant Hill Project Chairman for the Jr. Mrs. Guild.
The Police were notified over the week-end that a boat had been stolen from Mr. David H. Boyd at Robinson Circle. Officer William E. Cassidy got on the job and located the boat, returning it to its owner.

FOR CHILDREN IN WINCHESTER
Surprises were plentiful at a tea for mothers of 2nd grade children of the Mystic School, Wednesday, June second.
Mrs. Erskine, reference librarian at the Winchester Library, not only told about the children's reading club during summer vacation, but also explained how children may request available records to be played in the Children's Room. The music has a quieting effect if a group grows too noisy, or an exhausted four year old may listen alone for half an hour, to return refreshed to his complicated world.
The fact that our Library has a Family Room was news enough to most of the mothers, but that it is one of only four in the whole country makes it additionally amazing. The room was put to its present use in 1946, and contains authoritative books and pamphlets on Family Living. Here may be found answers to all sorts of questions from infant care and feeding, through brother and sister quarrels, to preparation for marriage and family budgeting. All material has been selected with the utmost care, and purchased only on the recommendation of expert authorities.
Also in the Family Room may be found a choice selection of children's books, available to parents in the evening when the Children's Room is closed.
After answering a lot of enthusiastic questions, Mrs. Erskine left some up-to-the-minute lists of children's books, and lists of old stand-bys, for the mothers to take home.
Then followed a color film of Red Cross swimming activities, taken at Wedge Pond by Dr. Tozier a few years ago. Groups of children of all ages were shown demonstrating different swimming strokes, diving and life-saving, as taught by qualified Red Cross instructors every summer at the town beaches, free of charge.
Mothers with older children were reminded about sending a request to Ken Hills for free tennis instruction, and the supervision of playgrounds was reviewed.
During refreshments, the guests had an opportunity to chat with Miss Asher, school principal, Miss Littlefield, second grade teacher, and Miss Whitmore who will come to Mystic next year as teacher of the third grade. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Davies.

WINCHESTER MAN RECEIVES PATENT

On May 25, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,412,170 on a "Crown Closure Lining Machine" to Dunbar L. Shanklin, Winchester, and Richard P. Stokes, Malden.

The function of this machine is to form uniform bottle crowns and caps beneath nozzles which inject a liquid composition into such crowns. The latter are spun until this liquid composition has been banked against the vertical walls of the crowns which are next delivered to the belt of a drying apparatus that serves to evaporate the liquid. The finished product, thus produced, forms a distasteful rubber-like seal which effectively closes a glass container in a hermetic manner.

According to Messrs. Shanklin and Stokes, their mechanism is capable of handling large numbers of crowns in a rapid and effective manner. It automatically performs the lining operations in a uniform manner and with close tolerances; and it will not stop or be placed out of order if the sealing compound accidentally misses a crown and squirts into the machine parts.

Although their equipment is very complicated in its mechanical details, in its general operation, the crowns are fed in proper alignment from a sorting and feeding device to a series of chutes from which they are discharged into rotating chucks. As the latter rotate, the lining compound is squirted into the crowns by means of special nozzles; and as a result of this operation, the entire inner surface of each crown is covered with compound that is substantially thinner in the center, or non-sealing portion, and thicker at the edges where a mass of sealing material is required to form a plastic seal for the open end of a bottle or other container.

As the next step in the process, a conveyor belt comes into play to remove the crowns to the drying arrangement from which they emerge ready for use.

This patent has been assigned to Denney and Almy Chemical Company, North Cambridge, Mass.

TROOP 12, ST. MARY'S CHURCH TO HOLD A PARENTS' NIGHT

With many regular and special awards expected to be made to the Scouts of Troop 12, a gala Parents' Night will be held on the evening of June 17 at Knights of Columbus Hall over McCormack's Drug Store in Winchester Square or Centre. This will be on the regular weekly meeting night and will follow the final Board of Review meeting which will be held at the Legion building on the Monday of the same week. It is expected that several Scouts will attempt to pass their second class tests at the Review and will be awarded their badges at the Parents' Night affair. Parents, relatives and friends of the Scouts are invited and admission will be free but by ticket only. Tickets may be procured from the Scouts or from the Committee Men. With the Patrol contest system in effect, points will be awarded each Scout for his patrol on the number of people that he is responsible for winning to the Hall. Ten points will be awarded for each parent of a scout who comes and five points for each Aunt, Uncle, sister, brother, friend etc. It is to be hoped that no one will disappoint a Scout who asks them to come. Nothing could be so more important than coming to such a real Scout-seeing affair to see what Scouting is trying to do for the boys and to see the future leaders of tomorrow putting on a Scouting show for you. Business trips can be cancelled for various reasons and Club affairs too. This attendance at the Parents' Night is a MUST so don't any Father or Mother disappoint their son. Come and see how proud he will be that you are there. Your Scout Committee will be there to explain their duties in Scouting; Your Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster will show you a Scout meeting in session and will conduct the Scouts in demonstrations and games that are sure to interest you. There will be entertainment and skits and refreshments. Each Troop is required to have a Parents' Night once a year according to Scout Headquarters. Time: 7:30 p. m. sharp. Place: Knights of Columbus Hall. Date: Thursday, June 17th.

So, we now have the Aquatic, Flaming Arrow, Flying Eagle and Panther Patrols. It was announced that Scout Donald Cullen, Second Class of the Flaming Arrow patrol and Troop Bugler had won a two weeks vacation at Camp Fellsland in a contest sponsored by the Winchester Rotary. The subject was "What Scouting Means To Me". The Troop lost into spontaneous applause at the announcement. Congratulations, Don, Good work!

Troop 12 and their younger pals Pack 12 both of St. Mary's church marched in the parade to Calvary and Wildwood Cemeteries on Memorial Day. The Cubs in blue and the Scouts in khaki were very neatly looking. Other Troops were well represented also. Scouting certainly showed up well. Carrying the Colors to Calvary were John Notemeyer for Troop 12 and Laurence Ehard for the Cub Pack 12. Rennie Goodrow, the Troop Flag and Tommy Morrissey the Pack Flag. On the return Thomas Gallagher bore the Colors for the Troop and Billy Sullivan for the Pack. John Connolly bore the Troop Flag and Tommy Sullivan the Pack Flag. On the way over to Wildwood, the Colors were carried by Leo Coughlin for the Troop and Robert Pearson for the Cubs. The Troop Flag was carried by John Pearson and the Pack Flag by Henry Quill. The return march had John Notemeyer carrying the Colors for the Scouts and Joseph Russo the Pack Colors, while Rennie Goodrow had the Troop Flag and Billy Callahan the Pack Flag. Rev. Fr. Sennott gave a short sermon at Calvary and conducted the prayers while Rev. Snook of the Cranford Memorial Church preached at Wildwood and conducted the prayers. The whole affair was very impressive both to the Scouts and Cubs newly formed this past Fall and they enjoyed fully their part in this outward demonstration of reverence paid to our War Dead. Scoutmaster Norm Doucette marched with his Marine Uniform up front in the parade with the Honor Guard and Assistant Scoutmaster Bob Fiore led the Scouts of Troop 12 and did a grand job. All of the Scouts were good. Those participating were: Rennie Goodrow, Neil McFeeley, John Connolly, John Notemeyer, Donald Cullen, James Callahan, Thomas Gallagher, Richard Drohan, Leo Coughlin, Richard Loftus, John Pearson, John Barry and Walter Barstow. William O'Connor, Bobby Thorne.

MOODY VISITED PONTIAC PLANT

The Pontiac motorcar now is in greater demand than at any time since the beginning of postwar production. "It's" Moody of the Moody Motors, local Pontiac dealer, declared this week following a visit to the Pontiac plant at Pontiac, Michigan.

Mr. Moody was one of a group of representative dealers called to Pontiac for a management-dealer conference.

Pontiac now is producing cars at an average rate of 1,000 each working day. Mr. Moody was told by Harry J. Klingler, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, but the demand continues to outrun production. Hydra-Matic transmissions now are being installed on 75 percent of the Pontiac output, the maximum number of automatic transmissions with Pontiac is able to obtain at this time.

A highlight of the conference was a tour of the recently completed, multi-million dollar plant expansion program. Pontiac Motor now is in instant readiness to increase its production fifty percent when the material supply permits, Mr. Moody said.

BOYS CAUGHT AFTER CHASE FATHER AND SON NIGHT BY CONGREGATIONAL MEN'S CLUB

Swam Mystic Only to be Caught on Parkway

Four boys, three from Medford and one from Somerville, ranging in ages from 14 to 16, were caught by the police last Saturday afternoon after swimming Mystic Lake in an attempt to get away.

Friday evening the police were notified that two kyaaks had been stolen from the property of Prof. Karl Terzaghi, 3 Robinson circle. Officer William E. Cassidy, while out on another investigation Saturday, saw some boys with paddles in their hands at the corner of Everett avenue and Cambridge street.

When the officer stopped the cruiser the boys dropped the paddles and took to their heels. Officer Cassidy followed along Everett avenue, but halted at Niles Lane when the boys plunged into the lake and swam across the aqueduct toward the Parkway.

Contacting Headquarters by radio, Officer Cassidy explained the situation and Officers James E. Flaherty and Motorcycle Officer William T. Haggerty were dispatched to head the boys off.

The youngsters were located by being able to see Officer Cassidy remaining in the cruiser, but the latter was informing Chief Charles J. Harrold of the boy's progress and the Chief was relaying this information to Officers Haggerty and Flaherty, who ultimately picked up the four surprised boys on the Parkway.

The quartet finally admitted having taken the kyaaks from the Terzaghi premises and took the police to where they had hidden them in bushes in Medford. They were given a stiff lecture by Chief Harrold and held at headquarters for their parents.

Miss Ann Weaver, daughter of Mr. E. A. Weaver, 324 Main street, was among more than 140 candidates for the bachelor of arts degree at Radcliffe College's 60th commencement. A graduate of Friends Seminary in New York City, Miss Weaver has majored in social relations while at Radcliffe. Her extra-curricular activities include membership in the Athletic Association, the Radcliffe League for Democracy, and the Choral Society.

Finger paints, construction paper, crayons, art books are in stock at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

JUNIOR LEGION OPENER JUNE 13

Winchester's new Junior Legion baseball team, sponsored by Winchester Post, A. L., outfitted by Hunsell Motors, local Ford dealers, and directed by Ted Bartlett, Winchester High School baseball and basketball coach, plays its first game of the season Sunday afternoon, June 13, at Loring avenue playground with the Danvers Junior Legion, commencing at three o'clock.

This is a non-league game as Danvers plays in the Essex County League while Winchester is a member of Zone 5-A of the Middlesex County League.

Winchester will play its first league game Thursday evening, June 17, at Leonard Field at 6:15 with Woburn, runner-up to Lowell for the zone championship last year, and favorite to cup the zone confalon this season with Lowell out of competition.

The Tanners have a veteran club with several of this year's crack Woburn High team on the roster, including the Orange ace right-hander, Freddie Hill.

Winchester's lineup, still in the tentative stage as a result of practice sessions still to be held, will probably be "Pitch" Kenton and "Ken" Donaghy as battery with Walter Murphy, 1st Base; C. O. or John Power, 2d; Junior Reardon, ss; and Paul Burke, 3d. Paul Amico, left; George "Major" Daniels, center; and Len Williams, right, make up the outfield with Donald Bates as spare. Extra infielders are Dave Dalton, Tony Ciruso and Eddie Crowley. Donald Wilson as the club's change pitcher with Fred Patterson, catching replacement. In the event Donaghy's injured hand will not permit him to catch the opener, though, Paul Amico will catch.

Tom McKee, Parker Blanchard and Abbie Macdonnell are the Legion committee in charge of the team, working with Director Bartlett. The club is limited to Winchester boys 14 years or over, who have not reached their 17th birthday Jan. 1, 1948.

Mrs. Daniel W. Henly Jr., of Bay Ridge, Annapolis, Maryland, is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Connor, 403 Main street.

WINCHESTER COUNTRY DAY OPEN HOUSE

Many prominent Winchester families attended the Winchester Country Day School open house at 91 Grove street last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Ennis, Jr., the owners, were host and hostess, and Mrs. Ennis, having been born and brought up in Winchester, was recognized by many guests as a former Wyman School mate, or the "little girl who walked past my house," or the "girl who taught Sunday School."

Adding charm to the open house were Mrs. Donald R. MacArthur, Mrs. Loris D. Mearham and Mrs. Warburton K. Ver Planck, who served tea and coffee at a long table on the spacious porch. A lovely floral arrangement for the center of the table was sent by Mr. Larry Blanchard of the Winchester Conservatories and combined pink and blue Gladiolas Triste with delphinium. Children who attended the open house with their parents had a small table of their own, decorated with a pink wagon filled with sweetheart roses and having a tall frosted pitcher of red fruit juices.

Parents had a chance to thoroughly inspect the school which is well planned, neat and appropriately equipped to care for children of pre-school age. Mrs. Ennis' educational training is clearly apparent in the efficiency of the school arrangement. Although educated in the Winchester Public School, Mrs. Ennis is aware of the need for a private school in Winchester, and has many plans for the future, including the building of a Country Day School which will take children from nursery school age through the third grade.

Parents enjoyed listening to her plans and meeting the charming head-teacher of the Country Day School, Mrs. William Hans, who comes from the Saltmarsh family of Winchester and is a Lesley College graduate. Previous engagements prevented a few families from attending the open house. Mrs. Ennis would be pleased to have them visit the school any time at their convenience.

William Steller Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loring P. Nichols of Winslow road, was graduated Sunday from Kimball Union Academy, "Nimble," a former Winchester "High" football stalwart, played on the academy varsity last fall and also participated in dramatics. He is headed for Dartmouth in the fall.

WINCHESTER TRACK MEN QUALIFIED

Three members of the Winchester High School track team, Capt. Ben Coe, Don Briddage and Harry Easton, qualified for the New England Interscholastic Track and Field Championships to be held June 14 at Exeter Academy in New Hampshire by placing in the district tryouts at Brookline last Saturday. Coe qualified by tying for first in the high jump, Briddage by placing third in the 220 yard dash and Easton by placing third in the 120 yard high hurdles.

Three other Winchester boys, Johnny Murphy, sprinter; Dick Smith, hurdler; and "Whip" Sullivan, miler, competed at Brookline, having won the right to do so by placing in the State meet the previous Saturday at Newton.

Murphy got shut out in the 220 yard trials last Saturday, but ran a good race, turning in the best time he has yet made. The going was pretty stiff for a sophomore, considering the adverse weather condition and Johnny had nothing at all to be ashamed of.

The same is true of Smith and Sullivan, though in the latter's case hard luck undoubtedly prevented him from finishing in the money.

"Whip" went right out from the start and led the mileers much of the first three laps, running beautifully and looking good to finish right up there if he did not indeed lead the field home.

At the start of the run lap, Gallagher of Fitchburg, the ultimate winner, passed Sullivan, but the Winchester boy dogged the leader around the curve and then sprinted into the lead again. "Whip" seemed to have plenty left, and was running strongly when he hit a soft place in the water-soaked and rainswept track. He apparently wrenched himself sharply as he was thrown forward off stride, and he never was able to straighten up, finally half turning and pitching off the track to fall in the turf with a painful "stitch."

Gallagher went on to win in 4m. 47s. with Earl Bohannon of Lynn English in second place. Joe LaPierre of Commerce, favorite to win the mile, was prevented from running by illness, and Bobby Cannon, Woburn's mile luminary, had a distinctly off day.

Smith ran well in his trial heat of the hurdles, being barely shut out. Coe tied with John Cooley, tow-ering Hingham jumper in the high jump at 5ft. 4in. Weather conditions made anything like good jumping out of the question.

Briddage placed third in his trial heat of the 220 and was heavily rushed out for second place in the final by Ray Altondi of Fitchburg with Jim Nawn of St. John's Prep the winner in 22.4s. There were only four lanes marked for a six lane race and the boys bunched up badly but apparently no protest was made though some good boys were shut out.

Easton placed second in his trial heat of the hurdles behind Thomas Flaherty of Boston English. He was second again in the fastest semi-final heat, behind Richard Dionisio of South Boston whose time was better than the final time.

Dionisio won the final with Flaherty second and Easton a good third in 16.3s.

Organized in October, 1947, with a constitution and by-laws and a full set of officers, the Studio Guild has just completed its eleventh year of continuous existence. During this time it has always had a full membership and a waiting list; and the growing enthusiasm and ever increasing artistic ability of its members have probably reached an all time high this spring.

The purpose of the organization, as stated in its constitution, is "to further the active study of art." A regular class in painting is held every Wednesday morning at the Studio. Members work in oils or watercolors or in both, and there is regular study of theory with exercises in drawing, and outside painting. Once every month there is an extra meeting or "Seminar" for discussion of famous artists and their work, with occasional visits to important exhibitions, and gallery talks by the teacher. When weather permits, the Guild meets out of doors for landscape painting, and trips to Rockport, Gloucester, Marblehead, the Wayside Inn, etc., have usually included a picnic and a full day of painting and sketching.

Every two years, and sometimes oftener, the Studio Guild holds an Exhibition of the work of its members, to which all Winchester friends are cordially invited. This year's Exhibition was held on Friday, June 4th, and is reviewed elsewhere in this issue.

Elizabeth M. Lohninger has been the teacher of the Guild from its beginning, with the exception of one short period when Francis J. Merritt very capably took over as substitute. Mrs. Lohninger is a distinguished artist of national reputation, and her superior ability, inspiration and warm personal interest have guaranteed the success of the enterprise from the very first. The Guild owes her a debt which could not be reckoned.

Since the founding of the Studio Guild, the following presidents have held office: Dorothy Howard, Frances Goffrey, Pauline Hall, Marion Symmes, Marion Whitten, Rosalie Bowne and Florence Simonds. The present officers are: President, Florence Simonds; Secretary, Mary L. Hodges; Treasurer, Margaret Bailey; Studio Arrangements, Pauline Hall; Custodian, Dorothy Howard.

GRADUATED FROM SIMMONS

Miss Shirley Hilda Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Snyder of 94 Hillcrest Parkway, and Margaret Marie Marcelle Ware, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ware of 1 Highland terrace, were among the 300 awarded degrees at the Simmons College Commencement exercises held Monday at Symphony Hall in Boston.

Miss Snyder was a member of Hillel of the English and Ellen Richards Clubs and of the college orchestra. Miss Ware was chairman of the Post Committee, on the art staff of "Microson," the college yearbook, and the Assembly Suggestion Committee, and a member of the Newman Club. She was also the winner of one of the Jackson general scholarships this fall.

DISCUSS JUNIOR HIGH PLANS NOW!

The accompanying letter has been sent to the Junior High School Building Committee, and I am submitting it to the "Star" urging that other Winchester citizens who may think similarly will make their wishes known while the plans are still in a formative stage.

Thank you!

Florence C. Jope,
 (Mrs. Ralph T. Jope)

June 9, 1948
 Mr. Philip P. Wadsworth, Chairman
 Junior High School Bldg. Comm.
 60 Oxford Street
 Winchester, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Wadsworth:

As the mother of a daughter about to enter Junior High School, and with two other children who will be ready for this step several years hence, I am very much interested in the proposal plans for the expansion of the Junior High School.

I am hopeful that your committee of five competent and sincere citizens will:

(1) consider the plans for the Junior High School from every angle necessary to produce the best possible facilities for the school in which all sixth grade Winchester children may look forward;

(2) consider alternate plans to those submitted by the School Facilities Committee to insure the most desirable final results;

(3) have the plans ready for presentation to the town as soon as possible, providing that the thorough and comprehensive study mentioned above be not sacrificed in the interest of speed;

(4) present the plans at informal meetings—such as the precinct meetings held last spring before they are given formal presentation in Town Hall floor, so that interested townspeople may be well informed about the plans and given an opportunity for questions and discussion.

Quoting from the article "Do You Want to Cheat a Child?" by Dr. Louis I. Dublin and Dr. Benjamin Fine in the Woman's Home Companion for June: "Education is more essential for the future of the world than ever before in our history. Our public schools, standing as the bulwark of the democratic way of life, deserve our utmost support."

Good luck to you and your committee in this project which—when completed—will be the best possible teaching and supervisory staff for our schools—should be of prime importance to all Winchester citizens!

Sincerely yours,
 Florence C. Jope

PARTY CLOSING HORRY CENTER UNTIL FALL

The Hobby Center wound up its spring and winter season with a bang-up (literally) party on Saturday morning, June 5 for all the young fry who have been coming to the Center this year. Despite the usual rainy weather, about sixty clamorous children stormed the doors ready for fun and frolic. At 10 o'clock the potato race got under way and Ginny d'Elseaux and Peter Rranhall copied top honors for the winning girl and boy. Then came the memory game and again Pete was the winning boy and three girls tied for first place—Florence Newton, Rose-Marie Ruma and Louise Ruma. Louise won the lucky draw and as the prize, Florence Newton and Sheila Scanlon were judged the winners in the turkey drawing contest. All then adjourned to the "peach and yellow" room to see a cowboy picture to end all cowboy pictures. Our great thanks go to Mr. John P. Robertson for again running off the film loaned to the Center. Ice cream and cookies finished off the morning as well as most of the helpers who were:

Mrs. Van Babcock
 Mrs. Stephen G. Nichols
 Mrs. T. T. Greenwood
 Miss Dorothy S. Gove
 Mrs. N. T. Joyner

EN KA ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the En Ka Society took place on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Alvin Litchfield on Niles lane. The plans had been for a garden luncheon and meeting, but the damp rainy day made indoors seem more attractive. A delicious dinner was served by Mrs. Walter S. Keyes and her committee, which includes Mrs. Russell Symmes, Mrs. R. Ronald Wyman, Mrs. Herbert Ross, and Miss Eleanor Dow.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, at 2:15.

Mrs. Marie Chaffee, an original member of En Ka, was present as the guest of Mrs. Elsie G. Pitman. She now lives in Belmont. Six provisional members were welcomed as active: Mrs. J. Girard Chamler, Mrs. Francis Chase, Mrs. Davenport Davis, Mrs. Paul Farrester, Jr., Mrs. Edward Kuyper, and Mrs. Walter Rounly.

Mrs. Clark Collins reported on membership.

Mrs. Charles Lovejoy, finance chairman, announced the following recent gifts: Home for Aged People, $250; missions fund; Home for Aged People, $50; rocking chairs, Scholarship Foundation, $50; Boy Scouts, for a swimming pool, $400.

En Ka members have spent about 4000 work hours in civic work during the 1947-48 year.

Financial support to Winchester charities totaled $7,923.67 over the past year.

Mrs. Langley Keyes reporting for the civic committee, reported three dinners given at the Home for the Aged, and many birthday cakes for both the Bedford Hospital and Home for the Aged.

An En Ka member has taken the book truck around at the Winchester Hospital every Friday since March 1st.

Stunges have been made for the Winchester Hospital and knitting has been done for the Red Cross.

Since Mrs. Franklin Lane, retiring chairman of En Ka What-Not Shop was in Washington, her report was read by Mrs. Philip Bartlett. Profits for the year were $1604.34.

After a resolution read by the secretary, Mrs. Philip Woodward, there was a standing vote of thanks given Mrs. Lane for her three years of devoted service to the shop.

Mrs. Franklin Flanders gave a detailed report of the Street Fair and particularly thanked the husbands for their part in the success of the fair. Members of the Board of Managers gave spirited reports, many of which were in rhyme. In spite of rainy weather the sum of $4,707.61 profit was realized on the fair.

Officers for next year were elected as follows:

TEELE PAPER TRADE WINNER

Royal P. Teele, of Walgenton avenue, perennial president of the Palmer Beach Horse Show Association, successfully defended his title of Horse Show Champion of the Boston Paper Trade Monday afternoon in the rain at the Paper Trade outing at the Charles River Country Club.

This announcement is going to be something of a shock to Arthur E. Butters, "sometimes called the State of Maine Champ", whose opinion of Mr. Teele's prowess with the shoes has never been as high as other admirers could wish for.

Royal won under frightful conditions, it being necessary to scrape thick mud from the shoes after every toss while constant mopping was necessary to keep sufficient water from the eyes of the competitors to enable them to sight their pitches at the stake. Competition was keen and his fellow members of the Paper Trade did their darndest to give Mr. Teele "the works".

All to no avail! Had his opponents known of the many hours of secret practice put in by Mr. Teele, during which he had the advantage of coaching by that Palladin of the irons, "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of All Nabasset, they would have given up. Palmer Beach competitors long have recognized that the man with McLaughlin in his corner always wins. Mr. Teele was "in the money" from the minute Mr. McLaughlin took him on to tutor.

Miss Marjorie Norris, daughter of School Superintendent and Mrs. Forbes H. Norris, was among the students at Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., named to the college fall honor roll at the recent announcement of honors there. "Marjorie" is a graduate of Winchester High School and has been active in sports at Rollins since her entrance last fall.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB LOSES TO BELMONT, 8-1

The local puck chasers succumbed to a strong Belmont team at the Skating Club last Sunday afternoon. What appeared to be unnecessary rough play on the part of the winning team had a lot to do with the size of the score. While Winchester drew but two penalties of a minor nature throughout the contest, Belmont had seven of the high-stick, board-check and roughing variety, and might well have been given more. Don Armstrong received an inch and a half cut over his left eye making necessary a trip to the hospital and seven stitches early in the first period. Scott Donib suffered an injured knee in the second period.

Bruce Mather, former Dartmouth College star and a member of this year's U. S. Olympic Team, opened the scoring, getting Belmont's first goal unassisted midway of the first period. The locals tied it up at one all before the end of the period on a pretty passing play. Livingstone to Monson to Burnett, Wimpy firing the puck home.

With Armstrong out for the remainder of the game, to be closely followed by Donib, the second and third periods were quite uneventful. In spite of some high class netmanning by Winchester's Scotty Connor, Belmont piled up three more tallies in the second period. J. Kelley assisted by McGuinness, followed by Mather unassisted, and J. Kelley again. J. Kelley scored his third early in the third period, followed by Mather, and Crowley got Belmont's eighth and last marker a fraction of a second before the final buzzer.

J. Kelley with his hat trick and Bruce Mather were outstanding players. Incidentally Mather played a good clean game and had no penalties. Don Ellis, Whip Saltmarsh and Jim Fuller seemed to stand up the best for the locals under all the roughness and pounding, skating hard and fast for long intervals without replacement.

On Saturday, June 12th at four o'clock in the afternoon Winchester plays the Wintthrop Indians. Monday evening, June 14th, at eight o'clock the locals wind up their season in the Mayflower League with the Huskies, most of whom are Northeastern University players sparked by their outstanding star Jimmy Bell. Hockey fans please note these dates and times and be on hand to encourage the local boys. Both these games will be at the Skating Club.

As in the case of all other sports, the Town Softball League was hard hit by the frequent rain of the past week and only six scheduled games were played. The feature of these six games was the tremendous display of power by the Sons of Italy over the Beggs and Cobb outfit in pumding them to a 28 to 6 defeat. The Sons were still smarting from a last inning defeat pinned on them by the V. F. W. and the Tanners were the innocent victims.

The feature game of next week should come on Wednesday when the Sons of Italy meet the St. Mary's at the West Side field. Most of the St. Mary's performed last year for the Christopher Columbus Club and there is a natural rivalry between these two teams. An added feature will be the appearance of Sam Bellino in the St. Mary's lineup and Sam can be depended upon to give the fans plenty of thrills with his spectacular performances and all-around hustle.

The schedule for next week:

Sunday, June 13

AN INTERESTING "FIRST"

Thursday morning, June 3rd, the Mystic School sixth grade met in the assembly hall with grades 1 and 5 as guests to read the first volume of "The Mystic Mirror", a "Reflection of Seven Happy Years" of "The Mystic Mirror", a year book compiled by committees of the sixth grade under the guidance of Mrs. Vincent Scammon and the advice and direction of Miss Asher, the Principal; their teacher, Miss Murray and Miss French, the art teacher.

John Swazy, the announcer, called Miss Asher to the stage where she was formally presented with the first copy by Marilyn Dyer accompanied by Marcia Cunningham, Dabney Pierce, and Robert Willing.

Sheila Scanlon read the following dedication: "To Miss Marguerite Asher, our beloved principal, the first edition of the Mystic Mirror is dedicated."

Marcia Cunningham read the message which Miss Asher wrote for the issue.

A Trip Through the Years, the class history, was read by Mary Louise Howe and Ann Whitton.
Snay Garvey and Stephen Nichols shared the reading of the class will which included many people, also many bequests of unusual character.

Activities for this year were read by Nancy Morse and Thomas Cahill.

The Class Prophecy was in letter form dated June 1, 1939 and written to John P. Becker, Pres.
Becker Engineering Corporation,
Kalamazoo, Michigan. Bill Kelly, in costume, read this very interesting prophecy.

Sketches are included showing the first day of school activities, last day etc.

Many thanks are due Mrs. Scanlon who met many times with the various pupil committees, helped plan and set up the booklet, complete with cover and nomenclature.

NORMA NEFF LEAVING FOR ARGENTINA

Norma Neff, one of the most active members of the Girl Scout out-of-door Storrow Troop 1, is leaving next week, with her family, for Colorado, her paternal home, and then on to Buenos Aires in Argentina in September where she will live for three years.

Her reputation as an out-of-door girl with extensive knowledge in the arts of camping, coupled with her ability to convey that knowledge to others, plus a vivacious personal appeal, has spread far and wide. Not only did she take part in all of her own troop's various activities but was always ready to help leaders of intermediate and brownie troops with their out-of-door training programs. Last fall she was a member of the Mobile Unit, a State program whereby senior girls, outstanding in camping knowledge, are chosen to help train adult leaders wishing to know more about that field. This spring she was invited to assist Mrs. Bond in the Cedar Hill week-end with the games and setting up of camp when the lucky few girls were selected from state-wide representatives to attend the National Encampment at Cooperstown this summer.

Many Winchester people will miss Norma for her artistic talents and will remember the many, many samples of her work displayed in the High School art exhibits in the Library. Who will take the part of Black Mamba in "Little Black Sambo" and Polichinelle in "Colum-bina's Birthday," the troop's puppet shows and who will decorate the troop's invitations, place cards, scenery, etc., and who will

Guide Book Author

WINCHESTER TO HAVE OWN GUIDE BOOK

Winchester is to have its own Guide and Directory, according to a statement given to the "Star" by Thomas C. McNamara, personable young publisher who is heading the group making arrangements for the publication which will be issued some time in the fall.

The Guide and Directory will follow the lines of the very successful similar book already published in Wellesley, Mr. McNamara stating that his group chose Winchester as one of the first places in which to publish because of the nature of the town and its standing among communities of Greater Boston.

The publication will have a list of Winchester residents by streets, including house numbers and occupations. There will also be a list of Winchester residents, printed alphabetically, with addresses and telephone numbers.

A directory of all streets will be included in the book with the names and heads of all clubs and other organizations of the town and a history of Winchester. Town facts and statistics will be included with fire alarm signals, local emergency calls, church listings and information, and a classified shopping directory.

Publishers of the Guide Book state that 5000 copies of the publication will be distributed to all residents of Winchester, free of charge, including new residents of the town. You have probably guessed by now that the insertion of advertisements in the book will pay the cost of publication. An attractive local-interest cover is being planned for the publication and the format of the Wellesey book, which the Winchester book will follow, is both dignified and readable, with good type, fine white paper and spiral binding for easy opening.

Mr. McNamara, who has already met a number of Winchester's merchants and who professes himself as pleased both with the town and his reception, is 32 years old and a native of Elmira, N. Y. He graduated from Cornell University, has lived in California and recently was discharged from the army after serving as a 1st Lieutenant in the First Cavalry Division in the Pacific area. He and his wife, Anabel, are very active in the Wellesey Players Club, he having been a member of the cast for the Players production of "The Barrets of Wimpole Street."

Mr. McNamara can be contacted at P. O. Box 162, Winchester, or by calling Higelow 4-7891.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT FLOATS ONWARD

Thanks to one of the wettest seasons in memory the Winchester Town Get-acquainted Spring Doubles Tournament is making only slow progress towards the finals.
Nevertheless, the fans are working hard whenever Jupiter Pluvius takes forty winks, and some day you will be warned of impending finals.

The official times for continuing the tournament still remain at 10 a. m. on both Saturdays and Sundays. To date no one has been defaulted from either the Family or the Mixed Doubles. So, if the weather permits, be on hand at these times or send word to the Committee at the Palmer street courts as to when your arrival can be expected. Let's get together and give the harassed Committee much more than the usual cooperation!

"NORWEGIAN NIGHT SUCCESS"

Informality and fun were the keynotes of the Norwegian Night at the Epiphany Parish House on Wednesday evening June 2, where an overflowing crowd enjoyed a Scandinavian Smorgasbord Supper and at the same time contributed to the fund for the "adopted" Norwegian public school at Kvalund, Norway.

The supper, in charge of Ola of Ola's Restaurant in Boston, was decoratively presented by Mr. John Johnson of her staff. The entertainment, from songs by Madame Ola herself to Norwegian movies ably run off by Mr. George Roghaar of Whitwell street, was a happy success. Great interest was shown in the costumes of the four dancing ladies as each costume represented a different section of the country and had a separate history and meaning. Georges Honle of Rangeley auctioned off attractive Norwegian handwork including even Norwegian paper dolls; he was also in charge of the raffle of a huge ham, which was borne home by the lucky Dr.
Harry L. Benson of Washington street.

Miss Dorothy Gove, director of the Children's Own School, "parent" to the "adopted" Norwegian School, reports a very good start on the fund to help rebuild its burnt schoolbuilding.

Now available in the paper line:
Dustex dusting tissue, paper napkins, coffee cups, at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

Now that summer weather is starting to put in an appearance applications for Camp Fellsdale are coming in very heavy daily. As of the first of this week better than 100 new boys have signed up to take part in the all day summer program at Camp Fellsdale for one or more weeks.

The camp season will officially get under way on July 11th and run until August 22nd. In the meantime, however, there are many groups visiting camp every week-end and getting in practice sessions and getting acquainted with the camp layout. Many improvements have been made since last summer and are still being made.

New water lines have been laid, new beds have been put up in the various camping areas and a new wharf is being built to be ready before the boys come in to camp. This new wharf was made available through the efforts of the Enka Society of Winchester.

The staff this year is pretty well lined up with a fair proportion of last year's staff returning to take up their duties that they had last year.

A new aluminum boat has been ordered and is now in transit from the Grumman Aircraft Corp. and will be tried out thoroughly this summer in camp, so that if it proves its worth this summer additional ones can be purchased.

Some old time campers seem to think it is the best in the world while others seem to think it still has some flaws. Officials of Camp Fellsdale felt it would be best to have one of their own to experiment with to see if it will work in the program at a Scout camp.

The monstrous fireplace that is in the Memorial Lodge has had its face lifted by having a fine pine mantel put up around the alcove, and benches where Scouts and their parents can sit and chat have been installed in this fireplace nook.

The new kitchen has had a complete paint job done and looks like a modern hotel kitchen. This is a must for every one in Fellsdale Council area to visit and admire.

All registered Boy Scouts in this area are eligible to go to Camp Fellsdale, but a warning has been sent out that early registration will assure the weeks that you would like to go. Sign up now.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

This was a big week-end for Girl Scouts in Winchester—from the "dy-up" for fourth grade Brownies to the light home with the Cape by the Wing Scouts.

On Sunday afternoon, in front of the High School, each fifth grade Scout presented a fourth grade Brownie to Mrs. George Cary, Commissioner, to receive a pair of "wings." Mrs. Cary spoke to the girls and their parents, reminding the new Scouts of their Scout laws and obligations to live up to them. Nearly 100 new Scouts listened with rapt and serious eyes and parents nodded, realizing that their girls were beginning to take more responsibility, as becomes fifth graders!

Shortly after that we all went into the auditorium for the "Scouts" Dinner. The salute to the flag was led by Norma Noff, followed by the hymn "These Things Shall Be."
Troop 6 gave a choral reading,
"Finlandia" was sung by a picked chorus; then Troop 1 presented the ceremony of the Law, in which Virginia Ballard was the spirit of the Law. Mrs. Cary gave the "Oath of Scouting." Mrs. Cary spoke on "Scouting and the Democratic Way of Life," emphasizing the fine privilege Scouts have to serve God and our Country, by example and deed.

Certificates were presented to the sixth and eighth grade girls.
This was a special surprise, and I am sure many who were absent were indeed sorry to have missed this feature. Watch out for next year, girls!

Pins for 10 years of Scouting were presented to Martha Bailey, Elizabeth Barrett, Betty Chipman,
Beth McCall, and Carolyn Zinn; and to Mrs. Francis McCall Mrs.
Edward Zinn and Mrs. Edin Bailey.

The Wing Scouts had a wonderful week-end, thanks to their leaders, Holly James and Mrs. Francis McCall. Beth's mother, On Saturday the girls headed for the Cape, half by car and half by train (although they had planned to fly down). The group that went by train were met by Mrs. McCall who had driven the others to the Mc-Call camp. All the plans had been made by the girls, from group cooking to bed rolls. After a bountiful supper, the girls walked to radio station WOCB which is a "rebroadcast" station. Every one was most cordial and the girls were privileged to listen to several programs in the central control room, even to "Gangbusters."

The stroll back to the cottage was enhanced by a beautiful red sky, which to all sky-minded people means a clear day the next day!
When they arrived at the cottage, the girls had fun in surprising their leaders and Mrs. McCall with a party and gifts! Rumor hath it that the party continued off and on all night, long after lights were out!

Nevertheless, many of the girls were up and had a swim before breakfast. Later some went to church, while others drove to pick up their reservations, for all the girls flew back to Boston, all eight of them, and were met by Mr. Hersey at Logan Airport.

The week-end was not as expensive as it sounds, for the money from dues and the Wings' dance financed the whole thing, and there is something very special about a trip a troop has earned the money for, a very thrilling and good ending to a fine year.

Those who went were: Elaine Hersey, Jackie Fitch, Beth Mc-Call, Betty DeCourcy, Marcia Flaherly, Kathleen Finn, Mary Mc-Laur and Joan McKinley, and now you know why they are in a trance!

Paul Butterworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Butterworth of Englewood road, was graduated from Boston University College of Business Administration with the degree of Bachelor of Science on June 7.

CUB PACK 6 HAD SUPPER

On Friday evening, June 11th, the Men's Club of the Unitarian Church gave a supper for the Cub Scouts of Pack 6, their fathers and the Den Mothers. Mr. William Wolsey, President, was head chef, chief auctioneer of extra supplies, and expert chairman of the Supper Committee. Reverend Paul H.
Chapman, Cub Master, pronounced the blessing, and spoke to the boys on the accomplishments of Pack 6 telling of many Cubes who have later become prominent in Scouting.

PROPOSED PLANS FOR A WINCHESTER SUMMER SCHOOL

The Winchester Central Mothers' Association, in conjunction with the Winchester Public School system, proposes to sponsor a Summer School which will open on Monday, June 28 and continue through Friday, July 30. No session would be scheduled for Monday, July 5. During the five-week period opportunity would be offered pupils of grades four, five, and six, and pupils of the Junior and Senior High Schools to make up work failed during the year or to help themselves to stronger scholastic rating. Only English and arithmetic classes would be available for Junior High School pupils.

Under this proposal, classes will be formed if there are at least ten pupils in a group, all of whom must be recommended by the school. A fee of twenty-five dollars on the first day and the remainder not more than two weeks later.

Classes will run from eight-thirty to eleven-thirty for five days each week. Younger pupils may be scheduled for less than the full three hour period. Only pupils who have failed, or who need to be strengthened will be recommended for enrollment. The teacher of the summer session class will recommend placement of the pupil in September.

Elementary pupils will meet in the Wynman School, and the junior and senior high school pupils will meet in the High School.

Parents who are interested in the proposed summer school should give their names to their school principal at once, for the response to this proposal will determine whether the plans will be put into effect.

Rain Prevented Plans for Outdoor Exercises

Rain prevented plans for Winchester High School's first outdoor graduation exercises Sunday afternoon, making it necessary to hold the usual exercises in the school auditorium during the evening. Had the weather been good the program would have taken place during the afternoon at the rear of the Junior High School, arrangements having been completed to reveal the first outdoor commencement with motion pictures in color.

Safety laws prevent seating the graduates on the small stage of the auditorium and they occupied the entire center section of the floor. As usual the graduates formed in the balcony and marched into the auditorium, led by the tallest girl and boy, Ann Mathewson and Ernest Clark. For the procession the High School orchestra, directed by Fred Felmet, played Elmer's stately march, "Pomp and Circumstance."

A central basket of white lilies on the stage was flanked on either side of the platform with baskets of pink gladioli. The National and State Colors were also displayed and at the rear of the platform was "Class of 1948" in individual letters of black, divided in the center with the words, "Winchester High" displayed in a circular arrangement, framed in black with a thin line of red. The decorations were simple but very effective and were executed by a student committee directed by Margaret Holmes. The letters were done by the school art department.

On the platform were seated Principal Wade L. Grindle of the high school, Mrs. Henry K. Spencer, former chairman of the School Committee and the chairman of the Foundation Scholarship Committee; Mr. Hazen Ayer, current chairman of the School Committee; and the Rev. Dr. J. M. Merrill, pastor of the Second Congregational Church, who opened and closed the graduation exercises.

Following the invocation the class president, Richard C. Kugler, delivered the first of five student addresses on "The Problem of Professionalism in Athletics." He was followed by Miss Lois Hottel, whose subject was "Why Study a Foreign Language?" and by Peter P. Sorokin who spoke on "The Benefits of Studying Science."

The High School Chorus, directed by Miss Eleanor Anfantis, sang "Beautiful Saviour, an old Crusader's Hymn, arranged by Rieger; and "America the Beautiful," by Bates. The chorus sang unaccompanied. June Ryan played the introductory choruses.

Following the chorus, came the concluding student addresses, "The Values of High School English" by Edward C. Shaw, and "Memories" by Margaret Holmes. The last turned out to be something of a class history addressed both to the graduates and their parents. The orchestra followed the speakers, playing the "Seventh and Eighth

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Ralph M. Buehrer (Elmore Terhune) of Hamilton, Ohio, was matron-of-honor. Maryann Kimball Blaisdell of Lexington was flower girl. The bridesmaids were Mrs. John H. Blake (Joan Hanson), and Miss Anne Blake of Ipswich, Miss Barbara Bonnell of Winchester, and Miss Alice Parrish of Rochester, New York.

The matron-of-honor wore an off-the-shoulder dress of Nile green taffeta styled with a bertha and a large bow in the back which gave a bustle effect. Her cascade bouquet consisted of Catalina roses and she wore matching flowers in her hair.

The bridesmaids wore orchid dresses styled like that of the honor matron. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow roses with matching flowers in their hair.

The flower girl wore a long off-white tulle dress with a scalloped-edged bertha and a sash with a large bow in the back with streamers to the floor. She carried a white basket filled with spring flowers and sweetheart roses, and wore an old-fashioned wrist bouquet and a matching tiara in her hair.

Mr. Edmund R. Smith of Wrentham, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. The usher corps was headed by Ralph M. Buehrer of Hamilton, Ohio, brother-in-law of the bride, and included Robert Byford of Winchester, Robert Perigo of Beverly, Robert Miller of Northfield, Philip Gilmore of Brookton, and John Blake of Ipswich.

The reception which immediately followed the wedding was held in the Ladies' Parlor and Lawrence Hall. The parlor was beautifully decorated with bouquets of white flowers, ranunculus, ferns and palms. At one end of the hall was the wedding cake on a table covered with a cloth embroidered by the bride's paternal grandmother. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by their parents and the matron-of-honor.

Mrs. Terhune, mother of the bride, wore a dusty rose crepe dress with white accessories, and a white hat trimmed with blue. Her corsage was a white tulle ranunculus and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Herson, mother of the groom, wore a gold crepe dress with black accessories, and a black picture hat. She had an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Herson will spend several days at Sebaco Lodge, Sebaco Estates in Maine, and will then tour Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. In the fall they will make their home in Amherst while Mr. Herson continues his studies at the University of Massachusetts.

The bride graduated from Winchester High School and Linsell Junior College. The groom graduated from Winchester High School, attended Tufts College and has finished 2 years of studying to be a veterinarian at the University of Massachusetts. He served in the U. S. Naval Air Forces for three years.

SAILING FOR EUROPE

Miss Eleanor Anfantis, director of choral music in the Winchester schools will sail on the 30th of June for Europe where she will spend the summer months. A tour has been planned through France, Switzerland, Italy and Greece. In Italy, Miss Anfantis plans to visit LaScala in Milan, the Academy of Music in Rome and other musical centers. In Greece, sometime will be spent at the University of Athens and at Salonika where she has been invited for a brief stay.

MISS CARROLL NOT TO TEACH RED CROSS SWIMMING HERE

Miss Helen Jay Carroll, director of Physical Education and coach of girls at Winchester High School, is not to teach the Winchester Red Cross Water Safety Course this summer as announced in last week's Star.

Instead she is to do similar instructing at the Cohasset Yacht Club for the Cohasset Red Cross Chapter.

Miss Carroll received the offer from Cohasset after she had accepted the Winchester position. A number of features of the Cohasset job particularly appealed to her and she asked to be relieved from her Winchester commitment in the event she was able to secure a suitable substitute.

This was satisfactory to the local authorities and Miss Carroll was fortunately able to spare Dan Armstrong, former Winchester High School athlete, who has just completed his sophomore year at Wesleyan.

Don was highly recommended for the local job by Winchester High's Athletic Director, Henry Knowlton, under whom he served for four years as a waterfront supervisor and instructor at Camp Wyanoke. Don has played varsity football at Wesleyan and made the trip to Winchester each week and during the past season to play with the Winchester Hockey Club. He will attend Camp Wyanoke, the National Red Cross Aquatic School in South Hadley before commencing his Winchester duties. Miss Carroll is a member of the instructor staff at Kwanis this year.

POPULAR TEACHER OF FRENCH RETIRES

After twenty-four years as a teacher of French in Winchester High School, Mrs. Ethel Knowlton Dean is retiring from teaching at the conclusion of this school year.

A graduate of Colby College, Magna Cum Laude, Miss Knowlton is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

As evidence of her studies in France, Miss Knowlton holds a Certificat d'Etudes Francaises from the Sorbonne and the University of Toulouse. She received her Master of Arts degree from Middlebury College, attending the famous French School there.

Miss Knowlton, who has sponsored extra curricular activities at the High School and has served on innumerable committees is a member of Chi Omega, a national sorority. She also holds membership in the Alliance Francaise of Boston, the French Library Association and French Center of Boston. A Unitarian by faith, Miss Knowlton is a member of the Winchester Art Club, the Winchester Teachers' Club, and the National Education Association.

K. OF C. LADIES' NIGHT

Mindful of the pastime and understanding of its ladies, in allowing the members so many nights out for Council activities, Winchester Council, 210 K. of C., will wind up its present fraternal year with a Ladies' Night.

Wednesday evening, June 30, is the date and will be held at the Wolcott Country Club. P. G. K. Haggerty and a most enthusiastic committee have completed all arrangements for a gala evening for members of Winchester Council and their ladies and have provided for dancing, refreshments and entertainment.

Brothers are urged to make reservations now by spraying tickets from ticket committee chairman William D. Sullivan or any member of the committee.

MISS CROWELL ON STUDENT TOUR

Ann Crowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Crowell of Swan road, graduated from Smith College on Monday and is smiling from Quebec today on a student tour. She is one of two Smith girls accepted for the trip which will include visits to France, the Netherlands and Switzerland. Her sister, Barbara, recently elected vice president of next year's senior class at Westover School, which she attends, is motoring to Quebec with a school friend from Gloucester. After seeing the boat sail and a trip through Canada, Barbara will return for a few days visit in Gloucester.

WINCHESTER ORGANIZES FOR COMMUNITY FUND DRIVE

A recent organization meeting of the Winchester Fund, held at the Highland avenue home of Chairman Earl Carrier, angured well for Winchester's successful participation in next fall's campaign as a part of the Greater Boston Community Fund and its fifty cooperating communities. A distinguished and experienced group of committee and division heads were assembled, all of whom were present at the meeting, with a single exception on account of illness. Present also were Richard A. Dow, head of the multi-community area that includes Winchester, and Charles F. Ernst, Executive Secretary of the Greater Boston Community Fund, Metropolitan Area.

Clear comprehension of the importance of this great community effort to Winchester residents individually and collectively was demonstrated in the lively discussion and plans for action that featured this gathering. All were conscious of the dependence of Winchester's own numerous and vital activities on the success of the fund, a success made possible only by the understanding support of thousands of unselfish, far-sighted and public spirited members of the community. There is the Home for Aged People, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the District Nursing Association, the Social Service Council, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Winchester Hospital, not to mention the scores of agencies beyond the borders of our town but no less essential to the health and well being of us all.

Chairman Carrier announced the appointment of the following former leaders of this great community effort as his Advisory Committee: James Novard, President of the Winchester of Heriot Chest, R. H. B. Smith, Chairman of the past season's campaign, and Ralph T. Jope, Chairman of the 1946 campaign.

Vice Chairmen named to aid and abet Mr. Carrier in the coming cooperative effort were Howard R. Bartlett and Sherman B. Russell.

Waholt B. Thompson who led the 1947 Winchester Community Fund campaign to a brilliantly successful conclusion has been named by Mr. Carrier as Associate Community Chairman for Special Solicitation, an assignment of exceptional importance and worthy of Mr. Thompson's prowess. Other noteworthy appointments included those of Heriot P. Wadsworth as Chairman of the Districts Division, Prof. Gerald B. Tallman as Chairman of the important committee for providing fund workers with information and guidance, Mrs. James D. Murray as Chairman of Administration, responsible for the fund's local office and its essential control activities, David K. Young, Chairman of the Committee on Clubs and Organizations, Leslie J. Scott, Chairman of the Committee on Industries and Banks, and Edward H. Duncan, Chairman of the Rental Committee.

The above leaders have already evidenced their active interest in the task ahead by lining up capable and energetic assistants and organization of the fund's hundreds of Winchester workers is proceeding apace.

LOCAL PILGRIMAGE TO LA-SALETTE SHRINE SUNDAY

On this Sunday, June 29th, a large number of local residents plan to join in pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Our Lady of LaSalette in Ipswich. The devotion at the shrine will be led by Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Boston.

Nearly every Sunday afternoon, groups from cities and towns of the Archdiocese join in prayer to Our Lady of LaSalette at this beautiful outdoor shrine. Tens of thousands of pilgrims are attracted there each summer.

The devotion begins at 3 o'clock with a procession through the sunny gardens, followed by the Way of the Cross along the trees leading to the shrine. Bishop Wright will then preside over the solemn and give Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The local group will be joined in the pilgrimage by hundreds of Wolcott people and a group from Albany, N. Y. Those who wish to arrange for transportation to the shrine should make reservations by calling the Immaculate Conception Rectory or Father Sennott of St. Mary's.

BLEACHER SEATS CONDEMNED

A meeting of School and Park authorities was held Tuesday evening to discuss replacing the bleacher seats used at football and other athletic contests in Winchester. These seats have been condemned for further use as not conforming to state regulations for such units.

Nothing can be done to the old circus seats Winchester has had for so long, and it is proposed to sell these to some out-of-state community where their use will be permitted. The seating units purchased last year can be fixed to conform to the new regulations.

The new units, however, will prove wholly inadequate to care for the crowds at football games and it is proposed to ask the Finance Committee for funds to provide additional seats at Manchester Field.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Frank H. Knight and Mrs. Burt R. Gage were hostesses for the Winchester Garden Club, June 10 at the home of Mrs. Knight on the Parkway. Mrs. Norman Mitchell and Miss Mildred Stone joined. White snapdragons and blue iris in a silver container gave a festive appearance to the serving table with its silver and delicate china. Cheerfulness radiated from flame-colored gladioli in a blue container in the living room.

The president, Mrs. Norman Mitchell, read several communications to the club and presented business which would end the year's work. The club voted its yearly donation to the Junior League of Boston for its Embankment project where little children plant gardens and have the joy of not only learning to plant but receiving the result of their work—baskets of vegetables to take home.

Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon, horticulture and conservation chairman, gave as usual an interesting report from the June 1st meeting of the State Horticultural Committee; reporting that the Seeds for Peace project in Mass. Garden clubs had collected $14,036.92.

Mrs. Robert Whitten, recording secretary, gave a report of the year's activities which included the Committee's work. The usual "Off The Record" in verse form by Mrs. Whitten is as follows: "Gardens are such friendly things... They set the neighbors calling... 'Don't you want some zinnia seeds?'... Or, 'Rain will soon be falling... See, my marigolds are up!... Your sweet peas are they growing?'... Pretty soon you have a friend... Almost without your knowing... Link you to your neighbor... You just have to go and see... The products of his labor... Gardens are such friendly things!"

They raise much more than flowers... Friendships true and kind and strong... Spring from garden hours."

The officers elected for the year 1948-1949 were: President, Miss Mildred Stone; Vice President, Mrs. William H. Goodhue; Recording Secretary, Mrs. John B. Wills; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon; Treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Pittman.

Mrs. Norman Mitchell presented Miss Mildred Stone who spoke of the talent in the club and thought material could be obtained there. She asked for suggestions for programs. Mrs. Mitchell continued to preside until the close of her meeting.

The subject for the afternoon was the "World's Ten Most Valuable Trees." Informative material, some humorous and quotations from the Scriptures were stimulating; discussion followed.

Mrs. J. Edward Downs spoke on the Fig Tree, giving a historical resume, description of the tree, and that the Fig Growers of California imported from Smyrna the Chalked fly pollinating the figs. Mrs. Downs' closing message was, "All trees seem to me a good deal like people and this particular member of the tree family has been a most generous philanthropist in the contribution to the human family. It has afforded the shade of its foliage to man for his leisure hours when he rested from his labors. Its fruit has sustained him as food and the fruits are among the most important products of his labor. It is easy to understand why the fig tree symbolizes power and prosperity."

Mrs. Robert M. Stone's subject was the Lemon Tree; blossom and fruit on the tree at the same time. The fruit is picked by size and color. Mrs. Stone later on in the program read W. W. Watts' verse on "The Banquet Ballad."

Mrs. William H. Gilpatrick's subject, the Coconut Tree was told in verse. The opening verse was as follows:

HATS OFF TO THE COCONUT PALM
"Hold, my child, the coconut palm,
To whose broad top, without a quail,

Climb dark-skinned natives,
Each intent on seeking Nature's water-nymph?"

Mrs. John B. Wills presented the Apple Tree giving many quotations from the Bible. Prayers to the Song of Solomon where the apple is mentioned.

Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon had for her subject, the Olive Tree. In New Zealand there are thirty-five species growing from 50 to 60 feet high. The wild olive spray of the Olympic and the olive grove of the Roman Empire indicates the esteem in which it was held.

Mrs. Richard Wynne speaking on the Cinchona Tree said, "The tree or shrub has thirty-eight species and grows on the slopes of the Andes. One pound of bark were sent from Peru to Java, and from that developed the quinine industry which provided 90% of the World's supply of quinine before the war."

Mrs. Robert Whitten's list of Ten Trees is unique: The Tree of Life, Washington Elm, Charter Oak, Legend of the Christmas Tree, Joyce Kilmer's Tree, Sugar Plum Tree, Washington Cherry Tree, Rock A Bye Baby In The Tree-Top, Twisting Oak, and the group of trees in the Unitarian Churchyard in memory of three boys in World War I.

Miss Mildred Stone's assignment was the Mulberry Tree. "It is interesting to know that the Indians of the Southern States have some way of obtaining the bark of the red Mulberry tree and then weaving it into cloth. The white Mulberry tree is small and very ornamental. The fruit is white and tinted pink; blooming in April and May and early in the summer. It is known as a good silk-worm plant."

Mrs. Theodore von Rosenzweig, Sr., subject was the Banana Tree which has a subterranean stem or rhizome. The story was told of the late Captain Alonzo D. Baker of Welfleet, Mass., owner of the Schooner Telegraph who brought the first cargo of bananas from Jamaica to Boston in 1871. Capt. Baker and nine men organized the Boston Fruit Co. in 1884. The United Fruit Co. was incorporated through a consolidation of the Boston Fruit Co. in 1899. At the close of the talk folders on Banana Receipts were given to members. In the discussion Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini said that Mr. Angelo Ghirardini, Sr., was the first broker to purchase Capt. Baker's bananas (they were red ones). The firm was the G. Angelo Fruit Co. It is of interest to know that Mr. Virgil Ghirardini of Winchester carries on his father's business today.

Mrs. Norman Mitchell in her closing message graciously expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the members. The club recognizes the contribution she has made to the club for the two years she has served as president. Her Flemish Flower Arrangement at the Annual Flower Show for the Winchester Garden Club will always be remembered gratefully by its members. Mrs. Mitchell entertained her Board at Luncheon at Shaker Glen, June 17. The Board presented her with a Chinese Flower Container.

The club appreciates the generous space the Winchester Star has given to the Winchester Garden Club meetings and its activities. The club also appreciates the attractive folders of Banana Receipts given by the United Fruit Co.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES
Trip to Old Sturbridge Village

The Committee for the Preservation of Antiques reports a very interesting and pleasant trip to Old Sturbridge Village, Sturbridge, on June 11.

A small but spirited group of Fortnightly members who not only believe in the old proverb "make hay while the sun shines" but also, conversely "make sunshine while the rain falls," left Winchester Summer Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, well equipped with rainy weather apparel. Yes, we made use of it all—and a couple of blankets besides!

American history is veritably brought to life in this little village, typical of any central New England town of the early 19th century. From its living museum and crafts center the visitor may relive the daily life of his forefathers. It was a pleasure indeed to be greeted at the Solomon Richardson House—a "salt-box" built about 1748 by the hostess dressed in an early 19th century costume with the gentle manners befitting the period. One could almost wish himself back as he followed this gracious lady through the house.

The old mill with its huge wheel in motion, the miller grinding his grain between two pairs of ancient millstones, the blacksmith shop with its hand hammers and ox break, the tin shop, the old country store—an actual store that once stood in a village of Connecticut—and many other working centers were proof indeed of the ingenuity and skill of our energetic ancestors.

Old Sturbridge Village, opened to the public on June 8, 1946, is rapidly improving its value as an educational institution.

Watch for the Committee's announcement of another interesting trip in the Fall.

WINDOW DEDICATED IN BELMONT OF LOCAL INTEREST

A beautiful stained glass window installed at Phylon Park Congregational Church in Belmont, was dedicated last Sunday, June 13 in memory of Mrs. Amelia M. Walker, sister of Mrs. Charles H. Mason of Weymouth Avenue. The window was designed by Raymond Francis Bohustock, and portrays the Madonna and child. It is known as the Children's Window. The theme is similar to that of the window given to the First Congregational Church in this town in memory of Mrs. Mason's husband.

Little Miss Suzanne Dresser of Winchester will be featured in a duet solo "Valse De La Pouppee" from Coppelia at a "The Dancers" sponsored by Kay Corbett in the main ballroom of Hotel Bradford, Boston, on June 20.

Hours: Monday through Saturday, 8:30 a.m.—5 p.m.
(calls must be in by 2 p.m. if nurse is needed that day)

The June meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association was held last Friday, June 11, at the home of Mrs. Lee Manoli, 24 Hillcrest Parkway, with board and Association members present in good number. The highlights of this meeting were the reports of the National Convention in Chicago, given by the two delegates, Mrs. Jane Yetter Lord, Executive Director, and Mrs. Donald Powers. Members brought box lunches, and dessert and coffee were served by Mrs. James Conn, chairman of Hospitality, assisted by Mrs. Theodore Browne, Mrs. Mary Danon, and Mrs. Ernest Clarke.

It was the first Association meeting to which Mrs. Lord came as the new Executive Director, and at this time she presented the visiting nurses' report of 335 visits during the past month.

Her key report, however, was as a delegate to the Nursing Convention, where over 8,000 were registered. Among her notes to the Association present, she related an interesting discussion by Dr. Halsey, who stated that whether it be voluntary or compulsory, the question of medical care is soon to be determined, and that it is essential for this nation to make sure that its people have pre-paid medical care.

Mrs. Lord also reported on the close relationship of treatment of the body with the mind; on the need to have psychiatric training a part of every nurse's qualifications; and the public health nurse is the "first line of defense".

Delegates at the convention also heard of the critical nursing shortage, and of the need today of 40,000 to 45,000 nurses annually, to maintain health standards. Speakers brought out the need of having the nursing profession made more favorable for nurses, and of having nursing included in medical insurance.

Mrs. Powers, the other delegate to the convention, outlined in detail the many complicated matters which were discussed in meetings she attended, most of them of personal and pertinent interest to nurses and to members of nursing associations.

There were reports from Mrs. Henry E. Moffett, Education Chairman; Mrs. Richard Johnson, Nursing Chairman; Mrs. George E. Connor, Publicity; Mrs. Ben R. Schneider, Finance Chairman.

At 12:30 members enjoyed a box luncheon, and a vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Manoli for her hospitality by Mrs. William Kugler, President.

WILD HARE AND WEIRD WEATHER FOIL FLEET

TENNIS INSTRUCTION

Once again, Jack Streeter's "Wild Hare" earned the winner's toot when Jack beat the fleet last Saturday afternoon. It was another hotly contested battle as has been the rule rather than the exception this season. For two full laps it was anybody's race with Mel Moller, Jim Newman and Dick Simonds wrestling the lead from Streeter at various stages of the race, but none of them could keep out front. The final challenge came from Jim Newman at the end of the second lap, but just when it looked like Jim might make it, the fickle breeze smiled at Jack and frowned at Jim—Jim did salvage second place and Al Litchfield beat out Simonds for third.

Sunday's official point score race was sabotaged by rain. Rapid as they are, even the Winchester Boat Club's sturdy skippers elected to stay by the fire.

"Gene" Burchett started and judged the Saturday race and although she was a little nervous on the initial start, it looks as though she'll make a worthy successor to Kay Burleigh.

Club chatter
An orchid to Joanne Simonds for the slick poster she made to publicize the Box Lunch and Square Dance to be held this Saturday eve . . . It's going to be a swell party and there are a few tickets available, so come on down . . . The opening Bridge Party was well attended and everyone had a grand afternoon. There'll be another one Wednesday afternoon, June 30th.

COGAN NEW BASEBALL LEADER

At a meeting of baseball letter players last week Jimmy Cogan, regular catcher on the baseball team at Winchester High School, was elected captain for 1949.

Jimmy, a pepper-pot backstop, stepped into the breach after Ken Donaghey became injured in the 7th game of the season, and caught the remainder of the games, improving so greatly that Donaghey would have had his work cut out to displace him had he been able to resume playing.

Cogan hit .208, and fielded well. His arm is just too strong, but his speed in getting rid of the ball enabled him to catch a lot of base-runners. He should have a good year next season and prospects are that he will be leading a much improved ball club.

CO-CAPTAINS ELECTED FOR TRACK TEAM

Pete Dillingham, sprinter-bronze jumper and Harry Myers, sprinter, were elected co-captains of next year's track team at Winchester High School.

Neither boy had much of a season this year, both being hampered by injuries. Myers picked up a few points in the sprints before a thigh injury shelved him midway through the season. A mighty sore ankle prevented "Pete" a potential 20 foot jumper and a sub-11 second sprinter, from realizing his possibilities either on the track or in the pits. He did run a couple of good relay legs in the Quad meet and State meet, and if sound another year, should be a sure point-winner.

SALTmarsh PLACED IN N. E. A. U. MILE

"Whip" Saltmarsh climaxed his first and last year as a track competitor for Winchester High School last Saturday afternoon by placing fifth in the New England A. A. U. Mile Championship event at Brookline. A senior competing on the track for the first time this season, Saltmarsh has had a great year, despite the hard luck that dogged him in both the Quadrangular meet in Winchester and at the New England Interscholastics at Brookline.

"Whip" didn't figure to win the mile last Saturday, not with one Gilbert Dadds of the B.A.A., in the field, he didn't. The Perambulating Parson just happens to be the nation's best at the mile distance, or about anything else from 1500 meters to three miles, so the Winchester type wasn't shooting for any gold medal at Brookline. He just wanted a chance to run against some real competition, and he sure had it. Dadds did a 4m. 12.5s mile last Saturday, which was equivalent to better than a 4.10 effort on a fast track. That's going, and the fact that Saltmarsh was able to hang on and place in such competition is all to his credit. It is this writer's opinion, for what it may be worth, that the "Whip" might have garnered third, had he not run such a slow third lap. He finished with a great kick and plenty left, which is not the way to finish a race when you are behind.

The local novice learned something about racing last Saturday which should stand him in good stead in the years to come. He at least had the thrill of leading Dadds for about 300 yards of the first lap. His own time was right around 4.50, and he can do much better than that.

Winchester's track captain, tall Ben Coo, computed in the high jump at Brookline. With Phillips of Brown doing 6ft 5 1/2, to win and the last place winner doing better than 6 ft. Ben, too, was out of his class, but he made a creditable showing, getting over 5ft. 10 in. though a big scar in the bar would have reduced that figure appreciably. The Winchester record is 5ft. 8 1/2 in. by Fred Lindstrom in 1943, but whether Coo equalled that figure is questionable. He probably jumped as well as he ever did at that, and like Saltmarsh, learned a lot from jumping against the big shots. That's the way to learn.

The incomparable Fowle Twins, Boh and Dick, of Woburn, ran in the three mile, also won by Gil Dadds in record time. The youngsters made a big hit with the crowd, and Boh bowled ran himself into the ground trying to prevent Dadds from lapping him on the 11th lap.

"Boh" had to drop out, but "Dick" took up the white man's burden, and finally finished fifth after a shoulder-to-shoulder stretch sprint with John Knippen of the B.A.A., a much older and apparently more experienced runner. Dick caught Knippen on the last curve after picking up a good 25 yards. The little Woburn boy turned on the heat over the last 50 yards but the husky Knippen had some left too and the pair jogged it together for the finish with the crowd on its feet yelling for Fowle.

The little guy gave everything he had but couldn't quite make it. Knippen winning by about the thickness of his body. So popular was Fowle that the announcer gave out his name as winning fifth place, though only four places counted. It was good to see the Fowles rooting for Saltmarsh in the mile, and "Whip" and "Fowle" yelling for the "Twins" in the three mile. That's good spirit.

WINCHESTER HIGH BASEBALL TEAM SHOWED BIG IMPROVEMENT

Winchester High School's baseball team this spring showed a big improvement over the season, despite its final record of nine defeats in 16 games played. Coach Edward A. Bartlett worked hard with a squad that showed little in the way of good material at the start of the season and his expert intelligence and hard work paid off, for at the close of the campaign his charges were playing as good ball as any of the teams encountered, having a winning record of five wins in the last eight games. Two of the three games lost after the half-way mark were by a single run with questionable umpiring hurting the locals' chances in one of these contests.

Winchester lost five of its nine games over the season by one run, its worst beating coming in the final game with Concord, 7-2. For Winchester, this game, coming the day after the big 3-1 victory over Woburn, was distinctly anticlimax, the locals just having no "jinegar" left after their thrilling defeat of the Tanners.

Couch Bartlett had the benefit of little luck this year. Just before the opening game, Paul Roche, on whom he was depending to play third base, was declared ineligible, necessitating a shakeup in the infield which undoubtedly cost the team several games over the first part of the season.

Before Roche's loss Eddie Contry, who was expected to be a regular outfielder, found his "football knee" wasn't going to permit him to play baseball, and this didn't help any either, for Contry is aggressive and would have been a distinct asset.

Not quite midway through the season Ken Donaghey, the hardest hitter on the team and at that time first string catcher, cracked a bone in his hand which shelved him for the remainder of the campaign. Ken's sticking would surely have been a big help in several of those late-season games that went by the board for the want of a hit or two. Jimmy Cogan, who replaced Donaghey behind the lat, caught as well or better than Kenzie, and might have replaced him as catcher anyhow, but Kenzie would have been on the club somewhere, driving in runs with that big bat of his. His loss definitely hurt, while if Roche could have played, Winchester would surely have been right in the fight for the Middlesex League crown. Paul fields and hits well, and the locals could really have used an infielder who could do those things.

Winchester finished the season with a team batting average of .264, good striking for a club losing more than half its games. Sammy Bellino led the team at bat with a .369 average, hitting safely in 15 of the 16 games. Ken Donaghey hit .321 in seven games and could well have improved these figures had he played all the way. "Junie" Reardon and Cogan were just two points shy of .300 for the season. Pitcher-Outfielder Vern Stark had a .294 average and Don Kenton hit .278. No one ran over that sort of striking, and as a matter of fact in many of their losing games the locals out-hit the opposition. The team fielding average of .320 was nothing to sneeze at either, though a lot of the errors made during the season, especially in some of the early games were of the "rusty" variety.

"Hinky" Horn, who was converted from an infielder to an outfielder by Coach Bartlett, led the team in fielding after moving to right field, having a perfect average in the last 11 games of the season.

Winchester lined up for most of its games with Cogan catching, "Al" Switzer at first base, "Pete" Priest at second, Carl DeFilippo, shortstop, and "Junie" Reardon, third base. Captain "Sammy" Bellino covered left field like a trot. Vern Stark played center when not pitching and "Hinky" Horn was in right. "Major" Daniels played center with Stark on the hill and improved greatly over the latter part of the season.

Winchester's only experienced pitchers, Eldridge and "Big" Bob McElmurray, proved disappointments, neither being able to help the club. Stark and Don Kenton did most of the pitching, and both did well, Stark turning in several fine performances, including his four-hitter against Woburn. This team also helped out on the mound, and Daniels, in left-center, is another with whom Coach Bartlett worked as a pitching possibility. "Sketch" Carroll was another "lefty" whose lack of control kept him from a regular turn. W. Thomas was the team manager.

WHO PUT THE BULLETS IN THE BUTTWOOD TREE

Madison, N. H.
June 11, 1948
Raining, 5:35 p. m.

Editor of the Star:
I note in your last issue that a park department employee has found some bullets in a Buttwood tree at the tennis grounds and you would like to know who the heck put 'em there - and maybe an "Old Timer" might know "Why for". Being as how I might qualify as an "Old Timer" - and being as how that Buttwood tree grew within my stampering ground seventy odd years ago, I reckon that I know who put them there bullets in that tree, at least some of them. In them days, where the tennis courts are now,
was known by the Dog Town Guards - and their Pups - as the "Medder" and it belonged to Andrew Shepard, who lived on Pine street.

I lived just across what is now called Palmer street; on the east side of the "Medder" lived Commodore Spicer with four boys who knew all about shootin' irons and I learned from them.

That thar Buttwood tree made a good place to have a target about four or five feet from the ground, since there was a sand bank behind it, if we missed the tree, but I'm telling ye we didn't aim for miss, no sir. We would go back to the Spicer property line to shoot about 100 yards - for the high power rifles, which in the late 70's and 80's were none other than Civil War muskets. These musket balls were lead, made in a hand mould; some round and some plugs. After the Spanish War I bought for $5 a German Mauser Rifle - which was captured from the Spanish.
These guns used ammunition about 30 cal. either steel jacketed or soft nosed-type. Paul Spicer and I often tested this and his several types on this tree, setting up blocks of wood to see what penetration the different kinds of ammunition might show. Since the Mauser point blank range was 300 yards, the penetration at 100 yards was - something, even when shooting into the end grain of a timber.

I would expect that the older Spicer boys may well have used this tree before Pablo and I did,
as they were older by several years, and up to the same tricks; however, that thar Buttwood tree was over two feet in diameter in 1876 when I first knew it, and since, it and others grew on either bank of the Middlesex Canal.

There was a big hollow, one on our place that was generally inhabited by and owl.

What is now called Palmer street, from Willow street north, via old road, was built by levelling off the Middlesex Canal and since the fee in same belonged to the abutting owners, A. Shepard, D. Kimball and P. Fletcher and A.
Fletcher, they decided to build a road - which made a short cut to Cutters Village from Wildwood street.

Without doubt these several But-twood trees must have been planted some time when the Mid-dlex Canal was in operation, since they are not native to this region. Some one who got them from the south must have done the trick as they were just off the tropical banks.

I reckon that this will give you some data about Bullets in a But-twood Tree, which was in the stampering grounds of the whil men who lived around Wedge pond, when they were still fighting the Civil War in the 1870's.

As ever,
Edela Foeche

LEAGUE URGES MEETING ON SCHOOL

Editor of the Star:
Enclosed is a copy of the letter to Mr. Wadsworth urging an open meeting for discussion of the plans for the Junior High School. If you care to print it perhaps others would join in the request.

Cordially,
Kathryn G. Hall, President.
June 16, 1948.
Mr. Philip P. Wadsworth, Chrm., Jr. High School Bldg. Committee,
60 Oxford street,
Winchester, Mass.

Dear Mr. Wadsworth:
The League of Women Voters would like to urge that there be an open meeting in the near future to discuss the plans for the Junior High School building.

We feel that there are many citizens who would like to express their ideas concerning the needs to be met by the building and their objections to the plans presented.
For example: questions have been raised about the lack of windows in the fronts of the two wings and about the adequacy of the stage plans.

We think it would help you in the accomplishment of your desire to give the town a thoroughly satisfactory building to have such a meeting in the near future.

Sincerely,
Kathryn G. Hall, President.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NOTES

of the Building Fund, announces that Mrs. George A. Marks has accepted the chairmanship of a Women's Unit on Special Gifts.
This Unit is to work on a program of individual appeal during the next seven months period preced-

Hirshon L. Paine, Jr., has been able to secure for the Hospital several pieces of needed equipment from the war surplus stores taken over from the Government by Massachusetts General Hospital. The prices asked for these articles under the Government regulations represent a very small fraction of their value, and those purchased by Winchester Hospital include an operating table for the accident room, two sterilizers, a bacteriology incubator, a desk, three office chairs, a typewriter, and a very fine ceiling light for operating room use.

Michael Brown, son of Mr. Fulton Brown of Arlington street, who was graduated from Kimball Union two years ago, will be released from his two years in the Yales College in the Fall.

WINCHESTER HIGH GRADUATED 179

Miss Norian's award is divided between the Mt. Holyoke Club of Winchester, which gave $150, and the College, which gave $300. Besides the History Medal, Shaw won the third State Prize in the United Nations Essay Contest, his prize marking the tenth consecutive year in which Winchester has had a prize winner in this contest, including two national winners.

Two thousand schools and four thousand students annually participate in this contest, making Winchester's accomplishment particularly outstanding.

Mr. Ayer presented the Jere A.
Downs Scholarship Awards, amounting to $1,350. Based on the amounts of college tuition necessary, awards of $400 went to Virginia Walters and Janet Blackham, $350 went to Norma Bergquist and $200, to Paul Gaudette.

Following the awards Mr. Ayer presented the diplomas to the graduates, assisted by Principal Grindle. In his introductory remarks, the School Committee Chairman paid high tribute to Mr.
Grindle and his faculty members.

The graduates filed to the stage by rows and were loudly applauded as they received their diplomas.
After all had returned to their seats the audience joined them and the chorus in singing the "Star Spangled Banner."

John D. Stevens was faculty supervisor of the graduation.
Robert M. Keeney was in charge of speakers, with Mrs. Ella M. Stacy,

As the Town Softball League swings into its fourth week of play, interest in the games is mounting as the teams are playing a better brand of ball. All of the teams are steadily improving and the teams in the lower half of the standing are springing an upset at any time on the leaders. The feature game of last week was the overtime victory of the K. of C. over the Maguire Motors on the strength of a timely single by Mitch Mawn in the eighth inning to drive in the winning run.

The K. of C. and the Comets joined the lot of uniformed teams during the past week and both of them look very snappy in their blue and white outfits. The Park Department has done a great job of putting Shore Road Field in playing condition and has made the field available to the Town Softball League on Monday and Wednesday evenings. This will help tremendously to clear up the schedule that has piled up because of the frequent rains.

The big game of the schedule to date will come on Monday when the V. F. W. and the Sachems meet at Glen Field. This game will be a "must" for all the softball fans who recall vividly the series between these two teams last year that went five games before a decision was reached. Undoubtedly the largest crowd of the year will turn out for this one to see if the Vets can continue to hit Andre Redding as hard as they did last year and to see if "Cute" Higgins can supply the Vets with the pitching they lacked a year ago.

The schedule for next week:

Sunday, June 20
 Rockets vs. Comets (Ginn)
 Maguire Motors vs. Atomies (West Side)

Monday, June 21
 Sachems vs. V. F. W. (Ginn)

 St. Mary's vs. K. of C. (Shore Rd.)

Tuesday, June 22

Wednesday, June 23

Thursday, June 24

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

At a regular meeting of the Winchester School Committee held on Tuesday evening, June 8, the following elections were confirmed: Mrs. Patricia Lindo to be full time teacher at the Junior High School; Mr. Joseph Aversa to be full time instructor of printing at the High School, conducting his classes in the print shop located in the Wash-high building; Mrs. Louise Mathews to be elementary school teacher; Mr. Henry K. Pitts to be a teacher at the High School; Mrs. Martha Genicot to be teacher of High School French; Miss Hazel Vasso to be an elementary school teacher; and Mrs. Madeline G. Dolan to be secretary at the Washington and Noonan schools.

At the same meeting the following resignations were acted on: Miss Helen Dugan, teacher of Grade Two at the Wymann School; Miss Mary Reynolds, teacher of Grade Three at the Washington school; Miss Anne Stathos, teacher of Grade Four at the Washington school; and Miss Thelma Wade, teacher of Grade One at the Washington school. Miss Dugan joined the Winchester Public School as a teacher in 1940; Miss Reynolds in 1945; Miss Stathos in 1941; and Miss Wade, last year.

Last Saturday evening the building erecting a new house at the junction of Everett Avenue and Sheffield West notified the police that damage to the extent of $25 or $30 had been done to the preliminary construction work being done there. Officer James P. Noonan located a 14 year old boy living in the neighborhood who admitted doing the damage, adding the information that the boys around there are very much displeased over the erection of the house on a lot which they have used as a place to play ball.

FISHER SUMMER PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Success is most frequently determined by the attitude of the individual. In other words, the feeling that one will succeed makes success. Similarly, a sense of defeat obtains when one thinks he is a failure. The difference between success and failure is, in the majority of cases, only a matter of mental attitude.

It is serious for boys and girls to go through the summer with a sense of defeat just because they have failed in one or two school subjects. A change of attitude is essential, and it can be secured through mastery of the subjects in which they failed to secure passing grades.

The summer preparatory classes at the Fisher School on Winter Hill in Somerville will be conducted by experienced high school teachers who have spent many years in helping boys and girls to meet successfully the requirements of their high school courses.

The classes are open also to any who desire to take intensive reviews and to young women who are planning to enter nurses' training.

The summer school will open on July 7 and continue until August 14. The classes will meet during the morning hours, five days a week.

TEACHING

Just one of every 25 seniors currently attending high school in this area plans to become a teacher, the New England School Development Council reported this week on the basis of replies to a recent six-state survey.

School systems in 35 New England communities with a total population of more than 1,000,000 have answered a set of nine questions, it was disclosed by Dr. Forbes H. Norris, superintendent of schools in Winchester, and a Council official. Only 271 seniors now are considering the teaching profession, and 75 percent of those are girls.

Poll replies showed that 21 of the responding superintendents or principals now have openings for teachers, the total of available jobs adding up to 144 with one-third of them open in a single large city.

Asked if they consider any of their teachers "substandard", six of every 10 said "yes", but the aggregate number so classified was a small fraction of all teachers now practicing in the six states.

Ten years ago, another set of answers revealed, only 13 percent of the systems required that teachers in their elementary schools have a college degree, 23 percent said a degree was necessary to teach in intermediate grades and 48 percent regarded a degree as the minimum educational standard for their high school teachers.

Today, Dr. Norris continued, the B.S. or A.B. is necessary to teach in 54 percent of those same elementary schools, 57 percent of the intermediate grades and 68 percent of the high schools.

Although 16 poll participants favored the establishment of a merit pay plan for teachers, only four school systems now have any such salary basis in effect and 13 are opposed to the merit salary idea, principally on the grounds that the plan will not work until teaching competence has been suitably defined and the definition generally accepted.

With a view toward simplification of procurement techniques, the Council inquired: "Would you favor, if it was possible, a New England master plan for the procurement of teachers, with a standard series of talks for high school seniors on the virtues of the teaching profession and with a central information and placement office to serve the entire area?"

Fifty-three percent replied affirmatively on this topic and 16 percent were favorable but with reservations. Opposed were 25 percent, and six had no opinion.

John Abbott Pike, son of Herman F. Pike of Arlington street completed his Junior Year at Belmont Hill School last week and was elected to the National Cimm-Lauda order. His brother, Dixon, completed his sophomore year. Both boys were on the Dean's list for the entire year and both won their school letters and sweaters in hockey.

Sincerely yours,
Frances Barton

"COUNTRY FAIR"

Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson of 25 Chesterford road, will be chairman of "The Country Fair", an annual bazaar of the First Congregational Church on Wednesday, November 17, in the Parish House. Announcement of Mrs. Wickerson's appointment was made by Mrs. Walter W. Winship, president of the Women's Association, and the first meeting of the fair committee was held this week Monday. Mrs. Charles Easton is treasurer of "The Country Fair", with Mrs. John C. Weidmann, assistant treasurer; Mrs. George E. Connor, publicity; Mrs. Charles Crode, decorations.

Indian corn and pumpkins, checkered tablecloths and food-stuffs and gifts in true country style will be this year's motif, topped by an old-fashioned baked bean supper with hot apple pie, and an entertainment that a country folk might have brought forth.

The following chairmen will take part in "The Country Fair" this fall: The Pine Cuddle (baby table), Mrs. Charles Clarke, chairman; Mrs. Jean Kirkpatrick, sewing; Mrs. Ashley Lewis, knitting; Two R's (Reading matter and record albums), Mrs. Howard R. Bartlett, chairman; Mrs. Robert M. Keener, Mrs. Albert Dierz, Mrs. Frederic Mohr, Mrs. George Field, Mrs. Frederick Washington, Mrs. Marion Pond; "The Turkey Pull", candy table, Mrs. Alfreda M. Kearney and Mrs. Cassie Sande; "The Buttery" (food), Mrs. Allen Jenkins and Mrs. Paul N. Shivers; gifts, Mrs. Frank Stravitz; "Best Bitch in Tuckers", apron table, Mrs. Florence Kinsland; "Old Fashions", needle clothing, Mrs. Edwin R. Rooney; paper table, Mrs. Richard Johnson and Mrs. Gilbert Hood; "The Garden Corner", Mrs. Warren C. Whitman; Art Treasures, white elephant table, Mrs. George E. Connor; coffee in snack, Mrs. Harrison B. Simpson, tea, Mrs. Wellington Caldwell and Mrs. Marshall W. Spurnes.

Children's Luncheon, Mrs. Charles Lewis; children's entertainment, Mrs. William Hodge; luncheon, Mrs. Wilfred McKendzie; supper, Mrs. James Loan and Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor.

This year the fair will sponsor a unique "Vacation Memory" table, with Mrs. Erskine N. White as chairman. To this table will go the unusual items and mementos which women on their summer vacation purchased, tagged with the place of purchase, and presented to the fair so that some one who didn't go to that particular vacation spot may enjoy it "by proxy".

Still another "Country Fair" surprise is going to be a delightful Winchester calendar and engagement book, highlighted by beautiful photographs of Winchester, and made useful by spaces for engagements and notes. Mrs. Harold A. Smith is chairman of the calendar, which is a project of the Social Service Guild.

PROPOSED PLANS FOR A WINCHESTER SUMMER SCHOOL

The Winchester Central Mothers' Association, in conjunction with the Winchester Public School system proposes to sponsor a Summer School which will open on Monday, June 28, and continue through Friday, July 30. No session would be scheduled for Monday, July 5. During the five-week period opportunity would be offered pupils of primary grades through grade 6, and pupils of the Junior and Senior High Schools to make up work failed during the year or to help themselves to stronger scholastic rating. Only English and arithmetic classes would be available for Junior High School pupils.

Under this proposal, classes will be formed if there are at least ten pupils in a group, all of whom must be recommended by the school. A fee of twenty-five dollars for each pupil must be paid all on the first day, or one-half on the first day and the remainder not more than two weeks later.

Classes will run from eight-thirty to eleven-thirty for five days each week. Younger pupils may be scheduled for less than the full three hour period. Only pupils who have failed, or who need to be strengthened will be considered for enrollment. The teacher of the summer session class will recommend placement of the pupil in September.

Elementary pupils will meet in the Wyman School, and the junior and senior high school pupils will meet in the High School.

Parents who are interested in the proposed summer school should give their names to their school principal at once, for the response to this proposal will determine whether the plans will be put into effect.

TO GRADUATE FROM COLBY

Muriel J. Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan F. Howard, 22 Glen road, Winchester, is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree at the 127th Commencement of Colby College, Waterville, Maine, on June 21st. The exercises will take place on Colby's new Mayflower Hill campus, and the graduating class is the largest in the history of the college.

Miss Howard prepared for Colby at Winchester High School, and has done her major college work in Psychology Secondary. She has been a member of the Student League, the executive board of the Women's Athletic Association, and was a member of the Queen's Court at the 1948 Winter Carnival. She also won her Colby "C" for participation in women's athletics.

LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

League of Women Voters

In this Presidential election year the League of Women Voters will be particularly busy working at one of its main objectives - getting on the vote. While the League does not endorse candidates for office it urges all citizens to work actively for the party of their choice, not only during the exciting weeks just preceding the election, but now while the real choice in policy is being decided by each party. As an editorial in the June 5th issue of Collier's magazine in praise of the League says, possibly its most important achievement is in bringing about the substitution of "What are we going to do about it?" for the usual "What are they going to do about it?" of everyday conversation.

In reviewing the busy year just past in the Winchester League of Women Voters it is evident how much valuable background material was presented to stimulate intelligent appraisal of governmental problems both on the State and National levels as well as in Winchester. Eight general meetings were held during the year beginning in September and ending in May.

Mrs. Reginald Bradlee as in several years past opened her lovely home in its delightful woodland setting for the September 21st meeting, which was extremely interesting in showing what League members by persistence, tact and intelligence can do in the field of local school problems. Two neighboring League Chairmen of Education, Mrs. Thomas Hale Ham from Brookline and Mrs. Vernon Stoneham from Belmont were the speakers and were introduced by Mrs. Guy Livingston, Chairman of Education, who arranged the meeting.

In October there was no general meeting but the Fall Conference of the State League was held at the Newton on October 7th and our League was well represented. The League was well represented.

October 16th Mrs. Charles Livingstone, Economic Welfare Chairman, with the aid of the President, presented two showings of the film Economics for Everybody with a running commentary and a discussion period following.

The December 1st meeting, postponed from November 12th because of the inclement weather, was the evening money-raising project under the capable direction of Mrs. Wallace C. Miller, Finance Chairman. Payson S. Wild, Jr., Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences gave an illuminating and thought-provoking address.

The meeting on December 11th arranged by Mrs. Gerald Barrett, Chairman of Social Welfare, was felt by many to be the high-light of the year for Dr. Miriam Van Waters, Head of the Sherrill Reformatory for Women, generously came and talked to us with great simplicity, warmth and intelligence about her work with women offenders.

Mrs. Barrett also arranged the meeting of January 15th at the home of Mrs. Shepard Pond, when a comprehensive presentation of the various recreational activities of the town was given by Miss Gore of the Hobby Centre, Mr. Cahill of the Park Department, Mr. West of the Town Recreation Committee, Mr. Knowlton of the High School and Miss Mead of the Library.

On February 12th Mrs. Gerald Hills was the hostess. Mrs. Andrew Scott, young, keen and poised graduate student at Radcliffe gave a particularly able and informative talk on International Trade and related fields, stimulating a good general discussion. Mrs. Pierce, Red Cross Nutritionist, also gave a timely and valuable talk on food problems.

Mrs. George Houle and Mrs. Antonio Mezzanappa, co-chairmen of the Legislative Committee, were in charge of the annual Legislative Luncheon on March 14th at the Epiphany Parish House, when the newly elected President of the Massachusetts Senate, the Honorable Harris Richardson, was the excellent speaker.

The all-day program meeting at the home of Mrs. Houle on April 22nd was lively and vital in its consideration of the proposed state and national program for 1948-1949. Mrs. Rowland Patrick was the efficient chairman in charge of this meeting.

Besides these general meetings there have been several discussion groups on local and international issues, three large open meetings concerned with the school situation and an orientation tea for new members. All of these groups were valuable and were designed to help inform members and non-members alike. They were non-partisan and objective and provided much-needed opportunities for discussion and for acquiring accurate information. The League has been perhaps of especial value this year on the local level, where its program called for support of an adequate building program for the Winchester schools, for "support of a broad and well-coordinated recreational program for Winchester" and for a "study of the Limited Town Meeting form of government".

FORD — RUGHES

White stock, ferns and camelabra decorated the Unitarian Church on Saturday afternoon, June 19, for the marriage of Miss Barbara Hughes, daughter of Mr. Leon Dickinson Hughes of Winthrop street and the late Annette Symmes Hughes, to William Blanchard Ford, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Blanchard Ford of Norwell. The minister, Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony and the bride music was played by the church director of music, Mary Ranton Witham.

Miss Hughes was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin, fitted bodice and a full train. Her long veil of illusion was caught to a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a ruffled bouquet of baby white orchids combined with white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John J. Connolly (Louise) of New York City, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mrs. Sidney Jones, Jr., the former Marion Symmes of Winchester, was matron of honor. She wore a white crepe dress, modeled on Grecian lines, with silver accessories, and flowers in her hair matching the tulle and roses and deep blue delphinium of her bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard S. Hughes of Winchester, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Louis E. Yeager, also of Winchester; Miss Jane E. Ford of Norwell, sister of the bride; and Miss Marcia Barnes of New York City.

They wore identical dresses like that of the matron of honor and their headpieces and bouquets were also of tulle and roses and delphinium, their hair being, however, light blue instead of dark, like the flowers of the honor attendant.

James Fox MacDonald, Jr., of Norwell was best man for his cousin, and the usher corps comprised Howard S. Hughes, cousin of the bride; Louis E. Yeager, Joseph W. Butler and Elbert R. Smith, all of Winchester.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Music Hall on Bacon street which was decorated with ferns and white roses. Mrs. Homer, the bride's aunt, assisted in the receiving line with the mother of the bridegroom and the matron of honor.

Mary Ranton Witham, church director of music, played the wedding march and organ selections during the seating of the guests.

Her matching veil of illusion was caught to a Juliet cap and she carried a ruffled bouquet of white bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

All the bride's attendants wore silk tulle dresses with off-the-shoulder necklines and full skirts. The matron and the maid of honor wore pale yellow with white daisy wreaths and carried ruffled bouquets of white daisies and lily. The bridesmaids' dresses were pale green and their bouquets of yellow daisies.

WINCHESTER TO HAVE JIMMY DAY SATURDAY

Town to Participate in State-Wide Campaign for Children's Cancer Funds

The Board of Selectmen has designated Saturday, June 26 as "Jimmy Day" in Winchester and has appointed "Larry" Ponta of the STAR and Fred McCormack of McCormack's Apothecary as co-chairmen of the local activity in aid of the State-wide campaign to raise funds for the Children's Cancer Research Foundation.

Winchester, largely through the efforts of "Larry" Ponta and Don McFarlane, Jr., has been raising funds for the Cancer Foundation, through boxes in various stores about town and a big barrel for contributions which has stood on the corner of Main and Church streets at McCormack's corner. To date more than $200 has been raised, divided between coin in the boxes and checks sent to the local committee, and the barrel has not as yet been opened.

Saturday there will be girls with collection boxes and tags in the center and about town to "tag" the public and receive their contributions to this worthwhile cause, a cause which the Boston Braves Baseball Team has made its own and has been backing since the night when "Jimmy", an anonymous cancer patient at the Children's Hospital spoke on the "Truth or Consequences" Show, telling of his love for baseball and his desire to see some of his heroes on the Braves team.

Since then "Jimmy" has become a symbol for the State's fight to raise funds to combat deadly cancer and provide relief especially for children stricken with this dread disease. Cities and towns everywhere are participating in Saturday's "Jimmy Day" or have already had "Jimmy Day" and sent in contributions to the Children's Cancer Research Foundation. Winchester hopes to make tomorrow the fine showing it has always made in response to an appeal for a worthy cause.

There is no particular rally program planned for the town, other than the tag campaign, but the committee plans to make it easy for everyone to give and hopes to hit the $1,000 mark. No contribution is too small of course none too large. Checks payable to the Children's Cancer Research Foundation may be sent to "Larry" Ponta at the STAR office, where they will be delivered to the proper authorities so that Winchester may have credit for the contribution. Help pave Winchester among the communities who have contributed generously to this worthy cause. Contribute to the "Jimmy Day" fund tomorrow.

The bride wore a gown of white satin having an off-the-shoulder neckline embroidered with seed beads, and a matching veil with a self cap. Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis arranged in a crescent bouquet.

The honor maid wore a flesh color sequined dress of marquisette with a matching picture hat and carried a crescent bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids also carried pink roses and wore baby blue marquisette dresses with matching picture hats.

REV. JOHN PRESCOTT ROBERTSON
WINCHESTER CLERGYMAN
ACCEPTS BRAintree PASTORATE

Rev. John Prescott Robertson, since 1945 assistant at the First Congregational Church, has accepted a call to the Braintree Church of Braintree, and will commence his new duties there September 1. At Braintree he will be pastor of the largest Congregational Church on the South Shore, a church with a membership of 1354 and a handsome building of Quincy granite, which is presently being enlarged with a new wing to include new church offices and other facilities. The Braintree parish has a large number of young people, in whom Mr. Robertson is especially interested and with whom he has always worked in the past with the greatest success. An ardent sports enthusiast, he was delighted to learn that the basketball team of his new parish won a championship in its class during the past season.

Mr. Robertson, of Scotch ancestry, was born January 5, 1896, in Norwood. He was graduated from Norwood High as valedictorian of his class in 1913 and thereafter worked as a roost controller at the Union-La France System at three Boston hotels. After a year of post-graduate study at Boston Latin School, Mr. Robertson entered Tufts, from which he was graduated with the degree of A.B. in 1921, and the degree of S.T.B. from the Divinity School in 1925. He was ordained to the Congregational Ministry June 19, 1925, in Woburn.

Mr. Robertson's first pastorate was at the Montvale Congregational Church in Woburn which he served from 1925 to 1935. After his ordination he came to be assistant to Dr. Howard J. Chidley and director of Religious Education at the First Congregational Church.

In addition to his extensive work with young people, both during the church school year and during summer vacation periods, Mr. Robertson has been president of the Association of Professional Religious Educators of Greater Boston, chairman for four years of the Committee on Religious Education of the Woburn Association of Congregational Churches and Minister, and since 1945, adult advisor of the Pilgrim Fellowship of this Association. In 1937 he was dean of the Interdenominational Teacher Training Institute of Winchester.

Here in Winchester, Mr. Robertson has been active and very popular, far beyond the confines of his parish. A regular attendant at all high school athletic contests, he came to know, and be known and liked, by many of the town's young people. He was especially active in the work of the De Molay Order, holding membership in two of its high honorary organizations. A Mason, he is a member of William Parkman Lodge of this town, serving as associate chaplain.

Mr. Robertson was selected from among 60 candidates for the Braintree pastorate, and was the unanimous choice of both the pastoral supply committee and the church membership as a whole. The committee heard him preach on five occasions, here and in other Congregational Churches. He preached his acceptance sermon at the Braintree church last Sunday and was tendered an informal reception with Mrs. Robertson at the church parish house during the afternoon. He received his actual call to the church on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Robertson is married to the former Barbara Lewis, whose grandfather, Dr. Leo Rich Lewis, was professor of Music at Tufts College and a member of the faculty there for over fifty years. They have a son, David Lewis Robertson, age 3.

Many will see the Robertsons leave Winchester with genuine regret. They have lived active and fruitful lives here and have contributed in large measure to the cultural and spiritual enrichment of the community. The STAR joins their many friends in wishing them God Speed and continued success in their new parish home.

Mrs. Frederick C. MacDonald played the bridal music.

"THE PAST SHALL SERVE THE PRESENT NEED"

The recent news of the end of the long career of Dr. Henry L. Houghton of Boston brings sharply to mind the pioneering early days of community medical service in Winchester, to which Dr. and Mrs. Houghton contributed in an unusual degree. The Winchester Hospital faces today, in its completion of the building fund, a testing not unlike that of its first days when the full administrative and financial responsibility was borne by the Visiting Nurse Association board. Mrs. Houghton was a member of that board.

The contributions which Mrs. Houghton made to the establishment of the first hospital in Winchester were various and substantial. We have already told in the Star for July 1, 1917, of her mothering the group of seventeen who founded the Winton Club, her help in their choice of a name, and the practical idealism in which she guided their plans for responsibility toward the hospital linen supply, an idealism the Club has never lost.

In the throes of founding the first Winchester Hospital, Mrs. Houghton met even deeper than her nurturing of the Winton Club, for she stood firm through all the early discouragements and, as a member of the group led by Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Metcalf and others, kept the work going. In 1909 when Mrs. Harrington's gift of $50,000 was returned by the committee who had been unable to match this building fund with a like sum for endowment, it was Mrs. Houghton who stood by to prevent complete abandonment of the project. She was able to persuade Mrs. Harrington and her son, devoted patients of Dr. Houghton, to advance $10,000 on condition of an equal sum raised by the women of the board. On the basis of this $20,000 the cottage hospital on Washington street was opened, and by careful management this little log proved sufficient for many a summer of the hospital during the fifteen years preceding the opening of the building on Highland way.

Without this demonstration of persistence and devotion, the progress toward the Winchester Hospital today would most certainly have been greatly delayed, and the opportunity for leadership in medical service might even have been lost to this community.

The personality of Cornelia McAvoy Houghton was colorful and fascinating. She was born in Madison, Wisconsin, of a North Ireland father and a Utica, New York, mother, Harriet Elizabeth Bond. She was brought up in Chicago and New York, attended finishing school and travelled much abroad as a young girl. Her eagerness for the beauty and gaiety of life was matched by a seriousness of purpose which led her to enroll for training as a nurse at the Massachusetts General Hospital, from which she graduated in 1905, and which took her with a friend Isabel Strong to study Obstetrics at Queen Charlotte Hospital in London, England. While at Massachusetts General she had met young Henry Houghton during his residency there, and when she returned from England in 1907 they were married.

Mrs. Houghton left her mark on lives of friends and co-workers wherever she went. Her homes in Winchester on Pine street and later on Myopia Hill were centers of social and artistic pleasure and of plans for philanthropic and religious work which always drew upon her exhaustless store of vitality. She was one of the Companions of the Holy Cross of the Episcopal Church, including Emily Morgan, Vida Scudder and Lucy Sturgis, who established Adelphi House in South Hyfield, Massachusetts. Many other boards drew heavily upon her help throughout her lifetime, including that of Talitha Cumi Home in Forest Hills. During the influenza epidemic of 1918, it was to her that the Governor turned to set up the open-air ramps throughout the Commonwealth. Her sense of humor never failed in hard places, nor did her faith or her loyalty. The Winchester Hospital pays tribute to what she meant in its beginnings, and believes that the ideals which she exemplified will be followed by others in the days ahead.

WINCHESTER GIRLS IN FASHION SEMIFINAL AT FLEENES

Beverly Gay and Ann Keeney were Winchester girls among the 10 semi-finalists in the contest to determine Fleeney's near H-School Fashion Board who were subjected to the critical appraisal of five Boston fashion experts and a popular panel leader in the final competition in Boston last Friday.

Fashion Experts Ruth Mangle, Carol Biles, Elizabeth Watts, June O'Brien and Louise Morgan, with Orchestra Leader Larry Green, currently playing at the Meadows in Framingham, judged the girls for poise and personality as well as fashion ideas and originality. Each contestant was dressed for a specific occasion of her own choosing.

From the 10 semi-finalists the judges selected 20, who will serve as members of Fleeney's H-School Fashion Board, members of which will act as advisors to other teenagers who come to Fleeney's H-School Shop and counsel the buyer in her selection of popular teen merchandise.

The new board will be officially introduced at Fleeney's H-School Fashion Show in August. Either Beverly or Ann will be on the board and the girls know now which one got the judges nod last Friday. They aren't supposed to tell, of course.

The board will choose a chairman from its membership to go to New York for a peek at fashions in the making and behind-the-scenes activities in teen-age fashion magazines.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Gay of Highland avenue. Ann's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Keeney of Chestnut road. Both have just completed their junior year at Winchester High where Ann's father is head of the English Department. Beverly was a school cheer-leader last fall and last summer won a junior N. E. A. A. U. swimming title as a member of the Winchester Swimming Club.

At last Friday's semi-final competition guests and contestants were treated to "Boney Bear Boomer", a special Fleeney fashion board refreshment, and each of the semi-finalists was awarded a Toni Home Permanent Kit. Larry Green played several of his most popular piano selections.

Representative in General Court
Harrison Chadwick

No one, except the misguided souls who participate in it, likes malicious mischief, and even those who generally take a pretty tolerant view of things can feel their blood pressures rise when they learn that three boxes have been stolen from Winchester stores where they were placed to receive contributions to the Children's Cancer Research Foundation. The pur-son or persons who took the boxes took quite a risk for an awful little. Had they been caught, it is certain that an example would have been made of them for the "Jimmy Caver Fund" campaign has taken on State-wide proportions with the Governor giving official recognition and the Boston
"Braves," the strongest kind of support. It is the Star's hope that wherever the boxes, has since thought better of it and is planning to return the money to the fund being raised here tomorrow.
We are sure they will feel a whole lot better if they do.

COMMISSIONERS ASK "INTELLIGENT USE" OF PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS

Editor of the Star:

It has been suggested by responsible citizens of the Town that a word from the Park and Playground Commissioners relative to the intelligent use of the playing areas afforded by the Town, would not be amiss. Out of our experiences of the past month, the Commissioners are compelled to agree that an invitation to all those enjoying the use of the Playgrounds, seeking the co-operation of all in the reasonable maintenance of the areas, will tend toward the greater enjoyment of the participants as well as a relief to the tax conscious in the lowering of the costs of maintenance.

The residents of the Town are indebted to past members of the Board for their far sightedness in providing such adequate areas as well as for the hearty of the Park development which has added so much to the attractiveness of the Community. It is the responsibility of the present Commissioners to administer all such areas for the benefit of all with an eye to reasonable maintenance costs. The amount of these costs is largely dependent on the sense of appreciation and intelligent use by the citizens. For that purpose we have attempted to make possible the enjoyment of activities with a minimum of regulations. However, it seems wise that the following comments be made:

Playing Fields
The name implies the use. Under no stretch of the imagination can playing fields be considered as auto parking areas. The use of fields for such purposes can only serve to destroy the playing surfaces, not only for soft ball or baseball but for other activities to be enjoyed by children under the direction of playground supervisors. It is surprising to find that thoughtlessness in this respect is laid mostly at the door of the participants in the Soft-ball League.

Tennis Courts

Here again the name implies the use. Under no consideration are the courts constructed as roller skating rinks, auto racing tracks or baseball practice areas. The maintenance of the courts for proper enjoyment of the game requires constant attention. The degree of labor necessary to afford proper playing surfaces again is dictated by the use of proper player equipment. Individuals in other than accepted tennis sneakers (smooth soles and no heels) must realize that the use of heels will rapidly destroy the playing surface and as a result adds to the time and cost of reconditioning, to say nothing of the effect on the quality of the game itself.
The thoughtless use of tennis shoes and nets as hurdles or spring boards increases the rapidity of depreciation of the equipment.

Roadway Restrictions
The use of "One Way" signs or other markers regulating the use of roadways adjacent to the playing areas, is for the primary purpose of affording proper safety measures for the children on the Playgrounds. The removal or mutilation of such directing signs, is a flagrant abuse prompted by thoughtlessness and selfishness on the part of many. The Commissioners are fully cognizant of the justifiable criticisms that would be directed toward them, were there to be an accident. It is not the fear of criticism but of accident that prompts the regulations. They can but do not want to take steps to enforce them but will not hesitate if the restrictions continue to be ignored. Such a deviation, in the final analysis, rests with the driving public.

Model Airplanes

The Commissioners have denied the use of Playgrounds for the flying of motorized model airplanes.
Capitol Structures and Equipment Malicious mischief, inexcusable vandalism, and the abuse of uses of bath houses and other equipment are sources of constant irritation to those charged with the responsibilities for the upkeep of such facilities. The Department budget does not permit, and it might not be necessary for the Commissioners to require permanent policing of its domains.

We ask the co-operation of all.
Kenneth P. Cahillwell,
William S. Parker,
Frederick M. Ives, Jr., Park & Playground Commissioners

MR. CRAIGHWELL COVERS THE POLICE

Editor of the Star:

Some of the "prelers," or rookie policemen, that have recently been appointed to the police department have requested me to write a letter to the Winchester Star in regard to the Police Department. As I am the only living member of Chief William R. McIntosh's six patrolmen; namely, Dutton Brown, Morrison Ernst and Hargrove, and Special Policemen Hugh Donahue and Frederick Stevenson, I have felt that I am qualified to comply with the request. Alright, let's go! Thank heaven Hugh and Fred are still with us.

When I was a member of the Police Department it consisted of a Chief and six patrolmen. The Chief received 25 dollars a week.
The patrolmen received 17 dollars and fifty cents a week. Ex-Chief William Rogers retired last year and receives 50 dollars a week as long as he lives. We worked ten hours a day, seven days a week, no days off duty; and we purchased our own uniforms.

At the present time the Police Department consists of a Chief, one lieutenant, three sergeants, 27 patrolmen, four regular special policemen and several special cars to patrol our reservoirs, parks and cemeteries. The Chief receives $4,000 a year, the patrolmen receive $58.45 a week.

Chief William R. McIntosh never was cited or fetted. He never received flowers until he died on May 28, 1930. He now sleeps in Woburn Cemetery, Woburn.
May he rest in peace!

He and the late Sergeant Thomas McCauley, one of the most efficient officers that Winchester produced, were two of the best friends I ever had. The Chief was an excellent musician; in fact, he was a member of the famous Woburn Brass Band for a number of years.

Now, Mister Editor, when I was a member of the Police Force, if a person struck his tongue out at another person, he or she was liable to arrest. At the present time if you stick or expose your tongue to a doctor by immediately taxes you three bucks!

Consider Winchester, the Athens of America! Beautiful homes, excellent schools, marvelous playgrounds, churches, streets and reservoirs; and last, but not least, an excellent institution of learning; namely, the public library!

Prior to Chief McIntosh's appointment, or, in other words, in 1880, the town was so far stirred up about the selling of liquor that it appropriated $55,000 for suppression of the nuisance, and the Selectmen had to take some harsh criticism because they hesitated to spend it.

"We did not deem it advisable," they asserted in their defense, and yet there were two large bar-rooms on Swanton street one large bar-room in the Lyceum Building in the center of the town and "speak-easies" galore in the center and in the plains district. By the way several of the neighbors on the west side kept pigs, hogs, and sheep in their back yards. That was nothing to be alarmed about!
Of course the grunt, the squeal and the smell were rather offensive.

In the year 1901 when the Nation's heads were bowed in sorrow over the assassination of President William McKinley at the Buffalo Exposition I discovered three of America's noted criminals at work adjacent to Symmes vorner. Their pictures were in every magazine's gallery in the United States of America.

Zanoni Richardson. He was the chief of police. Charles H.
Dupece was the second, J. Winslow Richardson, ex-postmaster was the third. Chief William McIntosh was the fourth. William Rogers was the fifth and the present popular Chief Charles J. Harrold, the sixth.

Sergeant Cassidy, Sgt. Farrell, Sgt. Derro, the present chief and his father, the late Lieutenant John A. Harrold, ex-chief William Rogers, the late Thomas McCauley, a sergeant, the late Sgt. "Albie" Mullen, the late Sgt. James P.
Hargrove, the late Sgt. John H.
Nounan, the late Sgt. James P.
Donahue, the late James V. O'Connell, the late Daniel P. Kelley and the present Lieutenant Edward O'Connell were all trained under the watchful eye of the late gallant Chief of Police William R.
McIntosh.

I was connected with the Board of Health for forty years. I now am the "walking man," admiring the "new look."

Thanking you, Mister Editor, for the above space,
Very truly yours,
Patrick H. Craighwell

PLAYGROUNDS OPEN MONDAY

The Winchester playgrounds will open their 1948 season on next Monday with the same full program that proved so popular with the youngsters last summer. Ginn Field will function with complete equipment this summer in the way of swings, a slide, and a sand box for the young children. This field had been opened last year as an experiment and even without full equipment it proved to be a great success in meeting the needs of the people of that section.

In addition to the swings and slides, facilities and equipment are available at each field for such games as volleyball, basketball, horseback, kickball, softball, paddle tennis, basketball, and baseball.

The Playground Baseball League will operate for the three different age groups at each field, the softball and kickball leagues for the girls, and the softball league for the younger boys. The very popular handcraft program will be sponsored again at each field under the general supervision of Marjorie Mahoney and dozens of poolholders, table scarves, lanyards, beaded travels, ring dolls, and other articles of juvenile interest will undoubtedly be made by the busy youngsters.

The instructors that will be on hand on Monday morning to start the youngsters off on a busy and profitable summer are Ann Corsello and John Stevenson at Longview Avenue, Marjorie Mahoney and Carol Morrow at Leonard Field, and Davidine Reeves and Frank Weidman at Ginn Field.

SOCIETY PLANS INSTALLATION

Beta Sigma Phi, international cultural and social sorority, will hold its formal installation for a new Winchester Chapter Tuesday evening, June 29, at the Masonic Hall. To date 21 local girls have pledged. Memberships will be limited to 25 girls in the chapter.

The initiation is scheduled for 8 o'clock and a social hour honoring the pledges is to follow.

For the ritual the table will be traditionally decorated with the sorority flower, the yellow rose.

Mrs. Dorothy K. Taylor, of Arlington Heights, field secretary of the international organization who is organizing the new chapter in Winchester, will conduct the ritual ceremony. She will be assisted by members of the Boston Omega chapter of which Miss Agnes Fitzgerald is president. Members of the Arlington chapter will also be in attendance.

Mrs. Fekays has announced she will see any girls, young business girls or young married women, interested in living chapter members at any time previous to the initiation meeting on Tuesday. She can be reached by telephone at Allington 5-8208-W.

Marjorie Meader Burns, better known to thousands of newspaper readers and radio listeners as Marjorie Mills, women's page editor of Ranglely, this town, was awarded an honorary Master of Arts degree at Colby College's 125th commencement exercises on Monday.

The citation to Mrs. Burns said,
"Through your radio hour and newspaper column you have won hosts of admirers who depend on you for information, encouragement and cheer."
Miss Mills, a native of Waterville, Me., attended Colby for two Kansas. She is the daughter of the late Ora A. Meader, who was a Waterville bank president and city

Boston and practiced in that city as a physician and surgeon until his retirement in 1945. He married chester. He also leaves a daughter, Miss Harriet Houghton of Boston.

During World War I Dr. Houghton was chairman of the Medical Examining Board of Massachusetts

Two new boats have been purchased by the Red Cross to further

TROOP 12 "PARENTS' NIGHT"

The first annual Parents' Night for Troop 12 of St. Mary's Church, newly formed this past fall, was held on Thursday evening June 17th at Knights of Columbus Hall, with an attendance of almost 100 relatives and friends of the Scouts.
A full program was presented on many phases of Scouting with signalling demonstrations, lifts and carries, knot tying tests, games, etc., emphasized. A sample meeting was conducted by Scoutmaster Doucette and Assistant Scoutmaster Fire with the Scouts performing in the various phases and the Committeemen talking briefly on the respective points of their Scouting duties as Committeemen. Fr. Suple spoke in a very inspiring manner and the Scouts were at their best and did a wonderful job. Even the parents got into the program with the Mothers, who had been placed into patrols on entering the hall, engaging in a "candle relay game" and the Dads taking part in a "map reading relay game" which provided lots of fun for the whole assembly. Mr. Sam Kinton conducted these games very smoothly.
It helped the Dads and Mothers to get acquainted with one another too.

Mr. Clarence Thompson, who has been affiliated with Scouting for practically 30 years, addressed the audience on "Scouting" and his remarks were brief and to the point and thoroughly enjoyed. Mr.
Thompson is Commissioner of the entire Fellsland Council. Mr.
George Thompson was present and assisted in the awards that were made, with the Scoutmasters, and Messrs. Casey, Washburn and Erhard assisting. He is Winchester Commissioner of Scouting and announced that Troop 12 had a score of 185 points out of a possible 200 in the review which each Troop has to undergo once per year. This is exceptionally good and all of the Scouts are to be commended. The awards were made with "enlightened ceremony" which was very impressive. Tenderfoot awards were made to Scouts John Barry and John Doherty, newly graduated from the Cub Scouts. Their rapid advance is due to the fine training that Cubbing gives to the Cub Scouts, in preparing them for Scouting.

A Second Class award was made to Scout Donald Cullen. Miniature Second Class awards were made to the Mothers of the Scouts who previously had attained their second class badges and to Mrs. Cullen.
The Scouts accompanied their Mothers to the table. These Scouts whose Mothers were so honored were Gendrow, McFeeley, Nite-myer, Gallagher, and Cullen. A Donnell Cullen was made to Scout Cullen in the form of a plaque signifying his good work in trying for and winning the Rotary Essay Contest on Scouting.
A framed photostatic copy of the letter from the Rotary announcing Don as winning, was presented to Mrs. Cullen so that she will have a permanent memento.

The current Patrol Contest upon which the points attained at this Parents' Night were added to, was won by the Flaming Arrow Patrol and they received the Honor Patrol Banner which they will retain until another Patrol wins it. Each member of this patrol received an individual award in the form of a Scout "By Prepared" banner or penman for each Scout's room, with the Scout insignia in Gold upon a blue background. There was ice cream and also "cakes" and chocolates. These refreshments were served by Scouts Thomas Gallagher and John Barry serving under Mr. Gendrow of the committee who had charge of these items and did such a good job.
Scout Rennie Gendrow proved a fine timer in his skill while Walter Barstow and John Barry were great in their roles too. Scout Joseph Weiss played "Nocturne" (Chopin) from memory and left little to be desired. Boh Horne, good friend of Troop 12 who starred as an "End Man" in the Minstrel Show of last Winter and sung so well favored the assembly with a few songs even doing a duet with Maureen Cullen that was fine.
Maureen and her sister Sheila did a duet with such beautiful applause. Sheila looked very smart in her new dress. Maureen sang a solo dedicated to all the Fathers present for Fathers' Day which made a great hit. She has a beautiful voice. Scouts present were: McFeeley, Coughlin, Cullen, J. Pearson, Doherty, Gendrow, Nitemyer, Gallagher, Barry, Connelly, Mawn, Barstow, Loftus, Thorne and Weiss. Hats off to Mr.
Weiss who cut short a business trip to the West Coast and together with Mrs. Weiss was present. The Scouts responsible for the most people present were John Barry with 3; Leo Coughlin
8; Don Cullen 7; and Rennie Gendrow and John Connolly tied with 5 each. Present for the Cub Committee were Mr. Philip Savage Chairman with Mr. Henry Barry and Mr. Frank Hurley. Present for the Don Mothers were Mrs. F.
Hurley, Mrs. Henry Barry, Mrs.
H. Gendrow and Mrs. V. F. Erhard. Cub present were R. Pearson, Laurie Erhard, Francis Hurley, and Tommy Morrissey. It was stressed several times at the affair how much we need the support of the parents at home to help the scout to advance and not hold his patrol back. The Scouts and Parents who did not come are just the ones to whom this applies.
Only with the Parents supervising at home will the Scouts get the full meaning of Scouting with its vocational opportunities, leadership, and character training. We venture to say that next year's Parents' Night will be overcrowned, and for those fine parents who stood solidly behind their sons at this first Parents' Night, the Scouts and Committee want to thank you most heartily.

Col. Edward Atkinson, U.S.A. retired, and Mrs. Atkinson, have been spending the week in Winchester with Prof. and Mrs. Newell C. Page of Maxwell road. Their home is in Virginia.

MISS RICHARDSON - MISS WOODWARD WON AT COUNTRY CLUB

Cynthia Richardson of Highland and Ruth Woodward of Fall River had a gross 78 to win the 18th annual Women's Golf Association Townsend Cup competition Wed-quality of play was good.

MEMBER-GUEST TOURNEY AT COUNTRY CLUB

Winchester Country Club will hold its annual Member-Guest golf tournament this week-end, commencing this afternoon and continuing through Saturday and Sunday. For many of the top golfers the local tourney will serve as a tuneup for the State Open which opens next Tuesday at Oak Hill.
The cream of the golfers here abouts is expected to participate in the Member-Guest thing, which is in a way a halldover from the old pre-war Winchester Four-Ball.
This popular tourney languished through the war and was not revived in '46, but last year it was dusted off with a new angle, the member-guest hook-up and returned to the MGA schedule. Everyone liked it last year and a big field is expected this week-end.

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"There sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: the same heard Paul speak; who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, said unto him, Stand up on thy feet. And he leaped and walked" (Acts 14:8-10). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Anciently these apostles, who were Jesus' students, as well as Paul who was not one of his students, healed the sick and reformed the sinner by their religion. Hence the mistake which allows words, rather than actions, to follow such examples" (p. 341).

WELLESLEY CLUB PRESENTS WINCHESTER MORNINGS OF DIVERSION

It is with great pride that the Wellesley Club, through Mrs. Arthur T. Rodge, the president, announces for the coming year a series of morning meetings. A new departure for the club, these "Winchester Mornings of Diversion" will bring together Wellesley women and their friends on three Fridays in the fall. They will hear speakers and artists especially chosen to interest a Winchester audience. Variety is the keynote of this series of programs and the three mornings represent quite different fields.

The Wellesley Club will bring to Winchester David Barnett, pianist, who will present "Concert With Comments" and Eleanor Manning O'Connor, Boston architect and consultant on decorating. Jerome Seymour Bruner will speak on propaganda and studies of public opinion.

The meetings will be held at the Music Hall on Beacon street at ten o'clock on October 1, October 22, and on a morning early in November.

Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard heads the committee in charge, assisted by Mrs. Paul R. Leverette, ticket chairman, Mrs. Rogle, Mrs. Thomas M. Downes, Winchester chairman of the current Wellesley appeal for funds, and Mrs. Wayne E. Davis.

The Winchester Mornings of Diversion will benefit the Wellesley College 75th Anniversary Fund. Alumnae and friends of the College are working to raise $7,500,000 by 1950 for scholarships, faculty salaries, a dormitory, and a new library.

The Winchester Wellesley Club is particularly happy to present David Barnett, well known concert pianist and composer, for he is a member of the Wellesley College family. Mr. Barnett is director of music at the Thomas School in Connecticut and instructor in advanced piano at the New England Conservatory of Music. He has appeared in recitals at Town Hall and Carnegie Hall in New York and has been soloist with the Paris, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Manhattan, and Newark Symphony orchestras. Mr. Barnett is the author of "Music Without Mystery" which deals with education and has written two non-technical books, "Living With Music" and "They Shall Have Music" which are of value to the average listener in appreciating good music.

Amherst and Eleanor Manning O'Connor, architect, who will speak on October 22. She is versatile, charming and interesting, with practical ideas for all who have houses. Mrs. O'Connor is a member of the American Institute of Architects. She is a special lecturer at Simmons College, at the Garland School, and at the Chamberlain School. Mrs. O'Connor is particularly well known for her work with a group of other prominent architects on the Old Harbor Village in South Boston and for her activities as chairman of the Housing Committee of the Massachusetts Civic League.

Dr. Bruner, who has done graduate work at Duke University and holds a Harvard Ph.D., is the author of "Mandate from the People". During the war he analyzed foreign propaganda broadcasts for the Federal Communications Commission, tested public opinion on war issues, and did field work overseas in England and France for the Office of War Information.

Mr. Bert Lewis, representing the Whiting Milk Company, showed us an interesting moving picture at our regular meeting yesterday. It was entitled "Let's Go Vacationing" and showed many familiar scenes from Rockport to Nantucket.

Many visiting Rotarians were present, including a group of six from the Woburn Club led by their president, Everett Bixby. Our own attendance was very good and in May our Club's attendance was eighth from the top. Let's keep up this good work!

SQUARE DANCE ROUNDS OUT CLUB WEEK END

The feature attraction of the past busy week end at the Club was the Box Party and Square Dance held on Saturday evening. Even the weather was in favor of this wing-ding because late in the afternoon it started to clear, and before the evening was over there was square dancing out in the yard under a full, round moon.

Why they call "Box" Parties we'll never know, because the lunches that were consumed prior to dancing were brought in everything from baskets to buckets. Nevertheless, they were thoroughly enjoyed by one and all, with plenty of swapping of sweets and such from table to table.

The band Chairman John Powers corralled for the dancing was really terrific. Their "caller" knew every dance from "Nellie Bly" to "Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight" and he really kept everyone huffing and puffing to the evening's end. Strenuous as Square Dancing is, there were but a few minor casualties, and even they were still on hand when the final do-se-do was done.

There's another Ladies Bridge Party next Wednesday afternoon, June 30th at 2:00 p. m. It promises to be even bigger and better than the last successful bridge battle. Better keep that date open.

Medford Wallage, Winchester. Our stalwart Snipe skippers lost the first leg on the Inter-Club Trophy last Sunday afternoon being soundly subdued by Medford's capable Comet sailors. It was Snipes against Comets and with the exception of Mel Moller (the hottest pilot in the Winchester Fleet at the moment) who finished first, the rest of our heroes were wallowing in the wake of most of the Comets.

Sunday morning's point score race was called off because there wasn't enough wind to fluff a feather, and Saturday afternoon's Handicap Race was washed out. However, a few of the boys engaged in a fun race, with Mel Moller winning. Daw Blamire's char-a-laine challenger second, and Billy Cusack's Lady Luck third.

A very popular fourth of July weekend clam bake - steamed clams, broth, broiled live lobster, and all the fixings, is scheduled for 5:30 Monday, July 5, at the Club, rain or shine.

WINCHESTER BOYS PLACED IN NEW ENGLANDS

Two of Winchester's three track men in the New England Inter-scholastic Championship meet at Exeter Academy last Saturday placed in their events. Don Berridge finishing fourth in the 220 yard dash and Harry Easton placing fourth in the 120 yard high hurdles. Captain Ben Coe failed to place in a high jump that went over six feet, despite weather conditions.

Heavy rain made running conditions terrible, the track being clear water from pole to pole in places. In view of this the hurdles time of 16.1s and the time for the 220, 22.5s, were good. The 220 time was a new record for the event.

Easton finished third in his heat, won by Dionisio of South Boston, who was second in the final, won by Lawrence Mann of East Providence.

Berridge was second in his heat of the 220, won by Nawn of St. John's Prep, Danvers. Ray Alford of Fitchburg won the final with Nawn second.

Rhode Island won the meet with 70 points. Massachusetts, with reversal of its best performance missing, finished second with 64½ points.

WINCHESTER BOY AND GIRL HOME FROM CANADA

Miss Theodora Whitnough and her brother Jeremy are back in Winchester for the school vacations. Miss Theodora Whitnough has spent the last six school years at the Bishop Strachan School in Toronto, Canada, and during her last year was Captain of Kappa Team, the winning team in Lacrosse, Swimming and Basketball, was runner-up to the Champion in the final game of the Tennis tournament and in addition won a general proficiency prize, as she has done in each of the past five years. She is entering Radcliffe College in the Fall.

Jeremy Whitnough has completed six years at Upper Canada College Preparatory School in Toronto, Canada. In his last year, he was Senior Boy, Form Representative, a member of the House Committee, Captain of the Soccer team, member of the first Hockey team and Vice-Captain of the Cricket Team. He won the bronze medal in the finals of the Boxing Tournament. In the Fall he is entering Upper Canada College, Toronto, Canada.

JUNIORS LOST LEGION OPENER

Strong Woburn Edged Locals 2-1

Woburn's veteran Junior Legion baseball team was hard pressed to return home with a 2-1 victory over Winchester's surprising juniors last Thursday evening after a nine inning ballgame on Leonard Field.

The game was a pitcher's battle with Winchester's slim Paul Roche opposing Woburn's veteran high school chucker, Ken Hill. Except for the first inning when he was pretty tight Roche held his own with the faster, more experienced Hill, and he might have pulled out with a tie had his team's base-running been a bit smarter.

Paul, himself, was somewhat to blame, when he tried to score all the way from second on a short over-throw to the plate, bringing out a city block; while in the first inning one of the two passes he issued was converted into a run.

The second Woburn tally was the result of some loose work in the field with a lead throw on a double play ball that let in a run.

Roche threw seven consecutive balls in walking the first two batters, face him, Ross and Brown. Paul then pulled himself together, fanning Curry and turning Garvey to rky to Reardon who forced Ross out third.

Conkley, however, came through with the first of his two hits to left, and when Amie's peg to the plate hit the runner, Brown was over, McManus fanned for the third out.

Conkley opened the 4th with a single to left, and McManus tapped an attempted sacrifice toward first. Roche slipped and fell attempting to field the ball and the blow went for a hit, both runners being safe.

McManus also tried to hunt, but popped up, and Murphy, coming in fast, caught the ball in front of the plate. Whirling, he tried to double Conkley at first but apparently choked when he noticed the second sacker was a bit slow in covering and threw past the bag. Conkley scoring all the way from first. Roche fanned Vene and Hill skied to lower.

Kenton battled for Corn to start Winchester's 8th and hit a dinky looper that landed between 3rd and short. Curry tried to field it, but messed it up, and was afflicted with an error. The shortstop couldn't have played the tip in time, and had Curry come up with the ball it would have been one for the luck though he made a great try.

Kenton stole and Roche walked. Hill wasn't able to get to Patterson's lunt in time and all hands were safe with none away.

Reardon rapped to Curry, whose throw to the plate was low and wide. Kenton scoring. Roche, under the impression that the ball had gotten away from the prove Woburn catcher, charged around third and tagged it for home.

where he was an easy out as Conkley picked himself up and tagged him at the plate. Daniels rapped to McManus who got the hesitant Patterson at the plate easily. Williams fanned for the third out.

The locals had the tying run on third in the 9th as Hill fanned pinch-hitter Cirurso. The summary:

	Woburn	Winchester
Ross, lf	3	0
Brown, 2b	3	0
Curry, 3b	3	1
Garvey, cf	2	0
Conkley, c	4	2
McManus, 1b	4	3
Reardon, rf	4	0
Vene, ss	4	0
Hill, p	2	0
Totals	30	27
Runs	2	1
Hits	10	8
Errors	0	1
Woburn	2	1
Winchester	1	2
Stolen bases: Curry, Reardon, Daniels, Garvey, 1st; Murphy, 2nd; Roche, 3rd; off Hill, 3; off Roche, 4. Struck out by Hill, 11; by Roche, 9. Double plays: Reardon to Murphy, Hill to pitcher; Roche to Murphy, Hill to pitcher. Umpire: McManis and Tolstee.

Notes

Quite a little ceremony before the game with Ralph Bonnell, donor of the good looking Legion uniforms, throwing out the first ball. Selectman "Vin" Farnsworth did the cutting with his colleague, "Ernie" Dade, at bat. "Mayor" Ken Pond, chairman of the Board, called the pitch, and fanned it high, for a ball. Dade smacked the next one high to left for fly to "Paulie" Amie.

Farnsworth is a "leftie" and had to wear his mit backwards. He refused to throw to second, though cordially invited to do so by the press.

Those Legion suits turn the local boys out well. They are blue gray with red letters and numbers and red stockings striped with white. On the left sleeve is a Ford emblem with the word Bonnell in small letters underneath.

The Woburn team also had good looking suits, though their blue combined with the gray isn't as lively as Winchester's earlier scheme. Smart and Akesson, Woburn Ford dealers, gave the tanners' suits and have their firm name on the backs of the Uniform shirts.

Wendell Mansfield and Prisella were at the game, being on their way through town to their summer home in Canton, Me. Wendell got a razz from Sgt. "Dukes" Farrell for tossing a ball into the field instead of "cutting it loose".

Col. Wile Grindle was on hand for the game in summer slacks and a camp stool, occupying a place of honor beside "Squire" Franklin on the hill behind the catcher.

"Chucker" Roche, father of Winchester's pitcher and one of the best outfielders in the college and semi-pro ranks "a few" years ago, sat out to the outfield before the game.

"Teece" Wulsh, one of Woburn's great all-time ball players, is handling the Woburn Juniors, with his brother, "Yander". The Tanners are a more experienced crowd than Winchester, with a season of Junior play under their belts. They are favorites to win their district crown this year with Lowell out.

Winchester wasn't at full strength for the game. Kenzie

Donaghey is still out with a cracked bone in his hand and Kenton wasn't ready after being shaken up in an auto accident last week. Their hitting would have helped the locals a lot.

Ted Bartlett has his Winchester team running on and off the field, which helps peg up a game and looks well. The boys will hustle for "Bart" or else.

"Bart's Missus" will have to pep up though. A foul fell within a few feet from where she was sitting with a group of gals and "Marge" never even tried to make the catch. Tut! Tut!

Those Legion stalwarts, Ken Hall and Harry Goodwin, were on hand, and Tom McKee passed the hat. Collect with a smile is Tom's motto.

Winchester is going to play Thursday nights and the 1st and 3rd Sundays at Leonard. Why not look them over. They put on a good show.

"Janie" Reardon made two good plays on the field, the first on that bounce to his left for a force out in the 1st and in the 6th he victimized McManus with a great somersault catch of his fly in short left.

McGRATH WON TITLE SWIM

Bob McGrath, ace of the Winchester Swimming Club, won the 100 meter freestyle event in the New England A.A.A.U. swimming meet held last Saturday afternoon at the Cape Codder Hotel outdoor pool in Falmouth.

The event was expected to be won by defending champion Joe Prata of Wanskuk Boys' Club, with whom Bob has had many a stirring duel, but Prata failed to place. Joe Michalezyk of the Pawtucket Boys' Club finishing second and Don Senia of Lynn, third.

Bob's winning time, 1m 4.6s, was slow, but conditions for racing were poor, the water being very cold while rain fell steadily throughout the meet. Some of the best swimmers in the New England ranks, competing, including Clara Lamore, of Olneyville Boys' Club Auxiliary, national A. A. U. champion; Jean and Joan Senior of Wanskuk, July Coter of Providence Central and Junma Berggren of Metropolitan.

Bob won his heat in time 2s slower than the final and in the trials also led Michalezyk home. He was the only Winchester swimmer to go to Falmouth, "Bumble".

Donaghey, leading girl swimmer who had expected to compete, being at the Red Cross aquatic school, Camp Kiwanis. Bob swam a front crawl and won by about three feet.

His next start will probably be July 5 at Anthony Beach, R. I., and he is hoping of course to show enough in these preliminary meets to make the New England team competing in the Olympic trials July 6, 10, 11 at Detroit.

Last Saturday, Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGrath of Highland avenue, who were observing their wedding anniversary, drove him to Falmouth and after seeing his winning performance kept him down on the Cape to celebrate the event.

SOROKIN FOR BACHELOR OF GOOD TIME DEGREE

Prof. Pitirim A. Sorokin, Harvard sociologist, thinks there may be room for a new kind of college degree, recommending the "Bachelor of Good Time" degree for those not interested in the serious study of arts and letters or science. Prof. Sorokin definitely believes a person should not be educated beyond his intellect or should expose himself to an education if there is no chance for learning to "take" it. He believes that orthodox education fails if it makes a person dissatisfied with his lot, and feels that one is apt to become frustrated if his education does not get him the high position in society that he supposes it will.

Prof. Sorokin believes there should be three kinds of universities. One would admit only the most capable applicants who would concentrate on deepening and increasing the country's wealth of knowledge. The second would be a technical institution where would be trained students capable of handling the technocratic or technological problems of modern society.

The third university would welcome any applicant who could afford to pay the tuition. Its student body, men and women, would be awarded, after four years of diversion, the degree of "Bachelor of Having a Good Time", with a diploma to frame and hang over the fireplace in the rumpus room.

The Winchester segment believes students who spend four years playing gin rummy, watching football games, etc., should have something to show for it.

Prof. Sorokin makes his unique suggestion for a new degree in an article in last Sunday's Boston Post. He discusses other topics such as the country's cultural level, the tendency to go for the lower grade of books and music, the neurotic trend in society that usually follows big wars and his solution to the mental and sociological disturbance so widespread today. He has faith in mankind, but believes "humanity cannot survive unless human beings learn to be creatively altruistic. Organizations like the League of Nations or the U. N. are not enough. Either we learn to be constructive and survive or we continue to be destructive, in which case we will perish."

ADAMS BELIEVES PEAK ENROLLMENT TO CONTINUE AT COLLEGE

Winchester Man, New Hampshire President, Sees Money Around for Several Years

Arthur Stanton Adams, new president of the University of New Hampshire and former provost of Cornell University, can see no sharp drop in college registrations with the conclusion of the government-financed G. I. educational program. President Adams' views are made public in an article in last Sunday's Boston Post and are of local interest because the educator is a Winchester boy, born and bred, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Adams of Mystic Avenue.

President Adams' college, the University of New Hampshire, is at capacity enrollment right now and its new head sees no chance of any immediate decline in the number of students. He sees money plentiful and likely to continue to be so, at least for several years. In his opinion, with money plentiful, parents will want to send their children to college and will continue to do so after the government stops paying the way of soldiers at college and their families.

President Adams believes no one should go to college to ensure a sound economic future, because hard times affect college graduates as they do every one. In his opinion "the purpose of a college education is to prepare the student to live a better life."

He likes the barracks at college not at all, but he liked the thought of denying G. I.'s admission because of lack of living quarters much less.

President Adams is the author of eight articles which have appeared in scientific magazines and also of two books, "The Development of Physical Thought" and "Fundamentals of Thermo-dynamics."

He is a former president of the Colorado-Wyoming Academy of Science. He is now assistant to the president of the Colorado School of Mines to become assistant dean of engineering at Cornell. This was in 1940, and after several months as acting dean, he became director of engineering, science and management in the Government's war training program at Cornell.

President Adams got back into uniform during World War II. Among his other important contributions to the war effort he set up and administered the Navy's V-12 program for training officers in colleges and universities. He rose to a four stripe and with the conclusion of actual hostilities became a leading figure in the planning of the Navy's post-war training program now in operation at leading colleges and universities. For this he was awarded the Legion of Honor decoration by the government.

Returning to Cornell at provost of the University, he also became head of the national housing committee of the American Council on Education. As such he got from the government surplus army and navy barracks to house approximately 300,000 ex-G. I. students and their families at colleges all over the country. He likes the barracks at college not at all, but he liked the thought of denying G. I.'s admission because of lack of living quarters much less.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS
ARTHUR STANTON ADAMS
EDUCATOR
Born July 1, 1886 at Winchester
Arthur Stanton Adams has earned unusual distinction as an educator, scientist and naval officer. The son of Charles Stanton and Grace Estelle (Newhall) Adams, he attended the U. S. Naval Academy, graduating and receiving the commission of ensign in 1918, after which he was assigned to active duty from 1918 to 1921.
Starting his civilian career in the latter year, Mr. Adams served as teacher in the Denver (Colorado) public schools until 1923, and next was associate principal of the Pitts School, Denver until 1925. This was followed by a period of graduate study at the University of California and the Colorado School of Mines, from which he respectively received the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Science in 1926 and 1927. From the latter year until 1940, he was a member of the faculty of the Colorado School of Mines, advancing from the position of instructor to that of professor of mechanics and assistant to the president.
Upon the emergency of the recent World War, Dr. Adams reentered the U. S. Navy, reaching the rank of captain in 1941, and during this service, he was officer in charge of the Naval Training School, Cornell University and served on the staff of the Bureau of Naval Personnel. In this connection, mention should be made of the fact that Legion of Merit was bestowed upon him in 1945.
Dr. Adams became provost of Cornell University in 1946, and in recognition of his achievements, honorary degrees have been awarded to him, during recent years, by Union College, Muhlenberg College, the University of the South, Stevens Institute of Technology, Hobart College and Roseland College, Polytechnic Institute. In addition, he is frequent contributor to the leading scientific journals, and is co-author of "The Development of Physical Thought, 1903 and 'Fundamentals of Thermodynamics,' 1945.

ARCHBISHOP CUSHING SPEAKS TO LOCAL PILGRIMS AT LA SALETTE SHRINE

Three busses and over a hundred private cars brought a large gathering from Woburn and Winchester to the National Shrine of Our Lady of LaSalette in Ipswich last Sunday, where all were greeted by an inspiring talk by His Excellency, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing. This was the second pilgrimage of the season at the Shrine, where there is being conducted a crusade of penance and prayer for the conversion of sinners and for peace.
The devotion began at three-thirty with a procession through the solemnary gardens, as the pilgrims sang hymns to the Mother of God and recited the Rosary. The Way of the Cross was followed along the trees leading to the Shrine. There, the Archbishop spoke for twenty minutes and gave dedication of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The theme of the Archbishop's sermon was the tone of tragedy that pervades the Commencement Day talks of these days. He said that we should not be sad, but rejoice in the fact that we have the power to be happy right within ourselves, for happiness lies in goodness, in being close to God. As His Excellency spoke, a little girl wandered to the front of the gathering. Finding herself noticed by so many people, she ran to her mother. "What a beautiful lesson for all of us," remarked the Archbishop. "Like her, we should all run to our Mother - Our Blessed Mothers."

Rev. Thomas F. Somers of St. Mary's Parish assisted the Archbishop as Deacon at Benediction, and Rev. Edmund C. Sliney, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Parish, also made the pilgrimage. There were about 100 in the local party.

FINGER PAINTING EXHIBIT SENT TO NORWAY

Parents and friends of the Children's Own School, Inc., as well as the pupils will be interested to learn that the finger paintings sent by the school to Oslo, Norway, have arrived safely. This exhibit of finger painting was sent at the request of the headmaster of Russelken School, one of Oslo's largest public schools. The exhibit remained pictures and designs done by the children from two years through six and also a number by their teacher, Miss Josephine Durrill. Miss Gove received a letter from Oslo two weeks ago, saying "It is simply wonderful the things both Miss Durrill and your pupils have made with finger paint. We are fascinated by the pictures, all of us here and so are other people who have seen them, for instance, Mr. Kvalheim headmaster of the Russelken School. The pictures are now remaining at the State School of Arts and Crafts (Statens Kunst-og Hantverkskole), where the director of the school, Mr. Prytz, is taking care of them and will make a little preliminary show of them for some of our

THE WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

The Annual Meeting held June 15 at the home of the President, Mrs. Samuel E. Kirkwood, on Swan road marked the close of a busy year. Prior to the business of the day, guests assembled on the attractive lawn terrace for a box lunch, with coffee and dessert being served by Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee and her committee.
The annual report of the secretary showed a busy and interesting season and reviewed the programs and achievements of the Club for the past year.
Mrs. Donald Crawford, Program Chairman, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Austin W. Fisher, whose subject was "Organic Gardening". Mr. Fisher referred to himself as an amateur in the approach to this type of gardening but was most enthusiastic and emphatic about the splendid results achieved in his own garden. He has been able to prove conclusively that organic gardening methods bring results in better quality and quantity. He gave directions for making a compost pile and urged us to use this for nothing purposes. It was an interesting and instructive talk based on sound reasoning.
Mrs. Kirkwood, retiring President, introduced Mrs. Harold Twombly, the incoming President, who addressed a few words to the assembled members.
Following is a list of the newly elected officers and chairmen for 1948-1949:
